

Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in Attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that a letter from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, stating it to be his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at Levee, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at one o'clock.

BRADFORD,

Lord Chamberlain.

Foreign Office, March 12, 1867.

(General, No. 5.)

THE Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs has received, from Her Majesty's Consul at Geneva a Despatch, of which the following is extract:—

"Geneva, March 9, 1867.

"THE cantonal laws positively require the production of passports, or some other certificate, in order to obtain permits of residence in any of the Swiss Cantons; the only persons exempted from the above law are travellers passing through the country, or who may be residing for a few days only in the hotels.

"I have the honour to inclose the text of the cantonal law on permits of residence."

Extract of Inclosure.

"(Law of June 16, 1866.)

"ART. 1er. Toute personne, sans distinction d'âge, de sexe, et de condition, non ressortissant au Canton et y résidant, est soumise à l'obligation de prendre un permis personnel de séjour, ou de domicile, soit d'établissement.

"Le prix de chaque permis est fixé à un franc cinquante centimes par année et par personne, payable d'avance sans fractionnement.

"Les mineurs domiciliés chez leur père ou leur mère sont dispensés de ce paiement jusqu'à l'âge de dix-sept ans.

"ART. 2. Tout permis, quel que soit le terme pour lequel il aura été accordé, expire de plein droit, le jour où les papiers déposés par ou pour le non-ressortissant cessent d'être réguliers."
