LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1858.

ADOPTION OF ACT BY PART OF MANTHORPE CUM LITTLE GONERBY, LINCOLNSHIRE.

WHEREAS an Appeal under the Local Government Act, 1858, has been duly made to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, from ratepayers of the township of Manthorpe cum Little Gonerby, in the county of Lincoln, setting forth grounds on which the appellants oppose the adoption of the said Act within the said township (the resolution for which adoption was passed on the 29th day of March, 1866), and praying for the exclusion of the said township from the operation of the said Act. And whereas inquiry has been directed into the circumstances of the case, and such inquiry has been duly made therein by Robert Morgan, Esquire, the inspector appointed for such purpose, and the result thereof reported to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Now, therefore, I, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as aforesaid, do issue the following order, and do determine the questions arising on such appeal as follows:—

That it has not been proved to my satisfaction that it is expedient that the said township of Manthorpe cum Little Gonerby should adopt the Local Government Act, 1858; and I do hereby further order that from and after the 1st day of August, 1866, the said Local Government Act do come into force within so much only of the said township as lies without the boundaries of the Ecclesiastical District of Manthorpe, and which still remains in the parish of Grantham. And whereas proof has also been given to my satisfaction that (although the district of Little Gonerby in which the Local Government Act will come into force as aforesaid contained a population of less than 3000 by the last census), it is expedient, by reason of special circumstances, that such adoption should be allowed, I do hereby approve of such Act coming into force within Little Gonerby aforesaid.

Given under my hand this 14th day of July, 1866.

Now, therefore, I, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, do hereby give notice, that the Local Government Act, 1858, has been duly adopted within the said township of Much Woolton (excluding the aforesaid hamlet of Thingwell), in the county of Lancaster, and that in accordance with the provisions thereof, the said Act will have the force of law within the aforesaid portion of the said township, at the expiration of two months from the date of the aforesaid resolution of adoption.
