FRIDAY, MAY 19, 1865.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, March 31, 1865.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Birthday will be kept on Wednesday, the 24th of May next.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, April 5, 1865.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Saturday, the 20th of May next.

It is the Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at this Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, May 8, 1865.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Wednesday, the 7th of June next, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at this Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEES TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levees, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that a letter from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, stating it to be his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentation shall be made at the Levee, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at one o'clock.

SYDNEY,
Lord Chamberlain.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, May 19, 1865.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Royal Highness The Princess Helena will, by command of The Queen, hold a Drawing Room at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Tuesday, the 20th of June next, at two o'clock.

It is the Queen's pleasure that Presentations to Her Royal Highness at this Drawing Room shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

N.B. The Knights of the several Orders are to appear in their Collars at the Drawing Room, it being a Collar Day, the Anniversary of Her Majesty's Accession.

THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOM.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOM TO BE HELD, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY BY HER ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCESS HELENA, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Ladies, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing Room, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to The Princess.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Lady who proposes to be presented must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Drawing Room, a card with her name written thereon, and with the name of the Lady by whom she is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation, that no presentation can be made at a Drawing Room excepting by a Lady actually attending that Court, it is also necessary that a letter from the Lady who is to make the presentation, stating it to be her intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen, for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's Command, that no presentations shall be made at the Drawing Room, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Princess.

It is not expected that Gentlemen will present themselves at the Drawing Room, except in attendance upon the Ladies of their families.

The State apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at one o'clock.

SYDNEY,

Lord Chamberlain.

Foreign Office, May 18, 1865.

COPY of a Letter from Earl Russell to the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty:—

Foreign Office,

May 11, 1865.

MY LORDS,

I HAVE the honour to acquaint you, that, in the existing state of the civil war in America, and the uncertainty which may be felt as to its continuance, it appears to Her Majesty's Government that the time has arrived for ceasing to enforce so much of the orders, which, in pursuance of my letter of the 31st of January, 1862, were issued by the several departments of Her Majesty's Government, as empowered the authorities of any Port belonging to Her Majesty, either in the United Kingdom or in the Channel Islands, or in any of Her Majesty's colonies or foreign possessions or dependencies, to require any ship of war or privateer of either belligerent which might enter any port, roadstead, or waters belonging to Her Majesty, in order to obtain provisions or things necessary for the subsistence of her crew, or to effect repairs, to put to sea as soon as possible after the expiration of a period of twenty-four hours, without permitting her to take in supplies beyond what might be necessary for her immediate use; and not to suffer any such vessel as might have been allowed to remain within British waters for the purpose of repair to continue in any port, roadstead, or waters belonging to Her Majesty, for a longer period than twenty-four hours after her necessary repairs should have been completed; and also so much of the same orders as limited the quantity of coal and the period within which it might be obtained, to be embarked on board any such ship of war or privateer of either belligerent.

I have addressed a similar letter to the Secretaries of State for the Home, Colonial, War, and India Departments, and to the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

(Signed) RUSSELL.

NOTE.—A similar letter has been addressed to the Secretaries of State for the Home, Colonial, War, and India Departments, and to the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 18th day of May, 1865.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HER Majesty in Council was this day pleased, on a representation of the Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Council on Education, to appoint the Reverend David Thomas, Vicar of Dwygyfylchi, Carnarvonshire, M.A., to be one of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, by the Foreign Deserters' Act, 1852, it is provided that whenever it is made to appear to Her Majesty that due facilities are or will be given for recovering and apprehending seamen who desert from British merchant ships, in the territories of any foreign power, Her Majesty may by Order in Council, stating that such facilities are or will be given, declare that seamen, not being slaves, who desert from merchant ships belonging to a subject of such power when within Her Majesty's dominions, shall be liable to be apprehended and carried on board their respective ships, and may limit the operation of such Order, and may render the operation thereof subject to such conditions and qualifications (if any) as may be deemed expedient:

And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty, that due facilities will be given for recovering and apprehending seamen, not being Turkish subjects, who desert from British merchant ships in the territories of the Sublime Porte:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Her by the said Foreign Deserters' Act, 1852, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order and declare, and it is hereby ordered and declared, that from and after the publication hereof in the London Gazette, seamen not being slaves, and not being British subjects, who desert from merchant ships belonging to subjects of the Sublime Porte within Her Majesty's dominions, shall be liable to be apprehended and carried on board their respective ships; provided always, that if any such deserter has committed any crime in Her Majesty's dominions, he may be detained until he has been tried by a competent Court, and until his sentence (if any) has been fully carried into effect.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, the Secretary of State for the Colonies, and the Secretary of State for India in Council, are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, by "The Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1855," it is enacted that in any case in which any lighthouse, buoy, or beacon had been, or should be thereafter erected or placed on or near the coasts of any British possession, by or with the consent of the legislative authority of such possession, Her Majesty might, by Order in Council, fix such dues in respect thereof to be paid by the owner or master of every ship which passes the same, or derives benefit therefrom, as Her Majesty might deem reasonable:

And whereas a light-vessel has, by and with the consent of the legislative authority of the colony of Ceylon, been placed on the Little Basses Rock, in the said colony, and a light is already exhibited therein:

And whereas the several classes of ships following; that is to say:—

Every ship which in the same voyage by the southward of Ceylon shall cross a line drawn from the southernmost point of Ceylon to the north-westernmost point of the Island of Sumatra, and also a line from the southernmost point of Ceylon to Cape Gardafui, on the eastern coast of Africa, and vice versa:

Every ship which, in any voyage to or from any place in the Maldivé Islands, shall cross a line drawn from the southernmost point of Ceylon to the north-westernmost point of Sumatra:

Every ship which in any voyage from any port on the eastern coast of Africa, south of Cape Gardafui, or from any port in Madagascar, Bourbon, Mauritius, or any island adjacent to the same, including the Seychelles and the Chagos Islands, or in any voyage in which such ship shall have rounded the Cape of Good Hope eastward, shall cross a line drawn from the southernmost point of Ceylon to the southernmost point of the coast of Tenasserim, and shall, between the first day of April and the thirtieth day of September, both included, arrive at any port situate north of such line:

Every ship which having departed between the first day of October and the thirty-first day of March, both included, from any port situate to the northward of such light, and also to the westward of the 90th meridian of longitude east from Greenwich, in any voyage to any port on the eastern coast of Africa, south of Cape Gardafui, or to any port in Madagascar, Bourbon, Mauritius, or any island adjacent thereto, including the Seychelles and the Chagos Islands, or in any voyage in which such ship shall round the Cape of Good Hope westward, shall cross the latitude of the said light on the eastward side of the said light will pass the said light-vessel and will derive benefit therefrom:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers vested in Her by the said recited Act, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to direct that from and after the date of this present Order the dues in respect of the said light-vessel upon Little Basses Rock, to be paid for every such ship as aforesaid, except ships belonging to Her Majesty, her heirs and successors, shall be one penny per ton of the burthen of every such ship for every such voyage as aforesaid.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eleventh and twelfth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the eighth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eleventh and twelfth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation, for altering the boundaries of the chapelry district of Tansley, in the county of Derby, and in the diocese of Lichfield.

"Whereas by the authority of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the seventeenth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, and published in the London Gazette on the tenth day of July following, a part of the parish of Crich, in the said county and diocese, was assigned as a chapelry district to the consecrated church of the Holy Trinity, situate at Tansley, in the said parish, and was called 'The Chapelry District of Tansley.'

"And whereas it has been proposed to us, and it appears to us to be expedient, that the boundaries of the said chapelry district of Tansley should be altered and extended so as to include within the limits of such chapelry district certain portions of the adjacent parish of Matlock, in the county and diocese aforesaid, as hereinafter mentioned.

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of Lichfield, as bishop of the said diocese, and also as the patron, in right of his see, of the rectory of the said parish of Matlock, of the Reverend William Rylance Melville, the rector or incumbent of the said rectory, of the Reverend William Chawner, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Crich, and as such vicar the patron of the perpetual curacy of the chapelry district of Tansley aforesaid, and of the Reverend Melville Holmes, the incumbent of the said perpetual curacy (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent that in our opinion it would be expedient that the boundaries of the said chapelry district of Tansley should be altered and extended so as to include within the limits of such chapelry district all those portions of the adjacent parish of Matlock aforesaid which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, and which are delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto annexed, and are thereon coloured pink, and that the said portions of the parish of Matlock aforesaid so to be included within the limits of the said chapelry district should become and form part of such chapelry district.

"And we humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"Territory proposed to be added to the Chapelry District of Tansley :—

"All that portion of the parish of Matlock, in the county of Derby, and in the diocese of Lichfield, which is situate generally to the east of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing such parish from the parish of Ashover, in the same county and diocese, at a point in the middle of the turnpike-road leading from Chesterfield to Matlock; and extending thence, south-westward, along the middle of the said turnpike-road, as far as a point distant one hundred and one yards or thereabouts, southwest of the centre of Bentley Bridge, opposite to the middle of the north-western end of a certain road leading to Lumsdale; and extending thence, south-eastward, to and along the middle of the last-described road as far as a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'T. C. D., 1864, No. 1,' and placed on the western side of such road in the middle of the northern end of the fence dividing the close numbered 289 upon the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Matlock, and upon the map hereunto annexed, from the close numbered 311 upon the same maps; and extending thence, first westward, to such boundary stone, and then southward, along the middle of the said fence, and along the middle of the fences dividing the closes numbered respectively 290, 298, and 296 upon the said maps, from the closes numbered respectively 311 as aforesaid, 310, 300, and 299 upon the same maps, to a boundary stone inscribed 'T. C. D., 1864, No. 2,' and placed at the southern extremity of the fence dividing the close numbered 296, from the close numbered 299 as aforesaid, upon the northern side of the road leading from Matlock Bank to Lumsdale; and extending thence, first southward, to the middle of the last-described road, and then eastward, along the middle of the same road for a distance of forty-four yards or thereabouts, to a point opposite to the middle of the north-western end of a certain road leading to the farm-buildings called the Hurst; and extending thence, southward, to and along the middle of the last-described road as far as a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'T. C. D., 1864, No. 3,' and placed on the eastern side of such road at a point in the middle of the north-western end of the fence dividing the close numbered 371 upon the said maps, from the close numbered 370 upon the same maps; and extending thence, eastward, to such boundary stone, and continuing thence, mainly in the same direction, to and along the middle of the last-described fence, and along the middle of the fences dividing the closes numbered respectively 371 as aforesaid, 829, and 832 upon the said maps, from the closes and buildings numbered respectively 367, 366, 362, 361, and from the plantation numbered 359 upon the same maps, to a point in the middle of a certain footpath leading from Matlock Bank, through Lumsdale, to Matlock Cliff; and continuing thence, first eastward, and then southward, along the middle of the said footpath, to the boundary which divides the said parish of Matlock from the chapelry district of Tansley, in the county and diocese aforesaid, at a point on the eastern side of the road leading from Lumsdale to Matlock Cliff. And, also, all that further portion of the said parish of Matlock which is situate to the east of an imaginary line, commencing on the last-described boundary, dividing such parish from the chapelry district of Tansley as aforesaid, at the point where such boundary diverges eastward from the last-mentioned road, leading from Lumsdale to Matlock Cliff aforesaid; and extending thence, southward, along the eastern side of the same road to its junction with the turnpike-road leading from Tansley to Matlock; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the said turnpike-road for a distance of forty-four yards or thereabouts, to a point opposite to the middle of the fence dividing the occupation road numbered 1555 upon the said maps, from the closes numbered respectively 1560 and 1559 upon the same maps; and extending thence southward to and along the middle of the last-described fence, and along the middle of the fence dividing the close numbered 1556 upon the said maps, from the closes numbered respectively 1559 as aforesaid, 1558, and from the plantation numbered 1557 upon the same maps, to the junction of the last-described fence, with the fence dividing the close numbered 1556 as aforesaid, from the plantation numbered 1651 upon the same maps; and extending thence in a direction mainly south-westward along the middle of the last-described fence, and along the middle of the fences dividing the closes and plantations numbered respectively, 1548, 1547, 1546, 1527, 1526, 1523, 1522, 1518, 1517, 1995, 1994, 1988, 1987, 1985, and 1981, upon the said maps, from the closes and plantation numbered respectively 1653, 1654, 1655, 1661, 1662, 1663, 1665, 1666, 1993, 1992, 1989, and 1986, upon the same maps, to a point on the northern side of the road leading from Starkholmes to Riber, opposite to the middle of the north-western end of a certain road leading to Hearthstone; and extending thence south-eastward to and along the middle of the last-described road, as far as a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'T. C. D., 1864, No. 4,' and placed on the western side of such road, at the middle of the north-western end of the fence which divides the closes numbered respectively 1966 and 1956, upon the said maps, from the close numbered 1965, upon the same maps; and extending thence, first westward to such boundarystone and then south-eastward along the middle of the last-described fence and along the middle of the fences dividing the closes numbered respectively 1957 and 1958 upon the said maps, from the road numbered 2981, and from the closes numbered respectively 1963 and 1961 upon the same maps to a boundary stone inscribed 'T. C. D. 1864, No. 5,' and placed in the south-western corner of the said close numbered 1961, at the point where the fence dividing the close numbered 1958 from the close numbered 1961 as aforesaid, joins the fence dividing the closes numbered respectively 1959 and 1960 upon the said maps from the said close numbered 1961, and all which last-described portion of the parish of Matlock aforesaid is also situate generally to the north of another imaginary line commencing at the last-mentioned boundary-stone, placed at the point where the fence, dividing the close numbered 1958 from the close numbered 1961 aforesaid, joins the fence dividing the closes numbered respectively 1959 and 1960 from the close numbered 1961 as aforesaid; and extending thence, north-eastward, along the middle of the last-described fence, and along the middle of the fence dividing the said close numbered 1960 from the close and buildings numbered 1962 upon the said maps, to a point in the middle of the road leading from Castle Top to Hearthstone, opposite to the middle of the north-eastern end of the last-described fence; and extending thence, north-westward, along the middle of the last-described road, for a distance of twenty yards or thereabouts, to its junction with the road leading from Hearthstone past Littlemoor to Lea; and extending thence, first northward and then south-eastward, along the middle of the last-described road, to the boundary which divides the said parish of Matlock from the chapelry of De'hick and Lea, in the parish of Ashover, and in the county and diocese aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lichfield.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 18th day of May, 1865.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; and of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; duly prepared, and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the second day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; and of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district, for spiritual purposes, out of the parish of Long Benton, in the county of Northumberland and in the diocese of Durham.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said parish of Long Benton, hereinafter mentioned and described (such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship) should be constituted a separate district, for spiritual purposes, in the manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas by an indenture, bearing date the seventh day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and made or expressed to be made between the Reverend John Besly, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Long Benton, of the first part, the Master and Scholars of Balliol College, in Oxford, the patrons of the same vicarage, of the second part, the Right Reverend Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Durham, of the third part, and us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the fourth part (which indenture is intended to be enrolled in your Majesty's High Court of Chancery at Westminster), certain tithe commutation rent-charges, or portions of tithe commutation rent-charges, amounting in gross to the sum of twenty-four pounds and two shillings per annum, issuing, arising, and payable out or in respect of certain lands, tenements, and hereditaments situate within the said parish of Long Benton, and being portions of the tithe commutation rent-charges belonging to the said vicarage of the parish of Long Benton, have been granted and secured to the minister of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, so soon as such minister shall have been appointed and licensed thereto, and to his successors ministers thereof.

"And whereas, in order to further augmenting the permanent endowment of the said district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, a sum of two thousand and one hundred pounds Three pounds per centum Consolidated Bank Annuities has been contributed and transferred to our account and into our name in the books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, by the said Master and Scholars of Balliol College, in Oxford aforesaid; and we have in respect thereof undertaken to provide and pay, by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, to such minister as aforesaid, when duly licensed, in accordance with the provisions of the herein secondly mentioned Act, and to his successors, the yearly sum of sixty-three pounds.

“And whereas, in order to further augmenting the permanent endowment of the said district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, a sum of one thousand pounds sterling has been contributed and paid to our account at the Bank of England by Thomas Eustace Smith, of Gosforth House, in the said county of Northumberland, Esquire, and we have in respect thereof undertaken to provide and pay, by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, to such minister as aforesaid, when duly licensed, in accordance with the provisions of the herein secondly mentioned Act, and to his successors, the yearly sum of thirty-three pounds six shillings and eightpence.

“And whereas the said tithe commutation rents, the said sum of two thousand and one hundred pounds Three pounds per centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, and the said sum of one thousand pounds sterling, have been so granted, contributed, transferred, and paid as aforesaid, upon the understanding that we should pay out of the common fund created by the firstly herein named Act, to the minister for the time being of the said district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, when such minister shall have been duly licensed as before mentioned, the annual sum of thirty-three pounds six shillings and eightpence, and upon the further understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said district, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, should be assigned in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

“Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Durham (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose that all that part of the said parish of Long Benton which is described in the schedule hereunder written, and which is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district, for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named ‘The District of Killingworth.’

“And we further recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered to pay out of the common fund before referred to, to the minister, for the time being, of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed, according to the provisions of the herein secondly-mentioned Act, the sum of thirty-three pounds six shillings and eightpence in each and every year, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November; and that the first of such payments, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May, or the first day of November next, after the day of the date of the licence of such minister as aforesaid, and that in case a vacancy in the ministry of such district shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount next thereafter payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister succeeding to such district.

“And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, shall, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may, from time to time, be exercised by the vicar or incumbent, for the time being, of the vicarage of the said parish of Long Benton.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

“The District of Killingworth, being:—

“All that part of the parish of Long Benton, in the county of Northumberland, and in the diocese of Durham, which is situate mainly to the north-east of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing the said parish from the parochial chapelry of Cramlington, in the same county and diocese, at a point in the middle of the fence which forms the western boundary of the line of the North Eastern Railway; and extending thence, first southward and then south-eastward, along the middle of such fence as far as the point near the Killingworth station where the said line of railway is intersected by the road leading from Cramlington to Newcastle, called ‘Salter’s-lane,’ and extending thence, south-westward, along the middle of the said lane as far as a point (at or near to ‘Four Lanes Ends’) on the boundary which divides the township of Killingworth, in the said parish of Long Benton, from the township of Long Benton, in the same parish; and extending thence, in a direction generally south-eastward, along such township boundary as far as a boundary stone inscribed ‘K. D. 1865,’ and placed opposite to the middle of the south-western end of the fence dividing the close numbered 27 upon the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Long Benton, and upon the map hereunto annexed, from the close numbered 32 upon the same maps; and extending thence, north-eastward, to and along the middle of such fence to a point in the middle of the road leading from Long Benton to Earsdon, opposite to the middle of the north-eastern end of the said fence; and extending thence, north-eastward, along the middle of the said road for a distance of sixty yards, or thereabouts, to a point opposite to the middle of the north-western end of the fence dividing the close numbered 29 upon the said maps from a certain occupation road, and from the closes numbered respectively 31, 30, and 33, upon the same maps; and extending thence, south-eastward, to and along the middle of such fence to the boundary which divides the said parish of Long Benton from the district of Willington (sometime part of the parish of Wallsend), in the county and diocese aforesaid.”

AT the Court at Windsor, the 18th day of May, 1865.

PRESENT.

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; and of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the second day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; and of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parochial chapelry of Gosforth, in the parish of Saint Nicholas, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, in the county of the town of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, and in the diocese of Durham, and out of the parish of Long Benton, in the county of Northumberland, and in the said diocese of Durham.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular parts of the said parochial chapelry of Gosforth, and of the said parish of Long Benton (such parts not at present containing within their limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship) should be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes in the manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas by a deed poll bearing date the twenty-fourth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and being under the hand and seal of Thomas Eustace Smith, of Gosforth House, in the said county of Northumberland, Esquire, and under the common seal of us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, (which deed is intended to be enrolled in your Majesty's High Court of Chancery, at Westminster,) a clear rentcharge or annual sum of ninety pounds issuing and payable out of, and charged upon, certain lands, tenements, and hereditaments, situate and being at North Brunton, in the said parochial chapelry of Gosforth, has been granted and confirmed unto the minister of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted so soon as such minister shall have been appointed and licensed thereto, and to his successors, ministers thereof.

"And whereas by an indenture bearing date the seventh day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and made or expressed to be made between the Reverend John Besly, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Long Benton, of the first part, the Master and Scholars of Balliol College, in Oxford, the patrons of the same vicarage, of the second part, the Right Reverend Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Durham, of the third part, and us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the fourth part, (which indenture is intended to be enrolled in your Majesty's High Court of Chancery, at Westminster,) certain tithe commutation rentcharges or portions of tithe commutation rentcharges, amounting in gross to the sum of twenty pounds and two shillings per annum, issuing, arising, and payable out or in respect of certain lands, tenements, and hereditaments, situate within the said parish of Long Benton, and being portions of the tithe commutation rent charges belonging to the said vicarage of Long Benton, have been granted and secured to the minister of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, so soon as such ministers shall have been appointed and licensed thereto, and to his successors, ministers thereof.

"And whereas in order to further augmenting the permanent endowment of the said district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, the said Master and Scholars of Balliol College, in Oxford aforesaid, have contributed and paid to the credit of our account, at the Bank of England, a sum of three hundred and fifty pounds sterling, and we have in respect thereof agreed, and have undertaken to provide and pay by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, to the minister of the said district, when duly licensed, in accordance with the provisions of the herein secondly mentioned Act, and to his successors, the yearly sum of eleven pounds thirteen shillings and fourpence.

"And whereas the said annual sum of ninety pounds, the said tithe commutation rentcharges, and the said sum of three hundred and fifty pounds sterling have been so granted, contributed, and paid respectively as aforesaid, upon the understanding that we should appropriate out of the common fund created by the firstly herein-named Act the capital sum of one thousand pounds, as hereinafter mentioned, in further augmentation of the permanent endowment of the said district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, and for the benefit of the minister of the said district, when duly licensed, as before mentioned, and upon the further understanding that (such arrangement appearing to be us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said district, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, should be assigned in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Durham (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose that all those parts of the said parochial chapelry of Gosforth, and of the said parish of Long Benton, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, and which are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette, of any Order of your Majesty in Council, ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of North Gosforth.'

"And we further recommend and propose, that we may be authorised and empowered to appropriate out of the common fund before referred to, a capital sum of one thousand pounds, in aid of the endowment of the district so recommended to be constituted, and for the benefit of the minister thereof for the time being, when duly licensed, according to the provisions of the herein secondly mentioned Act, and that such capital sum, or any part thereof, may be paid or applied by us towards the purchase or acquisition, for the endowment of such district, of any land, tithe, or other hereditament, which may appear to us to be suitable for annexation thereto; and that in the meantime there shall be paid and allowed by us, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, to the minister for the time being of the said district, when duly licensed, as aforesaid, in respect of such capital sum, or such part thereof, as shall remain from time to time unapplied towards such purposes as aforesaid, the annual sum of thirty-three pounds six shillings and eightpence, or such a part thereof as shall bear the same proportion to the whole of such annual sum as the part of the said capital sum so remaining unapplied as aforesaid bears to the amount of the whole of such capital sum.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, shall, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by, the said Thomas Eustace Smith, his heirs and assigns, for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of North Gosforth, being:—

"All that part of the parochial chapelry of Gosforth, in the parish of Saint Nicholas, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, in the county of the town of Newcastle-upon-Tyne and in the diocese of Durham, and also all that part of the parish of Long Benton, in the county of Northumberland and in the said diocese of Durham, which are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing the said parish of Long Benton from the parochial chapelry of Cramlington, in the county of Northumberland and diocese of Durham aforesaid, at a point in the middle of the fence which forms the western boundary of the line of the North-Eastern Railway; and extending thence first southward and then south-eastward along the middle of such fence, as far as the point near the Killingworth station where the said line of railway is intersected by the road leading from Cramlington to Newcastle called 'Salter's-lane;' and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the said lane, for a distance of six furlongs and three-quarters of a furlong, or thereabouts, to a point opposite to the middle of the south-eastern end of the footpath which leads along the southern side of Gosforth Wood and along the south-western margin of Gosforth Lake to Gosforth Park; and extending thence north-westward to and along the middle of the said footpath, crossing the boundary which divides the parochial chapelry of Gosforth from the parish of Long Benton aforesaid, to a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'N.G.D., 1865, No. 1,' and placed on the northern side of the wall or fence forming the southern boundary of Gosforth Park aforesaid; and continuing thence, still north-westward and in a direct line, across the said park, for a distance of four furlongs and one-third of a furlong, or thereabouts, to a boundary stone inscribed 'N.G.D., 1865, No. 2,' and placed on the eastern side of the Great North-road, opposite to the middle of the eastern end of Brunton-lane; and continuing thence, still north-westward, to a point in the middle of the Great North-road aforesaid; and extending thence southward along the middle of the same road for a distance of half a mile, or thereabouts, to a point opposite to the middle of the eastern end of Black-lane; and extending thence north-westward to and along the middle of the last-named lane as far as the boundary dividing the township of North Gosforth, in the parochial chapelry of Gosforth aforesaid, from the township of East Brunton, in the same parochial chapelry; and extending thence, first south-eastward and then south-westward, along the said boundary to its junction with the boundary in the middle of the Ouse Burn which divides the said township of East Brunton from the township of Coxlodge in the same parochial chapelry; and extending thence north-westward along the last-described boundary, following thereby the course of the Ouse Burn, to the junction of such boundary with the boundary dividing the said township of East Brunton from the township of Fawdon in the same parochial chapelry; and extending thence westward along the last-described boundary, continuing thereby along the course of the Ouse Burn aforesaid, for a distance of eighty yards, or thereabouts, to a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'N.G.D., 1865, No. 3,' and placed on the northern bank of the said Ouse Burn at or near to its junction with a certain stream which flows from Brunton Low Plantation; and extending thence, in a direction generally north-westward, to and along the middle of such stream as far as a point opposite to the middle of the south-eastern end of a certain footpath leading past Brunton-row to Brunton-lane aforesaid; and extending thence, first westward and then northward, to and along the middle of the said footpath (passing to the east of Brunton-row) to the junction of such footpath with Brunton lane aforesaid; and extending thence, westward for a distance of three hundred yards, or thereabouts, along the middle of the said lane to a point near Middle Brunton, opposite to the middle of the southern end of the road and footpath which leads from Middle Brunton to Coach-lane; and extending thence, first northward to and along the middle of the said road and footpath, and then either westward or northward along the middle of the same road or footpath to its intersection on the southern side of Coach-lane by the boundary which divides the said parochial chapelry of Gosforth from the parish of Dinnington, in the county of Northumberland and diocese of Durham aforesaid; and extending thence, eastward for a distance of six hundred yards, or thereabouts, along the last-described boundary (following thereby the southern side of Coach-lane aforesaid), to the junction of such boundary with the boundary dividing the parish of Long Benton from the parish of Dinnington aforesaid; and extending thence, first northward, along the last-described boundary (crossing Coach-lane), and thence north-eastward, along the same boundary to its junction with the boundary dividing the said parish of Long Benton from the parish of Ponteland, in the county of Northumberland, and diocese of Durham aforesaid; and continuing thence, first north-eastward and then north-westward, along the last-described boundary to its junction with the boundary dividing the said parish of Long Benton from the parish of Stanington, in the same county and diocese; and extending thence, in a direction mainly north-eastward, along the last-described boundary (crossing the Great North road aforesaid, and following in part the southern side of Fisher-lane), to the junction of such boundary with the first-described boundary dividing the parish of Long Benton from the parochial chapelry of Cramlington; and extending thence, in a direction generally south-eastward, along the boundary last referred to as far as the point in the middle of the fence which forms the western boundary of the line of the North Eastern Railway where the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly mentioned Act, been transmitted to the incumbents and to the patrons of the parochial chapelry, and of the parish out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, and such incumbents and patrons have respectively signified their assent to such scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Durham.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the second day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church called 'Christ Church,' situate at Willaston, in the parish of Neston, in the county of Chester, and in the diocese of Chester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church called Christ Church, situate at Willaston aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of the said diocese of Chester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Neston, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned to the said church called Christ Church, situate at Willaston aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Willaston.'

"And, with the like consent of the said John, Bishop of the said diocese of Chester (testified as aforesaid), we further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Willaston, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Neston, in the county of Chester, and in the diocese of Chester, which is situate to the north-east of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing such parish from the parish of Burton, in the same county and diocese, at a point in the middle of the turnpike road leading from Chester to Thurston, at or near to Badger's Rake turnpike gate; and extending thence, north-westward, along the middle of the said turnpike road (following thereby in part the said boundary), as far as the intersection of such road near to Bowling Green by the boundary which divides the said parish of Neston from the parish of Heswell, in the same county and diocese."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chester.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the thirtieth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Ann, situate in the parish of Saint Mary the Virgin, Nottingham, in the county of the town of Nottingham, and in the diocese of Lincoln.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Ann, situate in the parish of Saint Mary the Virgin, Nottingham aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Saint Mary the Virgin, Nottingham, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned to the said church of Saint Ann, situate in such parish as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Ann, Nottingham.'

"And, with the like consent of the said John, Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln (testified as aforesaid), we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings, should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Ann, Nottingham, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Saint Mary the Virgin, Nottingham, in the county of the town of Nottingham, and in the diocese of Lincoln, wherein the present Incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is bounded on the south-west by the new parish of All Saints, Nottingham; by the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Nottingham; by the new parish of Saint Mark, Nottingham; and by the new parish of Saint Luke, Nottingham, all in the county of the town of Nottingham, and diocese of Lincoln aforesaid, and all which said part of the parish of Saint Mary the Virgin, Nottingham aforesaid, is bounded on the south-east by the parish of Sneinton, in the county of Nottingham, and in the said diocese of Lincoln; on the north-east by the parish of Gedling, in the same county and diocese; and upon the north-west by the particular district of Saint John Carrington, also in the same county and diocese."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lincoln.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 18th day of May, 1865.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the thirtieth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Edmund, situate in the parish of Saint Mary, Gateshead, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Saint Mary, Gateshead, of the new parish of Saint Alban, Heworth, in the county and diocese aforesaid, and of the parish of Saint John, Gateshead Fell, in the same county and diocese, which lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of the said parishes and new parish respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Saint Mary, Gateshead, of the said new parish of Saint Alban, Heworth, and of the said parish of Saint John, Gateshead Fell, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the church of Saint Edmund, situate in the parish of Saint Mary, Gateshead, as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Durham, as such Bishop, and also as the patron in right of his see of the rectory of the said parish of Saint Mary, Gateshead, and of the rectory of the said parish of Saint John, Gateshead Fell, and with the consent of the Reverend Matthew Plummer, the Incumbent of the perpetual curacy of the chapelry of Heworth, in the county and diocese aforesaid, and as such incumbent the patron of the perpetual curacy of the said new parish of Saint Alban, Heworth (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Saint Mary, Gateshead, of the said new parish of Saint Alban, Heworth, and of the said parish of Saint John, Gateshead Fell, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the church of Saint Edmund aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Edmund, Gateshead;' and that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of such consolidated chapelry, should belong to and be exercised by the Bishop of the said diocese of Durham for the time being.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Edmund, Gateshead, being:—

"All those several portions of the parish of Saint Mary, Gateshead, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham, and of the new parish of Saint Alban, Heworth, in the same county and diocese, and of the parish of Saint John, Gateshead Fell, in the same county and diocese, which are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Mary, Gateshead, from the chapelry of Heworth, in the parish of Jarrow, in the county and diocese aforesaid, at a point in the middle of the Sunderland-road at or near to the old Felling Turnpike-gate; and extending thence, south-westward, along the said boundary to its junction in Split-crow-lane with the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Mary, Gateshead, from the new parish of Saint Alban, Heworth aforesaid; and extending thence, first westward, and then north-westward, along the middle of the said lane to the boundary on the eastern side of the highroad leading from Wrekenton to Gateshead, which divides the said new parish of Saint Alban, Heworth, from the said parish of Saint John, Gateshead Fell; and extending thence, westward, in a direct line across the said highroad to the middle of the north-eastern end of Shipcote-lane; and extending thence, south-westward, along the middle of the same lane (crossing the boundary which divides the said parish of Saint John, Gateshead Fell, from the parish of Saint Mary, Gateshead aforesaid), to the junction of such lane at the Shipcote Turnpike-gate with the highroad leading from Durham to Gateshead; and extending thence, north-westward, along the middle of the last-described road as far as a point opposite to the middle of the southern end of High West-street; and continuing thence, still north-westward, to and along the middle of the last-named street, as far as the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Mary, Gateshead, from the new parish of The Holy Trinity, Gateshead, in the same county and diocese; and extending thence, north-eastward, along the last-described boundary, to its junction near the southern end of High-street, Gateshead, with the boundary which divides the same new parish from the parish of Saint John, Gateshead Fell aforesaid; and extending thence, south-eastward, along the last-described boundary, to its junction in the middle of the north-western end of the Sunderland-road aforesaid, with the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Mary, Gateshead, from the district of Saint James, Gateshead, sometime part of the same parish; and continuing thence, still south-eastward, along the last-described boundary, following thereby the middle of the Sunderland-road aforesaid, to the point on the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Mary, Gateshead, from the chapelry of Heworth as aforesaid, near the old Felling Turnpike-gate, where the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Durham.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 18th day of May, 1865.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirtieth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the prebend of Bedminster and Redcliffe, in the cathedral church of Salisbury, and now vested in us.

"Whereas, on the vacancy of the said prebend, which occurred on or about the seventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, all lands, tithes, and other hereditaments, theretofore belonging to the said prebend (except rights of patronage) became, by virtue of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, absolutely vested in us for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the lands, tithes, and hereditaments aforesaid, consist to a considerable extent of reversions expectant upon leases or grants for lives, and produce during the subsistence of such leases or grants only small annual revenues, and on that account, and in some instances on account of the character or situation of the property, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas, by an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, power is given to lessees holding under us, in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions or the purchase of the leasehold interests, to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas, with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tithes, and hereditaments, or of the proceeds thereof for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tithes, and hereditaments, or such parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest in such lands, tithes, and hereditaments, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time, to sell or dispose of and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the respective holders (if any), to be testified by their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said lands, tithes, and hereditaments heretofore belonging to the said prebend, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Salisbury.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the sixth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting an exchange of the patronage of certain benefices between the Bishop of Rochester and Horace James Smith, of Broxbourbury, in the county of Hertford, Esquire.

"Whereas the Right Reverend Joseph Cotton, Bishop of Rochester, is seized in fee, in right of his see, of the patronage of or perpetual right of nomination to the several benefices which are specified in the first part of the schedule hereto annexed.

"And whereas the said Horace James Smith is seized in fee of the patronage of or perpetual right of nomination to the several benefices which are specified in the second part of the said schedule.

"And whereas the said Joseph Cotton, Bishop of Rochester, and the said Horace James Smith, have signified to us their desire that the patronage of the said several benefices may be exchanged as hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas we have made due enquiry and calculation as to the circumstances of the proposed exchange and the relative values of the said benefices and patronage, and we do hereby certify to your Majesty that, after making all proper deductions and allowances, the values of the said benefices respectively are as set forth in the two parts of the schedule hereto annexed.

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the said Joseph Cotton, Bishop of Rochester, as patron in right of his see of the several benefices which are specified in the first part of the said schedule, and of the said Horace James Smith, as patron of the several benefices which are specified in the second part of the said schedule, in testimony whereof the said Joseph Cotton, Bishop of Rochester, and the said Horace James Smith, have respectively signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose, that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the patronage of or perpetual right of nomination to the said several benefices which are specified in the said first part of the schedule hereto annexed, shall be assigned and transferred from the said Joseph Cotton, Bishop of Rochester, and his successors, Bishops of Rochester, and shall become and be vested in, and may from time to time be exercised by, the said Horace James Smith, his heirs and assigns, for ever; and that in exchange for the same, the patronage of or perpetual right of nomination to the benefices which are specified in the second part of the said schedule hereto annexed, shall, upon and from the said lastly-mentioned day, be assigned and transferred from the said Horace James Smith and his heirs and assigns, and shall in like manner become and be vested in, and may from time to time be exercised by, the said Joseph Cotton, Bishop of Rochester, and his successors, Bishops of Rochester, for ever:

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the sixth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint John, situate at Bowling, in the parish of Saint Peter, Bradford, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint John, situate at Bowling aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Robert, Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Saint Peter, Bradford, which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned to the said church of Saint John, situate at Bowling aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint John, Bowling.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Robert, Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon (testified as aforesaid), we further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that so long as the Reverend John Burnet, the present vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Saint Peter, Bradford, shall remain such vicar or incumbent, all the fees which may be received in respect of the publication of banns of matrimony and of the solemnization or performance of marriages in the said church of Saint John, situate at Bowling aforesaid, shall be paid by the said minister thereof to the said John Burnet.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet."

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the sixth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Saviour, situate in the parish of Saint Mary the Virgin, Nottingham, in the county of the town of Nottingham, and in the diocese of Lincoln.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Saviour, situate in the parish of Saint Mary the Virgin, Nottingham aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Saint Mary the Virgin, Nottingham, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned to the said church of Saint Saviour, situate in such parish as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Saviour, Nottingham.'

"And, with the like consent of the said John, Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln (testified as aforesaid), we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings, should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Saviour, Nottingham, being :—

"All that part of the parish of Saint Mary the Virgin, Nottingham, in the county of the town of Nottingham, and in the diocese of Lincoln, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is situate generally to the south of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing such parish from the extra-parochial territory called or known as the Park, at a point on the northern bank of the Nottingham Canal; and extending thence north-eastward along the said boundary (following thereby, for the most part, the northern bank of the canal aforesaid) for a distance of seven hundred yards, or thereabouts, to the point about thirty yards to the west of the centre of Wilford-road-bridge, where the said boundary joins the boundary which divides the said parish from the new parish of Saint John the Baptist, Nottingham, in the county and diocese aforesaid; and extending thence, first eastward, along the last-described boundary to the centre of the said bridge, and then south-westward, and then again eastward, and then northward along the same boundary to its junction in the centre of the bridge which carries the London-road over the Nottingham Canal aforesaid with the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Mary the Virgin, Nottingham, from the new parish of Saint Luke, Nottingham, in the same county and diocese; and extending thence north-eastward along the last-described boundary to its junction with the boundary which divides the said parish of Saint Mary the Virgin, Nottingham, from the parish of Smeinton, in the county of Nottingham, and in the said diocese of Lincoln."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lincoln.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter thirty-nine, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the sixth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and thirteen; and of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty's reign, chapter thirty-nine, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme, for substituting a money payment to the prebendary of the prebend of Putson Major, in the cathedral church of Hereford, for the property belonging to such prebend.

"Whereas, by and under the provisions of the said Acts, the whole of the separate estates and endowments belonging to the said prebend of Putson Major (excepting any right of ecclesiastical patronage) will, upon the first avoidance of the said prebend, become absolutely vested in us for the purposes of the said Acts, and the chief of such purposes is, that of making better provision for the cure of souls in parishes where such assistance is most required.

"And whereas it was by the same Acts enacted that by the authority therein provided, and for the purpose of fully carrying into effect any of the provisions thereof, any arrangement might from time to time be made, with the consent in writing under the hand of any prebendary of any cathedral church for the sale, transfer, or exchange of any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments belonging to such prebendary, or for the purchase of other lands, tithes, or other hereditaments in lieu thereof, or for substituting in any case any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments for any money payment, or any money payment for any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments.

"And whereas it has been agreed between us and the Reverend Harry Lee, the present prebendary of the said prebend, that with a view to sooner carrying into effect the purpose of the said recited Acts hereinbefore particularly mentioned, the following arrangement should be recommended by us to your Majesty in Council.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Harry Lee (testified by his having signed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose that immediately upon the gazetting of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, all lands, tithes, hereditaments and emoluments whatsoever (except any right of ecclesiastical patronage) now belonging to the said Harry Lee as such prebendary as aforesaid, or to or in which he has, or ought to have any estate, right, title or interest, as such prebendary, shall, together with all such estate, right, title, and interest therein (except as aforesaid) be, and be held to be for the consideration hereinafter mentioned, transferred and conveyed by and from the said Harry Lee to us, and shall then and thereupon become and be absolutely vested in us for the purposes of the said Acts, subject only to any legally subsisting lease or leases thereof, or of any part or parts thereof, and that we shall upon such gazetting as aforesaid be entitled to the rents, profits, and proceeds of the said lands, tithes, hereditaments and emoluments, as from the twenty-fifth day of December last; and that in consideration of and for such transfer and conveyance there shall be paid by us to the said Harry Lee the sum of two thousand two hundred pounds, with interest thereon at the rate of four pounds per centum per annum from the said twenty-fifth day of December last; provided that no renewal of any lease nor any new lease of the said lands, tithes, or other hereditaments, or of any part thereof, shall, since the eleventh day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, have been or shall be granted or made by the said Harry Lee.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Hereford.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the sixth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint George, situate at Campden Hill, in the district parish of Saint John, Notting Hill, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said district parish of Saint John, Notting Hill, and of the parish of Saint Mary Abbots, Kensington, in the county and diocese aforesaid, which lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such district parish and parish respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said district parish of Saint John, Notting Hill, and of the said parish of Saint Mary Abbots, Kensington, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint George, situate at Campden Hill aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honorable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the said diocese of London, as such bishop, and also as the patron in right of his see both of the perpetual curacy of the said district parish of Saint John, Notting Hill, and of the vicarage of the said parish of Saint Mary Abbots, Kensington (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said district parish of Saint John, Notting Hill, and of the said parish of Saint Mary Abbots, Kensington, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint George, situate at Campden Hill aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint George, Campden Hill'; and that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of such consolidated chapelry should belong to and be exercised by John Bennett, of number 50, Westbourne-park-villas, in the said county of Middlesex, Esquire, his heirs and assigns.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint George, Campden Hill, being:—

"All those several portions of the district parish of Saint John, Notting Hill, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, and of the parish of Saint Mary Abbots, Kensington, in the same county and diocese, which are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing the said district parish of Saint John, Notting Hill, from the new parish of Saint Peter, Notting Hill, in the same county and diocese, at a point in the middle of the High-street, Notting Hill, near the south-eastern end of Kensington-park-road; and extending thence eastward along the said boundary, following thereby the middle of High-street aforesaid, to the junction of such boundary, with the boundary dividing the said new parish of Saint Peter, Notting Hill, from the parish of Saint Mary Abbots, Kensington aforesaid; and continuing thence still eastward along the last-described boundary, still following the middle of High-street aforesaid, as far as the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Mary Abbots, Kensington, from the new parish of Saint Matthew, Bayswater, in the same county and diocese; and extending thence southward along the last-described boundary, following thereby the middle of the road called Kensington-palace-gardens, to the junction of such boundary with the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Mary Abbots, Kensington, from the new parish of All Saints, Knightsbridge, in the same county and diocese; and extending thence westward along the last-described boundary, to the point near the middle of the road fronting the mews belonging to the houses in Kensington-palace-gardens, where such boundary diverges to the south; and extending thence westward to and along the middle of the wall which forms the northern boundary of the northernmost house in Palace-gardens-terrace, to its western extremity; and continuing thence, still westward, to a point in the middle of the road fronting Palace-gardens-terrace aforesaid, opposite to the middle of the western end of the said boundary-wall; and extending thence, southward, along the middle of the last-described road, for a distance of thirty-nine yards or thereabouts, to a point opposite to the middle of the eastern end of the road fronting Courtland-terrace; and extending thence, westward, to and along the middle of the last-described road, to its junction with the road fronting Brunswick-gardens and Brunswick-terrace; and extending thence, southward, along the middle of the last-described road, to its junction with the road leading, westward, through Berkeley-gardens; and extending thence, westward, along the middle of the last-described road, to its junction with Church-lane; and continuing thence, still westward, across such lane, to and along the middle of the road leading through Bedford-gardens, to its junction with Campden-passage; and extending thence, northward, along the middle of such passage, to the boundary dividing the district parish of Saint John, Notting Hill, from the parish of Saint Mary Abbots, Kensington aforesaid; and continuing thence, first northward and then south-westward, along the last-described boundary, as far as a point in the middle of Lord Holland's-lane, near Aubrey House; and extending thence, south-eastward, along the middle of such lane, for a distance of forty-six yards or thereabouts, to a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'C. H., St. G. C. C., 1865, No. 1,' and placed on the western side of the said lane; and extending thence, south-westward, to the said boundary stone; and continuing thence, still south-westward, in a direct line, across the park now attached to Holland House, to another boundary stone inscribed 'C. H., St. G. C. C., 1865, No. 2,' and placed at or near to the north-eastern end of the partition wall which forms the southern boundary of the house on the eastern side of Addison-road, which is called Wilton Lodge; and continuing thence, still south-westward, to and along the last-described partition wall, to the boundary near the rear of the said house which divides the said parish of Saint Mary Abbots, Kensington, from the new parish of Saint Barnabas, Kensington, in the same county and diocese; and extending thence, north-westward, along the last-described boundary, for a distance of two hundred and thirty-nine yards or thereabouts, to its junction with the boundary in the middle of the Uxbridge-road, which divides the said parish of Saint Mary Abbots, Kensington, from the district parish of Saint James, Norlands, in the same county and diocese; and extending thence, north-eastward, along the last-described boundary, following thereby the middle of the said Uxbridge-road to the junction of such boundary with the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Mary Abbots, Kensington, from the district parish of Saint John, Notting Hill aforesaid; and continuing thence, still north-eastward, along the last-described boundary, still following the middle of the Uxbridge-road aforesaid, to the point opposite to the north-western end of Lord Holland's-lane aforesaid, where such boundary diverges to the south-east; and continuing thence, still north-eastward, along the middle of the said Uxbridge-road, and along the middle of High-street, Notting Hill aforesaid, to the point on the boundary which divides the district parish of Saint John, Notting Hill, from the new parish of Saint Peter, Notting Hill aforesaid, near the south-eastern end of Kensington-park-road, where the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the sixth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty, King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapel to the consecrated church of Saint Mary, situate at Hornsey Rise, in the new parish of Saint Mark, Tollington Park, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London.

“Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Mary, situate at Hornsey Rise aforesaid.

“Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the said diocese of London (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said new parish of Saint Mark, Tollington Park, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned to the said church of Saint Mary, situate at Hornsey Rise as aforesaid, and that the same should be named ‘The District Chapelry of Saint Mary, Hornsey Rise.’

“And, with the like consent of the said Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the said diocese of London (testified as aforesaid), we further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

“We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

“The District Chapelry of Saint Mary, Hornsey Rise, being :—

“All that part of the new parish of Saint Mark, Tollington Park, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, which is situate to the north-west of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing the said new parish from the district parish of Saint John, Upper Holloway, in the same county and diocese, at the point where Cornwallis-road is intersected by Kingsdown-road; and extending thence, north-eastward, along the middle of the last-named road to its junction with Brougham-road; and continuing thence, still north-eastward, along the middle of the last named road to its junction with Mitford-road; and extending thence, north-westward, along the middle of the last-named road to its junction with Hooper-street; and extending thence, north-eastward, along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with Hornsey-road; and extending thence, north-westward, along the middle of the last-named road as far as a point opposite to the middle of the south-western end of Granville-road; and extending thence, north-eastward, to and along the middle of the last-named road to the point at its north-eastern extremity, where it joins the fence forming the southern boundary of the line of the Tottenham and Hampstead Railway, which is now in course of construction; and continuing thence, north-eastward, along the middle of such fence (crossing the Crouch Hill-road) as far as the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Mark, Tollington Park, from the parish of Hornsey, in the county and diocese aforesaid.”

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the sixth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, in the words following; that is to say:

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church called Christ Church, situate at Govilon, in the parish of Llanwenarth, in the county of Monmouth, and in the diocese of Llandaff.

“Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church called Christ Church, situate at Govilon aforesaid.

“Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Alfred, Bishop of the said diocese of Llandaff (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Llanwenarth which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned to the said church called Christ Church, situate at Govilon aforesaid, and that the same should be named ‘The District Chapelry of Llanwenarth Ultra.’

“And, with the like consent of the said Alfred, Bishop of the said diocese of Llandaff (testified as aforesaid), we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Llanwenarth Ultra, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Llanwenarth, in the county of Monmouth, and in the diocese of Llandaff, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls which is comprised within that portion of the southern division of such parish called or known as 'Llanwenarth Ultra,' which is bounded on the north by an imaginary line extending along the middle of the River Usk, on the east by the parish of Llanfoist, in the county and diocese aforesaid, on the south by the parish of Blaenafon, in the same county and diocese, and on the west by the county of Brecon."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Llandaff.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls in the parish of Ravenfield, in the county and diocese of York.

"Whereas there is not at present within the said parish of Ravenfield, a house of residence suitable for occupation by the perpetual curate or incumbent of the said parish.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that arrangements should be made for providing such a house of residence for the said perpetual curate or incumbent.

"And whereas a sum of seven hundred pounds has been contributed from private sources and paid to our account, upon the understanding that the same shall be applied by us towards providing a house of residence for the perpetual curate or incumbent of the said parish, and also upon condition that, for the better enabling a sum of money to be borrowed on mortgage, of the emoluments of the perpetual curacy of the said parish, for the purpose of obtaining the further means requisite, in order to providing such house of residence, we shall submit to your Majesty a scheme, containing the recommendation herein-after made.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that during the subsistence of any mortgage of the emoluments of the said perpetual curacy of Ravenfield, which may be effected under the provisions of the Acts of the seventeenth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter fifty-three; of the twenty-first year of His said Majesty, chapter sixty-six; of the first and second years of your Majesty, chapter twenty-three; and the first and second years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and six, or any or either of them, there shall be paid by us, to or on account of the perpetual curate or incumbent of the said parish of Ravenfield, such annual sums as shall be sufficient to discharge the yearly interest and instalments of principal monies, which may become due and owing on account of any such mortgage; provided always that the amount of such yearly interest and instalments of principal monies shall not exceed, in any one year, the sum of forty-eight pounds; and provided also that such mortgage shall be effected with our consent signified under our common seal.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing to your Majesty in Council, any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Acts of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls in certain parishes and districts.

"Whereas there are not at present within the several parishes and districts specified in the schedule hereunto annexed, houses of residence belonging to the respective benefices, and suitable for occupation by the incumbents thereof.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that arrangements should be made for providing such a house of residence for each of such benefices, and that for that purpose certain sums of money should be borrowed upon mortgage of the same benefices respectively, in order that such sums of money may be applied towards defraying the cost of such houses of residence respectively.

"Now, therefore, for the better enabling a sum of money to be borrowed upon mortgage of each of the said several benefices so specified as aforesaid in the schedule hereunto annexed for the purpose aforesaid, we humbly recommend and propose that during the subsistence of any mortgage of each of such benefices, which may be effected under the provisions of the Act of the seventeenth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter fifty-three; of the Act of the twenty-first year of His said Majesty, chapter sixty-six; of the Act of the first and second years of your Majesty, chapter twenty-three; and of the Act of the first and second years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and six, or any or either of them, there shall be paid by us in each year, to or on account of the incumbent of the benefice so mortgaged as aforesaid, such sums as shall be sufficient to discharge the yearly interest and instalment of principal monies, which may become due and owing in each such year on account of such mortgage: Provided always, that the amount of such yearly interest and instalment of principal monies shall not in any one year exceed the sum which in the fourth column of the said Schedule is set opposite to the name of the benefice to be so mortgaged as aforesaid; and provided also, that every such mortgage shall be effected with our consent, signified under our common seal.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing to your Majesty in Council any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 18th day of May, 1865.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Burial Acts," it is, amongst other things, enacted that, in case it appear to Her Majesty in Council, upon the petition of the Local Board of Health of any district established under the Public Health Act, that the district of such Local Board of Health is co-extensive with a district for which it is proposed to provide a burial ground, and that no Burial Board has been appointed for such district, and that an Order in Council has been made for closing all or any of the burial grounds within the said district, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, in case Her Majesty see fit so to do, to order that such Local Board shall be a Burial Board for the district of such Local Board, and thereupon such Local Board shall be a Burial Board for such district accordingly, and the powers and provisions of the Acts thereinbefore mentioned (except the provisions relating to the constitution or appointment and resignation of members of Burial Boards), and the provisions therein contained, shall extend to the district of such Board, and to such Board, and to any burial ground and place for the reception of the bodies of the dead previously to interment which may be provided by such Board, in like manner as to any parish or parishes and the Burial Board thereof, and any burial ground and any such place as aforesaid provided by such last-mentioned Board, save that no approval, sanction, or authorization of any vestry shall be requisite: Provided always, that notice of such petition, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and in one of the newspapers usually circulating in the district of such Local Board, one month at least before such petition is so considered:

And whereas the Local Board of Health for the District of March, in the county of Cambridge, have, under the provisions of the said recited Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty's reign, presented a petition to Her Majesty in Council, stating that the district of the petitioners is co-extensive with the parish of March, in the said county of Cambridge, and contained a population of 5,455 at the last census, and that in it are a parish church, a churchyard, and a burial ground near thereto, which was provided by the Vestry many years ago, and that, in consequence of the small extent of the said burial ground, it is proposed to provide an additional burial ground for the said district, and that no Burial Board has yet been appointed for such district, and that an Order in Council was made several years since for closing such churchyard as a burial ground, and that the space unoccupied in the present burial ground will not suffice for the purposes of the parish for a longer period, it is believed, than from eight to ten months from the date of such petition, being the 27th day of February, 1865, and that the said Local Board of Health consists of twelve members elected by the ratepayers, and that, from its representative character, it would be an efficient and desirable body to be entrusted with the duties of a Burial Board, thereby avoiding the necessity of a separate and additional Public Board being appointed for so small a district, and praying that Her Majesty in Council would be pleased to order that such Local Board shall be the Burial Board for the parish of March aforesaid, being the district for which the said Local Board acts:

And whereas notice of such petition, and of the time when Her Majesty was pleased to order the same to be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, has been duly published as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said Local Board of Health for the District of March, in the county of Cambridge, shall be a Burial Board for the district of such Local Board, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty's reign.

Arthur Helps.

Board of Trade, Whitehall,
May 18, 1865.

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of an Act of the United States' Congress amending certain Acts relating to Customs Duties, and of which the following are the principal provisions:—

SEC. 1.—Second. On all manufactures of cotton (except jeans, denims, drillings, bed tickings, gingham, plaids, cottonades, pantaloon stuff, and goods of like description,) not bleached, colored, stained, painted, or printed, and not exceeding one hundred threads to the square inch, counting the warp and filling, and exceeding in weight five ounces per square yard, five cents per square yard, and in addition thereto, if coloured, stained, painted, or printed, five cents and a half per square yard, and, in addition thereto, ten per centum ad valorem. On finer and lighter goods of like description, not exceeding two hundred threads to the square inch, counting the warp and filling, unbleached, five cents per square yard; if bleached, five and a half cents per square yard; if coloured, stained, painted, or printed, five and a half cents per square yard, and in addition thereto, twenty per centum ad valorem. On goods of like description, exceeding two hundred threads to the square inch, counting the warp and filling, unbleached, five cents per square yard; if bleached, five and a half cents per square yard; if coloured, stained, painted, or printed, five and a half cents per square yard, and, in addition thereto, twenty per centum ad valorem.

Third. On all cotton-jeans, denims, drillings, bed tickings, gingham, plaids, cottonades, pantaloons, and goods of like description, or for similar use if unbleached, and not exceeding one hundred threads to the square inch, counting the warp and filling, and exceeding five ounces to the square yard, six cents per square yard; if bleached, six cents and a half per square yard; if coloured, stained, painted, or printed, six cents and a half per square yard; and in addition thereto, ten per centum ad valorem. On finer or lighter goods of like description, not exceeding two hundred threads to the square inch, counting the warp and filling, if unbleached, six cents per square yard; if bleached, six and a half cents per square yard; if coloured, stained, painted, or printed, six and a half cents per square yard; and in addition thereto fifteen per centum ad valorem. On goods of lighter description, exceeding two hundred threads to the square inch, counting the warp and filling if unbleached, seven cents per square yard; if bleached seven and a half cents per square yard; if coloured, stained, painted, or printed, seven and a half cents per square yard; and, in addition thereto, fifteen per centum ad valorem: Provided, that upon all plain woven cotton goods, not included in the foregoing schedule, unbleached, valued at over sixteen cents per square yard, bleached, valued at over twenty cents per square yard, coloured, valued at over twenty-five cents per square yard, and cotton jeans, denims, and drillings, unbleached, valued at over twenty cents per square yard; and all other cotton goods of every description, the value of which shall exceed twenty-five cents per square yard, there shall be levied, collected, and paid a duty of thirty-five per centum ad valorem: And, provided further, that no cotton goods having more than two hundred threads to the square inch, counting the warp and filling, shall be admitted to a less rate of duty than is provided for goods which are of that number of threads.

Fourth. On spool thread of cotton, six cents per dozen spools, containing on each spool not exceeding one hundred yards of thread, and in addition thereto, thirty per centum ad valorem; exceeding one hundred yards, for every additional hundred yards of thread on each spool, a fractional part thereof in excess of one hundred yards, six cents per dozen, and thirty-five per centum ad valorem. On cotton thread or yarn, when advanced beyond single yarn, by twisting two or more strands together, if not wound upon spools four (4) cents per skein, or hank of eight hundred and forty (840) yards; and thirty per centum ad valorem.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, that from and after the day when this Act takes effect, in addition to the duties heretofore imposed by law on the importation of the articles mentioned in this section, there shall be levied, collected, and paid the following duties and rates of duty, that is to say:

On brandy, rum, gin, and whiskey, and on cordials, liquors, arrack, absynthe, and all other spirituous liquors and spirituous beverages, fifty cents per gallon of first proof, and less strength, and shall be increased in proportion for any greater strength that [than] the strength of first proof.

On spun silk for filling, in skins or cops, ten per centum ad valorem.

On iron bars for railroads or inclined planes, ten cents per one hundred pounds.

On wrought iron tubes one cent per pound.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, that from and after this Act takes effect, in lieu of the duties heretofore imposed by law on the importation of the articles mentioned in this section, there shall be levied, collected, and paid the following duties and rates of duty, that is to say:

On cotton, five cents per pound.

On illuminating oil and naphtha, benzine, and benzole, refined or produced from the distillation of coal, asphaltum, shale, peat, petroleum, or rock oil, or other bituminous substances used for like purposes, forty cents per gallon.

On crude petroleum or rock oil, twenty cents per gallon.

On crude coal oil, fifteen cents per gallon.

On tobacco stems, fifteen cents per pound.

On ready made clothing of silk, or of which silk shall be a component material of chief value, sixty per centum ad valorem.

On quicksilver, fifteen per centum ad valorem.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, that section fifteen of an Act entitled "An Act increasing, temporarily, the duties on imports, and for other purposes," approved July fourteenth, eighteen hundred and sixty-two, be, and the same hereby is, amended so as to impose a tax or tonnage duty of thirty cents per ton in lieu of "ten cents," as therein mentioned: Provided, that the receipts of vessels paying tonnage duty shall not be subject to the tax provided in section one hundred and three of "An Act to provide internal revenue to support the government, to pay interest on the public debt, and for other purposes," approved June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and sixty-four, nor by any Act amendatory thereof: Provided, further, that no ship, vessel, or steamer having a license to trade between different districts of the United States, or to carry on the bank, whale, or other fisheries, or any ship, vessel, or steamer to or from any port or place in Mexico, the British provinces of North America, or any of the West India Islands, or in all these trades, shall be required to pay the tonnage duties contemplated by this Act more than once a year.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, that the term "statuary," as used in the laws now in force, imposing duties on foreign importations, shall be understood to include professional productions of a statuary, or of a sculptor only.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, that there shall be hereafter collected and paid on all goods, wares, and merchandise of the growth or produce of countries of the Cape of Good Hope (except raw cotton and raw silk as reeled from the cocoon, or not further advanced than tram, thrown, or organzine), when imported from places west of the Cape of Good Hope, a duty of ten per centum ad valorem, in addition to the duties imposed on any such article when imported directly from the place or places of their growth or production.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, that in all cases where there is, or shall be imposed any ad valorem rate of duty on any goods, wares, or merchandise, imported into the United States, and in all cases where the duty imposed by law shall be regulated by, or directed to be estimated or based upon the value of the square yard, or of any specified quantity or parcel of such goods, wares, or merchandise, it shall be the duty of the collector within whose district the same shall be imported or entered, to cause the actual market value or wholesale price thereof, at the period of the exportation to the United States, in the principal markets of the country from which the same shall have been imported into the United States, to be appraised, and such appraised value shall be considered the value upon which duty shall be assessed. That it shall be lawful for the owner, consignee, or agent of any goods, wares, or merchandise, which shall have been actually purchased or procured otherwise than by purchase, at the time and not afterwards, when he shall produce his original invoice or invoices to the collector and make and verify his written entry of his goods, wares, or merchandise, as provided by section thirty-six of the Act of March two, seventeen hundred and ninety-nine, entitled "An Act to regulate the collection of duties on imports and tonnage," to make such addition in the entry to the cost or value given in the invoice as in his opinion may raise the same to the actual market value or wholesale price of such goods, wares, or merchandise, at the period of exportation to the United States, in the principal markets of the country from which the same shall have been imported, and it shall be the duty of the collector within whose district the same may be imported or entered, to cause such actual market value or wholesale price to be appraised in accordance with the provisions of existing laws, and if such appraised value shall exceed, by ten per centum or more, the value so declared in the entry, then, in addition to the duties imposed by law on the same, there shall be levied, collected, and paid a duty of twenty per centum ad valorem on such appraised value: Provided, that the duty shall not be assessed upon an amount less than the invoice or entered value, any Act of Congress to the contrary notwithstanding: And provided further, that the sections twenty-third and twenty-fourth of the Act approved June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and sixty-four, entitled "An Act to increase duties on imports, and for other purposes," and all Acts and parts of Acts requiring duties to be assessed upon commissions, brokerage, cost of transportation, shipment, trans-shipment, and other like costs and charges incurred in placing any goods, wares, or merchandise on shipboard, and all Acts or parts of Acts inconsistent with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, that so much of an Act entitled "An Act to authorize protection to be given to citizens of the United States who may discover deposits of Guano," approved August eighteen, eighteen hundred and fifty-six, as prohibits the export thereof, is hereby suspended in relation to all persons who have complied with the provisions of section second of said Act, for two years from and after July fourteenth, eighteen hundred and sixty-five.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, that this Act shall take effect on and after the first day of April, eighteen hundred and sixty-five.

SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, that so much of sections thirty-nine, forty, forty-one, forty-two, forty-three, and forty-four of the Act entitled "An Act to regulate the [collection of] duties on imports and tonnage," approved March second, seventeen hundred and ninety-nine, as requires the branding or marking, and certifying of casks, chests, vessels, and cases containing distilled spirits or teas, be, and the same is hereby revived, to be executed under such rules and regulations as shall be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury.

SEC. 11. And be it further enacted, that flax and hemp machinery and steam agricultural machinery, as designated in section twenty-one of the Act "to increase duties on imports, and for other purposes," approved June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and sixty-four, may be imported free from duty for one year from the passage of this Act.

SEC. 12. And be it further enacted, that in all proceedings brought by the United States in any Court for due recovery as well of duties upon imports alone, as of penalties for the non-payment thereof, the judgment shall recite that the same is rendered for duties, and such judgment, interest, and costs shall be payable in the coin by law receivable for duties, and the execution issued on such judgment shall set forth that the recovery is for duties, and shall require the marshal to satisfy the same in the coin by law receivable for duties, and in case of levy upon, and sale of the property of, the judgment debtor, the marshal shall refuse payment from any purchaser at such sale in any other money than that specified in the execution.

SEC. 13. And be it further enacted, that the eighth section of the Act of March twenty-third, eighteen hundred and fifty-four, "to extend the warehousing system by establishing private bonded warehouses, and for other purposes," which authorized the Secretary of the Treasury, in case of the actual injury or destruction of goods, wares, or merchandise by accidental fire, or other casualty, while in warehouse under bond, &c., to abate or refund the duties paid or accruing thereon, be extended so as to include goods, wares, or merchandise injured or destroyed in like manner, while in the custody of the officers of the customs, and not in bond, and also to goods, wares, and merchandise so injured or destroyed after their arrival within the limits of any port of entry of the United States, and before the same have been bonded under the suspension [supervision] of the officers of the customs: Provided that this Act shall apply only to cases arising from and after its passage, and to cases where the duties have not already been paid.
