TUESDAY, JANUARY 23, 1866.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 20th day of January, 1866.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT,

Lord President.
 Lord Privy Seal.
 Earl Russell.
 Lord Stanley of Alderley.
 Sir George Grey, Bart.
 Mr. Milner Gibson.
 Mr. Bruce.
 Mr. Göschen.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of the eleventh and twelfth years of Her present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to prevent until the 1st day of September, 1850, and to the end of the then session of Parliament, the spreading of contagious or infectious disorders among sheep, cattle, and other animals," which Act has since been from time to time continued by divers subsequent Acts, and lastly, by an Act passed in the session of the twenty-eighth and twenty-ninth years of Her present Majesty, it is (amongst other things) enacted that it shall be lawful for the Lords and others of Her Majesty's Privy Council, or any two or more of them, from time to time, to make such Orders and Regulations as to them may seem necessary for the purpose of prohibiting or regulating the removal to or from such parts or places as they may designate in such Order or Orders, of sheep, cattle, horses, swine, or other animals, or of meat, skins, hides, horns, hoofs, or other parts of any animals, and to make other Orders or Regulations for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of the said Act, and again to revoke, alter, or vary any such Orders or Regulations, and that all provisions for any of the purposes aforesaid in any such Order or Orders contained shall have the like force and effect as if the same had been inserted in the said Act; and that all persons offending against the same should for each and every offence, forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding twenty pounds, or such smaller sum as the said Lords or others of Her Majesty's Privy Council may in any case by such Order direct:

And whereas a contagious or infectious disorder prevails among Cattle within those parts of the United Kingdom called England and Scotland, which disorder is generally designated as the "Cattle Plague," or "Rinderpest," and may be recognised by the following symptoms:—"Great depression of the vital powers, frequent shivering, staggering gait, cold extremities, quick and short breathing, drooping head, reddened eyes, with a discharge from them, and also from the nostrils of a mucous nature, raw looking places on the inner side of the lips and roof of the mouth, diarrhœa or dysenteric purging."

And whereas it is possible that the said disorder may extend to that part of the United Kingdom called Ireland; and it is expedient to make provisions with a view to check the spreading of the said disorder, in case it should so extend:

Now, therefore, the Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council do hereby, by virtue of, and in exercise of, the powers given by the said Act so continued as aforesaid, order as follows:—

1. This Order shall extend to all parts of that part of the United Kingdom called Ireland.
2. In this Order the word "animal" shall mean any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine, and any horse kept in the same field, house, stable or building with any cattle.
3. In all provisions of this Order to be enforced within the Police District of Dublin Metropolis, the words "County Inspector of Constabulary," shall signify one of the Commissioners of the Dublin Metropolitan Police; and "Constable" shall signify a Superintendent or Inspector, or Acting Inspector of the Dublin Metropolitan Police; and the words "Petty Sessions Court" shall signify any of the offices of the Divisional Justices of the said district.
4. Every person having in his possession or under his custody any animal labouring under or having symptoms of the said disorder, shall forthwith give notice thereof to the nearest constabulary station of the district within which such animal is, or if within the Dublin Metropolitan Police District, to one of the Superintendents of the Metropolitan Police.
5. Every constable shall have power within his district to enter upon and inspect any premises or place in which he has reason to believe that any animal is labouring under the said disorder, and to examine and inspect, whenever and wherever he may deem it necessary, any animal within such district which he has reason to suspect to be labouring under the disorder; and such constable shall report the fact of every such visit, with its results, to the Petty Sessions Court of the district in which such visit has been made at the next sitting of such Court.

6. Whenever any Constable shall receive or obtain information that any animal is labouring under the said disorder, he shall, by the next post, or if possible by telegram communicate such information to the Chief Secretary or Under Secretary to the Lord Lieutenant, who shall immediately order a competent person as inspector to proceed without delay to the place where the animal alleged to be so labouring is, and to inspect the same; and such inspector shall on the same day forward to the said Chief Secretary or Under Secretary, a report stating whether in his opinion the animal is or is not affected with the disorder.

7. Such Constable shall communicate also to the nearest Magistrate the report which he has transmitted to the Chief Secretary or Under Secretary; and if such Magistrate shall satisfy himself that there are reasons for grave suspicion that the animal mentioned in the Constable's report is labouring under the said disorder, he shall have power to issue an Order (to be in operation for three days, or until such time as the Inspector shall finally report that such animal is free from the said disorder, and subject to such conditions as he may think proper), prohibiting the removal of such animal from the land or premises where the said animal shall be, and requiring all other animals to be kept separate and apart from it.

8. On receipt of information to the effect that an animal is labouring under the said disorder, not being within a district already marked out as an infected district as hereinafter provided, the Lord Lieutenant shall send without delay to the place where such animal is, two or more competent persons, who shall mark out a certain line around such place, and lay down the same upon the Ordnance Map. The limit of the district enclosed shall be shown by well-defined boundaries, and all the district within such boundaries shall be called "An Infected District," and such competent persons shall forthwith forward to the County Inspector of Constabulary a description of such district, and marked as aforesaid on the Ordnance Map.

9. On receipt of such information the County Inspector of Constabulary, shall, without delay, cause to be posted in all public places within ten miles of the infected district, a notice describing the boundaries of the same; and, from the date of the posting of the first of such notices, it shall not be lawful for any person to hold any fair within such "infected district," or to move out of such "infected district" any animal whatsoever; but any animal, if certified by an Inspector to be free from disease, may be slaughtered, and the carcase of such animal may be sent out of such infected district, provided that its skin and offal shall be left within the district; and no skin of any animal slaughtered or dying within such district shall be removed without being disinfected, and without the permission of the Inspector, provided that this prohibition shall not extend to the carrying any animal through any such district by a railway train.

10. From the date of the posting of such notice, the County Inspector of Constabulary shall station at all necessary places Constables and Sub-Constables, who shall prevent the egress of all animals from the "infected district," and shall prohibit the transit or passage of all animals by or through any part of the said district, except in railway trains, and shall as far as possible prevent any animal from approaching the boundaries of such district, and shall prevent the carrying out of any forage, litter, or manure therefrom.

11. The constables or sub-constables shall cause all faecal matter discharged by any animal labouring under the said disorder to be collected, so far as it can be done, and all litter and other refuse, in any house or place in which any such animal may have been located, and all fodder placed before or brought into contact with such animal, to be collected and buried at least four feet under the surface, or to be destroyed by fire, and the ashes thereof buried.

12. From the date of the posting of the first of such notices, all dogs within the infected district at that date shall be kept shut up or chained, or by other sufficient means shall be prevented from passing out of such district.

13. Such "infected district" shall remain and be considered as an infected district, and subject to the regulations herein applicable to an infected district so long as any case of disorder exists within it, and for a period of twenty-one days after the last case of death, or recovery, to be certified by the Inspector, and until such Inspector shall have certified that all proper precautions have been taken for the purposes of disinfection.

14. Every inspector shall have power to require and cause any animal declared and certified by him in writing to be labouring under the said disorder, to be slaughtered without delay and buried six feet deep in the ground and covered with lime, in such a spot as he may select, and in the case of burial being necessary at a distance from the place of death, he shall cause all practicable means to be taken for preventing the carcase from becoming the vehicle of infection before the removal thereof. The carcasses of all diseased animals shall be buried unskinned, and the skins thereof shall be scored so as to prevent their being used.

15. No person who may be brought into contact with any deceased animal, shall take with him out of such "infected district" any clothes or garment which such person may have worn while in contact with any such animal, either by wearing the same or otherwise, without taking all such precautions against propagating infection by means thereof, as the Lord Lieutenant by any order may direct.

16. No dog accompanying a drover or of the description ordinarily used by drovers or persons in charge of cattle, sheep, or swine, shall be brought into any part of Ireland by any person, if the last place on land from whence such dog shall have been brought shall be any part of Great Britain.

17. This Order shall come into operation on the 25th day of January, 1866, and shall continue in force thenceforth until the same shall be revoked by any future Order.

18. Every person offending against this Order shall, in pursuance of the said Act, for every such offence, forfeit any sum not exceeding £20, which the Justices before whom he or she shall be convicted of such offence may think fit to impose.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 20th day of January, 1866.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT,

Lord President.
Lord Privy Seal.
Earl Russell.
Lord Stanley of Alderley.
Sir George Grey, Bart.
Mr. Milner Gibson.
Mr. Bruce.
Mr. Goschen.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of the eleventh and twelfth years of Her present Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and seven, intituled "An Act to prevent until the 1st day of September, 1850, and to the end of the then session of Parliament, the spreading of contagious or infectious disorders among sheep, cattle, and other animals," which Act has since been from time to time continued by divers subsequent Acts, and lastly by an Act passed in the session of the twenty-eighth and twenty-ninth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter one hundred and nineteen, it is (amongst other things) enacted that it shall be lawful for the Lords and others of Her Majesty's Privy Council, or any two or more of them, from time to time, to make such Orders and Regulations as to them may seem necessary for the purpose of prohibiting or regulating the removal to or from such parts or places, as they may designate in such Order or Orders, of sheep, cattle, horses, swine, or other animals, or of meat, skins, hides, horns, hoofs, or other parts of any animals, or of hay, straw, fodder, or other articles likely to propagate infection; and to make any other Orders or Regulations for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of the said Act, and again to revoke, alter, or vary any such Orders or Regulations; and that all provisions for any of the purposes aforesaid in any such Order or Orders contained, shall have the like force and effect as if the same had been inserted in the said Act; and that all persons offending against the same shall for each and every offence forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding twenty pounds, or such smaller sum as the said Lords or others of Her Majesty's Privy Council may in any case by such Order direct:

And whereas a contagious or infectious disorder now prevails among cattle within that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, which disorder is generally designated as the "cattle plague:"

And whereas with a view to check the spreading of the said disorder, an Order, dated the twenty-third of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, has been made, under the authority of the said Acts, by the Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council, consolidating and amending certain Orders previously made for that purpose; and the same has since been altered and amended by a subsequent Order, bearing date the sixteenth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.

And whereas it is expedient to alter and amend the said Orders of the twenty-third day of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and the sixteenth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, respectively: Now, therefore, the Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council do hereby, in exercise of the powers given by the said Act so continued as aforesaid order as follows:—

I. The power given by the said Orders to any local authority, as defined by the said Order of the sixteenth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, to declare by notice published in any newspaper circulating within its jurisdiction, and also by notice published in some newspaper or newspapers circulating within the county or counties bordering upon the county within which the jurisdiction of such local authority is situate, that it is expedient, for a time to be specified in such notice, that animals, as defined by the said Order of the twenty-third day of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, or some specified description thereof, shall not, either absolutely, or except under such conditions as such local authority shall think fit to impose with a view to prevent the spreading of the said disorder, be brought from any other part of Great Britain into any place within his or their jurisdiction, shall extend, from and after the day on which this present Order comes into operation, to all raw or untanned hides and skins, and all horns or hoofs of any animals as defined as aforesaid or of any description thereof to be specified in any such notice, except such hides, skins, horns, or hoofs, as are directly imported into the United Kingdom from India, Australia, South Africa, or America, and to the offal of any such animals as aforesaid, and also to all dung, hay, straw, fodder, or litter likely to propagate infection; and it shall not be lawful for any person, in contravention of any such notice, to bring or send any hide, skin, horn, hoof, offal, or other article as aforesaid, except in accordance with such conditions as aforesaid, from any place in Great Britain beyond such jurisdiction into any place within such jurisdiction; and the copy of any such notice shall be sent forthwith by the local authority by which it is made, to the Clerk of Her Majesty's Privy Council, and shall be published by him in the London Gazette: Provided always that nothing contained in this clause of this Order shall make it unlawful for any person to send or carry any such hides, skins, horns, hoofs, offal, or other articles as aforesaid, by railway, through such jurisdiction; and provided also, that nothing contained in this clause of this Order shall make it unlawful for any person to bring or send, with the licence of any two Justices acting in and for the jurisdiction to which such notice applies, any such hides, skins, horns, hoofs, offal, or other articles as aforesaid, from any land and premises in his own occupation, and beyond such jurisdiction, to any other land or premises in his own occupation within such jurisdiction, during a time to be specified in such licence.

II. The power given by the said Order of the sixteenth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, to any local authority as thereby defined, to declare, by notice published in any newspaper circulating within its jurisdiction, that it is expedient, for a time to be specified in such notice, that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf shall, except under such conditions as such local authority shall think fit to impose with a view to prevent the spreading of the said disorder, be removed from any particular part of the jurisdiction of such local authority to any other part of such jurisdiction; or from any place or places within such jurisdiction, to be specified in such notice, to any other such place or places, also to be so specified; or from place to place generally within such jurisdiction, or within any specified part thereof; shall extend, from and after the day on which this present Order comes into operation, to all animals, as defined by the said Order of the twenty-third day of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, or any specified description thereof; and also to all raw or untanned hides and skins, and all horns and hoofs of any animals as defined as aforesaid or of any description thereof to be specified in any such notice, except such hides, skins, horns, or hoofs as are directly imported into the United Kingdom from India, Australia, South Africa, or America, and to the offal of any such animals as aforesaid, and also to all dung, hay, straw, fodder, or litter likely to propagate infection; and it shall not be lawful for any person to remove any animal, or any hide, skin, horn, hoof, offal, or other article as aforesaid, in contravention of any such notice: Provided always, that nothing contained in this clause of this Order shall make it unlawful for any person to send or carry any such animals, or any such hides, skins, horns, hoofs, offal, or other articles as aforesaid, by railway, through such jurisdiction, or to send or carry any such animals, or any such hides, skins, horns, hoofs, offal, or other articles as aforesaid, if brought by sea from any place out of Great Britain into such jurisdiction, to the nearest convenient railway station for the purpose of carrying them through or out of such jurisdiction.

III. The aforesaid Order, bearing date the sixteenth day of December, is hereby amended by omitting the words "or out of" from the proviso at the end of the fourth clause of the said Order; and the said proviso is to be read as follows, "provided always that nothing contained in this clause of this Order shall make it unlawful to send or carry any such animal by railway through such jurisdiction, or to send or carry any such animal, if brought by sea from any place out of Great Britain into such jurisdiction, to the nearest convenient railway station, for the purpose of carrying it through or out of such jurisdiction."

IV. Any notice given by virtue of this present Order may be renewed, revoked, altered, or varied, from time to time, in the manner provided by the said recited Orders, with respect to notices given under and by virtue thereof.

V. This Order shall come into operation on the twenty-fifth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and shall be in force thenceforth until the first day of March next, and no longer, unless continued by some further Order.

VI. Every person offending against this Order shall, in pursuance of the said Act, for every such offence forfeit any sum not exceeding twenty pounds, which the Justices before whom he or she shall be convicted of such offence may think fit to impose.

Arthur Helps.

THE following Notices have been received by the Clerk of the Council from the Local Authorities appointed under the Orders of the Lords of the Council, relating to the "cattle plague," and are published in the London Gazette in conformity with the requirements of the 18th section of their Lordships' Order of the 23rd November, 1865:—

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Borough of Stockton.

I, RICHARD ORD the younger, Esq., Mayor of the borough of Stockton, in pursuance of the Orders of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated the 23rd day of November, 1865, and the 16th day of December, 1865, respectively do hereby order that from the date of this notice until the 1st day of March now next ensuing, no person shall bring or send any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine, from any other part of Great Britain, beyond the limits of the said borough, into any place within the said borough, and that all persons offending against this Order will be liable, for every such offence, to forfeit any sum not exceeding twenty pounds, which the Justices before whom he or she may be convicted of such offence may think proper to impose.—Dated this 18th day of January, 1866.

(Signed) Rd. Ord, jr., Mayor.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Borough of Wallingford.

I, JOHN HILLIARD, Mayor of the borough of Wallingford, in exercise of the authority vested in me by Statute and by the several Orders made by Her Majesty's Privy Council for checking the cattle plague, do declare that it is expedient, and I therefore do order that from the 10th day of January instant, until the 8th day of February now next ensuing, no bull, bullock, ~~ox~~ cow, heifer, or calf, shall be brought from any other part of Great Britain into the borough of Wallingford, or its suburbs, within my jurisdiction, and further that no bull, bullock, ox, cow, heifer, or calf, shall be removed from any place in the borough of Wallingford or its suburbs to any other place therein. Every offence against this Order will subject the offender to a penalty of twenty pounds.

John Hilliard.

Wallingford, 8th January, 1866.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Suffolk to wit.

At the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace of our Sovereign Lady the Queen, holden by adjournment at Ipswich, in and for the said county of Suffolk, on Thursday, the 18th day of January in the year of our Lord 1866, before Charles Austin Esq., Chairman, Peter Robert Burrell, Esq., and others their companions, Justices of our said Lady the Queen, assigned to keep the Peace within the said county; and also to hear and determine divers felonies, trespasses, and other misdeeds, in the said county done and committed.

At this Court it is resolved and ordered that the following Supplemental Order be added to, and read with Order No. 2, made at the Ipswich Quarter Sessions for the Eastern Division of the said county, on Thursday, the 4th day of January instant, with reference to the cattle plague, videlicet,—“That any two Justices acting in Petty Sessions may at any time declare the Union in which they act to be infected.

By the Court,

Borton, Clerk of the Peace.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Borough of Colchester.

I, CHARLES HENRY HAWKINS, Esquire, Mayor of the borough of Colchester, in the county of Essex, in pursuance of the Orders of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated respectively the 23rd November, 1865, and the 16th December, 1865, do hereby declare that it is expedient that from and after the 15th day of January, 1866, until the 1st day of March, 1866, no person shall bring or send any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, from any place beyond the said borough of Colchester into such borough. And I do hereby further declare that it is expedient that no animal of the description aforesaid shall be driven or conveyed along any of the streets or highways of the said borough, from any place within such borough to any other place therein: Provided, nevertheless, that the prohibitions hereinbefore contained shall not extend to prevent any person living within the said borough, having animals fitted for slaughter, from sending such animals to one of the railway stations in the said borough, or to a butcher for the purpose of slaughter; nor to prevent any butcher residing or carrying on business in the said borough from bringing any fat animals into the said borough for the purpose of slaughter, the same being slaughtered therein within three days; nor to any cow or heifer driven to bull from any place within the said borough to any other place therein; provided that in every such case a certificate signed by me authorizing the same be first had and obtained for that purpose; and provided that the prohibitions hereinbefore contained shall not extend to the removal of any animal bonâ fide the property of the occupier of any land or premises within the said borough from any one part of such land or premises to any other part of the same, along any highway, for a distance not exceeding 400 yards.

And I do hereby give notice, that every person offending against this declaration and notice is liable to a penalty not exceeding £20 for every such offence.

Dated this 11th day of January, 1866.

C. H. Hawkins, Mayor.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Berwickshire.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the county of Berwick, in Special General Sessions assembled at Greenlaw of the date hereof, in terms of the powers conferred upon them by the Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, of date 23rd November, 1865, declared and hereby declare, in terms of the 16th section of the said Order, that with a view to prevent the spreading of the cattle plague, it is expedient, from this date to the 1st day of March next, to prevent the removal of animals as defined in said Order (under which term is included "any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine"), to any market or fair, or to any place whatever within their jurisdiction, for the purpose of exhibition or sale, with the following exceptions, viz.—that any animal of the kind enumerated in said Order, may, if fat and fit for the butcher, either to be sent by the feeder to any local butcher direct for slaughtering, and to be by him slaughtered within forty-eight hours of its reaching his custody, or may be sent by the feeder to the nearest railway station (with reference to its destination), to be forwarded to any market to be sold for slaughter, without the power of being brought back alive; and under the exceptions and conditions foresaid, they declared and hereby declare that it shall not be lawful for any person to bring or send any such animal into such market or fair, or into any place within the jurisdiction of said Justices—viz., the county of Berwick, for the purpose exhibition or sale, or to receive, exhibit, buy, or sell any such animals so brought or sent.

And the said Justices of the Peace declared and hereby farther declare, in terms of the 18th section of the said Order, that it is expedient, with a view to prevent the spreading of the said disorder from this date to the 1st day of March next, that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, shall be brought into any place within the jurisdiction of the said Justices—viz., the county of Berwick, from any place in Great Britain beyond their said jurisdiction. And it is hereby declared, that it shall not be lawful for any person to bring or send any animal as above described from any place in Great Britain beyond the jurisdiction of the Justices of the county of Berwick, into any place within such jurisdiction.

Every person offending against any of these Orders, shall, in terms of the said Order of Council and relative Acts of Parliament, for every such offence forfeit any sum not exceeding £20, to be recovered as therein directed.

By order of the Justices,

Jonathan Melrose, Clerk of the Peace.

Coldstream, 8th December, 1865.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Berwickshire.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the county of Berwick, in Special General Sessions assembled at Greenlaw of the date hereof, in terms of the powers conferred upon them by the Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, of date 16th December, 1865, declared, and hereby declare (in terms of the 4th Section of said Order), that it is expedient to prohibit, from this date until the 1st day of March next, the removal of any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, from place to place generally within their jurisdiction in the county of Berwick, excepting the same be fat and fit for the butcher, or be a cow or heifer going to or returning from bull, in either of which cases any such animal may, in so far as not prohibited by the Orders of Council, either be sent by the feeder to a local butcher direct for slaughtering, and to be by him slaughtered within forty-eight hours of its reaching his custody, or may be sent by the feeder to the nearest railway station, to be sent out of the county, without the power of being brought back alive, or being a cow or heifer, may be sent to or from the bull; provided always, that previous to the removal of any such animal as aforesaid, the owner or person having care of such animal shall make a declaration before a Justice of the Peace for the county, resident in the neighbourhood, which shall satisfy the same herd, or in contact with any animal affected or suspected to be affected with cattle plague for the preceding four weeks, and shall apply for and obtain from the said Justice, if he see fit to grant the same, a license in duplicate, authorising him to remove the said animal, which declaration and one of said licenses shall be delivered to the nearest constable personally previous to the removal of said animal, that the Chief Constable may report thereon to the Justices; and under the exceptions and conditions foresaid, no animal as above described shall be removed from one place to another place within their said jurisdiction, declaring that nothing contained in this resolution shall prohibit removal from one part to another part of the same farm or holding.

As is stated that an opinion prevails in several quarters that the penalty incurred for a breach of the Order of Council cannot exceed £20, whatever the number of cattle removed, the Justices think it their duty to make it public that the Under Secretary to the Home Department has intimated that the penalty (not exceeding £20) applies to each animal of the lot.

Every person offending against any of these orders shall, in terms of the said Order of Council and relative Acts of Parliament, for every such offence forfeit any sum not exceeding £20, to be recovered as therein directed.

Forms of licenses for removal of cattle will be immediately forwarded to each Justice of Peace residing in the county.

By order of the Justices,
Jonathan Melrose, Clerk of the Peace.
Coldstream, 11th January, 1866.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Burgh of Rothesay.

I, CHARLES DUNCAN, Provost of the Royal burgh of Rothesay, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Orders of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated 23rd November and 16th December, 1865, do hereby renew the notice issued by me, under the authority of said first-mentioned Order, on 28th November, 1865, and do hereby declare, that it is expedient that for a further period of one month, commencing on the 1st day of February, 1866, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine, be brought into any place within the said burgh from any other part of Great Britain, excepting the county of Bute.

Every person offending against the said Orders and this notice is liable to a penalty of twenty pounds for each offence.

Charles Duncan, Provost.
Council Chambers, Rothesay,
18th January, 1866.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Borough of Lancaster, in the county palatine of Lancaster, to wit.

NOTICE is hereby given, that I, Richard Fawcett, Esquire, Mayor of the borough of Lancaster, in the county of Lancaster, by virtue of the several Orders of Her Majesty's Privy Council, enabling me in this behalf, do hereby revoke, from and after the due publication of this notice, the notice published by me relating to a contagious or infectious disorder now prevailing among the cattle of Great Britain, generally designated the "Cattle Plague," and dated the 29th day of November last: Provided always, that such revocation shall in nowise legalize or affect any act, matter, or thing, now or hereafter before the due publication of his notice, done or neglected in breach of the said notice hereby revoked, or the Order in Council authorising the same, or prejudice or affect the recovery of any penalty or penalties now or hereafter to be incurred under the said last-mentioned notice or Order.

And notice is hereby further given, that pursuant to clauses 16 and 18 of the Order of Her Majesty's Privy Council, dated the 23rd day of November last, and with a view to prevent the spreading of the said disorder, I, the said Richard Fawcett, as such Mayor as aforesaid, do hereby declare that it is expedient from and after the due publication of this notice until the 1st day of March next, absolutely to prevent the removal of all cows, heifers, bulls, bullocks, oxen, calves, sheep, lambs, goats, and swine, to the markets held on Fridays and Saturdays, or any other markets or fairs, or any place whatever within the said borough, for the purpose of exhibition or sale.

And I also declare, that it is expedient from and after the due publication of this notice until the said 1st day of March next, that animals of the specified descriptions aforesaid, shall not be brought from any other part of Great Britain into any place within the said borough, except as provided by the said 18th clause of the said Order in Council, or except fat animals for the purpose of immediate slaughter, and until and in accordance with the following conditions, with a view to prevent the spreading of the said disorder (namely):

1. That such animals shall be accompanied with a certificate that the same are free from the said disorder or any suspicion thereof, from a duly appointed inspector of the district from which such animals are brought, or a duly appointed inspector for the said borough, and that such certificate shall be signed by such inspector, and shall be granted not more than four days before the bringing in of such animals, and that the same shall be produced on demand to the said inspector for the said borough, or any police constable thereof requiring to inspect the same.
2. That every such animal shall be brought into the said borough in the daytime, between the hours of eight o'clock in the forenoon and four o'clock in the afternoon.
3. That every such animal shall then be in a fit state to be slaughtered for the food of man, and shall in fact be slaughtered within forty-eight hours thereafter.

And notice is hereby given, that every person offending against this notice, will, for every such offence, be liable to a penalty not exceeding £20.

Dated this 18th day of January, 1866.

Rd. Fawcett, Mayor of the said Borough.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Borough of Maidstone, in the county of Kent.

NOTICE.

WHEREAS it appears to me expedient that with a view to prevent the spreading of the Cattle Plague, the following Order should be made, and notice given for the said borough of Maidstone.

Now therefore, I, the undersigned, William Laurence, Esq., Mayor of the said borough of Maidstone, do hereby by authority of the Orders of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated the 23rd day of November last and the 16th day of December last (made in pursuance of the several Acts of Parliament therein mentioned), and in the exercise of the powers conferred on me thereby, order, give notice, and declare, that on and from the 22nd day of January instant, to the 1st day of March next, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, sheep, goat, or swine, shall be removed to any market or fair within the said borough for the purpose of exhibition or sale.

And that on and from the said 22nd day of January instant to the 1st day of March next, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, shall be brought or removed from any place without the said borough, to any place within the said borough, nor be on, nor pass over, along, or across any street, highway, or public road within the said borough, except as follows, namely, that this Order shall not extend to prohibit the removal of any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, between the hours of eleven o'clock at night, and six o'clock in the morning, from the Maidstone railway station, to such place only within the said borough where such animal shall be removed or taken to be slaughtered, provided that such animal shall have been first examined by the Inspector appointed or to be appointed for the said borough of Maidstone, under the authority of the Orders of the said Lords of the Privy Council, at the said railway station, before its removal, and the sanction of such Inspector for such removal shall have been given, and that such animal shall be slaughtered within forty-eight hours from the time of such removal.

Provided always that nothing in this Order contained shall make it unlawful for any person to send or carry any such animal by railway through or out of the said borough.

Given under my hand this 16th day of January, 1866.

William Laurence, Mayor.

NOTE.—The Act imposes a penalty of £20 for every breach of the orders above named.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Borough of Ipswich.

I, EBENEZER GODDARD, Mayor of the borough of Ipswich, pursuant to the authority given to me by the several Orders of Her Majesty's Privy Council, dated respectively the 23rd day of November last, and the 16th day of December last, or one of them, hereby revoke the notices, published by me, dated respectively the 15th day of December last and the 12th day of January instant.

And I, the said Ebenezer Goddard, Mayor of the borough of Ipswich, with a view to prevent the spreading of the disorder generally designated as the "Cattle Plague," hereby give notice and declare, pursuant to the authority given to me by the said Orders of Her Majesty's Privy Council, dated respectively the 23rd day of November last and the 16th of December last, or either of them, that it is expedient, from the date hereof, until the 1st day of March, 1866, to prevent the removal of any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, or lamb, to any market or place whatever, within the said borough, for the purpose of exhibition or sale.

And also that it is expedient, from the date hereof, until the 1st day of March, 1866, that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, or lamb, be brought from any other part of Great Britain into this borough, except that any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, or lamb, that is fit to be slaughtered, may be brought from any other part of Great Britain into this borough for the purpose of being immediately slaughtered, provided the owner thereof first obtain a license in writing under my hand, authorizing the animals mentioned in such license to be so brought for that purpose.

And any person offending herein will be liable to a penalty of twenty pounds.

Dated this 15th day of January, 1866.

E. Goddard, Mayor.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Lincolnshire Lindsey.

At a General Quarter Sessions of the Peace holden by adjournment, at Lincoln, in and for the Parts of Lindsey, in the County of Lincoln, on Tuesday, the 16th day of January, 1866, for the especial purpose of considering the steps necessary to be taken to carry into effect the Order of the Privy Council, dated the 16th day of December, 1865, in the manner most effectual to check the progress of the Cattle Plague, before Sir Charles Henry John Anderson, baronet, chairman, the Right Honourable Lord Monson, and others, Justices of the Peace of the said parts.

The Justices present declare, that with a view to prevent the spreading of the said disorder, it is expedient, and they do accordingly declare and give notice as follows, that is to say:—

That between the 19th day of January instant, and the 1st day of March next, it shall not be lawful to bring any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine, from any place whatever, out of the said parts of Lindsey, to any place within the same.

By the Court,
Jno. H. Hollway, Clerk of the Peace.

NOTICE.

Stewartry of Kirkcudbright.

At a meeting of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the Stewartry of Kirkcudbright, in Sessions assembled at Kirkcudbright, on the 18th day of January, 1866, the Justices, in virtue of the powers contained in an Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated the 23rd day of November last, declared that it is not expedient, and shall not be lawful for any person to remove from any place not within the jurisdiction of said Justices into any place within their jurisdiction, any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine, provided always that nothing contained in this resolution shall be construed to prevent such animals being taken from the burg of Castle-Douglas direct to the railway station there, for the purpose of being immediately sent out of the stewartry, or to such animals being sent from any burg in which no open market for stock exists to their ordinary pasture within the jurisdiction of the aforesaid Justices.

Any person offending against this Order shall, for every such offence, forfeit a sum of money not exceeding £20 sterling, as the Justices may deem fit to impose.

This resolution to continue in force from this date until the 1st day of March, 1866.

By order of the Justices,

Ay. Skeoch, Clerk of the Peace.
Kirkcudbright, 18th January, 1866.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County of Clackmannan in sessions assembled, on the 28th day of December, 1865, resolved and declared, in pursuance of the Order by Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated 23rd November, 1865, that it was expedient that from the said 28th day of December, 1865, to the 1st day of March, 1866, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, shall be brought from any other part of Great Britain into any place within the County of Clackmannan, except in the special cases mentioned in the 18th section of the said Order.

And notice is further given, that every person offending against the above declaration and resolution, shall for every such offence forfeit any sum not exceeding £20.

By order of the Justices,

D. MacWatt, Clerk of the Peace.

Office of the Clerk of the Peace, Alloa, 28th December, 1865.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

County of Haddington.

NOTICE is hereby given that Her Majesty's Justices of Peace of the County of Haddington, in Special Sessions assembled at Haddington of the date hereof, in terms of the powers conferred upon them by the Orders of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, of date 23rd November and 16th December, 1865, declared, and hereby declare, in accordance with the sixteenth and eighteenth sections of the said first Order, and the fourth and fifth sections of the said last Order, that with a view to prevent the spreading of the Cattle Plague, it is expedient from this date to 1st March, 1866, to prevent the removal of any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf from any part of Great Britain into any place within the County of Haddington; and further, that it is expedient, from this date to 1st March, 1866, to prohibit and restrict the removal of any animal, as above defined, as follows, viz. :—

1st.—That any animal, as above defined, shall not be removed from any one place to any other place within the said County of Haddington, across or along any public road or highway for any purpose, if said animal is or has been kept on any farm or premises where Cattle Plague exists, or has existed within the preceding four weeks.

2nd.—That where Cattle Plague has existed on any farm or premises within the preceding three months, but not within the preceding four weeks, any animal or animals as above defined may be removed from such farm or premises to any other place within the said county, provided that the owner or person having charge of such animal or animals shall obtain from the District Inspector a certificate that such animals are not suffering from Cattle Plague, and also a licence, in duplicate, from a Justice of Peace, authorising such removal; and which licence shall contain a description of the animal or animals so to be removed, the place to which they are to be sent, and the purpose of such removal, which shall take place within three days from the granting of such licence; and one of said licences shall be delivered to the nearest constable of the county twenty-four hours before said removal takes place.

3rd.—That such animal or animals before leaving the farm or premises on which they are kept shall have the hair clipped off the end of their tails, and shall be marked with the letter S on the right hip, and shall only be removed for the purpose of slaughter, and if not sent out of the county, shall be slaughtered within four days after such removal.

4th.—That where Cattle Plague has not existed on any farm or premises within the preceding three months, any animal or animals as above defined may be removed therefrom to any place within the County of Haddington, along any public road or highway, provided that the owner of such animal or animals, or the farm steward of said owner, shall make a solemn declaration before a Justice of the Peace, that such animal or animals are not suffering from Cattle Plague, and have not been kept on any farm or premises where Cattle Plague has existed within the preceding three months, and shall obtain a licence, in duplicate, from such Justice of Peace authorising such removal; and which licence shall contain a description of the animal or animals so to be removed, the place to which they are to be sent, and the purpose of such removal, which shall take place with three days from the granting of such licence; and one of said licences shall be delivered to the nearest constable of the county, twenty-four hours before the removal takes place.

Fifth.—That any animal or animals as above defined, which have been sent under a licence from a Justice of Peace of the said county, as before mentioned, for exhibition or sale, may be removed from the said place of exhibition or sale by the nearest road to any place of slaughter within the County of Haddington, and shall be there slaughtered within four days from the day of sale, or to the nearest railway station to be forthwith sent out of the county, provided always that previous to being removed from the place of exhibition or sale, such animal or animals shall have the hair clipped off the end of their tails and shall be marked with the letter S on the right hip.

6th.—Any animal or animals so to be removed under licence as aforesaid, shall be taken by the nearest road to their destination, and the person in charge of them shall exhibit the licence to any inspector or police constable when called upon.

7th.—Nothing herein contained shall extend to prohibit any animal as above defined, kept on a farm or premises where Cattle Plague does not exist, or has not existed within the preceding three months, or which has not been in contact with any animal suffering from Cattle Plague, from being driven across or along any public road or highway to its usual pasture or watering place.

8th.—The order by the Justices of the Peace of the said county of date 1st December, 1865, is hereby revoked from and after the 19th January current, and the orders by the said Justices of date 5th and 29th December, 1865, are hereby revoked from and after this date.

Forms of petitions for removal of animals may be had from the resident Justices, District Constables, or Clerk of the Peace.

Every person offending against the above Orders is liable to be prosecuted for a penalty not exceeding £20 for each offence.

* * As it is stated that an opinion prevails in several quarters that the penalty incurred for a breach of the Order of Council cannot exceed £20, whatever the number of cattle removed, the Justices think it their duty to make it public that the Under-Secretary in the Home Department has intimated that the penalty (not exceeding £20) applies to each animal of the lot.

By Order of the Justices,

Henry M. Davidson,

Clerk of the Peace.

County Buildings,

Haddington, 16th January, 1866.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

County of Haddington.

NOTICE is hereby given that Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace of the county of Haddington, in Special Sessions assembled at Haddington of the date hereof, in terms of the powers conferred upon them by the Orders of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, of date 23rd November, 1865, declared, and hereby declare, in accordance with the eighteenth section of the said Order, that with a view to prevent the spreading of the Cattle Plague, it is expedient from this date to 1st March, 1866, to prevent the removal of any sheep, lamb, goat, or swine, from any part of Great Britain into any place within the county of Haddington, unless the owner of such animal or animals as above defined, shall previously make a solemn declaration before a Justice of the Peace of the said county that such animal or animals have not been kept on a farm where Cattle Plague is in existence, or has existed within the preceding three months, and shall obtain a licence, in duplicate, from such Justice of Peace authorising the removal of such animal or animals into the said county, and which licence shall contain a description of the animal or animals so to be removed, the place to which they are to be sent, and the purpose of such removal, which shall take place within three days from the granting of such licence; and one of said licences shall be delivered to the Chief Constable of the county twenty-four hours before such animal or animals are brought into the county; and further, that any animal or animals so to be removed under licence as aforesaid, shall be taken by the nearest road to their destination, and the person in charge of them shall exhibit such licence to any inspector or police constable when called upon.

Every person offending against the above Orders shall, for every such offence, forfeit a sum not exceeding £20 sterling.

By Order of the Justices,
Henry M. Davidson,
Clerk of the Peace.

County Buildings,
Haddington, 16th January, 1866.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

County of Merioneth.

NOTICE is hereby given, that by authority and in pursuance of an Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated the 16th day of December, 1865, and by virtue of the previous Order therein referred to, Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the county of Merioneth, in Quarter Sessions assembled at Bala, in the said county, on Wednesday, the third day of January, 1866, have declared, and do now order and declare that it is expedient that until the first day of March next, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, or swine, or any hides, skins, horns, or hoofs of any such animals, shall be brought from any place in Great Britain into any part or parts of the said county of Merioneth, for any purpose or under any conditions whatsoever.

And further, that until such 1st day of March next no such animal or article as before defined shall be removed or taken to any market or fair within any part of the said county for the purpose of exhibition or sale. And that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, shall be removed from or out of any one Petty Sessional Division of, and in the said county, to any other Petty Sessional Division within the same, except the person or persons so removing any such animal as aforesaid shall be thereunto authorized and empowered by certificate under the hand of one of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace acting in and for the said county.

No. 23062.

Every person offending against the said Order shall, for every such offence, forfeit any sum not exceeding twenty pounds.

Nothing in this notice, or the said Order or Orders contained, renders it unlawful for any person to send or carry any such animals by railway through or out of the jurisdiction aforesaid, or to send or carry any such animal, if brought by sea from any place out of Great Britain into any such jurisdiction, to the nearest convenient railway station, for the purpose of carrying it through, or out of such jurisdiction.

By the Court,
Edward Breese,
Clerk of the Peace.

THE CATTLE PLAGUE.

Borough of Denbigh, in the County of Denbigh, to wit.

IN pursuance of the Orders of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated respectively the 23rd day of November, 1865, and the 16th day of December, 1865, and of the several Acts of Parliament therein mentioned, I, Richard Lloyd Williams, Esquire, Mayor of the said borough of Denbigh, do hereby order and declare as follows:—

1. That the order made and signed by me on the 6th day of December last shall be revoked from and after the publication of this my order, except as to any appointment made, and now in force, or any act done, or penalty or penalties recoverable under such order of the said 6th day of December last, hereby revoked as aforesaid.

2. That with a view to prevent the spreading of the contagious or infectious disorder designated the Cattle Plague, it is expedient, and I do hereby order and declare that from and after the publication of this my order and until the 1st day of March next, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, shall be removed from place to place, or be driven for any purpose along (not across) any highway, turnpike road, or any other road or way, not being a private road or way, within the said borough of Denbigh, but subject, nevertheless, to the provisions of the existing Orders of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council relating to the Cattle Plague, dated respectively the 23rd day of November, 1865, and the 16th day of December, 1865.

3. I do also order and declare that from and after the publication of this my order, and until the said 1st day of March next, it shall not be lawful for any person to bring any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, from any place in Great Britain beyond the limits of and outside the said borough of Denbigh into the said borough of Denbigh, but subject to the provisions of the existing Orders as aforesaid of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated the said 23rd day of November, 1865, and 16th December, 1865.

4. I do also order and declare that from and after the publication as aforesaid of this my order, and until the said 1st day of March next, no sheep, lamb, goat, or swine, shall be brought to any market or fair, or to any place whatever within the said borough of Denbigh, for the purpose of exhibition or sale, or to be removed from place to place within the said borough, except the owner thereof shall, previous to removal, have obtained and produce a licence of removal in writing from a Justice of the Peace duly authorised to grant such licence of removal upon a solemn declaration having been made before such Justice in proof of the fact that the animal or animals named in the said licence of removal, has or have been in his or her possession for at least twenty-one days previous to his or her application, and that no animals have been suffering from the Cattle Plague on any land in his or her occupation at any time; and such licence having been so granted shall be in force for a period of three days only, inclusive of the day on which it was issued; and also excepting such owner shall within such period of three days have made a further declaration to the same purport or effect before any one of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace in and for the said borough of Denbigh, and shall have obtained from him a licence in writing authorising such animal or animals named in such licence to be brought or taken to some place in the said borough, to be also named in such licence.

Every person offending against the above-named order is liable to a penalty of not exceeding twenty pounds for each offence.

Given under my hand and the common seal of the said borough of Denbigh this eighteenth day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

R. Lloyd Williams, (Seal)
Mayor of the said borough of Denbigh.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Huntingdonshire, Epiphany Sessions, 1866.

At the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace of our Sovereign Lady the Queen, holden at Huntingdon, in and for the county of Huntingdon, on Monday the 1st day of January, and continued by adjournments until the 17th day of January, in the 29th year of the reign of our Sovereign Lady Victoria, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland Queen, Defender of the Faith, and in the year of our Lord 1866, before Colonel the Honourable Octavius Duncombe (Chairman), George Rust, George Thornhill, P. Tillard, Esquires, and others their Fellows, Justices of our said Lady the Queen, assigned to keep the Peace of our said Lady the Queen, in the said county, and also to hear and determine divers felonies, trespasses, and other misdemeanours, done and committed in the said county:

In pursuance of an Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council, dated the 16th of December, 1865, transferring all the powers contained in the Order of the said Privy Council of the 23rd day of November last, from the Justices acting in and for the several Petty Sessional Divisions of the said county, to the Justices of the Peace for the said county, in Quarter Sessions assembled, as the local authority for the purpose of carrying into effect the said Orders in Council, the said Justices at these Quarter Sessions, as the said local authority in the said county of Huntingdon (excepting only the municipal boroughs of Huntingdon and Godmanchester), having weighed and well considered the several matters referred to them, do make and pass the resolutions and orders next hereinafter mentioned, that is to say:

1st. It is resolved and ordered that all notices heretofore issued, whether by the Justices of the Peace in Quarter Sessions assembled, or by the Justices of the several Petty Sessional Divisions in this county, as the local authorities thereof, be revoked on and from the 20th day of January instant, except as to any liability which may have been incurred, or any legal proceedings which may have been taken, under any of the said previous orders or notices.

2nd. It is further resolved and ordered, that that the Chief Constable of this county be appointed Chief Supervisor, for the purpose of carrying into effect the rules and regulations made by the Orders of the Lords of the Privy Council, of the 23rd day of November and 16th day of December last respectively, and the notices and orders given by the Court within their jurisdiction. That the Superintendents and Serjeants under the command of the said Chief Constable be appointed Supervisors for the respective divisions to which they are for the time being attached; and that all Inspectors of Cattle already appointed by any person or persons acting as such local authority as last aforesaid, be and are hereby re-appointed Inspectors of Cattle for the respective divisions in which they were Inspectors of Cattle immediately before the said 20th day of January instant.

3rd. And it is further ordered that from and after the publication of this notice until the 1st day of March next, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine, shall be brought, sent, or removed, to any market or fair, or to any place whatever, within the said county, for the purpose of exhibition or sale; and that it will be unlawful to receive, exhibit, buy, or sell, any such animal so brought or sent.

4th. And it is further ordered and declared that it is expedient from and after the publication of this notice, until the 1st day of March next, that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine, be brought into any place within the said county from any other part of Great Britain.

5th. And it is further ordered, from and after the publication of this notice until the 1st day of March next, that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, shall, except under the provisoes and conditions hereinafter specified, be removed from place to place within the said county of Huntingdon: provided, nevertheless, that it shall be lawful for any person or persons to remove any such animals as aforesaid, being his, her, or their own property, in and about lands lying together in his, her, or their own occupation, for any distance not exceeding 200 yards along any highway or public road, for the purpose of removing the same from one part of such occupation to another part thereof, subject to its being proved to the satisfaction of a Justice that such removal was bonâ fide, and that no disease had existed for 28 days on the land or premises from which such removal took place, and further, that an order of a Justice be first obtained for such removal.

Provided, nevertheless, that nothing in this notice contained shall prevent any owner of any cow or heifer from sending the same to a bull, from and to any place within the county, not being distant more than five miles, having first obtained the licence of a Justice of the Peace, acting for the Petty Sessional Division within which such cow or heifer is kept; which licence may be granted upon such evidence as the said Justice shall think satisfactory that there has been no case of Cattle Plague on the farm on which the cow, or heifer, or bull, respectively, has been kept for two calendar months previously to the application for such licence; and that a written consent from the owner of such bull be produced to such Justice.

Provided also further, that nothing in this order contained shall prevent any fat cow, heifer, bull, bullock, or ox, from being removed from any place to any other place within the said county, subject to the following conditions (viz.),

That the removal of any such animal be licensed by a Justice of the Peace, acting for the Petty Sessional Division in which the place is situate from which such animal is intended to be removed, which licence may be granted on such evidence as shall satisfy the Justice that no case of Cattle Plague has occurred on the farm or premises from which such animal is to be removed for twenty-eight days previously; and shall state the place from and to which such animal is to be removed; the route by which it is to travel; and the time during which the licence shall be valid (not exceeding two days); that every such animal shall be first conspicuously marked, videlicet, by clipping all the hair off the end of the tail, and with the letter X on the near hip, by the person applying for the licence; and shall be slaughtered within four days after its removal under such licence, or be sent by railway out of the county.

Provided also further, that every licence to be granted in pursuance of this notice shall be placed in the hands of the person, for the time being, in charge of the animal or animals being removed, who shall be bound to produce the same to any Inspector of Cattle, Police Supervisor, Parish Constable, or other person requesting to inspect it; and the person applying for the licence shall be responsible for the fulfilment of this condition.

6th. And it is further ordered, that all licences granted by any Justice under the foregoing resolutions be immediately returned by post, at the termination of the licence, to the Justice who shall have granted the same.

7th. And it is further ordered, that no cattle of any description, to which the foregoing orders and several provisions refer, be removed, except between the hours of 7 o'clock in the morning and 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

And notice is hereby given, that every person offending against the terms of these orders will be liable to a penalty of £20 for each animal so unlawfully dealt with; and in compliance with the provision contained in the Act 11 and 12 Victoria, cap. 107, one-half of all penalties and forfeitures recovered under the Act will be paid to the person who shall sue or proceed for the same.

By the Court,

Maule,

Clerk of the Peace.

Note.—Any person who shall remove cattle of any description from a yard or premises in which the Cattle Plague exists, to the nearest railway station, without having previously received a certificate from the Inspector of the district, that the cattle to be removed are free from the disease, is liable to a penalty of £20 for every such offence.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

NOTICE.

Northamptonshire o. wit.

THE Justices of the said county, assembled in Quarter Sessions, held on the 3rd day of January, 1866, and by adjournment on the 11th day of January instant, do, under and by virtue of, and in exercise of the powers given to them by the Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated the 16th day of December, 1865, and of the several Orders therein mentioned, order and declare that it is expedient that on and after Monday, the 15th day of January instant, and until the 1st day of March next ensuing, in respect of the Petty Sessional Divisions of Brackley, Daventry, and Little Bowden; and until the 1st day of February next ensuing, in respect of the Petty Sessional Division of Wellingborough, absolutely to prevent the removal of any sheep, lamb, goat, or swine, to any market or fair, or to any place whatever within the jurisdiction of each of the former Petty Sessional Divisions above mentioned, for the purpose of exhibition or sale.

Secondly. That it is expedient that on and after the said 15th day of January until the said 1st day of March, in respect of the said several divisions of Brackley, Daventry, and Little Bowden, and until the said 1st day of February, in respect of the said Division of Wellingborough, that no sheep, lamb, goat, or swine, be brought from any place in Great Britain beyond the jurisdiction of each of the said several Divisions above mentioned into any place within each of the said several Divisions, and in pursuance of the said declaration the said Justices in Quarter Sessions assembled do hereby alter the several Notices published by the Justices of each of the said several Divisions before-mentioned, made under the authority of an Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated the 23rd day of November, 1865, so that the same Notices respectively shall, from the said 15th day of January instant, have the same force and effect as if the words sheep, lamb, goat, and swine had been mentioned after the word calf, in the Orders made respectively by the Justices of each of the Divisions of Brackley, Daventry, and Little Bowden; and as if the word swine had been mentioned after the word goat, in the case of the Order made by the Justices of the said Division of Wellingborough.

Every person committing any offence against the tenor hereof is liable for any such offence to a penalty of £20.

By the Court,

Markham.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

NOTICE.

Northamptonshire to wit.

THE Justices of the said county, in Quarter Sessions assembled, on the 3rd day of January, 1866, do, under and by virtue of, and in exercise of the powers given to them by an Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated the 16th day of December, 1865, and the several Orders therein mentioned, order and declare:

That it is expedient from the 10th day of January instant, until the 1st day of March next ensuing, that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf (and which are hereinafter designated as cattle), shall be removed from place to place within their jurisdiction.

Except with the licence of two Justices acting in and for the said county, and except such cattle be removed for immediate slaughter, or to the nearest railway station where cattle are received, to be sent to some market legally open for the sale of cattle.

Provided always that nothing contained in this Notice shall make it unlawful for any person to remove his own cattle from one part of his farm or occupation to another, unless such cattle shall, in the course of such removal, be driven more than 100 yards upon any highway or public road.

Provided also that nothing contained in this Notice shall make it unlawful for any person to bring or send, with the licence of two Justices of the said county, any cattle from any land or premises in his own occupation in any place, either within or beyond the jurisdiction of the Justices in such Quarter Sessions assembled, to any other land or premises in his own occupation within the same jurisdiction.

Provided always that previous to the granting of any such licence the owner of the cattle to be removed, his or her bailiff, or foreman, shall personally appear before the said two Justices, and make a declaration in the form hereunder set out, or to the like effect; and also produce to the said two Justices a certificate by the churchwarden, overseer, waywarden, or guardian of the poor of the parish (or of some adjoining parish in the case of cattle upon an extra-parochial farm) in which such cattle are at the time of the signing thereof, in the form hereunder set out, or to the like effect.

And the said Justices in Quarter Sessions do order and declare:

That upon such conditions being fulfilled any two Justices of the said county, acting either together or separately, may in their discretion grant such licence, and any such licence so granted shall be in the form hereunder set out, or to the like effect.

Provided always that such licence shall be available for not more than three days, including the day of the granting thereof, and then only between the hours of six in the morning and six in the evening.

Provided always that in the event of the person in charge of the said cattle refusing or failing to produce for inspection such licence on demand of any Justice, or any constable, or of any officer of the parish or place in which such cattle shall be at the time of such demand, such licence shall be thereupon null and void, and the said person so offending shall be liable to the same penalties to which he would have been liable if the said licence had never been granted.

Provided always that it shall be the duty of the person in charge of such cattle, immediately they have arrived at the destination mentioned in the licence, to return such licence, by post, addressed to the Justice whose signature appears first in the said licence.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Liberty of Saint Alban, in the county of Hertford, to wit.

At the General Quarter Session of the Peace and gaol delivery of our Sovereign Lady the Queen, holden at Saint Alban's; in and for the liberty of Saint Alban, on Thursday in the first week after the twenty-eighth day of December (to wit), the fourth day of January, in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of our Sovereign Lady Victoria, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, and in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and continued from thence to and holden at the same place in and for the same liberty, on Saturday, the thirteenth day of January, in the year aforesaid, before the Right Honourable James Walter, Earl of Verulam, George Robert Marten, Henry Heyman Toulmin, Esquires, and others their Fellows, Justices of our said Lady the Queen, appointed to conserve the peace within the said liberty, and also to hear and determine divers felonies, trespasses, and misdemeanors committed within the same.

Whereas, by an Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council, bearing date the sixteenth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, the Court of Quarter Sessions for the liberty of Saint Alban is authorised to make such orders and regulations as it may deem expedient with regard to the removal of cattle within its jurisdiction.

This Court doth declare

That with a view to prevent the spreading of the cattle disease it is expedient, and doth order and direct that any Order existing to the contrary notwithstanding, from the 20th day of January, 1866, until the 1st day of March, 1866, or until this Order shall be revoked, altered, or varied, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, shall be removed from any part of the jurisdiction of the said Court to any other part of the same jurisdiction, or from place to place generally within it. And that it shall not be lawful for any person to remove any such animal along any highway, public road, river, or canal, after the said 20th day of January, until such time as aforesaid, with the exceptions aftermentioned.

That it shall not be unlawful for any person to carry any such animals as aforesaid by railway through or out of such jurisdiction.

That it shall not be unlawful for any person wishing to remove any such animals as aforesaid out of the said jurisdiction to remove the same along the most direct highway or public road, without deviation therefrom, to the nearest railway station, provided he, she, or they be furnished with a certificate from the Inspector of the district from which such removal is desired, to the effect that on the previous day no sign of the cattle disease existed in his, hers, or their herd, such certificate to be produced on demand to any police constable.

That it shall not be unlawful for any person or persons to remove any such animals as aforesaid in and about lands lying together in his or their occupation, or for any distance not exceeding two hundred yards along any highway or public road for the bona fide purpose of removing the same from one part of his, her, or their occupation to another part thereof.

That all common and lammas lands within the said jurisdiction shall be held to be places to or from which it shall not be lawful to remove any such animals as aforesaid.

That every person offending against this Order shall, for every such offence, forfeit any sum not exceeding twenty pounds, which the justices before whom he or she shall be convicted of such offence may think fit to impose.

By the Court,
Richd. Nicholson,
Clerk of the Peace.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Burgh of Cullen.

I, WILLIAM ROSS, Provost of the Burgh of Cullen, in exercise of the powers conferred on me as the local authority within the said burgh, by the Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated 23rd November, 1865, hereby declare that it is expedient, for the period of two months, from the 5th day of December current, that the animals defined by said Order—that is to say, cows, heifers, bulls, bullocks, oxen, calves, sheep, lambs, goats, or swine—shall not be brought to any place within the said burgh of Cullen from any other part of Great Britain, except the county of Banff; and I hereby give notice that in terms of said Order and this declaration, it shall not be lawful for any person to bring or send any such animals from any place in Great Britain, except as aforesaid, into any place in the said burgh, for the period before specified.

Every person offending against said Order is liable to a penalty not exceeding £20 sterling.

Given under my hand, at Cullen, this 2nd day of December, 1865.

Willm. Ross, Provost.

Burgh of Helensburgh.

NOTICE.

By virtue of an Order of Privy Council, dated 23rd November, 1865, I, Alexander Breingan, Provost of the burgh of Helensburgh, local authority in said burgh, with a view to prevent the spreading of said disorder, do hereby give notice in terms of the 18th clause in said Order, that it is expedient from this date till the 1st day of March next, that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or sow, shall be brought or sent from any county of Great Britain into said burgh (excepting in the meantime that portion of the county of Dumbarton west of the River Leven and the county of Argyll, and that only for the purpose of immediate slaughter). And that it shall not be lawful for any person to bring or send any such animal from any place in Great Britain beyond said burgh, except as aforesaid, into any place within it, during such period, or to receive, exhibit, buy, or sell any such animal sent or brought, but always under the provisions contained in said clause in said Order of Council.

It is further expedient that manure should not be imported into said burgh from the county of Renfrew, and I accordingly hereby prohibit all persons within said burgh importing or buying or receiving manure from said county during said period.

Every person offending against such Order shall for every such offence forfeit a sum not exceeding twenty pounds sterling.

Alex. Breingan, Provost.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

County of Roxburgh.

NOTICE.

By virtue of the powers conferred by Orders of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated respectively the 23rd day of November and 16th day of December both last. Notice is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the county of Roxburgh, in Sessions assembled, at Jedburgh, on the date hereof, as empowered by the 5th clause of said Order of Council of date the 16th day of December last, revoked, and do hereby revoke the declarations of the said Justices made in Sessions assembled, at Jedburgh, on the 12th day of December last, and with the view of preventing the spreading of the Cattle Plague, in terms of the 16th clause of the said Order of Council, of date the 23rd day of November last, declared, and do hereby declare, that it is expedient to prevent the removal of cows, heifers, bulls, bullocks, oxen, calves, and swine, from this date till the 1st day of March next, to any market, fair, or auction mart, or to any place whatever within their jurisdiction being the county of Roxburgh, for the purpose of exhibition or sale; excepting always from this declaration, any such animals as are fat and fit for slaughter, which may be brought or sent by the feeder thereof, or any purchaser from such feeder, from any part of said county, to any butcher within the same, to be by him slaughtered within forty-eight hours after reaching his custody, or to any railway station in said county, nearest to the place where such animals have been fed, for transmission to any fat stock market, beyond said county, to be sold for slaughter only, or, to any fat stock market, fair, or auction mart, at present existing at Jedburgh, Kelso, Hawick, or Melrose, within said county, to be sold for slaughter, within forty-eight hours as aforesaid, or for immediate transmission by railway from the station nearest to such markets, fairs, or auction marts, to any other fat stock market, beyond said county, but without permission in any of these exceptions for the bringing back of such animals, to the place from whence they were brought or sent, all on the condition that the owner of such animals shall make and subscribe a declaration, setting forth that such animals are free from the Cattle Plague, and brought from a place which is not and has not been affected with that disorder, which declaration shall be certified by the inspector of the district after due examination and inquiry to be true, and countersigned by a Justice of Peace of the county; and with the exceptions and under the conditions foresaid, the said Justices assembled in said Sessions, declared and do hereby declare that it shall not be lawful for any person to bring or send any such animals into any market, fair, or auction mart, or any place whatever within the said county, for the purpose of exhibition or sale, or to receive, exhibit, buy, or sell, any such animals so brought or sent.

And the said Justices in said Sessions assembled, also with the view of preventing the spreading of said disorder, in terms of the 18th clause of said Order of Council, of date the 23rd day of November last, further declared, and do hereby further declare, that it is expedient that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, or swine shall be brought into any place within their jurisdiction, viz., the county of Roxburgh, from any place beyond the same from this date till the said 1st day of March next, and the said Justices in said Sessions assembled, declared, and do hereby further declare, that it shall not be lawful for any person to bring or send any such animals from any place in Great Britain beyond said county, into any place within the same.

And the said Justices in said Sessions assembled, also with the view of preventing the spreading of said disorder, in terms of the 4th clause of said Order of Council, of date the 16th day of December last, further declared, and do hereby further declare, that it is expedient to prohibit from this date till the said 1st day of March next, the removal of all cows, heifers, bulls, bullocks, oxen or calves, from place to place within their said jurisdiction, viz., the county of Roxburgh, along any public road, highway, or public way, within the same, except under the following condition, viz., that any animals as above defined, may be removed from any place within the said county to any other place therein, provided that the owner or person having the care of such animals, shall within forty-eight hours previous to their removal, make and subscribe a declaration, setting forth that such animals are in a sound state of health, and that no animal on the same farm or premises is, or so far as known to him, has been affected with the Cattle Plague, which declaration shall be certified by the Inspector of the district after due examination and inquiry to be true, and shall have annexed to it a licence for removal by a Justice of the Peace of said county, and with the exception and under the conditions foresaid, the said Justices assembled in said Sessions declared, and do hereby further declare, that it shall not be lawful for any person to remove any such animals from place to place along any public road, highway, or public way, within said county.

The forms of declaration and certificate, &c., before referred to, will be obtained from the Inspectors in all the districts of the county.

Every person offending against any of the preceding Orders is liable to be prosecuted for a penalty not exceeding £20 for each offence.

By order of the Justices,
James Stedman, Clerk of the Peace.

Jedburgh, 16th January, 1866.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Burgh of Banff.

I, THOMAS ADAM, Provost of the Royal burgh of Banff, the local authority acting in said Royal burgh, under the Orders of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated 23rd November and 16th December, 1865, anent the Cattle Plague, do hereby declare and give notice that, with a view to prevent the spreading of the Cattle Plague, it is expedient, for the period from the 23rd day of January to the 1st day of March, both 1866, that animals as defined by said Order of Council, dated 23rd November last, that is to say: cows, heifers, bulls, bullocks, oxen, calves, sheep, lambs, goats, and swine, shall not be brought to any place within the said Royal burgh of Banff from any other part of Great Britain beyond the Royal burgh of Banff, except (1) from the county of Banff; (2) from that part of the parish of King Edward, in the county of Aberdeen, bounded by the parishes of Banff, Gamrie, and Alvah, and the River Deveron, in Banffshire; and (3) from those portions of the county of Moray, situated on the east of the River Spey, and north of the River Avon; and that all declarations and notices made by me previous to the date hereof are altered and modified so far as differing from, and inconsistent with, this declaration and notice.

Every person offending is liable to a penalty not exceeding £20 sterling.

Thomas Adam, Provost.

Banff, 18th January, 1866.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

New Order.

County of Surrey.

NOTICE is hereby given, that by authority of an Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated the 16th day of December, 1865, the Justices of the Peace for the county of Surrey, in Quarter Sessions assembled, have declared, and do hereby declare, that it is expedient that from and after the 24th day of January, and thenceforth until the 1st day of March next, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf shall be brought in any way into the county aforesaid, or shall, except under the conditions hereinafter expressed, be removed over, along, or across any highway or public road, not being a railroad, from place to place within the jurisdiction of the said Justices, and that it shall not be lawful for any person to remove any such animal in contravention of this notice.

And notice is hereby further given, that any person acting in contravention of this notice, or otherwise offending in respect thereof, will be liable to a penalty not exceeding £20, provided always that nothing in this notice contained shall make it unlawful for any person, with the previous licence in writing of two Justices acting in and for the said county, to remove any such animal to any slaughter-house to be named in such licence, within the distance of five miles, for the purpose of slaughter only, within 48 hours from the date of such removal.

Provided also, that any person may, with the like licence, remove any such animal from any land or place, being in his own occupation, to any other land or place being also in his own occupation, or may with the like licence, remove from any land or place in his own occupation, any cow or heifer, being his own property, to any other land or place within the jurisdiction aforesaid, where a bull shall be kept, for the purpose of such cow or heifer being served by such bull, and bring or send back such cow or heifer to the place from which the same shall have been so removed, so as every such licence shall specify upon the face thereof, that the Justices signing the same have been satisfied that the Cattle Plague is not existing, and has not for two months existed, in the lands or places from, to, or through which such animals will have to pass, and so also as every such licence shall be liable to be and may be at any time revoked, by any two Justices acting in and for the county aforesaid, for such reasons as to them shall seem sufficient.

Notice is hereby further given, that by virtue of the aforesaid Order of the 16th day of December, 1865, nothing in this notice contained renders it unlawful for any person to send or carry any such animal as aforesaid, by railway through or out of the jurisdiction aforesaid.

From and after the 24th day of January instant, when this Order comes into force, the Order of Quarter Session for this county, bearing date the 4th day of January instant, shall be repealed.

Henry Marshall, Clerk of the Peace for the said county of Surrey.

Dated this 19th day of January, 1866.

THE CATTLE PLAGUE.

Borough of Bedford.

IN pursuance of an Act of Parliament passed in the session of Parliament holden in the 11th and 12th years of the reign of Her present Majesty, for preventing until the 1st day of September, 1850, and to the end of the then next session of Parliament, the spreading of contagious or infectious disorders among sheep, cattle, and other animals, which Act has since been from time to time continued by subsequent Acts; and in pursuance of an Order of Her Majesty's Privy Council, dated the 23rd day of November, 1865, I, William Joseph Nash, Mayor of the borough of Bedford, hereby declare that it is expedient until the 1st day of March next, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, shall be brought from any other part of Great Britain into the borough of Bedford by railway, nor shall any such animal be brought into the borough except for immediate slaughter, and except under the conditions hereinafter imposed, viz:—

That the owner of every such animal shall make a written declaration before a Justice of the said borough that such animal has been in the possession of the owner for 28 days immediately preceding, and during such time has been in a healthy state; that the Cattle Plague does not exist, and for the space of 42 days has not existed, on the land or premises from which it is intended to remove such animal, or within one mile therefrom, and that the owner of every such animal shall also produce to the said Justice a certificate of the Veterinary Inspector of the Petty Sessional Division in which the said land or premises are situate, that to the best of his belief the facts stated in the said declaration are true.

Every animal shall be slaughtered within 72 hours after it shall have been brought into the borough.

I hereby revoke all Orders heretofore made by the local authority in the said borough, in pursuance of the said Act, so far as such Orders respectively are inconsistent therewith.

Every person offending against this Order will be liable to forfeit £20.

The Veterinary Inspector is instructed to examine all cattle brought into the borough, and to demand the necessary declaration and certificate.

The police have special instructions to see that this Order is rigidly enforced.

Dated the 17th day of January, 1866.

W. J. Nash, Mayor.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

The Liberty of Peterborough, in the county of Northampton (to wit).

At the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, held in and for the Liberty of Peterborough, at the New Court House, at Peterborough, on Thursday, the 4th day of January, 1866, before the Right Hon. Sir John Trollope, Baronet, M.P., Chairman, and others, Justices, &c., it was ordered as follows:—

CATTLE PLAGUE.

The Liberty of Peterborough, in the county of Northampton (to wit).

Whereas, by authority of an Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated the 23rd day of November last, made in pursuance of several Acts of Parliament therein mentioned, Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace, acting in and for the several Petty Sessional Divisions within the said Liberty, did publish certain notices. And whereas, Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace, acting in and for the said Liberty, by virtue of the powers vested in them, by another Order of the said Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, bearing date the 16th day of December last, and made under the authority of the therein recited Acts of Parliament, do by this notice revoke the said several notices heretofore made and published by the Justices as aforesaid, and do by this their order declare, that from and after the 4th day of January, 1866—

1. All fairs and markets heretofore held within the said liberty, for the public sale or exhibition of cattle, shall cease to be so held.

2. That the importation of cattle from any other part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland is hereby prohibited.

3. That no cattle be driven or removed from any place within the said liberty, or along any highway within the said liberty, without the order of two Justices of the Peace, acting in and for the said liberty, having been first obtained. Provided always that nothing contained in this notice shall make it unlawful for any person to send or carry any cattle by railway through or out of the said liberty, or to send or carry any cattle if brought by sea from any place out of Great Britain into the said liberty, to the nearest convenient railway station for the purpose of carrying it through or out of the said liberty. Such order for removal shall only be available for three days from the date thereof, including the day of such date.

4. That the police constables acting within the said liberty, are to exercise a careful supervision of all roads and ways within the said liberty, for the purpose of insuring obedience to this order; and any person removing cattle under an order of the Justices aforesaid, shall produce such order to any policeman demanding inspection of the same, but no police constable shall act as inspector of cattle, whether living or dead.

5. That the co-operation of the municipal authorities of the borough within the said liberty, be obtained for the purpose of assisting in carrying out these orders.

6. That the word "Cattle," for the purpose of this orders, shall include any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf.

7. That this order shall continue in force until the 1st day of March next and no longer, unless continued by some further order.

Any person offending against these orders shall, for every such offence, forfeit a sum not exceeding £20, and every person giving any false certificate, or making any false declaration in reference thereto, or altering the said licence when obtained and signed, will be prosecuted according to law.

By the Court,

W. L. Bell,
Deputy Clerk of the Peace.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Cornwall—Epiphany Quarter Sessions, 1866.

At the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace of our Sovereign Lady the Queen, held at Bodmin, in and for the said county, on Tuesday, the second of January, in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of our Sovereign Lady Victoria, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland Queen, Defender of the Faith, and in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, before Sir Colman Rashleigh, Baronet, Sir Charles Brune Graves Sawle, Baronet, John Jope Rogers, Esquire, and others, their companions, Justices of our said Sovereign Lady the Queen, assigned to keep the Peace in and for the said county; and also to hear and determine divers felonies, trespasses, and other misdemeanours committed within the said county; and from thence continued by several adjournments until this 12th day of January, 1866, before the Justices aforesaid, and others their companions as aforesaid, and now held at the Talbot Hotel, in the town of Lostwithiel, in the said county:

Whereas by an Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the 11th and 12th years of the reign of Her present Majesty, "to prevent until the first day of September, 1850, and to the end of the then next session of Parliament, the spreading of contagious or infectious disorders among sheep, cattle, and other animals," (which Act has since been from time to time continued by subsequent Acts, and lastly by the "Expiring Laws Continuance Act, 1865,") it was enacted that it should be lawful for the Lords and others of Her Majesty's Privy Council, or any two or more of them, from time to time to make such orders and regulations as to them might seem necessary for the purpose of prohibiting or regulating the removal to or from such parts or places as they might designate, of sheep, cattle, horses, swine, or other animals, and to make any other orders or regulations for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of the said first-mentioned Act, and again to revoke, alter, or vary any such orders or regulations; and that all provisions for any of the purposes aforesaid in any such order or orders contained, should have the like force and effect as if the same had been inserted in the said first mentioned Act; and that all persons offending should for each and every offence forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding £20, or such smaller sum as the said Lords or others of Her Majesty's Privy Council might in any case direct:

And whereas a contagious or infectious disorder (generally designated the "Cattle Plague") now prevails among cattle within that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain:

And whereas with a view to check the spreading of the said disorder, an Order dated the 23rd of November, 1865, was made (under the authority of the said Act, so continued as aforesaid), by six Lords and others of Her Majesty's Privy Council, consolidating and amending certain Orders in Council previously made for that purpose:

And whereas by a subsequent Order made at the Council Chamber, Whitehall, on the 16th day of December, 1865, by four Lords and others of the said Council, reciting that it was expedient to alter and amend the said Order of the 23rd of November, 1865, the said lastly-mentioned Lords and others of the said Council did, in exercise of the said powers given by the said first-mentioned Act (so continued as aforesaid), order that so much of the said Order, dated the 23rd day of November, 1865, as defined the "local authority" in Great Britain, should be revoked; and that (subject to the powers reserved by the lastly mentioned Order to the Clerk of Her Majesty's Privy Council), the "local authority" within every county in England having a separate Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace should be the Justices of the Peace for the said county in Quarter Sessions assembled:

And whereas the said several Orders or Regulations recited or referred to were duly, within fourteen days after the issuing thereof respectively, twice published in the London Gazette, and also, within fourteen days as aforesaid, twice published in a newspaper circulating in the said county of Cornwall:

And whereas by the said Order of the 16th day of December, 1865, it was further ordered that all appointments made, notices given, and other acts done by any "local authority" under and by virtue of the said Order of the 23rd of November, 1865, or of any of the Orders thereby revoked, should be valid and effectual until altered, varied, or revoked by the "local authority" constituted by the said Order now in recital, and that such "local authority" should have and exercise all the powers given by the said Order of the 23rd of November, 1865, to the "local authority" therein described:

And whereas by the said lastly mentioned Order, it was, amongst other things, ordered that whenever any "local authority" should declare by notice published in any newspaper circulating within their jurisdiction, and also by notice published in some newspaper or newspapers circulating within the county or counties bordering upon the county within which the jurisdiction of such "local authority" is situate, that it is expedient, for a time to be specified in such notice, that animals, as thereinbefore defined, or some specified description thereof, should not, either absolutely or except under such conditions as such "local authority" should think fit to impose (with a view to prevent the spreading of the said disorder), be brought from any other part of Great Britain into any place within their jurisdiction, it should not be lawful for any person to bring or send any such animal or description thereof (except in accordance with such conditions as aforesaid), from any place in Great Britain beyond such jurisdiction into any place within such jurisdiction; and that every person offending against the Order now in recital, should, in pursuance of the said Act, for every offence forfeit any sum not exceeding £20, which the Justices before whom he or she should be convicted might think fit to impose:

And whereas by the said Order of the 16th day of December, 1865, it was further ordered that whenever any "local authority" should, by notice published in any newspaper circulating within its jurisdiction, declare it to be expedient, for a time to be specified in such notice, that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, should (except under such conditions as such "local authority" should think fit to impose with a view to prevent the spreading of the said disorder) be removed from any particular part of the jurisdiction of such "local authority" to any other part of such jurisdiction, or from any place or places within such jurisdiction (to be specified in such notice) to any other such place or places also to be specified, or from place to place generally within such jurisdiction, or within any specified part thereof, then it should not be lawful for any person to remove any such animal in contravention of such notice; and that every person offending against the Order now in recital should, in pursuance of the said Act, for every such offence, forfeit any sum not exceeding £20 which the Justices before whom he or she should be convicted might think fit to impose:

And whereas it is by the said lastly mentioned Order ordered that the same shall be in force from the 3rd day of January, 1866, until the 1st day of March then and now next, and no longer unless continued by some further Order:

And whereas the said county of Cornwall hath a separate Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace, and the Justices of the Peace for the said county in Quarter Sessions assembled are constituted the "local authority" as aforesaid in the said county of Cornwall:

And whereas the said lastly mentioned Justices (being such "local authority") are satisfied of the existence of the said disorder in the district over which their jurisdiction extends:

Now therefore, the Justices here in Quarter Sessions assembled as aforesaid, and sitting in open court this 12th day of January, 1866, have ordered that it be declared by this notice published in newspapers circulating within their jurisdiction, and also by notice published in newspapers circulating in the county of Devon, and they do hereby order, resolve, and declare:—

That it is expedient, for the purpose of preventing the Cattle Plague, that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine be brought or sent to any market or fair to be holden within the county of Cornwall, or to any place whatever within the said county, or to any place in the said county, for the purpose of exhibition or sale, from the 16th day of January instant, the date of the publication hereof in the required newspapers, until the 1st day of March next.

That, between the dates aforesaid, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, swine, or goat be brought from any other part of Great Britain to any place within the said county.

That, between the dates aforesaid, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf shall be removed from one place to another in the said county, except under the following conditions:—

1st. That fat cattle and calves sold for slaughtering, be branded with the letter X on the hind quarter, and be killed within three days of the time of removal; such removal to take place only upon the certificate of two Justices of the Peace acting for the Petty Sessional Division from which any such animal shall be removed, countersigned by a Justice acting for the Petty Sessional Division into or through which such animal shall be removed, stating the name and residence of the seller, the destination of the animal, the name of the purchaser, and the fact that the Justices have been satisfied by the evidence of the Inspector, or otherwise, of the healthiness of such animal, and that it has been in the possession of the seller for at least thirty days previously, and that no case of Cattle Plague has occurred within two months within three miles of the place from which the animal shall come; which certificate shall be in force for not more than three days.

2nd. That, on a certificate of two Magistrates of the Petty Sessional Division, any cow or heifer may be driven to a bull within the the same division any distance not exceeding two miles each way in going to and returning from the bull; such certificate to state the place to which the animal is to be driven, and to be countersigned by the owner of the bull, and sent by him to the clerk to the Magistrates of the division.

Every certificate on sale of cattle or other animals is to be executed in triplicate, one part whereof is to be forthwith transmitted by the Justices granting the same to the Clerk of the Peace; one to be retained by the seller; and one to be delivered to the purchaser, and be held by the person in charge of the animal to be shown to any one requiring to see the same, and on the arrival of the animal at its destination, the certificate shall be delivered to the officer in charge of the nearest police station.

Every such certificate shall be revocable if improperly obtained, or on other reasonable grounds.

Provided that this Order shall not extend to prevent any occupier of a farm not infected with cattle disease from using a public highway for removing his cattle from one part of his farm to any other part of the same farm.

And the Justices aforesaid do hereby further order, resolve, and declare that, save and except so far only as the appointments made, notices given, and other acts done by the Justices acting in and for the Petty Sessional Divisions of the county of Cornwall may be altered or revoked by this or by any subsequent declaration or order; such appointments, notices, and acts shall remain in force until the same are declared by such declaration or order to cease; and they do hereby further order, resolve, and declare that from and after the said 16th day of January instant to the said 1st day of March next, it shall not be lawful to remove any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, within the jurisdiction of this court, except between the hours of seven in the morning and five in the evening.

And the said Justices hereby further give notice that every person offending against the terms of this declaration and notice will for every offence be liable to a penalty of £20.

No. 23062.

C

And the said Justices further order that the several Inspectors, and where Inspectors shall not have been appointed, then that the Clerks of the Petty Sessional Divisions be requested to forward to the Clerk of the Peace the names of the different farms and places where the Cattle Plague has appeared, with the date of the last cases, for the information of the magistrates.

By the Court,

Stokes,
Clerk of the Peace.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

(ORDERS IN COUNCIL.)

11 and 12 Vic., cap. 107.

Durham to wit.

At the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace of our Lady the Queen, holden at Durham, in and for the county of Durham, by adjournment, on Wednesday, the 17th day of January, in the 29th year of the reign of our Sovereign Lady, Victoria, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, and in the year of our Lord 1866, before Rowland Burdon (Chairman), John Fawcett, John Fogg Elliot, Esquires, and others their fellows, Justices of our said Lady the Queen, assigned to keep the Peace of our said Lady the Queen, in the said county, and also to hear and determine divers felonies, trespasses, and other misdemeanours done and committed in the said county.

In pursuance of the Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council, dated 16th December, 1865, transferring within the jurisdiction of this county all the power contained in the Orders of the said Privy Council of the 23rd November last, to the Justices of the Peace for the same county in Quarter Sessions assembled, as the local authority for the purpose of carrying into effect the said Orders in Council, the said Justices at these Quarter Sessions, having weighed and considered the several matters aforesaid, do hereby deem it expedient, and do in lieu and instead of the Orders made and passed on the 3rd day of January instant, make and pass the resolutions and Orders next hereinafter mentioned, to take effect as and from this day, that is to say:

1st. It is resolved and ordered, that with a view to prevent the spread of the Cattle Plague, all notices heretofore published, declarations made, acts done, and proceedings taken by local authorities in the several Petty Sessional Divisions of the county of Durham, under or by virtue of the Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council, dated the 23rd day of November, 1865, respecting the Cattle Plague, be, and the same are hereby revoked.

2nd. That henceforth, until the 1st day of March next, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine, be brought from any other part of Great Britain into any part of the county of Durham, over which this Court has jurisdiction, except that it shall not be unlawful for any person to send or carry any such animal by railway through or out of such jurisdiction, or to send or carry any such animal, if brought by sea from any place out of Great Britain into such jurisdiction, to the nearest convenient railway Station, for the purpose of carrying and conveying the same through or out of such jurisdiction.

3rd. That until the 1st day of March next, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, be removed from any place within the jurisdiction aforesaid to any other place within the same jurisdiction.

4th. That it shall not be deemed a contravention of this order for any person to remove any such animals as aforesaid from one part of a farm to another adjoining part of the same farm, within the jurisdiction aforesaid, although in order to effect such removal it may be necessary to drive or convey such animals over a public highway, or for any person to remove any such animals as aforesaid from one farm to another farm bonâ fide in his or her own occupation, however distant from each other such farms may be respectively; or to drive or take a cow to a bull on another farm within such jurisdiction, provided that in all such several cases the person intending so to remove or take such animals, shall, previous to such removal, obtain the written consent of two of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace, such consent to be granted only on proof to the satisfaction of such Justices that Cattle Plague does not exist at or in the neighbourhood of the place from whence such removal is proposed to be made, or along the route on which it is proposed to drive, take, remove, or convey the said animals.

5th. That it shall not be deemed a contravention of this order for any person to bring a bull from without the jurisdiction aforesaid into the same jurisdiction, or from one part of such jurisdiction into another part of the same jurisdiction, provided a certificate be previously obtained of the perfect health of such bull from two of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace and an inspector acting for the place or district from which such bull shall be brought, and with the consent of two of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace and an inspector acting within the jurisdiction into which such bull is to be brought.

6th. That the person in charge of animals permitted to be removed as aforesaid shall carry with and when thereunto required produce to all inspectors, policemen, constables, overseers, and other public officers, requiring the same the certificates, order, or consent for such removal.

7th. That where a farm is situate partly in the county of Durham and partly in another adjoining county, animals may be removed from such part of the farm as is without the county of Durham to the adjoining part of the farm within the said county.

Lastly. Every person offending against the tenor hereof, will for every offence forfeit any sum, not exceeding £20, which the Justices before whom he or they shall be convicted may think fit to impose.

By the Court,

Philipson, Clerk of the Peace.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

County of Northumberland.

At an adjournment of the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace of our Lady the Queen, held at the Moot Hall, in and for the said county, on the 18 day of January, in the 29th year of the reign of our Sovereign Lady Victoria, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, before Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace assigned to keep the peace in the said county.

CATTLE PLAGUE.—(ORDERS IN COUNCIL.)
11th and 12th Vict., cap. 107.

In pursuance of the Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council, dated 16th December,

1865, transferring all the powers contained in the Orders of the said Privy Council of the 23rd November last to the Justices of the Peace for this county, in Quarter Sessions assembled, as the Local Authority for the purpose of carrying into effect the said Orders in Council, the said Justices at these Quarter Sessions, having weighed and considered the several matters referred to them, made and passed the resolutions and orders next hereinafter mentioned, that is to say:—

1. Resolved.—That the resolutions of the Quarter Sessions made on the 3rd day of January instant, be confirmed, except where otherwise altered by these regulations.

2. That with a view to prevent the spreading of the Cattle Plague, from and after the 5th day of January instant, all appointments made, notices given, and other acts done by any Local Authority within the county of Northumberland, under and by virtue of the Order in Council of 23rd November last, shall cease to be valid and effectual, except the appointment of Inspectors already made by the Justices in Petty Sessions.

3. And that from and after the said 5th day of January, it shall not be lawful for any person to bring or send any animal as defined by the Order in Council of 23rd November last, from any part of Great Britain into any place within the jurisdiction of this Local Authority; but this prohibition does not apply to any such animals as are sent by railway through this jurisdiction; nor where any person, with the licence of two Justices acting within the limits of this jurisdiction, brings or sends any such animals from any land or premises in his own occupation, and beyond this jurisdiction, to any other land or premises in his own occupation, within this jurisdiction.

4. That all markets and fairs for animals as defined by the Order in Council, within this jurisdiction, be prohibited from the 5th of January until the 1st of March.

[N.B.—Newcastle, Morpeth, Berwick, and Tynemouth are not within this jurisdiction.]

5. That the movement of any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, from one place to another, within this jurisdiction, be prohibited, except under an order signed by one Justice, in the Form (A) hereunto annexed.

6. That any Justice is hereby authorized to grant a prospective permission in writing for a cow to go to the bull, according to Form (B) hereunto written:—

7. That no Justice give the aforesaid orders unless he is satisfied that there is due cause for such cattle being removed from one place to another, or for their being taken out of the district, in which case they shall be taken to the nearest railway station; or to some cattle market out of the jurisdiction.

8. That the person in charge of cattle to be removed from one place to another, within the jurisdiction, shall carry with him the order for their removal; and that the police, Inspectors of cattle, Overseers of the Poor, and other public officers be strictly charged to require all persons they may find driving cattle along the roads to produce such order.

By the Court,

Dickson.

CATTLE PLAGUE (A).

I, the undersigned, the owner of the cattle herein referred to, and we, the undersigned, occupiers of land, in the county of Northumberland, whose rentals are severally £100 a year, at the least, do hereby solemnly and sincerely declare as follows:—

1. That the said owner of the cattle wishes to remove the following animals from his farm of _____ to _____, viz. (Here state the kinds.)

2. That we have personally examined such cattle and the premises in which they have been kept, and that they are healthy and free from cattle plague.

3. That we believe that no cattle plague has existed within twenty-eight days, either in the place in which such cattle has been kept, or within two miles thereto, and that during the whole of which period they have been upon the premises of the said owner.

4. That the following is the route along which the cattle are to pass, no part of which, to the best of our belief, is within two miles of a place infected with the cattle plague. (Here add the route.)

5. That this declaration or permit be returned to the Justice issuing the same, on the 5th day after receiving it, by post.

6. That where the owner cannot conveniently make this declaration himself he may do so by his bailiff, or farm steward, or by any other person authorized by him, by writing under his hand, to make it on his behalf.

7. That the prohibition to remove cattle from one place to another within the jurisdiction, shall not apply to the removal of cattle from one part to another of adjoining lands in the occupation of the same person; nor to driving cattle backwards and forwards between their ordinary pasture and the shed or building where they are usually kept, provided that they shall not be sent more than half a mile along the public road, nor to any place where there has been cattle plague within one month, and that in any such case cattle shall not be allowed to be sent at all along the public road.

8. And we make this declaration, conscientiously believing the same to be true, by virtue of the statute.

Owner of the cattle.

Occupiers of land.

Declared by the said _____, this _____ day of _____, 1866, at _____, in the said county, before me,

A Justice of the Peace for the said county.

I, the Justice above-named, do hereby authorize the removal of the cattle as mentioned in the above-written declaration, within three days from the date hereof.

CATTLE PLAGUE (B.)

I, the undersigned, Justice of the Peace for the county of Northumberland, do hereby permit a cow belonging to _____ to pass from the said owner's premises at _____ to _____, for the purpose of going to the bull, by the following route, and to return by the same route, namely:—(Here set out the route.)

This order to be in force for three days, and to be returned to me on the fifth day from the date hereof, provided that, should the cattle plague break out within one mile of either of the aforesaid places, or the route passed over, before this permission is put into force, or should I, the said Justice, see other reasons to retract it, by notice given in writing to the said owner, then this permission shall become entirely void.

Given under my hand, this _____ day of _____, 1866.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

Borough of Hythe.

I, THOMAS DENNE, Esquire, Mayor of Hythe acting under authority of divers Orders of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, do hereby declare by this notice, that it is expedient, and therefore I do direct:—

That on and from the 22nd day of January instant, to the 1st day of March next, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, sheep, goat, or swine, shall be removed to any market or fair, or parish or place whatsoever within my jurisdiction for the purpose of exhibition or sale.

That on and from the said 22nd day of January instant, to the 1st day of March next, no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, shall be brought or removed from any place without my jurisdiction aforesaid to any place within my jurisdiction, nor be on, nor pass over, along, or across any highway or public road within my said jurisdiction.

Provided always that nothing contained in these directions shall make it unlawful for any person to send or carry any such animal by railway through or out of such jurisdiction, or to send or carry any such animal if brought by sea, from any place out of Great Britain, into such jurisdiction, to the nearest convenient railway station, for the purpose of carrying it through or out of such jurisdiction.

All constables within my jurisdiction are hereby ordered to aid in giving effect to the foregoing directions.

Given under my hand this 17th day of January, 1866.

Thomas Denne, Mayor.

N.B.—Under the Order of Council of the 23rd day of November, 1865, the exhibitor, seller, or buyer of animals so removed, will be guilty of an unlawful act, and be liable to punishment accordingly. And any person offending against any of the above directions will be liable to a penalty of £20 for each animal so unlawfully dealt with.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

At the Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, held by adjournment at Nether Knutsford, in and for the county of Chester, on Wednesday, the 3rd day of January, 1866.

In pursuance of an Order of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated the 16th day of December, 1865, this Court doth by this notice declare that it is expedient, from the 8th day of January instant until the 1st day of March next, that no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, or calf, shall be removed from place to place within the jurisdiction of this Court as a local authority under the said Order in Council (that is to say, within the entire county of Chester, except the municipal boroughs within the same county) on, along, or across any turnpike road, highway, or occupation road, or the sides thereof respectively, except in closed vans, certified by two Magistrates of the said county, as being sufficient to prevent contagion; and in further pursuance of the said Order in Council, this Court doth hereby alter and revoke so much and such parts of all notices heretofore given by any local authority under and by virtue of another Order of the Lords of the Privy Council, dated the 23rd November last, or the Orders thereby revoked, as are inconsistent with this notice.

By the Court,

Charles William Potts, Clerk of the Peace.

NOTE.—Every person offending against the provisions of this notice is liable to a penalty of £20 for each offence.

CONTRACT FOR SUET.

Contract Department, Admiralty,
Somerset House, January 12,
1866.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice that on Wednesday, the 24th instant, at twelve o'clock at noon, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford,

50,000 lbs. of SUET, to be tendered for at a rate per 100 lbs. 8,000 thereof to be delivered by the 3rd February next, and the remainder thereof in six weeks afterwards, in equal weekly deliveries.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the suet.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application in the Lobby of the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House, where the conditions of the contracts may be seen.

No tender will be received after twelve o'clock at noon on the day of treaty; and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Suet," and must also be delivered at the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House.

CONTRACT FOR PORT WINE.

Contract Department, Admiralty,
Somerset House, January 17,
1866.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Monday, the 5th February next, at twelve o'clock at noon, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford,

Port Wine, 1,000 gallons (to be tendered for at a rate per gallon); to be delivered within three weeks from date of contract.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the article.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection,

The wine to be exempted from the Customs' duties, and parties tendering are to state where it is lying.

Samples of the wine (in pints) from each cask, must be produced by the parties tendering, and not samples only for each import mark.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted, are to be taken away by them immediately after the contract has been decided.

No tender will be received unless made in accordance with the above denomination of quantity and rate; and contractors in claiming payment are to make out their invoices in accordance therewith.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, which may be obtained on application in the Lobby of the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House.

Particular attention is called to the conditions of the contract, which may be seen in the said Lobby.

No tender will be received after twelve o'clock at noon on the day of treaty; and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and to his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words "Tender for Port Wine," and must also be delivered at the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House.

CONTRACT FOR TOBACCO.

Contract Department, Admiralty,
Somerset House, January 17,
1866.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday, the 31st instant, at twelve o'clock at noon, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford,

Tobacco, 100,000 lbs. (to be tendered for at a rate per 100 lbs.); half to be delivered in three weeks from date of contract, and the remainder thereof in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the article.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection.

The tobacco to be exempted from the Customs' duties, and parties tendering are to state where it is lying.

Each tender for tobacco must specify the several trade marks and numbers, and the countries or places of its growth or produce, and a fresh drawn dock sample of each cask or package must be produced by the parties tendering, and any cask or package that is found not to be of the same mark, number or quality as the sample tendered and accepted, will be rejected by the Officers.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted, are to be taken away by them immediately after the contract has been decided.

No tenders will be received unless made in accordance with the above denomination of quantity and rate; and contractors in claiming payment are to make out their invoices in accordance therewith.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, which may be obtained on application in the Lobby of the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House.

Particular attention is called to the conditions of the contract, which may be seen in the said Lobby.

No tender will be received after twelve o'clock at noon on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the Office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and to his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Tobacco," and must also be delivered at the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House.

CONTRACTS FOR VINEGAR, RAISINS, AND SUGAR.

Contract Department, Admiralty,
Somerset House, January 17,
1866.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Friday, the 2nd February next, at twelve o'clock at noon, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, the undermentioned articles; viz.:

Vinegar, 20,000 gallons (to be tendered for at a rate per 100 gallons); half to be delivered in one calendar month from date of contract, and the remainder in one calendar month afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Raisins, 50,000 lbs. (to be tendered for at a rate per 100 lbs.); half to be delivered in three weeks from date of contract, and the remainder thereof in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Sugar, 500,000 lbs. (to be tendered for at a rate per 100 lbs.); half to be delivered in three weeks from date of contract, and the remainder thereof in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the articles.

Separate tenders are to be made for each article.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any; and also an unlimited power of selection.

The sugar and raisins to be exempted from the Customs' duties, and parties tendering are to state where they are lying.

Samples of the vinegar (not less than a quart), which the parties tendering may propose to supply, must accompany their tenders, as the delivery will be required to be made in accordance with the samples which may be accepted, and the vinegar tendered is to be of No. 20, trade denomination.

Samples of the raisins (not less than 3 lbs.), must be produced by the parties tendering.

Each tender for sugar must specify the Mark and Landing Number of each cask or package, the ship in which imported, and the country or place of their growth or produce, and an average sample (not less than 2 lbs. for each Import Mark), must be produced by the parties tendering, and not an average of different Marks or several Imports, and any parcel that is found not to be of the same Mark or average quality as the sample tendered and accepted, will be rejected by the Officers.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted are to be taken away by them immediately after the contracts have been decided.

No tenders will be received unless made in accordance with the above denomination of quantities and rates, and contractors in claiming payment for articles supplied are to make out their invoices in accordance therewith, both as to quantities and rates.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, which may be obtained on application in the Lobby of the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House.

Particular attention is called to the conditions of the contracts, which may be seen in the said Lobby.

No tender will be received after twelve o'clock at noon on the day of treaty; and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and to his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words "Tender for" and must also be delivered at the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House.

CONTRACT FOR COCOA.

Contract Department, Admiralty,
Somerset House, January 17,
1866.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Monday, the 29th instant, at twelve o'clock at noon, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford,

Cocoa, 400,000 lbs. (to be tendered for at a rate per 100 lbs.); half to be delivered in three weeks from date of contract, and the remainder thereof in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the cocoa.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection.

The cocoa to be exempted from the Customs' duties, and parties tendering are to state where it is lying.

Each tender for cocoa must specify the mark and landing number of each cask or package, the ship in which imported, and the country or place of its growth or produce, and an average sample (not less than 2 lbs. for each import mark) must be produced by the parties tendering, and not an average of different marks or several imports, and any parcel that is found not to be of the same mark or average quality as the sample tendered and accepted, will be rejected by the Officers.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted, are requested to be taken away by them immediately after the contract has been decided.

No tenders will be received unless made in accordance with the above denomination of quantity and rate; and contractors in claiming payment are to make out their invoices in accordance therewith.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application in the Lobby of the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House.

Particular attention is called to the conditions of the contract, which may be seen in the said Lobby.

No tender will be received after twelve o'clock at noon on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and to his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for" and must also be delivered at the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House.

CONTRACT FOR ASH HOOPS.

Contract Department, Admiralty,
Somerset House, January 19,
1866.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Monday, the 29th instant, at twelve o'clock at noon, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, all such quantities of as shall from time to time be demanded under a contract for twelve calendar months certain, and further, until the expiration of three calendar months' warning.

Samples of the hoops must be produced by the parties tendering.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted are requested to be taken away by them immediately after the contract has been decided.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application in the Lobby of the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House, where the conditions of the contract may be seen.

No tender will be received after twelve o'clock at noon on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf should attend at the office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and his proposed sureties in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Ash Hoops," and must also be delivered at the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering in the sum of £100 for the due performance of the contract.
