FRIDAY, JUNE 28, 1867.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of June, 1867.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the tenth year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act for the more easy recovery of small debts and demands in England," it is, among other things, enacted, that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that the said Act be put in force in such county or counties as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, should seem fit, and to divide the whole or part of any such county (including all counties of cities and counties of towns, cities, boroughs, towns, ports, and places, liberties, and franchises therein contained or thereunto adjoining) into districts; and to order that the County Court should be holden for the recovery of debts and demands, under the said Act, in each of such districts; and, from time to time, to alter such districts, as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, should seem fit; and, from time to time, with the advice aforesaid, to alter the place of holding any such Court, and to declare by what name, and in what towns and places the County Court should be holden in each district:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by an Order in Council, of the ninth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, to order that the said Act be put in force in the counties and places therein specified of which the county of Worcester was one, and the town of Upton-on-Severn was named as a place for holding one of the Courts of the said county, and the same was put in force accordingly:

And whereas by certain other Acts made and passed in the thirteenth and fourteenth, in the sixteenth, in the twentieth, in the twenty-second, and in the twenty-ninth years of the reign of Her Majesty, the provisions of the said recited Act, have been amended and extended:

And whereas it hath been represented that it would be of advantage to the public, that the County Court now holden at Upton-on-Severn, should be holden at Great Malvern instead of at Upton-on-Severn.

Her Majesty, having taken the premises into consideration, is thereupon pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the thirtieth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, the County Court now holden by the name of "The County Court of Worcestershire, holden at Upton-on-Severn," shall be holden by the name of "The County Court of Worcestershire, holden at Great Malvern," and the said Court now holden at Upton-on-Severn shall be holden at Great Malvern instead of at Upton-on-Severn.
