Master of the Rolls.—Thursday, the 1st day of August, 1867. — Between William Stephen Drewett, Plaintiff; James Stockman and Her Majesty's Attorney-General, Defendants.

UPON motion this day made unto the Right Honourable the Master of the Rolls by Counsel for the plaintiff, who alleged that the plaintiff filed his Bill in this Court, and that the same was subsequently amended in adding the above-named James Stockman as a defendant thereto, and that it appears by the affidavit of Elizabeth Ann Stockman, filed on the 6th day of July, 1867, and an affidavit of Thomas Cousins, filed on the 29th day of July, 1867, that the defendant James Stockman had been within the jurisdiction of this Court within two years next before the filing of the said Bill, and that all due diligence has been used to serve the last-named defendant with a copy of the said amended Bill, but without effect, and that upon inquiry at the usual place of abode of the last-named defendant he could not be found, so as to be served with a copy of the said amended Bill, and that there is just ground to believe that the last-named defendant has gone out of the realm, and upon reading the said affidavits, his Lordship doth order that the defendant James Stockman do appear to the plaintiff's Bill on or before the 2nd day of November next, and the plaintiff is to cause a copy of this Order, together with a notice thereof to the effect set forth at the foot of the 10th of the Consolidated General Orders, Rule 6, in that behalf, to be inserted in the London Gazette and in two newspapers published in the county of Hants, within one month from the date hereof.

James Stockman, take notice, that if you do not appear pursuant to the above Order, the plaintiff may enter an appearance for you, and the Court may afterwards grant to the plaintiff such relief as he may appear to be entitled to on his own shewing.
