AT the Court at Balmoral, the 5th day of October, 1865.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the third day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls in certain parishes and districts.

"We humbly recommend and propose that there shall be paid by us, out of the common fund in the said Acts mentioned, in each and every year, to the incumbent for the time being of each of the benefices described in the first schedule hereunto annexed, the annual sum set opposite to the name of each such benefice in the last column of the same schedule, by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each year, and that the said several payments so recommended to be made by us shall commence and be calculated as from the dates which are set opposite to the names of such benefices respectively in the fourth column of the same schedule; provided always, that the grants so recommended to be made by us to the several benefices of Claverdon with Norton Lindsey, Holmer with Huntington, Saint Andrew, Hoxton, and Wokingham, shall be paid only upon the production to us, on or before the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, of certificates under the hands of the bishops of the respective dioceses, that an assistant curate, duly licensed by such bishop, has in each instance been employed within the parish or district during the preceding half year; and provided also, that a portion, amounting to an annual sum of one hundred pounds, of the grant so recommended to be made by us to the benefice of Winterbourne Monkton with Berwick Bassett, shall be paid only upon the production to us as aforesaid of a like certificate that an assistant curate has been duly employed at Winterbourne Monkton; and provided also, that the grant so recommended to be made by us to the vicarage of Arlington shall cease and determine immediately upon and from the lapse of the subsisting lease of the property within the parish of Arlington which formerly belonged to the prebend of Woodhorne, and is now vested in us, subject to the said lease; and provided also, that the grants so recommended to be made by us to the benefices of Edingley and Halam shall cease and determine immediately upon and from the avoidance of the perpetual curacy of Halam, or of the perpetual curacy of Edingley, which may happen next after the date of this scheme; and provided lastly, that the grants, payment whereof is so herein recommended to be made by us conditionally upon the employment of assistant curates, shall continue in force so long only as may to us appear to be expedient under the circumstances from time to time affecting the respective cures in favour of which the same conditional grants are so recommended and proposed.

“And we further recommend and propose that the lands and premises, tithes, or rent-charges in lieu of tithes, and other hereditaments, particularly described in the second and three following schedules hereunto annexed, with their appurtenances, now vested in us, and all our estate and interest therein, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the several spiritual persons hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:—that the lands and hereditaments described in the second schedule hereunto annexed, situate at Bridlington, in the county and diocese of York, which were conveyed to us by a deed bearing date the twenty-fourth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and made between John Wells, of Booth Ferry House, near Howden, in the said county of York, Land Agent, and Thomas Cooper, of the city of York, Druggist, of the one part, and the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the other part, which deed is intended to be deposited in the registry of the said diocese of York, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of the parish of Bridlington aforesaid, and that the same perpetual curate or incumbent shall be entitled to receive the rents and profits of the lands and hereditaments to be so annexed by us as aforesaid, as from the said twenty-fourth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five; that the tithes, or rent-charges in lieu of tithes, described in the third schedule hereunto annexed, arising out of or upon lands situate within the townships of Prysllgoed, Barrog, Melay, Drebach, Petrual, Cornwall, and Talhaiarn, in the parish of Llanfair Talhaiarn, in the county of Denbigh and diocese of Saint Asaph, formerly belonging to the first comportion of the prebend of Llanfair Talhaiarn, and now vested in us, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of the said parish of Llanfair Talhaiarn; that the lands and hereditaments described in the fourth schedule hereunto annexed, situate within the parish of Peterborough, in the county of Northampton and diocese of Peterborough, and now vested in us, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of Saint Mark's, Peterborough, in the same county and diocese; and that the perpetual curate or incumbent of the said perpetual curacy shall be entitled to receive the rents and profits of the lands and hereditaments so to be annexed by us as last mentioned, as from the first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five; that the tithes, or rent-charges in lieu of tithes, described in the fifth schedule hereunto annexed, arising out of or upon lands situate within the parish of Cilcein, in the county of Flint and diocese of Saint Asaph, and now vested in us, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of Saint John, Rhydymwyn, in the same county and diocese; and that the perpetual curate or incumbent of the said perpetual curacy shall be entitled to receive the net profits of the tithes, or rent-charges in lieu of tithes, so to be annexed by us as last mentioned, as from the fourth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.

“And we further recommend and propose, with the consent of the Reverend William Thomas Shields, Clerk, the perpetual curate or incumbent of the perpetual curacy of the parish of Thockrington, in the county of Northumberland and diocese of Durham, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, that the tithes commutation rent-charges, amounting to a yearly sum of one hundred and thirty-four pounds nine shillings and eight pence, arising out of or upon lands situate within the said parish of Thockrington, with their appurtenances, formerly belonging to the prebend of Thockrington, and now vested in us, and all our estate and interest therein, shall, in like manner and by the authority aforesaid, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of the said parish of Thockrington, in lieu of and in full substitution for and discharge of the annual sum or stipend of five pounds, now payable by us to the same perpetual curate or incumbent, under the provisions of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven; and that the perpetual curate or incumbent of the said perpetual curacy shall be entitled to receive the net profits of the tithes commutation rent-charges so to be annexed by us as last-mentioned, as from the seventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.

“And we further recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered to pay out of the common fund aforesaid, on behalf of the benefices specified in the ninth schedule hereunto annexed, such annual sums as may be necessary for discharging the yearly instalments, which in respect of interest and principal monies may, from and after the dates set opposite to the names of the said benefices respectively, in the fourth column of the same schedule, become from time to time due and owing on account of certain mortgages of the said several benefices, which by certain deeds bearing the respective dates set forth in the fifth column of the same schedule, have been effected under the provisions of the Acts known as ‘Gilbert’s Acts,’ enabling the Governors of the bounty of Queen Anne, for the augmentation of the main-
