*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
November 4, 1869.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received from the Consul-General of Ecuador, a translation of a Decree, issued by the President of that Republic, on the 15th September last, of which the following are the Articles :—

ART. I. That the charges denominated port dues, be suppressed; viz. :—those for tonnage, anchorage, cleaning, buoys, and lighthouses, with the exception of those for pilotage.

The lighthouse dues will, however, be collected in the Port of Guayaquil after the lighthouse of Santa Clara has been changed; and in the other ports when the necessary lights shall have been placed in each.

ART. II. Upon the exportation of each quintal of caoutchouc or of bark (quina), a duty of two dollars will be levied, and of each quintal of orchella weed, one of four reales.

ART. III. For the amortization of coin deficient in weight, an additional six per cent. will be charged on the amount of Import Duties, not including in these those of wharfage (piso), roads, educational establishments, or other special dues.

This duty will be levied from the month following the date on which the contract for the amortization of the before-mentioned light coin shall have been ratified with the "Bank of Ecuador;" the amount will be delivered monthly to the Managers of said Bank, and will cease when the debt proceeding from this amortization shall have been cancelled.

ART. IV. This Decree will take effect from the 1st October next.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 96, for the regulation of the duties of postage, power is given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from time to time, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British postage or inland postage payable by law on the transmission by the post of foreign or colonial letters or newspapers, or of any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to alter or repeal any such altered rates, and make and establish any new or other rates in lieu thereof, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid.

And whereas further powers are given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by another Act of Parliament passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 85, for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post Office.

And whereas it is expedient to alter and fix certain rates of postage on certain letters transmitted by the post between the United Kingdom and Norway, and to make certain regulations with regard thereto, in the manner hereinafter mentioned and contained.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers reserved to us in and by the said hereinbefore recited Acts of Parliament respectively, and all and every or some or one of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant, under the hands of two of us the said Commissioners, by the authority of the statute in that case made and provided, order, declare, and direct as follows; that is to say:—

1. On every letter not exceeding half an ounce in weight posted in the United Kingdom addressed to Norway, or posted in Norway addressed to the United Kingdom, transmitted by the post between any place in the United Kingdom and Norway direct by private ship there shall be charged and taken an uniform rate of postage (British and foreign combined) of seven pence if prepaid and of nine pence if not prepaid.

2. And on every letter transmitted as is hereinbefore mentioned exceeding half an ounce in weight there shall be charged, taken, and paid progressive and additional rates of postage as follows, that is to say:—

On every such letter exceeding half an ounce and not exceeding one ounce in weight, two rates of postage:

On every such letter exceeding one ounce and not exceeding one ounce and the half of another ounce in weight, three rates of postage;

On every such letter exceeding one ounce and the half of another ounce and not exceeding two ounces in weight, four rates of postage;

And for every half an ounce in weight of any such letter above the weight of two ounces, there shall be charged and taken one additional rate of postage, and in charging any additional rate of postage every fractional part of such additional half an ounce shall be charged as an additional half an ounce in weight, and each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such letter would be charged with under this Warrant, if not exceeding half an ounce in weight.

3. Nothing hereinbefore contained shall in anywise alter, prejudice, or affect the exemptions and privileges granted by the said firstly hereinbefore recited Act, nor in anywise prejudice or affect the privilege which seamen, soldiers, and others employed in Her Majesty's service, now by law enjoy of sending and receiving letters by the post subject to the regulations and restrictions in respect of the same.

4. The several terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said recited Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 96.

5. The rates of postage fixed by this present Warrant, on the letters transmitted as hereinbefore mentioned, shall be in lieu of those now chargeable thereon under a certain Warrant of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, bearing date the 5th day of June, 1868, and the same together with so much of the said last-mentioned Warrant as relates thereto, shall be and the same are hereby repealed, revoked, and annulled.

6. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury may, by Warrant under their hands, duly made at any time hereafter, alter, repeal, revoke, or modify any of the rates of postage hereby fixed or altered, or any of the regulations hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other rates or regulations in lieu thereof, and may from time to time appoint at what time the rates that may be payable are to be paid.

7. This Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine.

Whitehall, Treasury Chambers, the second day of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 81.)—SCOTLAND—WEST COAST—ISLAY.

Fixed Light in Lochandail.

THE Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses have given notice, that from the 15th day of November, 1869, a light will be exhibited from a lighthouse recently erected on Dune point, Lochandail, Islay.

The light will be a fixed light, white between the bearings N.E. by E. to about N. by E. $\frac{1}{2}$ E.; red from about N. by E. $\frac{1}{2}$ E. to about W. $\frac{1}{2}$ N.; and white from about W. $\frac{1}{2}$ N. to S.W. by W. $\frac{1}{4}$ W.; it will be elevated 50 feet above high water springs, and in clear weather should be seen from a distance of 12 miles.

The illuminating apparatus is dioptric or by lenses, of the fourth order.

The lighthouse is situated on Dune point, half a mile north of Port Charlotte.

[All bearings are magnetic. Variation $25\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$ Westerly in 1869.]

By command of their Lordships,

Geo. Henry Richards, Hydrographer.

Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
23rd October, 1869.

This Notice will affect the following Admiralty Charts:—British Islands to the Mediterranean, No. 2; Scotland, West Coast, No. 2635; Ireland, East Coast, No. 1824 a; Ireland, Larne to Bloody Foreland, No. 46; and Mull of Cantire to Ardnamurchan, No. 2515. Also, British Lights List, No. 275.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 82.)—NEWFOUNDLAND.

Alteration in Harbour Grace Island Light.

THE Colonial Government, Newfoundland, has given notice, that from the 30th day of November, 1869, the following alteration will take place in the light on the north end of Harbour Grace Island, Conception Bay.

The fixed white light will be changed to a revolving light showing two white flashes followed by one red flash, the interval between each flash being thirty seconds.

MEXICO.

Fixed Light at Goatzacoalcos River.

The United States Government has given notice, that a fixed white light is exhibited from the old Look-out tower on the west side of the entrance of Goatzacoalcos river, about half a mile from the beach, and in clear weather should be seen from a distance of 12 miles.

By command of their Lordships,

Geo. Henry Richards, Hydrographer.

Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
26th October, 1869.

This notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—St. Lawrence Gulf, No. 2516; Cape

Bonavista to Bulls Bay, No. 296; Harbour Grace, No. 297; West Indies, Outline Chart of Lights, No. 390; West Indies, General, No. 392c; and Goatzacoalcos river, No. 373. Also British North America Lights List, No. 7; West India Lights List, No. 111; and West India Pilot, Vol. 1, page 392.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 83.)—ENGLAND—EAST COAST—YARMOUTH ROADS.

Alteration of Lights and Buoy.

THE Trinity House, London, has given notice, that for better marking of the Scroby Elbow, Yarmouth Roads, a bell buoy is about to be substituted for the present beacon buoy; also that the dark shade of Winterton light will be extended from N. $\frac{1}{4}$ W. to N. $\frac{1}{2}$ W., and that of the red shade from Lowestoft low lighthouse, will be extended from S.S.W. to S. by W. $\frac{3}{4}$ W. Both lights will then cut the Scroby Elbow bell buoy.

Also, that no further notice will be issued of these alterations, which will be effected at the earliest opportunity.

CORTON GATWAY.

Knoll in Outer Entrance of Gorton Gateway.

Also, that in consequence of a knoll having grown up in the outer entrance of Corton Gateway, not more than 13 feet water—at low water springs—can be depended on midway between the East Holm and South Corton Spit buoys, and mariners are cautioned that it is necessary to keep the Corton lights in line when well outside the Gateway, as the knoll lies only one and a-half cables to the south-westward of the track.

HARWICH AND APPROACHES.

Alterations in Buoys.

Also, that a can buoy, painted red and white in vertical stripes, and marked Cork Sand, has been placed on the north end of the Cork Sand, in $3\frac{1}{2}$ fathoms at low-water springs, with the following marks and bearings:—

The Martello tower T, at the entrance of Woodbridge Haven, its width open to the right of Ramsholt Church, N. $\frac{1}{4}$ E.

Harwich Church open to the left of Landguard Fort, N.W. $\frac{1}{4}$ W.

Cork light-vessel, N.N.W. $\frac{3}{4}$ W., $1\frac{1}{2}$ miles.

Cutler buoy, N.E. $\frac{3}{4}$ N., $2\frac{1}{2}$ miles.

Also, that the Guard buoy at the entrance of the harbour has been moved one cable to the north-westward, and now lies in $2\frac{1}{2}$ fathoms at low-water springs, with the following marks and bearings:—

North end of the Redoubt in line with the south end of Dovercourt-terrace, S.W.

High beacon at Landguard just open to the south of the low beacon, S.E.

North Shelf buoy, S.E., $2\frac{3}{4}$ cables.

In order to facilitate the approach to the anchorage off the town of Harwich, and to leave a clear passage for steam-vessels to the piers, a small dioptric light has been placed at the end of the north jetty, which shows a red light between the bearings E. $\frac{1}{2}$ N. and E.N.E., and vessels are cautioned not to anchor in this red light, unless they are to the eastward of the red light which is shown from Landguard lighthouse, cutting the North Shelf buoy.

The northern limit of this exempted anchorage will be known in the day-time, by bringing Upper

Dovercourt Church open north of the Railway pier, bearing W.S.W.

[All bearings are magnetic. Variation 19½° westerly in 1869.]

By command of their Lordships,
Geo. Henry Richards, Hydrographer.
Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
2nd November, 1869.

This notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—English Channel, Nos. 1598 and 2675a; Orwell and Stour Rivers, No. 2693; Thames Entrance, No. 1610; Dover and Calais to Orfordness, No. 1406; Southwold to Cromer, No. 1630; Yarmouth and Lowestoft Roads, No. 1543; Thames to St. Abb's Head, No. 2902a; Harwich Approaches, No. 2052; and Harwich Harbour, No. 1491.

In Parliament—Session 1870.

The Runcorn, Weston, and Halton Waterworks Company.

(Increase of Capital; Amendment of Act.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Runcorn, Weston, and Halton Waterworks Company intend to apply to Parliament in the next session for leave to bring in a Bill to amend and enlarge some of the powers and provisions of "The Runcorn, Weston, and Halton Waterworks Act, 1865." The Bill will, amongst other things, enable the Company to raise additional capital by shares or stock and by borrowing, with power to attach to such shares or stock a preference or priority of dividend, or such other rights and advantages as the Bill will define or Parliament may prescribe; and the Bill will also alter and regulate the existing capital of the Company, and vary and extinguish all existing rights and privileges which would interfere with any of its objects; and the Bill will incorporate with itself the necessary provisions of "The Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," "The Companies Clauses Act, 1863," and "The Waterworks Clauses Acts, 1847 and 1863."

Printed copies of the proposed Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 23rd day of December next.

Dated this 1st day of November, 1869.

In Parliament.—Session 1870.

Bradford and Huddersfield Turnpike-road.

(Continuation of Term; Repeal and Amendment of Act; Alteration of Tolls and of Debt and Interest.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session for leave to bring in a Bill to amend and enlarge some of the powers and provisions of an Act of Parliament passed in the second year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act for more effectually repairing and maintaining the road from top of Odsall, near Bradford, through Wibsey Low Moor, to Huddersfield, in the West Riding of the county of York," or to repeal the said Act, and to grant further and more effectual powers instead thereof; and to continue and extend the term granted by the said Act, and to make further provisions with reference to the said turnpike-road, and the liquidation of the debt affecting the same.

And it is proposed by the said Bill to apply for the following, or some of the following, among other powers.

To alter the tolls authorised by the said Act, and the application of the tolls, and to levy other tolls, and to confer, vary, and extinguish exemptions therefrom.

To make such arrangements as may be deemed necessary or expedient or as Parliament may prescribe as to the debt now due and owing upon the credit of the tolls authorised by the said Act, and as to the reduction and payment of the principal and interest, or of some part of the principal and interest of the said debt, and if need be to extinguish a part of such principal, and any arrears of interest.

To alter the present rate of interest and the proportion of the tolls to be hereafter applied in payment of the principal and interest of the said debt, and to make other provision with reference thereto, and with respect to the management of the road, and the repair and maintenance by the respective townships and hamlets through which the road passes of the whole of the road, or of some part or parts thereof.

To vary and extinguish all existing rights, interests, and privileges, which would interfere with any of the objects of the Bill.

And notice is hereby further given, that printed copies of the proposed Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons, on or before the 23rd day of December next.

Dated this 1st day of November, 1869.

Chambers and Chambers, Brighouse, Solicitors for the Bill.
