LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1858.

HOOLE, CHESHIRE.

WHEREAS notice, in writing, was duly given to me, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that the Local Government Act,

1858, has been adopted by the township of Hoole in the county of Chester; and whereas appeal has been duly made to me, under the provisions of the said Act, by owners and ratepayers within the said township, against the said vote of adoption, and praying that certain portions of such township should be excluded from the operation of the said Act. And whereas inquiry has been duly directed by me into the circumstances of the case, and such inquiry has been made, and the result thereof reported to me. Now, therefore, I, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as aforesaid, do hereby, under the provisions of the said Act, issue the following Order, and do determine the questions arising on such appeal as follows:—

That though the population of the said township of Hoole is less than 3,000 according to the last census, yet, from special circumstances, it is expedient that the Local Government Act, 1858, should be adopted by so much of the aforesaid township as is comprised within the following boundaries, viz., the boundary of the said Local Government Act district on the north to be the township boundary as far as the point where it meets the lane leading to Upton, opposite Hoole Hall, thence along the east side of the said lane, southward, to its junction with the Chester and Frodsham turnpike-road, thence along the north side of the said turnpike-road for a distance of 80 yards, thence crossing the said turnpike-road to Hoole Hall plantation, thence along the east side of the said plantation to and including the stables and outbuildings (excepting the barn) connected with Hoole Hall, and thence in a straight line to the point where the township boundary meets the high road leading to Guilden Sutton, thence following the said township boundary in a southerly and westerly direction to Flooker's Brook, thus completing the boundary.

And I do hereby further order, that the Local Government Act, 1858, do come into force within the hereinbefore described portion of the township of Hoole, from and after the 28th day of March, 1864.

Given under my hand this 23rd day of March, 1864.

(Signed) G. Grey.

NAVAL PRIZE MONEY.

Department of the Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset-House, March 17, 1864.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons interested therein, that preparations are now being made for the intended distribution of the tonnage and slave bounties of a cutter, name unknown, captured on the 4th August, 1862, by Her Majesty's ship Antelope.

Agents or other persons having any just and legal demand, unliquidated, against the said proceeds, are required to transmit the particulars of any such demand to the Registrar of the High Court of Admiralty, in order that the same may be examined, taxed, and allowed by that Officer, and paid under the sanction of the Judge of the said Court.

Agents and all other persons holding powers of attorney, prize orders, assignments, or other instruments, by virtue of which they may be legally entitled to claim the share belonging to any captor, are requested, with as little delay as possible, to transmit the same, accompanied by the usual documents, to the Prize Branch of the Department of the "Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset-House."

Due notice will be given, by future advertisements in the London Gazette, of the date proposed for the commencement of distribution; and, at the same time, the amount of an individual's share in the respective classes will be announced.

South Staffordshire Water.

(Alteration of Work in the Parishes of Saint Chad, Lichfield, and Longdon, in Staffordshire.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that it is intended in the Bill now pending in Parliament, under the name or short title of "The South Staffordshire Water Bill," to seek power to make an alteration in the situation of the works in the townships of Curborough and Elmhurst, in the parish of St. Chad, Lichfield, and in the parish of Longdon, in the county of Stafford, as shown on the plans deposited in respect of the said Bill in the month of November last. Such alteration of works will be wholly within the limits of lateral deviation delineated on the said deposited plans.

For the purposes of such alteration, it is intended to make the reservoir immediately above the mill called Seedy Mill, extending from such mill into the lands of Charles Forster, Esquire, to a distance of about 200 yards from the said mill on the south and west sides thereof, with an aqueduct or pipe to connect the reservoir with the aqueduct or pipe shown on the plans deposited in November, at or near the point where the occupation road to the said mill joins the public road from the city of Lichfield to King's Bromley, near Tewnall's-lane tollgate.

All the above substituted works, and the lands to be taken for the purposes thereof, will pass from, in, through, or into, or will be situate in the townships of Curborough and Elmhurst, in the parish of Saint Chad, Lichfield, in the county of Stafford, and in the parish of Longdon, in the same county.

Plans, sections, and books of reference of such alterations have been during the month of March, 1864, deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Stafford, at his office at Stafford, and with the Clerk of the Peace for the city and county of the city of Lichfield, at his office at Lichfield, and with the parish clerks of the respective parishes of Saint Chad, Lichfield, and Longdon, in the county of Stafford, at their respective residences.

Dated this 18th day of March, 1864,

Henry M. Wainwright, Dudley, Solicitor for the Bill.

Thaneyachella Moodelly, and George Scriven, in Henry Julius Brockman, Esq., the Official Assignee of the said Court. Date of Gazette containing notice, January 29, 1864.

Herefordshire to wit.

WHEREAS at the Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, held at the Shirehall, Hereford, in and for the said county, on the 4th day of January last past, a Provisional Order was made that the several townships, hamlets, and places of Aymestrey, Covenhope, Leinthall Earls, Nether Lye, Upper Lye, and Yatton, now separately maintaining their own highways, and into which the parish of Aymestrey, in the Wigmore Highway District, separately maintaining its own poor, is divided, and the townships, hamlets, and places of Brampton Brian, Pedwardine, and Boreford, now separately maintaining their own highways, and into which the parish of Brampton Brian, in the said Highway District, separately maintaining its own poor, is divided, and the townships, hamlets, and places of Leintwardine North, the Brakes, Kinton, Marlow and Wetmoor, the Jay and Heath, and Whitton and Tripleton, now separately maintaining their own highways, and into which the parish of Leintwardine North, separately maintaining its own poor, is divided, and the townships, hamlets, and places of Adforton, Stanway Peytoe, and the Grange, now separately maintaining their own highways, and into which the highway parish of Adforton, separately maintaining its own poor, is divided, and the townships, hamlets, and places of Walford and Letton and Newton, now separately maintaining their own highways, and into which the highway parish of Walford, separately maintaining its own poor, is divided, and the townships, hamlets, and places of Wigmore and Limebrook, now separately maintaining their own highways, and into which the parish of Wigmore, separately maintaining its own poor, is divided, and the townships, hamlets, and places of Lingen and Limebrook, now separately maintaining their own highways, and into which the parish of Lingen, separately maintaining its own poor, is divided, shall be respectively combined, in and with the said several parishes in which they are respectively situated, and that no separate Waywardens shall be elected for such several townships, hamlets, and places, and that such several parishes shall be respectively subject to the same liabilities in respect of all the highways within them, which were before maintained by the townships, hamlets, and places into which they were respectively divided, separately, as if all their several liabilities had attached to the whole parish, and that three Waywardens shall be elected for each of the parishes of Aymestrey and Leintwardine North, two Waywardens for the parish of Wigmore, and one Waywarden for the parish of Brampton Brian, one for Adforton, Stanway Paytoe, and the Grange, one for Walford, Letton, and Newton, and one for Lingen, as a whole.

Notice is hereby given, that at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, held in and for the said county of Hereford, at the Shirehall, Hereford, on Monday, the 14th day of March instant, the said Provisional Order was, by the Justices then and there assembled, confirmed by a Final Order, with the variations of adding Shirley to the township of Aymestrey and declaring there should be two Waywardens for Wigmore, with Limebrook, in that parish, and one Waywarden for Lingen with Limebrook in or belonging to that parish.

McCleave, Clerk of the Peace.

Shirehall, Hereford, 19th March, 1864.

In Chancery.

In the Matter of the Joint Stock Companies Winding-up Acts, 1848 and 1849, and the Joint Stock Companies Winding-up Amendment Act, 1857, and in the Matter of the State Fire Insurance Company.

BY direction of the Vice-Chancellor Sir William Page Wood, to whose Court the winding up of this Company is attached, notice is hereby given, that the said Judge purposes on Saturday, the 9th day of April next, at half past eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at his chambers, No. 11, New-square, Lincoln's-inn, Middlesex, to proceed to make a call on all the contributories of the said Company who have been settled on the list of contributories of the said Company; and that the said Judge purposes that such call shall be for twelve shillings per share. All persons interested are entitled to attend at such day, hour, and place, to offer objections to such call.—Dated this 23rd day of March, 1864.
