Whitehall, January 18, 1864.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto the Reverend Francis Jeune, D.C.L., the Deanery of Her Majesty's Cathedral Church of Lincoln, void by the death of Thomas Garnier, B.C.L.

War Office, January 16, 1864.

THE Queen has been graciously pleased to signify Her intention to confer the decoration of the Victoria Cross on the under-mentioned Officer and Non-Commissioned Officer of Her Majesty's Army, whose claims to the same have been submitted for Her Majesty's approval, on account of Acts of Bravery performed by them in New Zealand, as recorded against their names; viz:

Regiment.	Rank and Name.	Act of Bravery for which recommended.
65th Regiment ...	Colour-Serjeant (now Ensign) Edward MacKenna Date of Act of Bravery, September 7th, 1863	For gallant conduct at the engagement near Cameron-town, New Zealand, on the 7th of September, 1863, after both his officers, Captain Swift and Lieutenant Butler, had been shot, in charging through the position of an enemy heavily outnumbering him, and drawing off his small force, consisting of two serjeants, one bugler, and thirty-five men, through a broken and rugged country, with the loss of but one man killed, and another missing. Lieutenant-General Cameron, C.B., Commanding Her Majesty's Forces in that colony, reports that, in Colour-Serjeant MacKenna, the detachment found a Commander whose coolness, intrepidity, and judgment, justified the confidence placed in him by the soldiers brought so suddenly under his command.
65th Regiment ...	No. 261 Lance-Corporal John Ryan Date of Act of Bravery, September 7th, 1863	For gallant conduct at the engagement near Cameron-town above referred to. This Non-Commissioned Officer, with Privates Bulford and Talbot, of the same Regiment, who have been recommended for the Medal for distinguished conduct in the Field, for their behaviour on the same occasion, removed the body of the late Captain Swift from the Field of Action, after he had been mortally wounded, and remained with it all night in a bush surrounded by the enemy.
