

writing, of the fact to the Chief Constable or Superintendent of Police of the county or borough in which such Sheep or Lambs may be.

VI.

And it is further ordered that this Order shall continue in force until revoked.

Arthur Helps.

THE following Notices have been received by the Clerk of the Council from the Local Authorities appointed under the Orders of the Lords of the Council relating to the "Cattle Plague," and are published in the London Gazette in conformity with the requirements of their Lordships' Orders :—

CATTLE PLAGUE.

East Riding of the county of York.

At the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace of our Sovereign Lady the Queen, held at the Sessions House, in Beverley, in and for the said Riding, on Tuesday, the 3rd day of April, 1866, before the Hon. Arthur Duncombe (Chairman), the Right Hon. Lord Wenlock, and others, Justices there.

The Order in Council dated the 24th day of March, 1866, relative to the cattle plague, having been read,

It is ordered :—

1. That the Orders of this Court dated the 27th day of February last, for the appointments of a General Committee of Petty Sessional Committees, and of inspectors and officers, and the dismissal of any such inspectors and officers, be and the same are hereby continued and confirmed.

2. That all the powers vested in this Court, as the local authority for the Riding, by clauses 12, 13, 14, 15, and 16 of "The Cattle Diseases Prevention Act, 1866," and by the said Order of Privy Council (except the power to make a rate, or to exempt from rate, or to make any orders whatever for payment of money), be and the same are hereby delegated to the several Petty Sessional Committees, to be exercised by each Committee in and for its own division.

3. No person shall remove any cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, or swine, from place to place in the said Riding except between sunrise and sunset, nor without first obtaining the licence, in writing, of a Justice of the Peace of the Riding, to be granted by such Justice on application by the owner or duly authorised agent of such owner, upon the Justice being satisfied that every such animal has been on the owner's uninfected premises for twenty-eight days and is then in good health, and that the cattle plague does not exist and has not existed on the said premises at any time during the twenty-eight days then next preceding and does not exist and has not existed for twenty-eight days on the premises to which the removal is licenced.

4. It shall not be lawful henceforth for any person to remove from place to place in the said Riding any raw or untanned hides or skins, or any horns or hoofs of any of the last-named animals, unless the same are effectually covered; or any dung, hay, straw, fodder, or litter likely to propagate infection.

5. Every drover or person removing any animal shall, on demand, produce his licence and show the same to any Justice, police constable, or inspector requiring the same.

6. That the clauses in the Order of this Court made on the 27th day of February, 1866, and numbered 1, 2, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 10 (substituting the 16th day of April for the 25th day of March in clause 10), be and the same are hereby continued and confirmed.

7. That clauses 3, 9, 11, 12, 13, 14, and 15 of the said Order of the 27th day of February last, shall henceforth cease to have any effect, without prejudice nevertheless to the prosecution of any offence that may have been committed against the last-mentioned clauses, or any of them, or the recovery of any penalty in respect of such offence.

8. That this Order be deemed published by notice in the Eastern Morning News newspaper of Wednesday, the 4th day of April instant.

Pursuant to the foregoing Order of Sessions, I do hereby give notice thereof accordingly.

George Leeman, Clerk of the Peace.

Beverley, 3rd April, 1866.

CATTLE PLAGUE.

County of Dumfries.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the County Board of the county of Dumfries, constituting the Local Authority of the said county, under and for the purposes of "The Cattle Diseases Prevention Act, 1866," and as such invested with the powers conferred by the Orders of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, deeming it to be expedient, with a view to prevent the further spreading of the disorder generally designated the "Cattle Plague," further to consolidate, alter, and amend the resolutions previously declared and published by Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the said county, and by the said Board, have resolved and declared, and hereby declare, that, subject to the exceptions and conditions after mentioned, it is expedient, with the said view, on and after the 7th day of April current, and until the 1st day of May next, or until the present notice shall be revoked :—

I. That no cow, heifer, bull, bullock, ox, calf, sheep, lamb, goat, or swine, and no raw or untanned hides or skins, horns, hoofs, or offal, of any such animals, and no dung, hay, straw, fodder, or litter, likely to propagate infection, shall be brought or sent from any place in Great Britain beyond the jurisdiction of the said County Board, into any place within such jurisdiction :

Excepting and providing always, that sheep, lambs, goats, and swine, and such articles as aforesaid, may be brought or sent by any person, with the licence of any two Justices of the Peace acting in and for such jurisdiction, from any land and premises in his own occupation beyond, to any other land or premises in his own occupation within, such jurisdiction, during a time to be specified in such licence; the licence, in the case of sheep, being accompanied by a certificate by an Inspector acting in the jurisdiction from which they are to be moved, that the sheep are free from disease of any kind, that the farm from which they are to be removed is not infected with Rinderpest or Cattle Plague, or within a radius of three miles from the nearest point of any infected farm, premises, or place, and that the route by which it is intended to drive the said sheep is not