AT the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of November, 1866.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Naval Savings Banks Act, 1866, it is enacted (among other things) that the said Act shall, with respect to the making of any Order in Council under it, take effect from its passing, and shall in all other respects take effect from the time appointed for its commencement by any such Order :

And whereas by the same Act it is also enacted that the Admiralty may establish Naval Savings Banks for the receipt of deposits of money from Petty Officers and Seamen borne on the books of any vessel in Her Majesty's service and from Non-commissioned Officers and Privates of the Royal Marines :

And whereas by the same Act it is further enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council from time to time to make, by Order in Council, such Regulations as to Her Majesty in Council seem meet for the management of Naval Savings Banks, and thereby to prescribe (among other things) the rate of interest to be allowed on deposits, not exceeding the rate of three pounds fifteen shillings per centum per annum, and the terms and conditions on which deposits are to be received and interest is to be paid.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers in this behalf by the said Act or otherwise in Her vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows :—

Preliminary.

1. The said Act and this Order shall commence from and immediately after the making of this Order.

2. In this Order—

The term Admiralty means the Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom, or the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral :

The term Paymaster includes Assistant Paymaster or Clerk, having the charge of the ship's books and accounts, or the Paymaster of a division of Royal Marines.

How Savings Banks to be Established.

3. Upon directions being given by the Admiralty a Naval Savings Bank may be established on board any of Her Majesty's ships, or at the head quarters of a division of Royal Marines (in this Order called quarters, or Marine quarters).

Savings Bank Committee.

4. Where a Naval Savings Bank is established, the supervision of the accounts and the general management of the Bank, subject and according to the provisions of this Order, shall be vested in a Committee consisting :

- (1.) On board a ship: of the commanding officer, the second in command, and the senior commissioned officer of marines ;
- (2.) At Marine quarters: of the commanding officer, the second in command, and the Adjutant.

5. On board a ship where there is no Commissioned Officer of Marines, the third member of the Committee shall be the Chaplain or the Senior Medical Officer.

When Bank to be open.

6. On board a ship in which a Naval Savings Bank is established, the Bank shall be open on the days (due notice being previously given) when monthly advances are paid, and in any month in which advances are not wanted the Committee shall appoint a day when the Bank shall be open.

7. At Marine quarters where a Naval Savings Bank is established the Bank shall be open (due notice being previously given) upon such days as the Committee and the Accountant-General of the Navy appoint.

Deposits.

8. The Paymaster, under the direction of the Committee, shall receive into his chest, as Public Money to be repaid out of Public Money, any sum presented for deposit by a person eligible to become a depositor, but no sum less than one shilling shall be received nor any fractional part of a shilling.

Depositors to Invest their own Money only.

9. To prevent persons not specified in the Act as eligible to become depositors from availing themselves of the advantages afforded by the Naval Savings Banks, no Seaman, Marine, or other Person so eligible shall on any pretence deposit in his own name the money of any other person, whether a Seaman or Marine or not ; and in case any money is so deposited in contravention of this Order it shall be forfeited to the public, and one-half of the amount, or 5*l.* where a moiety would exceed that sum, shall be allowed the informer, unless the whole amount shall, upon a special consideration of the circumstances of the case by the Admiralty, be restored to the owner of the money so deposited.

Minority of Depositors.

10. Where the depositor is an infant, the deposit with any interest thereon shall be repayable to himself only, and his receipt shall be a sufficient discharge for the same, notwithstanding his infancy ; but in any case of fraud the Admiralty shall not be liable to pay the amount twice.

Depositors becoming of Unsound Mind.

11. Where it is made to appear to the satisfaction of the Admiralty that a depositor has become of unsound mind (though not found lunatic by inquisition), the whole or any parts of his deposits with interest thereon may be paid over, under the direction of the Admiralty, to the wife or relative or other person having the care and maintenance of such depositor, to be applied for his maintenance and benefit.

Depositors Deserting.

12. Deserters from a ship surrendering before the ship is put out of commission shall not forfeit their deposits or the interest thereon ; and the Admiralty may in any case of desertion, if they think fit, remit the forfeiture of deposits and interest.

Payments Final.

13. Payment to a depositor in the presence of any member of the Committee as such shall be good and sufficient discharge for any principal or interest so paid to any depositor ; and every payment made by the Admiralty under this Order shall be good and valid against all persons, and the Admiralty shall be absolutely discharged from all liability in respect of money so paid.

Withdrawals.

14. A depositor afloat wishing to withdraw the whole or any portion of his deposit, shall give to the Paymaster seven days notice prior to the next day of paying the monthly advances, in order that the necessary arrangements may be made on the same.

15. A depositor at marine quarters wishing to withdraw the whole or any portion of his deposit shall give to the Captain of his company seven days' notice prior to a day on which the Bank may be open, in order that the Paymaster may be duly informed.

16. Payment may, however, be made forthwith, if the Commanding Officer is satisfied of the urgency of the case, and that the immediate withdrawal of the deposit would be for the advantage of the depositor.

17. No sum less than one shilling shall be withdrawn.

Lists of Deposits and Withdrawals.

18. At the time of receipt of the amounts deposited, the Paymaster shall prepare a list of the same to be transmitted on the same day to the Accountant-General of the Navy.

19. On the last day of each month a list of deposits withdrawn during the month shall be made by the Paymaster, and transmitted to the Accountant-General of the Navy.

20. Before transmission, the correctness of both lists shall be certified by the Committee.

21. In case no deposits or no withdrawals are effected during the month, a nil return, signed by the Committee and the Paymaster, shall, in either case, be transmitted to the Accountant-General of the Navy.

Depositors transferred to other Ships, or Marine Quarters.

22. When a depositor is transferred from one ship to another, or, if a marine, from one division of quarters to another, or from quarters to a ship, or from a ship to quarters, his account shall be closed on board the ship or at the quarters he leaves; and, unless he requires to withdraw his deposits as provided by section 16 of this Order, it shall be reopened on board the ship, or at the quarters he joins by a Transfer List showing the balance and interest due to him.

23. The Transfer List shall be made out by the Paymaster, and certified by the Committee, in duplicate: one copy to be sent with the depositor to the ship or quarters to which he is transferred, and the other copy to the Accountant-General of the Navy.

24. The Paymaster of the ship or quarters to which the depositor is transferred shall in like manner prepare in duplicate, to be certified by the Committee in the latter ship or quarters, an abstract of the number of depositors so transferred at one time; and of the amount of the balances and interest due to them: one copy to be sent to the Commanding Officer of the ship or at the quarters from which the depositors are received, and the other to the Accountant-General of the Navy.

25. Should there not be a Naval Savings Bank in the ship or quarters to which a depositor is transferred, no further deposit shall be received from him while he remains there, but he may withdraw any portion of his deposits, or the whole with the interest thereon, in cash, or on his discharge have the total principal and interest assigned for payment at the Office of the Admiralty; and the Commanding Officer and the Paymaster of such ship or quarters shall, so far as relates to such withdrawals, govern themselves by this Order in the same manner as if a Naval Savings Bank were established therein.

26. On the further transfer of any such depositor from a ship or quarters in which there is not a Naval Savings Bank or his return to his former ship or quarters, unless he has withdrawn the whole amount to his credit, sections 22 to 24 of this Order shall apply, except that when all the depositors, whether one or more, included in the Transfer List received with them are retransferred, such Transfer List shall be the list required by section 23 to be sent to the Commanding Officer, and a copy of the same shall be sent to the Accountant-General of the Navy.

27. Every payment made on a Transfer List in a ship or quarters where a Naval Savings Bank is not established, and every retransfer therefrom, shall be noted on the Transfer List, and when the whole of the credits thereon are severally paid, or retransferred, or merged in the effects of a depositor dying while in such ship or quarters, of which notation shall also be made thereon, the Transfer List shall be sent to the Accountant-General of the Navy.

Deposit or Pass Book.

28. Each depositor on making his first deposit shall be furnished by the Paymaster for retention in his own custody, with a deposit or pass book, in which shall be entered at the time of receipt or payment the several sums deposited or withdrawn, and the Paymaster and a member of the Committee shall acknowledge by their initials therein the receipt of all deposits, and the payment of all sums withdrawn.

29. Each pass book on issue to a ship or quarters shall bear a distinguishing number, not necessarily as recording the consecutive order of deposit accounts but for identification.

30. Should a depositor lose his pass book the Committee may direct that he be supplied with a duplicate book.

Savings Bank Ledger.

31. Under the inspection of the Committee, and secured by lock and key, the Paymaster shall keep an account book or ledger, in which shall be entered on the same day that the deposits, or withdrawals, or transfers are effected, the several sums to the debit or credit of each depositor.

Abstract Account.

32. Auxiliary to the Savings Bank Ledger, the Paymaster shall keep an abstract account of the deposits, withdrawals, and transfers, regularly posted, by inserting therein the totals of the respective lists in the order of the dates of the several aggregates of transactions occurring on the same days, and also on those dates, the interest accrued on each aggregate balance left from the date of the previous aggregate of transactions, in order that this account may afford an efficient check on the correctness of the depositors' accounts.

33. From a ship in which a Naval Savings Bank is established the abstract account shall be rendered as provided by sections 47 and 49 of this Order.

34. From marine quarters where a Naval Savings Bank is established the Paymaster shall transmit a duplicate of the abstract account to the Accountant-General of the Navy annually.

Interest.

35. Interest on deposits shall be allowed for every completed day on every shilling deposited, at the full rate sanctioned by the Act, namely, 3*l.* 15*s.* 0*d.* per cent. per annum, so far as the same can be conveniently computed, but no interest shall be allowed on interest accruing on deposits.

36. To insure accuracy in the computation of the interest, and to provide an efficient aggregate check thereon, it shall be calculated in decimals, and inserted in the depositors' accounts, as shown in the Appendix (A).

37. Interest on each deposit shall be computed and entered :—

- (1.) In the Savings Bank Ledger to the depositor's credit whenever an amount is withdrawn, or a fresh deposit is made, or the depositor is transferred to another ship.
- (2.) In the Depositor's Pass Book (excluding fractions of a penny), either at the time of each transaction or subsequently, on the same day, when the depositor's account in the Savings Bank Ledger is checked, as may be most convenient.

38. If the whole balance due to a depositor is withdrawn the interest shall be paid with it, but not otherwise.

Depositors discharged or promoted.

39. On a depositor being discharged the service or ceasing, by promotion or otherwise, to be eligible to continue a depositor, his account shall be closed, and he may either receive his principal and interest in cash from the Paymaster, or have the same remitted for investment in a Post Office Savings Bank, as hereinafter provided.

40. In the case of a depositor afloat discharged the service before the ship is put out of commission, the amount due may, in lieu of either of the above specified alternatives, be assigned on a Savings Bank Transfer List for payment at the Office of the Admiralty.

41. Where the amount due is remitted for investment in a Post Office Savings Bank, or assigned for payment at the Office of the Admiralty, interest shall accrue to the day on which the Bank is next opened, and the amount so withdrawn shall be shown separately on the Withdrawal List for the month.

Depositors dying.

42. On the death of a depositor his account shall be closed, interest on his deposits to the day on which the Bank is next to be opened shall be computed, and, with the principal, withdrawn, added to his other effects, and deemed money payable by the Admiralty, within the meaning of The Navy and Marines (Property of Deceased) Act, 1865.

43. In the case of his decease on a day when the Bank is open, or in the case of the Bank not being opened in the month ensuing his death, the interest shall be computed to the day of his death.

44. The amount withdrawn and the interest thereon shall be separately shown in the next monthly Withdrawal List transmitted after the death.

Closing of Accounts on Ships' Paying Off.

45. As soon as it is officially ascertained on what day a ship on board which a Naval Savings Bank is established will be paid off, the Paymaster shall close the depositors' accounts then open, and insert therein the interest due to the date of the pay off.

46. Marines having deposits, and desiring to transfer the same to the Naval Savings Banks of their respective divisions, shall be dealt with as depositors transferred from a ship to quarters, a Transfer List shall be made out as provided by sections 22—25 of this Order, and the deposits so transferred shall not appear in the final Withdrawal List.

For the purposes of a transfer by a Marine under this section, if a Naval Savings Bank is not established at the quarters to which the Marine belongs, a local Savings Bank, approved by the proper authority, shall be regarded as the Naval Savings Bank of the division.

47. The interest on the balances in the Abstract Account having been inserted from time to time as directed in section 32 of this Order, the Paymaster shall next compute and insert therein interest on the last balance to the date of the paying off of the ship, and prepare the Balance Account and the final Withdrawal List requisite to close each depositor's account.

48. In the final Withdrawal List, except in the cases specified in section 46 of this Order, the Paymaster shall insert the name of each depositor whose account is then open, the balance amount of his deposits, and the interest due to him to the date of the paying off of the ship; and the amounts so inserted, except such portions as are remitted for investment in a Post Office Savings Bank, of which notation shall be made on the list, shall be paid in the presence of the Committee at the time the ship's company are paid their wages.

49. The final Withdrawal List, the Abstract and Balance Account, with all other Savings Bank accounts on board, shall then be transmitted to the Accountant-General of the Navy.

Transfer of Deposits to Post Office Savings Bank.

50. On a ship being put out of commission, as well as in the case specified in section 39 of this Order, depositors in a Naval Savings Bank established on board shall be furnished with facilities for investing in a Post Office Savings Bank the amounts or any parts thereof respectively due to them; for which purpose the Accountant-General of the Navy, or other officer appointed by the Admiralty for the purpose, shall be the General Attorney for all such depositors.

51. As soon as it is officially ascertained on board when the ship will be put out of commission, a notice shall accordingly be posted in some conspicuous place on board that depositors not wishing to draw their savings can have the same transferred to a Post Office Savings Bank by intimating such desire to the Paymaster.

52. The Paymaster, on receiving such intimation, shall send to the Accountant-General of the Navy a Remittance List of the amounts to be so invested, accompanied by a declaration from each depositor in the form prescribed by the Postmaster-General.

53. The Accountant-General of the Navy, on receipt of the Remittance List and declarations, shall, in the names of the respective depositors, invest the amounts comprised therein; by forwarding to the Postmaster-General, with the declarations, a schedule containing the names and addresses of the several depositors and the amounts to be invested; and, to Her Majesty's Paymaster-General, a bill authorizing the transfer of the sum total to the credit of the Postmaster-General at the Bank of England.

54. The Postmaster-General shall thereon cause to be sent to the several Postmasters of the towns in which the depositors respectively reside, Pass Books, with the deposits entered therein, for delivery to the respective depositors on their personal application, and duly advise the Accountant-General of the Navy of the same.

Withdrawal of Deposits from Post Office Savings Bank.

55. Should any such depositor, when subsequently serving afloat in any of Her Majesty's ships, or any person eligible to become a depositor in a Naval Savings Bank, desire to withdraw the whole or any part of the deposits he may have in a Post Office Savings Bank, the Postmaster-General shall, on receipt of an order from the depositor in favour of the Accountant-General of the Navy or other officer appointed by the Admiralty for the purpose, accompanied by the Pass Book, pay over to the Accountant-General of the Navy or such officer, for remittal to the depositor, the amount, if due, specified in the order.

No Savings Bank transactions to appear in Pay Documents or Ship's Books.

56. No transaction arising out of the business of Naval Savings Banks shall be shown in any way in the depositors' pay documents or the ship's books, or the books of the Divisions of Marine quarters, but, as provided by the foregoing regulations, the records of the same shall be kept perfectly distinct and disconnected from all other accounts, excepting only the Paymasters' cash accounts, in which shall be debited and credited respectively the amounts deposited and withdrawn on board ship, or at quarters.

And the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

Edmund Harrison.

APPENDIX.

NAVAL SAVINGS BANKS.

Computation of Interest.

Interest at £3 15s. Od. per cent. per annum is 9d. per pound per annum, or 36 farthings for 365 days.

Cutting off the last figure from the number of days will therefore give the interest in farthings on each pound.

But in multiplying several pounds into a large number of days it is obvious that the last figure being also multiplied would in some cases cause an excess in the results obtained.

To compensate for this, fractions of a penny must not be paid, and the fractions discarded will reduce the average interest within the prescribed limit.

To facilitate the accurate computation of interest a time table and interest paper are provided with the Naval Savings Bank forms.

By the former the number of days in any given period under twelve months may be mentally calculated, thus:

The table shows the number of complete days (from the 9th to the 10th is to be reckoned one day in computing interest, not two, as when computing wages) from any day in any month to the corresponding day in any subsequent month.

Examples:

1. Required the number of days from 24th May to 9th August. May to August in the table gives 92; but 15 days are wanted in August to carry the date to the corresponding day in May. Deduct that number from 92, and the result, 77, is the number of days between 24th May and 9th August.

Proof: $7 + 30 + 31 + 9 = 77.$

2. Required the number of days from 9th May to 24th August. Here there are 15 days in excess of the number obtained from the table (92) which gives 9th May to 9th August only; add the excess to the number obtained from the table, and the result, 107, is the number of days from 9th May to the 24th August.

No. 23183.

Proof: $22 + 30 + 31 + 24 = 107.$

When the number of days is thus ascertained, it is to be inserted in the proper column in the depositor's account, and multiplied by the number of pounds in the deposit or balance due, with the last figure decimally pointed, thus: 107 days \times £3 = 32.1; then by half the number of shillings with the two right-hand figures, pointed (2s. being $\frac{1}{10}$ of a pound) thus: 6s. \div 2 \times 107 = 3.21; and added together, thus:

$$\begin{array}{r} 32.1 \\ 3.21 \\ \hline 35.31 = 8d., 3.31 \text{ lost;} \end{array}$$

and the result shown in the adjoining columns of the depositor's account.

But observe, that should the number of days be odd, and the number of shillings to be multiplied thereby, be also odd, the three right-hand figures of the product must be decimally pointed before being added to the product of the days multiplied into the pounds.

The interest paper will only be wanted when the calculation is intricate: it should then be used, and the calculations preserved amongst the vouchers.

Examples:

£2 16s. Od. for 97 days.

$$\begin{array}{r} \text{Days ... } 97 \\ \times \\ \hline \text{Amount } \text{£}2 \text{ 16s. Od.} \end{array}$$

$$\begin{array}{r} 19.4 \\ 7.76 \\ \hline 27.16 = 6d., 3.16 \text{ lost.} \end{array}$$

farthings,

£6 15s. Od. for 39 days.

$$\begin{array}{r} \text{Days ... } 39 \\ \times \\ \hline \text{Amount } \text{£}6 \text{ 15s. Od.} \end{array}$$

$$\begin{array}{r} 23.4 \\ 2.73 \\ \hline .195 \\ \hline 26.325 = 6d., 2.325 \text{ lost.} \end{array}$$

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to amend the law relating to contagious or infectious diseases in cattle and other animals," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by Order in Council, from time to time to continue, or to renew, if expired, all or any of the provisions, in the first part of that Act contained, for such time as shall be specified in such Order:

And whereas it is provided in the eleventh section of the said Act, which section is in the first part thereof, that Part I of the said Act shall continue in force until the fifteenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and no longer, unless continued or renewed by Order of Her Majesty in Council:

And whereas it is provided in the twelfth, thirteenth, fourteenth, fifteenth, and sixteenth sections of the first part of the said Act as follows:

Slaughter of Diseased Animals.

12. Every Local Authority shall cause all animals affected with the cattle plague within its district to be slaughtered, and shall, by way of compensation for every animal so slaughtered, pay to the owner thereof such sum not exceeding twenty pounds, and not exceeding one half of the value of the animal immediately before it was affected with the cattle plague, as to such Local Authority may seem fit.

13. Every Local Authority shall cause every animal that has died of cattle plague, or has been slaughtered in consequence of being affected with cattle plague within its district, to be buried as soon as possible in its skin in some proper place, and to be covered with a sufficient quantity of quicklime or other disinfectant, and with not less than six feet of earth.

14. Every Local Authority shall, within its district, cause the yard, shed, stable, field, or other premises in which any animal affected with cattle plague has been kept while affected by the disease, or has died or been slaughtered, to be thoroughly cleansed and disinfected, and all hay, straw, litter, dung, or other articles that have been used in or about any such animal to be burnt or otherwise destroyed; and no fresh animal shall be admitted into any yard, shed, stable, field, or other premises in which any animal affected with cattle plague has been kept while affected by the disease, or has died or been slaughtered, until the expiration of thirty days after the cleansing and disinfecting of such premises in pursuance of this Act; and every Local Authority shall direct the disinfecting the clothes of, and the use of due precautions by Inspectors, Cattle Overseers, and others in contact with animals affected by the cattle plague, with a view to prevent the spreading of contagion.

15. A Local Authority may, if it thinks fit, cause to be slaughtered any animal that has been in the same shed or stable, or in the same herd or flock, or in contact with any animal affected with cattle plague within its district; and the owner of any animal so slaughtered may either dispose of the carcase on his own account, with a licence from some Officer appointed in that behalf by a Local Authority, or may require the Local Authority to dispose of the same, in which case such Local Authority shall pay to the owner thereof, by way of compensation, such sum, not exceeding twenty-five pounds, as may equal three-fourths of the value of the animal slaughtered: Provided always, that the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them, may reserve animals (ordered to be slaughtered as aforesaid) for the purpose of experimental treatment.

16. The Local Authority may require the value of any animal slaughtered under this Act, to be ascertained by Officers of the Local Authority or by arbitration, and generally may impose conditions as to evidence of the slaughter and value of the animals slaughtered: Provided that no compensation shall in any case be paid in respect of any animal found affected with Cattle Plague in a market or on a highway, or in respect of any animal which has been moved or otherwise dealt with in contravention of this Act, or any Order of a Local Authority made in pursuance thereof.

And whereas by Orders of Her Majesty in Council, the last bearing date, the twenty-sixth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, the provisions of the above-recited sections of the first part of the said Act were continued in force beyond the said fifteenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, until the thirtieth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and whereas it is considered expedient that the same be further continued:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in exercise of the power vested in Her by the said Act, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said recited provisions contained in the twelfth, thirteenth, fourteenth, fifteenth, and sixteenth sections of the first part of the said Act shall continue in force on and after the said thirtieth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, until the twenty-eighth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter sixty, of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the ninth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter sixty, of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following representation for altering the boundaries of the District Chapelry of Christ Church, Plymouth, in the county of Devon, and in the diocese of Exeter.

"Whereas, by the authority of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the tenth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, and published in the London Gazette, on the thirteenth day of the same month, a part of the parish of Saint Andrew, Plymouth, in the county and diocese aforesaid, was assigned as a district chapelry to the consecrated church, called 'Christ Church,' situate in the same parish, and such district chapelry was named 'The District Chapelry of Christ Church, Plymouth.'

"And whereas it has been proposed to us, and it appears to us to be expedient that the boundaries of the said district chapelry of Christ Church, Plymouth, should be altered as hereinafter is mentioned.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Henry, Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter, as such Bishop, with the consents of the Honorable and Right Reverend John Thomas, Bishop of the diocese of Norwich, of the Reverend Edmund Hollond, of Number 33, Hyde Park Gardens, in the county of Middlesex, Clerk, of the Reverend Charles Kemble, the rector or incumbent of the rectory of the parish of Saint Peter and Saint Paul, commonly called the Abbey Parish, Bath, in the county of Somerset, of William Long, of Hurts Hall, in the county of Suffolk, Esquire, and of James Morgan Strachan, of Number 10, Oxford-square, in the said county of Middlesex, Esquire, the joint patrons of the vicarage of the said parish of Saint Andrew, Plymouth, and with the consents of the Reverend John Hatchard, the vicar or incumbent of the same vicarage, and also as such vicar or incumbent, the patron of the perpetual curacy of the district chapelry of Christ Church, Plymouth aforesaid, and of the Reverend Theophilus Bennett, the incumbent of the same perpetual curacy (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent that in our opinion it would be expedient that the boundaries of the said district chapelry of Christ Church, Plymouth, should be altered and extended so as to include within the limits of such district chapelry all that part of the said parish of Saint Andrew, Plymouth, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, and which is delineated upon the map or plan hereunto annexed, and is thereon coloured pink; and that, from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this representation, and without any other assurance in the law, the said part of the parish of Saint Andrew, Plymouth aforesaid, so to be included within the limits of the said district chapelry of Christ Church, Plymouth, should become and be and form part of such district chapelry.

"And we humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The territory proposed to be added to the District Chapelry of Christ Church, Plymouth, in the county of Devon, and in the diocese of Exeter, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Saint Andrew, Plymouth, in the county of Devon, and in the diocese of Exeter aforesaid, which is bounded on the west by the said district chapelry of Christ Church, Plymouth, and upon the south and east by the parish of Charles, otherwise called Charles the Martyr, Plymouth, in the same county and diocese, and upon the remaining side, that is upon the north, by an imaginary line commencing on the boundary which divides the said parish of Saint Andrew, Plymouth, from the said district chapelry of Christ Church, Plymouth, at a point in the centre of the bridge near Saint Michael's-place, which carries the line of the South Devon Railway over the Saltash-road, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the said line of railway as far as the boundary on the western side of the Tavistock-road, which divides the said parish of Saint Andrew, Plymouth, from the parish of Charles, otherwise called Charles the Martyr, Plymouth aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Exeter.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the ninth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parochial chapelry of Headingley, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon, and out of the district parish of Saint Mark, Woodhouse, in the same county and diocese.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said parochial chapelry of Headingley, and of the said district parish of Saint Mark, Woodhouse, which are hereinafter mentioned and described (such portions not at present containing within their limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship), should be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes in the manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas a sum of three thousand pounds sterling has been contributed and paid to the credit of our account at the Bank of England by certain persons, in aid of the endowment of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, and of the maintenance of the minister thereof for the time being, and we have in respect thereof agreed with the said persons so contributing the said sum of three thousand pounds as aforesaid, and have undertaken to provide and pay, by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, to such minister as aforesaid, when duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of the herein secondly-mentioned Act, the yearly sum of one hundred pounds.

"And whereas the said sum of three thousand pounds sterling has been so contributed and paid as aforesaid upon the understanding that we should pay out of the common fund created by the firstly herein named Act to the minister for the time being of the said district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, when such minister shall have been duly licensed as before mentioned, the annual sum of fifty pounds, and upon the further understanding, that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the assignment and disposition of the right of patronage of the said district, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, hereinafter mentioned, should be made.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Robert, Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose, that all those portions of the said parochial chapelry of Headingley, and of the said district parish of Saint Mark, Woodhouse, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, and which are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Wrangthorn.'

"And we further recommend and propose, that we be authorised and empowered to pay out of the common fund before referred to, to the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed, according to the provisions of the herein secondly-mentioned Act, the sum of fifty pounds in each and every year, by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November, and that the first of such payments, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or the first day of November next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister as aforesaid, and that in case a vacancy in the ministry of such district shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount next thereafter payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives and the minister succeeding to such district.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, shall, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised alterably by your Majesty and your successors, in right of the Crown, and by the bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Ripon, the first such nomination to be made by the said bishop.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Wrangthorn, being:

"All that portion of the parochial chapelry of Headingley, in the county of York and in the diocese of Ripon, and also all that portion of the district parish of Saint Mark, Woodhouse, in the same county and diocese, which are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing at a point near Morley House in the middle of the Leeds and Otley trust road, opposite to the middle of the south-western end of Cumberland-road; and extending thence north-eastward to and along the middle of the last-named road, to its junction with a certain footpath leading from Wrangthorn to Meanwood; and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the said footpath for a distance of two chains or thereabouts to its junction with the footpath leading from Meanwood to Büslingthorpe; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-described footpath to the boundary which divides the said district parish of Saint Mark, Woodhouse, from the new parish of Büslingthorpe, in the county and diocese aforesaid; and continuing thence still south-eastward along the said boundary still following the course of the last-described footpath to a boundary stone inscribed 'W.D., 1866, No. 1,' and placed at the junction of such footpath with a certain other footpath leading from Woodhouse Ridge to Delph-lane; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-described footpath to its junction with the said lane; and continuing thence in the same direction along the middle of such lane to its junction with Woodhouse-street; and continuing thence still south-westward across such street to and along the middle of a certain road called 'Rampart-road,' which leads across a part of Woodhouse Moor to the junction of such road with the Leeds and Otley trust road aforesaid; and continuing thence in the same direction across the said trust road to a boundary stone inscribed 'W. D., 1866, No. 2,' and placed on the southern side of such road; and extending thence in a direct line almost due south-westward for a distance of twenty-eight chains or thereabouts across Woodhouse Moor, past Myrtle-grove, to the point at the south-western corner of the said moor near Toad Well, where the boundary dividing the said parochial chapelry of Headingley from the new parish of Saint George, Leeds, in the county and diocese aforesaid, impinges upon the said district parish of Saint Mark, Woodhouse; and extending thence southward along the last-mentioned boundary to its junction with the boundary which divides the said parochial chapelry of Headingley from the new parish of Burley, in the county and diocese aforesaid; and extending thence in a direction mainly north-westward along the last-described boundary to the point where it strikes the eastern side of a certain road leading from Burley to Headingley Hill; and extending thence first westward to the middle of the last-described road, and then northward along the middle of the same road to its junction with Victoria-road; and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of nine chains or thereabouts, to a point opposite to the middle of the southern end of Buckingham-road; and extending thence northward to and along the middle of the said Buckingham-road to its junction with the Leeds and Otley trust road aforesaid; and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the same trust road for a distance of fifteen chains or thereabouts (passing Morley House aforesaid) to the point opposite to the middle of the south-western end of Cumberland-road where the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly-mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbents of the parochial chapelry of Headingley, and of the district parish of Saint Mark, Woodhouse, respectively, out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken.

And whereas the incumbent of the district parish of Saint Mark, Woodhouse aforesaid, has taken or made certain objections or observations to or upon the said scheme, which said objections or observations have, together with such scheme, been laid before Her Majesty in Council.

And whereas the said scheme has, notwithstanding the said objections or observations, been approved by Her Majesty in Council, so far as such scheme relates to matters which may properly be made the subject of an Order of Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme so far as aforesaid, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall, so far as aforesaid, be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Ripon.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of November, 1866.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-four; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of your Majesty, chapter eighty-four; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for making better provision for the cure of souls within the district chapelry of Saint John the Evangelist, Maindee, sometime part of the parish of Christ Church, in the county of Monmouth, and in the diocese of Llandaff.

"Whereas the Provost of the College Royal of the Blessed Mary of Eton, near unto Windsor, in the county of Bucks, commonly called the King's College of our Blessed Lady of Eton, nigh or by Windsor, in the said county of Bucks, and the same college are the patrons of the vicarage of the said parish of Christ Church, and are also the patrons of the perpetual curacy of the said district chapelry of Saint John the Evangelist, Maindee.

"And whereas the church of the said district chapelry of Saint John the Evangelist, Maindee, is at present ill endowed, and it appears to us to be desirable that some additional provision should be made for the cure of souls within the same district chapelry.

"And whereas the provost and college aforesaid, as such patrons as aforesaid, have proposed to us, and it appears to us to be expedient that the income of the vicarage of the said parish of Christ Church should be apportioned between the vicar or incumbent thereof, and the incumbent of the perpetual curacy of the said district chapelry of Saint John the Evangelist, Maindee, in the manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Alfred, Bishop of the said diocese of Llandaff (in testimony whereof he has affixed his hand and his episcopal seal to this scheme), and with the consent of the provost and college aforesaid as such patrons as aforesaid (in testimony whereof they have affixed their common or corporate seal to this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose, that upon and from the day of the date of the next avoidance of the vicarage of the said parish of Christ Church, the tithes or rent-charges in lieu of tithes set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed, and belonging to the said vicarage which arise within the limits of the said district chapelry of Saint John the Evangelist, Maindee, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, be disannexed and transferred from the vicarage of the said parish of Christ Church, and shall thenceforth, and for ever thereafter, become and be absolutely vested in the incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of the said district chapelry of Saint John the Evangelist, Maindee.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Llandaff.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of November, 1866.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the second day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Mary, situate at Barnard's Green, in the parish of Great Malvern, in the county of Worcester and in the diocese of Worcester.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Great Malvern and of the parish of Madresfield, in the same county and diocese, which lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such respective parishes.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Great Malvern and of the said parish of Madresfield should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Mary, situate at Barnard's Green aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Reverend Henry, Bishop of the said diocese of Worcester, of Lady Emily Foley, of Stoke Edith Park, near Ledbury, in the county of Hereford, the patron of the vicarage of the said parish of Great Malvern, and of the Right Honorable Frederick, Earl Beauchamp, the patron of the rectory of the said parish of Madresfield (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Great Malvern and of the said parish of Madresfield, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Mary, situate at Barnard's Green aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Mary, Guarlford,' and that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of such consolidated chapelry should belong to and be exercised by the said Frederick, Earl Beauchamp, and his heirs and assigns, for ever.

"We therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Mary, Guarlford, being:—

"All that portion of the parish of Great Malvern, in the county of Worcester and in the diocese of Worcester, which is situate to the east of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides such parish from the parish of Madresfield, in the same county and diocese, at a point on the north-west side of a field numbered 640 on the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Great Malvern, and upon the map hereunto annexed, in the middle of the road known as the Madresfield-road, the said point being distant about ten and three quarter chains south-west of the bridge near Brook-cottages; and extending thence, in a direction generally south-westward, along the said road, and along Hall Green-road, passing to the west of the Grove House-cottages, the Hall Green-cottages and the Old Elm-cottages to the junction of the said Hall Green-road at Barnard's Green, with the road leading from the Rhydd to Great Malvern; and extending thence, westward, along the middle of the last-described road for a distance of six and a half chains, or thereabouts, to a point opposite to the middle of the northern end of the road called Mill-lane, leading to Barnard's Green Mill; and extending thence, southward, to and along the middle of the last-described road to its junction with a certain occupation-road numbered 786 upon the aforesaid maps; and extending thence, first south-eastward and then south-westward, along the middle of the said occupation-road to the north-eastern corner of the close numbered 826 upon the said maps; and extending thence, southward, and in a straight line for a distance of eighteen chains and three quarters, or thereabouts, to a boundary stone inscribed 'G. St. M. C. C., 1866,' and placed at the point where the fence dividing the close numbered 829 upon the said maps from the close numbered 830 upon the same maps joins the boundary which divides the said parish of Great Malvern from the parish of Hanley Castle, in the county and diocese of Worcester aforesaid.

"And also all that detached portion of the said parish of Madresfield which abuts upon the western bank of the River Severn, and is bounded on the east by the parish of Severnstoke, in the county and diocese aforesaid, and upon the south, in part by the parish of Hanley Castle aforesaid, and upon all other sides, that is, upon the remaining part of the south, upon the west, and upon the north, by the above-described portion of the parish of Great Malvern aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Worcester.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of November, 1866.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the first and second years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and six; of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-eight; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and forty-two; duly prepared and certified to Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the second day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the first and second years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and six; of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-eight; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and forty-two; have prepared, and now humbly certify to your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for uniting the benefice (being a rectory) of Saint Nicholas Cole Abbey with Saint Nicholas Olave, in the city of London, with the benefice (being a rectory) of Saint Mary Somerset with Saint Mary Mounthaw, in the said city of London, and for the other purposes hereinafter mentioned.

"Whereas, under the provisions of the said lastly-mentioned Act, the Right Honorable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the said diocese of London, duly issued a Commission for the purpose of inquiring into the expediency of the proposed union of the said rectory of Saint Nicholas Cole Abbey with Saint Nicholas Olave and the said rectory of Saint Mary Somerset with Saint Mary Mounthaw, and by the return made to the said Commission, the Commissioners therein named certified all such matters and things as appeared to them material, together with their opinion that the proposed union was expedient; and in such return they recommended the terms on which, in their opinion, the same union ought to be effected.

"And whereas the said Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London, has caused proposals for a scheme based upon the terms recommended by the Commissioners named in the hereinbefore-mentioned Commission to be laid before us, which proposals were assented to by himself, as patron in right of his see of the said rectory of Saint Mary Somerset with Saint Mary Mounthaw, and by the Right Honorable Richard, Baron Westbury, then Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, the patron in right of such his office for every alternate turn of the said rectory of Saint Nicholas Cole Abbey with Saint Nicholas Olave, and by the dean of the cathedral church of Saint Paul, in London, and the chapter of the same church, the patrons for every other alternate turn of the said last-named rectory, and also by the vestries of the several parishes of Saint Nicholas Cole Abbey, Saint Nicholas Olave, Saint Mary Somerset, and Saint Mary Mounthaw, respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such union should be effected, and that such arrangements relating thereto, and to the patronage of the said rectories, should be made as are herein-after mentioned.

"And whereas the said rectory of Saint Nicholas Cole Abbey with Saint Nicholas Olave is subject to a mortgage to the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and the annual sum now payable to the said Governors in respect of such mortgage amounts to fifteen pounds sterling, or thereabouts.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consents of the said Archibald Campbell, Bishop of London, and of the Right Honorable Frederic, Baron Chelmsford, now Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain (testified by their respectively signing and sealing this scheme); and of the said dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Saint Paul, in London (testified by their sealing this scheme with their corporate seal), and of the vestry of each of the said four parishes (testified by the several chairmen of the said vestries respectively signing this scheme, pursuant to resolutions passed at vestries duly convened for the purpose of giving such consents), that the said rectory of Saint Nicholas Cole Abbey with Saint Nicholas Olave, and the said rectory of Saint Mary Somerset with Saint Mary Mounthaw, shall be united and consolidated into and shall become and be one benefice, under the style of 'The united rectory of Saint Nicholas Cole Abbey with Saint Nicholas Olave, and Saint Mary Somerset with Saint Mary Mounthaw.'

"And we further recommend and propose that if, when this scheme shall have been confirmed by an Order of your Majesty in Council, and shall have taken effect as hereinafter provided, both of the said rectories shall be vacant, the union of the said rectories shall take effect forthwith; and that if one of the said rectories only shall be then vacant, the said union shall also take effect forthwith, if the incumbent of the other of the said rectories shall consent to become the incumbent of the united rectory, but if he shall not so consent then that the union shall take effect upon the then next vacancy of his benefice, and the then incumbent of the other of the said rectories shall be the first incumbent of the united rectory, and if, when this scheme shall have been confirmed by an Order of your Majesty in Council, and shall have taken effect as hereinafter provided, both of the said rectories shall be full, then that the said union shall take effect upon the next vacancy of either of them, if the incumbent for the time being of the other of the said rectories shall consent to become the incumbent of the united rectory, and he shall be the first incumbent of the united rectory, but if he shall not so consent, then the said union shall take effect immediately upon the next vacancy of his benefice, and the then incumbent of the other of the said rectories shall be the first incumbent of the united rectory; and that in either case it shall be lawful for the bishop to admit to the united rectory the first incumbent thereof (if an incumbent for the time being of either of the existing rectories) without any form or fee of or for presentation, and he shall thereupon become the incumbent of the united rectory, and that until the time of the union taking effect, the existing incumbencies shall remain separate, and the rights and liabilities in respect thereof shall remain unaffected by anything herein contained.

"And we further recommend and propose, that if after the confirmation of this scheme by an Order of your Majesty in Council, and before the union shall have taken effect, the incumbent for the time being of either of the existing rectories shall retire from his incumbency, in order that the union may take immediate effect, the incumbent so retiring from his incumbency shall be entitled, during the period hereinafter specified, to receive out of the annual income of the united rectory, and by way of compensation, a yearly sum equal in amount to four-fifths of the net annual value of the tithe and tithe rents-charge, and endowments annexed to his rectory (not reckoning the house of residence as an item of value), computed on the average receipts of the three years immediately preceding the year in which he shall retire, which annual sum shall commence as from the day on which the union shall take effect, and shall be payable by equal half-yearly payments in every year, the first half-yearly payment thereof to become due and be paid at the end of six calendar months next after the day on which the union shall take effect; and that the said annual sum shall be payable to the retiring incumbent during the remainder of his life, or until he shall accept any other church preferment of an annual value equal to or greater in amount than the said annual sum to be so made payable to such retiring incumbent as aforesaid, and upon his accepting such preferment the said annual sum shall thenceforth absolutely cease to be payable; but if the same annual sum shall cease by his death, or by his acceptance of such church preferment (as the case may be), on any other than one of the half-yearly days of payment, he or his executors or administrators shall be entitled to a proportionate part of the said annual sum for the period which at the time of such cesser shall have elapsed of the then current half year, which proportionate part shall be payable at the end of the then current half year; and that the said annual sum shall be charged upon the annual income of the united rectory, and shall be payable out of the same by the incumbent for the time being thereof, and as between such incumbent and the retiring incumbent and his assigns, the said annual sum shall be a first charge at law and in equity upon the income of the united rectory, and the incumbent of the said united rectory shall be deemed to have accepted the same, subject to a trust, to pay to the retiring incumbent, or his assigns, the said annual sum out of the income of such united rectory, and for that purpose to use all due diligence to receive and collect the income of the said united rectory; and if such annual sum, or any part thereof, shall be at any time in arrear and unpaid for a period of more than twenty-one days after any of the said half-yearly days of payment, and the fact of the same being so in arrear shall be verified by the declaration of the incumbent who shall have so retired, or his assigns, or in such other manner as shall be required by the bishop for the time being of the said diocese of London, it shall be lawful for the said bishop to make an order upon the incumbent for the time being of the united rectory, requiring him to pay the amount in arrear within a time to be specified in such order; and if the same shall not be paid within such period as last aforesaid, then it shall be lawful for the said bishop to sequester the profits of the said united rectory until all such arrears and the costs of the sequestration shall have been paid and satisfied; but the power to be so conferred upon the said bishop shall not in anywise abridge or interfere with the rights of the incumbent who shall have so retired, or his assigns, to recover the said annual sum, and all arrears thereof, by proceedings at law, or in equity, or with the legal and equitable rights of the incumbent for the time being of the united rectory to recover from the preceding incumbent of the united rectory, his executors or administrators, any arrears of the said annual sum which ought to have been paid by such preceding incumbent.

"And we further recommend and propose, that if the incumbent of the said rectory of Saint Nicholas Cole Abbey with Saint Nicholas Olave shall be such retiring incumbent as aforesaid, there shall in every year be deducted from the annual sum to be paid to him as aforesaid, a sum equal to one-half of the amount payable in that year to the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, in respect of the said mortgage.

"And we further recommend and propose, that if the said union shall have taken immediate effect by reason of the incumbent for the time being of either of the existing incumbencies having retired from his incumbency, and such incumbent shall be living when the united rectory shall for the first time after such union become vacant, the incumbent who shall have so retired shall (if in the opinion of the bishop for the time being of the said diocese of London, he be not disqualified by age or otherwise) be entitled to fill such vacancy, and may be admitted by the said bishop to the said united rectory without any form or fee of or for presentation, and he shall thereupon become the incumbent of the said united rectory, and the annual sum hereinbefore made payable to him shall thereupon absolutely cease to be payable.

"And we further recommend and propose, that upon the said union taking effect, the church of Saint Nicholas Cole Abbey shall become and thereafter continue to be the parish church of the said united rectory, and that after the said union the expence of maintaining the fabric of the parish church of the united rectory, and providing for the maintenance of the services therein, shall be defrayed by the inhabitant householders of the four parishes of the united rectory, and shall as between the inhabitants of the same four parishes respectively be provided in the following proportions (that is to say); the amount to be provided by the inhabitants of each parish shall bear the same proportion to the whole amount to be provided as the total amount of the annual rateable value of the property in each such parish, as assessed for the time being for the purposes of the consolidated or police rate, shall bear to the aggregate amount of the like rateable annual value of the property in all the said four several parishes.

"And we further recommend and propose that upon the said union taking effect, the font, communion table, and plate used for the purposes of the Holy Communion in the church of Saint Mary Somerset, shall be transferred to the parish church of the said united rectory, but if the same shall, in the opinion of the bishop for the time being of the said diocese of London, not be required for such church, then that the same, or such of them, or so much of the said plate as shall not be so required, shall be transferred to such other church or chapel, within the diocese of London, as the bishop for the time being of the said diocese shall select.

"And we further recommend and propose that upon the said union taking effect, if the tables of fees used in the two churches be alike in all particulars, the table of fees used in the church which will become the church of the united rectory shall (until revised or altered by proper authority) be the table of fees for the four parishes of such united rectory, but if such tables of fees be not alike in all particulars, then that the same shall be of no authority, and a new table of fees shall be made for the use of such four parishes, as if the same were one parish, under the authority of, and with the consents, and in the manner specified in the eleventh section of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four.

"And we further recommend and propose that upon the said union taking effect, the persons who at that time shall hold the offices of parish clerk of the parishes of Saint Nicholas Cole Abbey and Saint Nicholas Olave, and parish clerk of the parishes of Saint Mary Somerset and Saint Mary Mounthaw shall, without any further appointment, become the joint parish clerks of the said four parishes, and the persons who at the time of the said union taking effect shall hold the offices of sexton of the parishes of Saint Nicholas Cole Abbey and Saint Nicholas Olave, and sexton of the parishes of Saint Mary Somerset and Saint Mary Mounthaw shall, without any further appointment, become the joint sextons of the said four parishes, and upon the death, retirement, or removal of either of the joint parish clerks, the other of them shall become the sole parish clerk of the said four parishes, and upon the death, retirement, or removal of either of the joint sextons the other of them shall become the sole sexton of the said four parishes, and the parish clerk of the said four parishes shall afterwards, upon any vacancy in that office, be appointed by the incumbent of the united rectory, and any future vacancy in the office of sexton shall be filled up by the vestries of the said four parishes, or by a majority of them, regarded as one vestry.

“And we further recommend and propose that upon the said union taking effect, the persons who at that time shall respectively hold the offices of parish clerk and sexton of the parishes of Saint Mary Somerset and Saint Mary Mounthaw, and who shall become joint parish clerk and joint sexton respectively of the said four parishes of the united rectory, shall each of them cease to hold, as of his former estate, the office of parish clerk and sexton respectively of the said parishes of Saint Mary Somerset and Saint Mary Mounthaw, and the parish clerk so ceasing to hold such, his office of clerk shall, by way of compensation, so long as he shall be one of the joint parish clerks aforesaid, receive from the vestry of the said united parishes of Saint Mary Somerset and Saint Mary Mounthaw during the pleasure of such vestry a salary equal in amount to his then present salary, and in like manner the sexton so ceasing to hold such his office of sexton shall, by way of compensation, so long as he shall be one of the joint sextons aforesaid, receive from the vestry of the said parishes of Saint Mary Somerset and Saint Mary Mounthaw, during the pleasure of such vestry, a salary equal in amount to his then present salary, subject, nevertheless, to and upon the condition that each such joint parish clerk and joint sexton shall perform such, and such only, of the duties appertaining to the offices of parish clerk and sexton respectively of the said four parishes as the rector for the time being of the said united rectory and the churchwardens for the time being of such parishes may from time to time require, but no parish clerk or sexton of the said four parishes shall have any larger estate or interest in his office than he shall have possessed in his original office before the said union.

“And we further recommend and propose, that so long as a salary under the provisions above proposed shall be payable by the parishes of Saint Mary Somerset and Saint Mary Mounthaw to one of the joint parish clerks aforesaid, those parishes shall not be required to contribute towards the salary of the other of the joint parish clerks aforesaid, and so long as a salary shall, under the provisions above proposed, be payable by the said parishes of Saint Mary Somerset and Saint Mary Mounthaw to one of the joint sextons aforesaid, those parishes shall not be required to contribute towards the salary of the other of the joint sextons aforesaid, but whilst such salaries, by way of compensation, shall continue payable to such joint parish clerk and joint sexton respectively, the salaries of the other joint parish clerk and joint sexton aforesaid shall be paid exclusively by the parishes of Saint Nicholas Cole Abbey and Saint Nicholas Olave, and as between those parishes in proportion to such rateable annual value of the property as aforesaid.

“And we further recommend and propose that upon the said union taking effect, all the properties constituting the emoluments and endowments of the respective rectories of Saint Nicholas Cole Abbey with Saint Nicholas Olave, and Saint Mary Somerset with Saint Mary Mounthaw shall become and be transferred and annexed to the united benefice as the endowment thereof.

“And we further recommend and propose that upon the said union taking effect, the church of Saint Mary Somerset shall be taken down, and its materials and site sold by public tender, the pulpit, bells, clock, organ, and other furniture and fittings being reserved to be appropriated (if in the opinion of the bishop for the time being of the diocese of London required) for the use of the church proposed to be provided for the district of Saint Mary, Hoxton, recently constituted under the provisions of the hereinbefore thirdly mentioned Act, and originally proposed to be constituted under the title of ‘The District of Saint Mary, City Road,’ but if not so required and appropriated that the same shall be sold by public tender as aforesaid.

“And we further recommend and propose, that, in the first place, there shall be set apart and appropriated out of the net proceeds, which shall be realized by the sales effected in pursuance of the recommendations and proposals hereinbefore contained, such a sum as we shall determine (being not less than three equal fourth parts of the entire net proceeds of such sales) for the erection of the church proposed to be provided as aforesaid for the district of Saint Mary Hoxton, and for providing a house of residence for the incumbent of the same district; and that the residue of the said net proceeds of such sales, together with such portion (if any) of the sum to be so set apart and appropriated as aforesaid, as shall not be required for the last-mentioned purposes, shall be held and applied upon, and according to, the trusts and provisions contained in the twenty-second section of the said hereinbefore fifthly-mentioned Act, subject, nevertheless, to, and we further recommend and propose that we, with the consent of the Bishop of the said diocese of London for the time being, shall have a discretionary power to set apart and appropriate out of such residue any sum not exceeding one tenth part of the entire net proceeds of the said sales, as a fund for repewing, repairing, restoring, or altering the said church of Saint Nicholas Cole Abbey; such sum to be laid out and expended under the joint direction of the vestries and churchwardens of the four parishes of the united benefice hereby proposed to be created, and under the superintendence of a competent architect (whose charges shall be defrayed out of the fund to be so appropriated), to be nominated by them, and to be approved of by the bishop for the time being of the said diocese of London, and that if any difference or dispute shall arise as to the proper mode of expending or applying the same sum, or any part thereof, such difference or dispute shall, in every case, be settled and determined by the bishop, whose decision shall be final, and whose episcopal jurisdiction shall not be in any way abridged or interfered with by the special power or control hereby proposed to be given to the vestries and churchwardens aforesaid.

“And we further recommend and propose, that, upon the said union taking effect, the rectory-house now belonging to the rectory of Saint Nicholas Cole Abbey, with Saint Nicholas Olave, shall become and thereafter be and remain the house of residence of the rector of the united benefice.

"And we further recommend and propose, that, upon and as from the day on which this scheme shall take effect as hereinafter mentioned, the sole patronage of the said rectory of Saint Mary Somerset, with Saint Mary Mounthaw, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council, ratifying the same, be transferred from the said Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the said diocese of London (to whom, in right of his see such patronage now belongs as aforesaid), and from his successors, and shall thereafter be vested in the dean and chapter of the said cathedral church of Saint Paul, in London, and their successors, and that, upon and as from the same day, the sole patronage of the vicarage of Saint Helen, Bishopsgate, in the said city of London, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than as aforesaid, be transferred from the said last-mentioned dean and chapter (to whom such patronage now belongs), and from their successors, and shall thereafter be vested in the said Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the said diocese of London, and his successors, and, further, that, upon and as from the same day, the alternate turn or right of patronage now belonging to the same dean and chapter of, and in the rectory of, Saint Vedast with Saint Michael-le-Quern, in the said city of London, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than as aforesaid, be transferred from such dean and chapter, and from their successors, and shall thereafter be vested in the said Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the said diocese of London, and his successors.

"And we further recommend and propose that, in consideration of the arrangements hereinbefore proposed, and particularly in consideration of the appropriation as aforesaid of certain monies to be derived from the sale of the church of Saint Mary Somerset, towards providing a church for the said district of Saint Mary, Hoxton, and also a house of residence for the incumbent of the same district, the whole right of patronage of and nomination to the said district (and when such district shall have become a new parish then of and to the said new parish) of Saint Mary, Hoxton, which right is now vested by statute in your Majesty and the bishop for the time being of the said diocese of London, alternately, shall upon and as from the day on which this scheme shall take effect as hereinafter mentioned, and without any assurance in the law other than this scheme, and such duly gazetted Order in Council as aforesaid, be transferred and assigned to, and shall become and be solely and absolutely vested in, the said Frederic, Baron Chelmsford, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and his successors, Lords High Chancellors of Great Britain, for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the alternate turn or right of patronage now belonging as aforesaid to the said Frederic, Baron Chelmsford, as such Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, of and in the said rectory of Saint Nicholas Cole Abbey, and Saint Nicholas Olave, shall, upon and as from the day on which this scheme shall take effect as hereinafter mentioned, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than as aforesaid, be transferred from the said Frederic, Baron Chelmsford, and his successors, Lords High Chancellors of Great Britain, and shall thereafter be vested in the said dean and chapter of the said cathedral church of Saint Paul, in London, and their successors, to the intent that, by means of such transfer and of the transfers hereinbefore previously recommended and proposed, the same dean and chapter may become and be sole patrons of the said united rectory hereinbefore recommended and proposed to be created.

"And we further recommend and propose that this scheme shall not take effect until the consents and approval which, under the seventeenth section of the said Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and forty-two, are requisite to the sale and appropriation of the site of the church of Saint Mary Somerset, hereinbefore recommended, shall have been duly obtained.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts, or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of November, 1866.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; and of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme bearing date the ninth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Saint Mary, Luton, in the county of Bedford, and in the diocese of Ely.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said parish of Saint Mary, Luton, which is hereinafter mentioned and described (such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship), should be constituted a separate district in the manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas by a deed, bearing date the fifteenth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and being under the hand and seal of John Sambrook Crawley, of Stockwood, in the said county of Bedford, Esquire, and under the common seal of us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England (and which deed is intended to be enrolled in your Majesty's High Court of Chancery at Westminster), the said John Sambrook Crawley did give, grant, and convey unto us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, and to our successors, to and for the use of the minister for the time being of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, certain tithes or tithe commutation rent-charges, amounting together to the annual sum of one hundred and forty-eight pounds fourteen shillings and three pence, and issuing out of lands and hereditaments situate in the hamlet of Limbury-cum-Biscot, in the parish of Saint Mary, Luton aforesaid, which said tithes or tithe commutation rent-charges are more particularly specified in the schedule annexed to the hereinbefore-mentioned deed.

"And whereas by the same deed the said John Sambrook Crawley did give, grant, and convey unto us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, and to our successors, a certain piece or parcel of land situate within the limits of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, and containing three roods and twenty-three perches and one-half, or thereabouts, as and for the site of a church for the said intended district, and by the same deed the said John Sambrook Crawley did give, grant, and convey unto us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, and to our successors, a certain other piece or parcel of land situate within the limits of the said intended district, and containing three roods and twenty-three perches and one-half, or thereabouts, as and for a site for a parsonage or house of residence, with garden and glebe, for the minister for the time being of the said intended district.

"And whereas the several tithe commutation rent-charges aforesaid, and the said two pieces or parcels of land have been so granted and conveyed as aforesaid, upon the understanding that we should pay out of the Common Fund created by the firstly herein-named Act, to the minister for the time being of the said district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, when such minister shall have been duly licensed according to the provisions of the herein secondly-mentioned Act, the annual sum of fifty pounds, and upon the further understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said district, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, should be assigned in the manner hereinafter-mentioned.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Harold, bishop of the said diocese of Ely (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose, that all that part of the said parish of Saint Mary, Luton, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Biscot.'

"And we further recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us, out of the Common Fund referred to in the herein firstly-mentioned Act, in each and every year, to the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when such minister shall have been duly licensed according to the provisions of the herein secondly-mentioned Act, the sum of fifty pounds, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, and that the first of such payments, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or the first day of November next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister as aforesaid; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry of such district shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount next thereafter payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister succeeding to such district.

"And we further recommend and propose, that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, shall, without any assurance in the law, other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to, and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said John Sambrook Crawley, his heirs and assigns for ever.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the ninth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Saint Margaret, Lowestoft, in the county of Suffolk, and in the diocese of Norwich.

“Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said parish of Saint Margaret, Lowestoft, which is hereinafter mentioned and described (such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship) should be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes in the manner hereinafter set forth.

“And whereas a sum of two thousand five hundred pounds of four pounds per centum Debenture Stock of the London and North-western Railway Company has been contributed by certain persons, and transferred to our name in the books of the said Company, in aid of the endowment of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, and of the maintenance of the minister thereof for the time being, when such minister shall have been duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of the herein secondly-mentioned Act; and we have in respect thereof agreed with the several persons so contributing the said sum of two thousand five hundred pounds Debenture Stock that the annual interest and dividends to accrue due from the said Company, on account of the said stock, shall be paid over to the said minister.

“And whereas the said sum of two thousand five hundred pounds Debenture Stock has been so contributed and transferred as aforesaid, upon the understanding that we should pay, out of the Common Fund created by the firstly herein-named Act, to the minister for the time being of the said district hereinafter recommended to be con-

“Now, therefore, with the consent of the Honourable and Right Reverend John Thomas, Bishop of the said diocese of Norwich (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose, that all that part of the said parish of Saint Margaret, Lowestoft, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, and which is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named ‘The District of Christ Church, Lowestoft.’

“And we further recommend and propose, that we may be authorised and empowered to pay, out of the Common Fund before mentioned, to the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when such minister shall have been duly licensed according to the provisions of the herein secondly-mentioned Act, the sum of fifty pounds in each and every year, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November, and that the first of such payments, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or the first day of November next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister as aforesaid; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry of such district shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount next thereafter payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister succeeding to such district.

“And we further recommend and propose, that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, shall, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to, and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised jointly by Eleanor Strong, of Lowestoft, widow; by the Reverend Charles Hebert, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Saint Margaret, Lowestoft; by the Reverend John Richardson, incumbent of the perpetual curacy of the parish of Bury Saint Edmunds, in the said county of Suffolk; by the Reverend John Charles Ryle, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the parish of Stradbroke, in the same county, and by Robert Baxter, of Queen's Square, Westminster, in the county of Middlesex, Solicitor, and their successors, to be appointed as hereinafter is mentioned, upon trust, nevertheless, that they the said Eleanor Strong, Charles Hebert, John Richardson, John Charles Ryle, and Robert Baxter, and their successors, shall, upon every legal vacancy in or avoidance of the ministry of the said district so recommended to be constituted, exercise such right of patronage and nomination, by nominating to such ministry some one fit and proper person, being in Holy

Orders of the United Church of England and Ireland, to be approved of for the purpose by them the trustees for the time being of the said right of patronage and nomination, or by a majority of them; provided always, and we hereby further recommend and propose, that when and so often as any of them, the said Eleanor Strong, Charles Hebert, John Richardson, John Charles Ryle, and Robert Baxter, or any future trustees or trustee, shall die, resign, or become incapable of acting in the execution of the trust hereby recommended and proposed to be created, or shall desire to retire from the said trust, then and in every such case a new trustee or new trustees of the said right of patronage and nomination shall be appointed in the manner and subject to the several provisions set forth in and provided by the tenth section of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, with respect to new trustees to be appointed under the provisions of such last-mentioned statute.

And whereas Orders in Council have been made, directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyard hereinafter mentioned, from the time specified in such Orders; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyard be postponed;
