PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the seventh and eighth years of Her present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Law respecting

"the office of County Coroner," it is (amongst other things) enacted that when and as often as it shall seem expedient to the Justices of any County, that such county should be divided into two or more districts for the purposes of that Act, or that any alteration should be made of any division theretofore made under that Act, it shall be lawful for the said Justices in General or Quarter Sessions assembled to resolve that a petition shall be presented to Her Majesty, praying that such division be made, and thereupon to adjourn the further consideration of such petition until notice thereof shall be given to the Coroner or Coroners of such county as thereafter provided, and (after providing that notice be given of any such resolution to such Coroner or Coroners, and for the further proceedings of the said Justices at the adjourned meeting to be held for the purpose of taking such petition into consideration, it is thereby further enacted, that such petition, with a description of the several proposed districts, and of the boundaries thereof, with the reasons upon which the petition is founded, shall be certified to Her Majesty under the hands and seals of two or more of the Justices present, when such petition shall be agreed to, and that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, if she shall think fit, with the advice of Her Privy Council, after taking into consideration any such petition, and also any petition which may be presented to Her Majesty by any Coroner of the same county concerning such proposed division, or whenever it shall seem fit to Her Majesty to direct the issue of a writ, de Coronatore eligendo for the purpose of authorizing the election of an additional Coroner above the number of those who have been theretofore customarily elected in such county, to order that such county shall be divided into such and so many districts for the purposes of that Act, as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, shall seem expedient, and to give a name to each of such districts, and to determine at what place within each district the Court for the election of the Coroner for such district shall be holden as thereafter provided, and every such Order shall be published in the London Gazette :

And whereas by an Order made pursuant to the said Act by Her Majesty in Council, and bearing date the twenty-sixth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, after reciting that Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County Palatine of Lancaster in Annual General Session of the Peace assembled had presented a petition to Her Majesty in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, duly certified to Her Majesty under the hands and seals of three of the Justices present when such petition was agreed to, and setting forth that it appeared to the petitioners to be expedient that the county palatine of Lancaster should be forthwith divided into six districts, for the purposes of the said Acts ; that is to say, the districts of Lancaster, comprising the townships and places in the said Order mentioned, subject as therein mentioned ; the district of Preston, comprising the townships and places in the same Order mentioned ; the district of Blackburn, comprising the townships and places in the same Order mentioned, subject as therein mentioned ; the district of Salford, comprising the townships and places in the same Order mentioned, subject as therein mentioned ; the district of Rochdale, comprising the townships and places in the same Order mentioned ; and the district of West Derby, comprising the townships and places in the same Order mentioned, subject as therein mentioned ; and further reciting that the said county of Lancaster had been customarily divided into the several districts thereinbefore described, for the purpose of holding inquests during the space of more than seven years before the passing of the said Act, and that in the opinion of the petitioners it was expedient that the same division of the said county should be made under the said Act, and that each of such districts should be assigned to the Coroner then usually acting in and for the same. Her Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it was thereby ordered, that the county palatine of Lancaster should be divided into six districts for the purposes of the above recited Act, and in the manner in the said Petition proposed. And Her Majesty was further pleased (amongst other things) to order, by and with the like advice, that the district comprising the township and place in Salford Hundred, first in the said Order named, and the townships and places in West Derby Hundred, first in the said Order named, should be named the district of Salford, and that the Court for the election of a Coroner for such district should be holden at Salford. And Her Majesty was further pleased to order by and with the like advice, that the district comprising the township and places in Salford Hundred in the said petition lastly named, should be named the district of Rochdale, and that the Court for the election of a Coroner for such district should be holden at Rochdale aforesaid, and at such other places as might be appointed pursuant to the said Act.

And whereas Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the county Palatine aforesaid, in Annual General Session of the Peace assembled, on the thirtieth day of December now last past, have presented a Petition to Her Majesty, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, duly certified to Her Majesty, under the hands and seals of three of the Justices present when such petition was agreed to, setting forth that it appeared to the petitioners to be expedient that the existing Salford and Rochdale Districts in the said county should be forthwith divided into the following districts under and for the purposes of the said Act, that is to say: the District of Bolton comprising the following townships and places in Salford Hundred, viz., Ainsworth, Anlezarke, Aspull, Blackrod, Bolton Great, Bolton Little, Bradshaw, Breightmet, Bury, Edgeworth, Elton, Entwistle, Farnworth, Halliwell, Harwood, Heaton, Horwich, Hulton Middle, Hulton Little, Hulton Over, Kearsley, Lever Darcy, Lever Great, Lever Little, Longworth, Lostock, Pilkington, Quarlton, Radcliffe, Rivingtone, Rumworth, Sharples, Tonge-with-Haulgh, Tottington Higher End, Tottington Lower End, Turton, Walmersley-cum-Shuttleworth, West Houghton, and comprising also the following townships and places in West Derby Hundred, viz., Astley, Atherton, Bedford, Pennington, Tyldesley-with-Shackerley, and West Leigh, subject to any rights or privileges which the Coroner for the borough of Bolton may have within the said borough; and also the district of Salford, comprising the following townships and places in Salford Hundred, that is to say, Ardwick, Ashton-under-Lyne, Barton-upon-Irwell, Beswick, Blakeley, Bradford, Broughton, Burnage, Cheetham, Chorlton-on-Medlock, Chorlton-cum-Hardy, Clifton, Crumpsall, Denton, Didsbury, Droylsden, Failsworth, Flinton, Gorton, Harpurhey, Haughton, Heaton Great, Heaton Little, Heaton Norris, Hulme, Levenshulme, Manchester, Moss Side, Moston, Newton, Openshaw, Pendlebury, Pendleton, Prestwich, Reddish, Rusholme, Salford, Stretford, Urmston, Withing-

That in the opinion of the said petitioners, a division of the said Salford and Rochdale Districts into the said proposed three districts was and is rendered necessary for the reasons in the said petition fully stated. That the notices to the Coroners of the said Salford and Rochdale Districts required by the said Act had been duly given, and that the Coroners for the said districts raised no objections to the proposed alterations. PRESENT.

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the second day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of your Majesty, chapter eighty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls within the vicarage or new parish of Saint Jude, Wolverhampton, sometime part of the new parish or vicarage of Saint Mark, Wolverhampton, in the county of Stafford and in the diocese of Lichfield.

"Whereas the Right Honourable Frederick John William, Earl of Cavan, the Reverend William Dalton, Clerk, Prebendary of Lichfield and incumbent of the new parish of Saint Philip, Upper Penn, near Wolverhampton aforesaid, the Reverend George Lea, Clerk, incumbent of the particular district of Saint George, Edgbaston, in the county of Warwick, the Reverend William Robert Fremantle, Clerk, rector of the rectory of Middle Claydon, in the county of Buckingham, and vicar of the vicarage of Steeple Claydon, in the same county of Buckingham, and the Reverend Edward Hoare, Clerk, incumbent of the district parish of the Holy Trinity, Tunbridge Wells, in the county of Kent, are the trustees in whom is vested the perpetual right of patronage of and nomination to both the said vicarage of Saint Jude, Wolverhampton, and the said vicarage of Saint Mark, Wolverhampton.

"And whereas the said vicarage or new parish of Saint Jude, Wolverhampton, is at present ill-endowed, and the said vicarage or new parish of Saint Mark, Wolverhampton, is competently endowed, independently of the sum of cash, amounting to two thousand pounds sterling, hereinafter particularly mentioned, and it has been represented to us, and we are of opinion that it is desirable that additional provision should be made for the cure of souls within the said vicarage or new parish of Saint Jude, Wolverhampton, by means of the apportionment of the endowments of the said vicarage or new parish of Saint Mark, Wolverhampton, which is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas the Reverend George Everard, the present vicar or incumbent of the said new parish or vicarage of Saint Mark, Wolverhampton, is also desirous of consenting to and concurring in the apportionment so hereinafter recommended and proposed.

And whereas there is now held by us, in trust for and for the benefit of the said new parish or vicarage of Saint Mark, Wolverhampton, a sum of cash amounting to two thousand pounds sterling.

Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend George Augustus, Bishop of Lichfield, of the said Frederick John William, Earl of Cavan, William Dalton, George Lea, William Robert Fremantle, and Edward Hoare, and of the said George Everard, vicar of Saint Mark, Wolverhampton aforesaid (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose, that upon and from the day of the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, the said sum of cash, amounting to two thousand pounds sterling, shall cease to be held by us in trust for the said new parish or vicarage of Saint Mark, Wolverhampton, and that the same shall thenceforth and thereafter be held by us, in trust, for and for the benefit of the said vicar or incumbent of the said vicarage or new parish of Saint Jude, Wolverhampton, and his successors, incumbents of the said vicarage or new parish, for ever, and shall become and be and form part of the endowments of the said vicarage or new parish of Saint Jude, Wolverhampton.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lichfield.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 5th day of February, 1870.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the thirteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Phillack, in the county of Cornwall, and in the diocese of Exeter.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said parish of Phillack hereinafter mentioned and described (such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship), should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas by a certain deed bearing date on or about the twenty-sixth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, and made or expressed to be made, under the authority of the 'New Parishes Acts, 1843, 1844, and 1856,' or some or one of them, between the Reverend Frederick Hockin, the rector or incumbent of the rectory of the said parish of Phillack, and of the chapelry of Gwithian thereto annexed, and also the patron of the same rectory and chapelry, of the first part, the Right Reverend Henry, late Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter, now deceased, of the second part, and us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners of the third part (which deed is intended to be enrolled in your Majesty's High Court of Chancery at Westminster), the said Frederick Hockin did grant and confirm unto the incumbent of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted so soon as one shall have been appointed thereto, and to his successors the incumbents thereof for the time being one clear yearly rent charge or sum of one hundred pounds, to be payable half-yearly on the first day of January and the first day of July in every year, free and clear of all deductions, taxes, rates, charges, assessments, and impositions whatsoever (except on account of the tax on income or property if any), to be for ever issuing and payable out of and charged upon all that portion of the rectory of Phillack, with the chapelry of Gwithian, which is in a summary form particularized in the schedule annexed to the said deed.

“And whereas in order to further augmenting the permanent endowment of the said district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, a capital sum of four hundred pounds sterling has been contributed and paid to the credit of our account at the Bank of England by the said Frederick Hockin, and we have in respect thereof undertaken to provide and pay by equal half-yearly instalments on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year, to the incumbent for the time being of the said intended district, when one shall have been duly appointed and licensed according to the provisions of the herein secondly mentioned Act, the yearly sum of thirteen pounds six shillings and eight pence.

“And whereas the said yearly rent charge or sum of one hundred pounds has been so granted and confirmed as aforesaid, and the said capital sum of four hundred pounds sterling has also been so contributed and paid as aforesaid, upon the understanding that we should make and pay out of the common fund created by the firstly herein mentioned Act to the Incumbent for the time being of the said intended district, when duly licensed as aforesaid, a grant of thirty-six pounds thirteen shillings and four pence per annum, and upon the further understanding and upon the condition that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said intended district, and of the nomination of the Incumbent thereto, should be assigned in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

“And whereas we have agreed and undertaken to make such grant of thirty-six pounds thirteen shillings and four pence per annum as aforesaid, by an instrument to be executed by us under our common seal, in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven.

“Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Frederick, Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter, (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose, that all that part of the said parish of Phillack, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, and which is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named ‘The District of Saint Elwyn, Hayle.’

“And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of an Incumbent thereto, shall, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Frederick Hockin, his heirs, and assigns for ever.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

“The District of Saint Elwyn, Hayle, being:—

“All that part of the parish of Phillack, in the county of Cornwall, and in the diocese of Exeter, which is bounded on the south-west by the parish of Saint Erth, in the county and diocese aforesaid, on the east partly by the parish of Gwinear, in the same county and diocese, and on all other sides, that is to say, on the remaining part of the east, on the north-east, and on the north-west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the last-named parish from the parish of Phillack aforesaid, at a point in the middle of the road leading from Helston past Guildford to Phillack, a little to the south of the house called or known as Castle Kayle, and extending thence northward for a distance of one mile and ten chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the said road to its junction at Wheal Alfred with the lane and footpath leading towards Hallankane, and extending thence, first south-westward and then westward, along the middle of the said lane and footpath to its junction with the road leading from Trevassack to Saint Erth, and extending thence south-westward for a distance of three chains or thereabouts along the middle of the last-described road to its junction at Hallankane aforesaid with the road leading past High Lanes to Bodriggy, and extending thence first generally north-westward, and then south-westward along the middle of the last-described road to its junction with Sea-lane, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-named lane to its junction with the turnpike-road which passes along the south-eastern shore of Hayle Estuary, and continuing thence still north-westward across the last-described road to the south-eastern shore of the said Hayle Estuary, and extending thence south-westward along the said shore of the same estuary to the boundary which divides the said parish of Phillack from the parish of Saint Erth as aforesaid.”

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patron of the rectory of the said parish of Phillack, such patron being also the incumbent or rector of the same rectory, and the said patron and incumbent has signified his assent to the said scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts: and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Exeter.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 5th day of February, 1870.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the "Ecclesiastical Commission Act, 1868," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fifth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of "The Ecclesiastical Commission Act, 1868," sections three and four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, relating to the dean and chapter of the cathedral church of the Blessed Virgin Mary, of Lincoln.

"Whereas the said dean and chapter have agreed with us that a scheme should be laid before your Majesty in Council, for carrying into effect a transfer to us of part of the property belonging to them, for the considerations and upon the terms hereinafter set forth, which terms are in our opinion fair and reasonable, and the said dean and chapter have further agreed with us that such scheme should also comprise the incidental provisions hereinafter set forth, such provisions being necessary for carrying into effect the said transfer.

"And whereas the lands, tenements, and hereditaments particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed are part of the property of the said dean and chapter.

"Now, therefore, with the consent, in writing, of the dean and chapter of the cathedral church of the Blessed Virgin Mary, of Lincoln, and with the consent of the Right Reverend Christopher, Bishop of Lincoln, as visitor of the said dean and chapter (testified by their having hereunto affixed their respective corporate seals), we humbly recommend and propose, that all the property of the said dean and chapter (excepting the cathedral church and the residences and other buildings belonging thereto, and any ecclesiastical, educational, or other like patronage, and any property held by the said dean and chapter in trust for special or charitable purposes, and also excepting the lands, tenements, and hereditaments, particularly described in the Schedule hereunto annexed), shall together with the benefit of the perpetual land tax charged thereupon, which has been redeemed upon and from the day on which any order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall be duly published in the London Gazette, be transferred to us in the manner contemplated by the said Act, and that we shall be entitled to the rents, profits, and proceeds of the said property so to be transferred to us, as from the twenty-fifth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, and that in consideration of and for such transfer to us, as aforesaid, there shall be paid by us to the said dean and chapter by equal half yearly payments on the twenty-fifth day of March, and the twenty-ninth day of September in every year, the annual sum of nine thousand and two hundred pounds, and that the payment of such annual sum shall continue, until the said dean and chapter shall have been under the authority provided by the said Act put into possession, in fee simple, of real estates, of which not more than one third part shall consist of tithe rent charges, sufficient to secure to the said dean and chapter in addition to the income, which the said dean and chapter will derive from the estates proposed by this scheme to be retained by them, a clear annual income therefrom after deducting rates, taxes, the cost of agency, and other outgoings, amounting to the said annual sum of nine thousand and two hundred pounds.

"And we further recommend and propose, that there shall also be paid by us to the said dean and chapter by equal half-yearly payments on the twenty-fifth day of March, and the twenty-ninth day of September, in every year, until they shall have been put in possession of such real estates as aforesaid, the annual sum of three hundred pounds (such last-mentioned sum to be by them appropriated and paid to their chapter clerk, in respect of the profits which would have accrued to him on account of the management of the estates hereby proposed to be transferred to us), and that the first half-yearly payment in respect of each of the hereinbefore-mentioned annual sums of nine thousand and two hundred pounds and three hundred pounds, shall be made on the twenty-ninth day of September next.

"And we further recommend and propose, that as the consideration for the loss which the said dean and chapter have incurred by having abstained from renewing certain leases of the said property hereby proposed to be transferred to us, which became renewable prior to the said twenty-fifth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, there shall be paid by us to the said dean and chapter, immediately upon the publication as aforesaid, of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, a sum of eleven thousand pounds, and that the receipt or receipts of the said dean and chapter under their chapter seal, or of their treasurer, for the time being, shall be a good and valid discharge to us for all or any and every such sum or sums of money, as shall therein be expressed to have been paid to him by us under the authority of this scheme, when ratified as aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose, that as a further consideration for such transfer to us as aforesaid, a capital sum of twenty thousand pounds, shall be set apart by us to be expended to our satisfaction in substantial repairs, restoration, and improvements of the said cathedral church, and of the buildings, belonging thereto, and that interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum shall be allowed by us to the said dean and chapter, as from the said twenty-fifth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, upon the said capital sum of twenty thousand pounds, and on the balances thereof from time to time remaining in our hands, such interest to be also expended to our satisfaction in substantial repairs of the said cathedral church and buildings.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, in conformity with the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 5th day of February, 1870.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the second day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for relieving those canons of your Majesty's free chapel of Saint George, within your Majesty's Castle of Windsor, who were in possession at the time of the passing of the said Act from the performance of additional duty by reason of the suspension of canonries in the said free chapel.

"Whereas certain canonries in your Majesty's said free chapel of Saint George, within your Majesty's Castle of Windsor, have become suspended under the provisions of the said Act, and whereas application has been made to us by the dean and canons of the said free chapel to make provision for a substitute or substitutes to be employed according to and for the purpose specified by the said Act.

"And whereas the estates and hereditaments heretofore forming the bulk of the endowments of the said dean and canons have become vested in us under the provisions of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, and published in the London Gazette on the twenty-eighth day of the same month.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that, until the chapter of the said free chapel shall consist exclusively of canons appointed after the passing of the hereinbefore mentioned Act, the said dean and canons shall and may from time to time appoint a substitute or substitutes to be approved by your Majesty, your heirs, or successors, and by the dean of the same free chapel for the time being to perform the duties of a canon in residence for such calendar month or months in each and every year (not exceeding four months in every year in which the number of canons who were in possession at the time of the passing of the said Act shall be, as it is at present, two, and not exceeding two months in every year in which the number of such canons shall be one only within the period limited as aforesaid) as shall remain unprovided for after the periods of statutable and customary residence by all the existing canons shall have been fixed.

"And we further recommend and propose, that we may be authorized to pay in each year, within the period limited as aforesaid, the sum of fifty pounds for every calendar month, during which any substitute or substitutes to be appointed and approved as hereinbefore mentioned shall have performed the duties of a canon in residence as aforesaid, and to make payment of such sum monthly to the person or persons so appointed and approved, in such proportions, if more than one person as shall be equal to the period of residence and duty, by each of them actually kept and performed.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 5th day of February, 1870,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Trowbridge, in the county of Wilts, and in the diocese of Salisbury, and out of the district chapelry of Staverton, sometime part of the same parish.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said parish of

Trowbridge and of the said district chapelry of Staverton which are hereinafter mentioned and described (such portions not at present containing within their limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship) should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter set forth.

“And whereas by a certain deed, bearing date on or about the thirtieth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, and made or expressed to be made under the authority of the ‘New Parishes Acts, 1843, 1844, and 1856,’ or some or one of them, between the Reverend Horace Meyer, the Rector or Incumbent of the rectory of the said parish of Trowbridge, of the first part, the Honourable and Right Reverend John Thomas, Bishop of the diocese of Norwich, the Reverend Edmund Hollond, of Hyde Park Gardens, in the county of Middlesex, Clerk, James Morgan Strachan, of Oxford-square, Hyde Park, in the said county of Middlesex, Esquire, William Long, of Great Cumberland-place, in the said county of Middlesex, Esquire, and the Reverend Charles Kemble, of the city of Bath, Clerk, the patrons of the said rectory of the parish of Trowbridge aforesaid, of the second part, the Right Reverend George, Bishop of the said diocese of Salisbury, of the third part, and us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, of the fourth part (which deed is intended to be enrolled in your Majesty’s High Court of Chancery, at Westminster), the said Horace Meyer did grant and confirm unto and to the use of the Incumbent of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, so soon as one shall have been appointed, and his successors, Incumbents thereof for the time being, one clear yearly rent charge or sum of fifty pounds to be payable half yearly on the twenty-first day of June, and the twenty-first day of December in every year, a proportionate part of the first of such half yearly payments to be made on such of those days as shall first happen next after an Incumbent shall have been duly appointed to the said intended district, free and clear of all deductions, taxes, charges, rates, assessments, and impositions, whatsoever (except on account of the tax on property or income, if any), to be paid for ever issuing and payable out of and charged upon the rectory of the parish of Trowbridge aforesaid, and the glebe lands, tithe, or tithe commutation rent charges and hereditaments, and all other the endowments to the said rectory belonging or in anywise appertaining, or accepted, reputed, deemed, taken, known, held, occupied, or enjoyed as part or parcel or member of the same.

“And whereas in order to further augmenting the permanent endowment of the said district hereinafter recommended to be constituted a capital sum of one thousand five hundred pounds sterling, has been contributed and paid to the credit of our account at the Bank of England by Thomas Clark, of Bellefield House, Trowbridge, Esquire, and we have in respect thereof undertaken to provide and pay by equal half yearly instalments on the first day of May, and on the first day of November, in each and every year to the Incumbent for the time being of the said intended district, when he shall have been duly appointed and licensed according to the provisions of the herein secondly mentioned Act, the yearly sum of fifty pounds.

“And whereas the said yearly rent charge or sum of fifty pounds has been so granted and confirmed as aforesaid, and the said capital sum of one thousand five hundred pounds sterling has also been so contributed and paid as aforesaid, upon the understanding that we should make and pay out of the common fund, created by the firstly herein-mentioned Act, to the Incumbent for the time being of the said intended district, when he shall have been duly appointed and licensed as aforesaid, a grant of fifty pounds per annum, and upon the further understanding and upon the condition that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient), the whole right of patronage of the said intended district, and of the nomination of the incumbent thereto should be assigned in the manner herein-after mentioned.

“And whereas we have agreed and undertaken to make such grant of fifty pounds per annum as aforesaid by an instrument to be executed by us under our common seal in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven.

“Now therefore, with the consent of the said George, Bishop of the said diocese of Salisbury (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that all that portion of the said parish of Trowbridge, and also all that contiguous portion of the District Chapelry of Staverton (sometime part of the same parish), which said portions are described in the schedule hereunder written, and are delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named ‘The District of Saint Thomas, Trowbridge.’

“And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of an Incumbent thereto, shall without any assurance in the law other this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Thomas Clark, his heirs and assigns for ever.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

“The District of Saint Thomas, Trowbridge, being:—

“All that portion of the parish of Trowbridge, in the county of Wilts, and in the diocese of Salisbury, and also all that contiguous portion of the district chapelry of Staverton, sometime part of the said parish of Trowbridge, which are together comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the parish of Hilperton, in the said county and diocese, from the parish of Trowbridge aforesaid, at a point in the middle of Back-lane, which leads from Hilperton to Trowbridge: and extending thence, south-westward, for a distance of fifty-seven chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the said lane, and along the middle of Union-street, to the junction of the last-named street with Timbrell-street; and extending thence, north-eastward, for a distance of nearly two chains, along the middle of the last-named street, to its junction with a certain lane or passage leading to Charlotte-street; and extending thence, north-westward, along the middle of the said lane, and along the middle of Charlotte-street aforesaid, to the junction of the same street with the street called or known as British-row; and extending thence, south-westward, for a distance of three and a half chains or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named street, to its junction near the building called or known as the British School with a certain lane which leads past the north-eastern side of the said building towards a certain footpath leading from Trowbridge to Staverton; and extending thence, north-westward for a distance of eight and a half chains or thereabouts along the middle of the last described lane to its junction with the footpath leading from Trowbridge to Staverton as aforesaid; and extending thence, north-eastward along the middle of the said footpath (following thereby in part the boundary which divides the said parish of Trowbridge from the district chapelry of Staverton aforesaid), to a boundary stone inscribed 'T. S. T. D., 1870,' and placed on the eastern side of the said footpath, at the western end of the line of fences, which divide the closes numbered respectively 386b and 386a upon the Title Commutation Map of the said parish of Trowbridge, and upon the map hereunto annexed from the closes numbered respectively 392, 391, and 387 upon the same maps; and extending thence, eastward for a distance of fifteen chains or thereabouts along the middle of the said line of fences to the boundary which divides the said district chapelry of Staverton from the parish of Hilperton aforesaid; and continuing thence, still eastward along the last-described boundary (thereby crossing the road leading from Trowbridge to Staverton, and passing across the Trowbridge Cemetery) to the junction of the same boundary with the boundary, which divides the said parish of Trowbridge from the parish of Hilperton as aforesaid; and extending thence, first northward along the last-described boundary (thereby passing in part along the south-eastern side of the said cemetery), and then south-eastward along the same boundary to the first described point in the middle of Back-lane aforesaid, where the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patrons and to the Incumbents of the two cures, out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken; and whereas such patrons and Incumbents have respectively signified their assent to the said scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Salisbury.

"And whereas the said chapelry district of Pontfadog has under the provisions of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, since become a new parish of the character contemplated by that Act, and by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven.

"And whereas it has been proposed to us, and it appears to us to be expedient, that the boundaries of the said new parish of Pontfadog should be altered as hereinafter mentioned.

Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Thomas Vowler, Bishop of the said diocese of Saint Asaph, as such bishop, and also as patron in right of his see of the vicarage of the said parish of Llangollen, with the consent of the Reverend Enoch Rhys James, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Llangollen, and also as such vicar or incumbent the patron of the rectory of the said new parish of Pontfadog, and with the consent of the Reverend William Davies Rees, the rector or incumbent of the rectory of the said new parish of Pontfadog (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly represent, that in our opinion it would be expedient that the boundaries of the said new parish of Pontfadog should be altered, so as to dis sever from such new parish all that part thereof which is comprised within and is co-extensive with the limits of the township of Cysyllte, all which part is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto annexed, and is thereon coloured pink, and that from and after the day of the date of the publication of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this representation, all the said part of the new parish of Pontfadog aforesaid so to be dissevered from such new parish, should be restored to and should again become and form part of the parish of Llangollen aforesaid.

"And we humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Saint Asaph.

Henry Munster, of Abbey View, Cashel, in the county of Tipperary, Esq., in the room of the Right Honourable Edward Sullivan, who has accepted the office of Master of the Rolls in Ireland.

Board of Trade, Whitehall Gardens, February 7, 1870.

THE Queen has been graciously pleased to confer the decoration of the "Albert Medal of the Second Class" on:—

WILLIAM SIMPSON, R.N., late Chief Boatman in charge of the Coast Guard Station at Bude, Cornwall.

The following is an account of the services in respect of which the decoration has been conferred:—

During a very heavy gale on the 13th September, 1869, the ship "Avonmore" was wrecked on the coast of Cornwall, near Bude, and the Second Officer and six other members of the crew were drowned.

The rocket apparatus from Bude was taken to the spot and under the personal direction of WILLIAM SIMPSON, Chief Boatman in charge of the Coast Guard Station there, nine of the crew were saved by it.

Six of the crew still remained on the wreck, one of them with a broken limb, lying jammed amongst the debris on the vessel's deck, SIMPSON saw that these six men could neither save themselves nor be saved by the apparatus unless additional assistance was rendered from the shore.

Although the ship was expected to break up momentarily, SIMPSON determined to reach the deck himself, if possible, by means of the gear.

When being hauled to the wreck the line became fast in the block, and the gear was for a time rendered useless.

In consequence of the failure in the gear SIMPSON was hauled through the water under the stern of the ship amongst floating wreck, and it was not without difficulty and perseverance and much risk that he succeeded unaided in reaching the deck.

The ship was on her beam ends, masts had gone by the board, the decks were swept by the sea, and the leeside was under water.

When on board the wreck, SIMPSON saw that the gear, which had become choked by drift oakum, must at once be cleared. This he set himself to do with his teeth whilst he held on to the wreck with his hands.

When the rocket gear was restored to working order and got clear of all obstacles, four other volunteers were hauled on board from the shore to assist, and under SIMPSON'S direction the wounded man was extricated from the debris, and the whole of the six remaining members of the crew were saved.

SIMPSON was the last to leave the wreck.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS, by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the session of Parliament holden in the third and fourth years of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 96, for the regulation of the duties of postage, certain scales of weight and rates of postage were fixed and made chargeable and payable upon, for, or in respect of letters, newspapers, parliamentary proceedings, and printed papers, transmitted and forwarded by the post, and various regulations were made and powers were given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, for the purpose of facilitating the transmission of such letters and papers by the post.

And whereas, by another Act of Parliament made and passed in the session of Parliament holden in the tenth and eleventh years of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 85, for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post Office, further powers were given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury for the purposes aforesaid, and it was amongst other things provided, that the Postmaster General might with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, require the postage (British, colonial, or foreign) of any letters sent by the post to be prepaid, either in money or stamps (as he might think fit), on the same being put into the Post Office, and he might also with such consent, abolish or restrict the pre-payment in money of postage on letters sent by the post either altogether or on certain letters, and might require the prepayment thereof to be in stamps, and might refuse to receive or send by the post any letters tendered contrary to any regulations made under that enactment. And it was amongst other things enacted, that the term "letter" as also the term "letters" used in that Act should be construed according to the interpretation of the term "letter" contained in the therein recited Act, passed in the eighth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, by which last-mentioned Act it was enacted, that the term "letter" should include post letters and packets, newspapers, votes and proceedings of the Imperial Parliament, and votes and proceedings of the Legislatures of any of Her Majesty's colonies or provinces, pamphlets, and other printed papers.

And whereas the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by a certain Warrant, dated the 16th day of October, 1857, and by divers other Warrants made subsequently thereto, fixed certain rates of postage and made certain regulations under and subject to which packets consisting of books, publications, or works of literature or art, posted in the United Kingdom might be transmitted by the post within the United Kingdom, and by the said Warrant of the 16th day of October, 1857, the said Commissioners did order and direct that the postage of all such packets should in every case be paid at the time of the same being posted, not in money, but by being duly stamped with the proper postage stamp or stamps affixed thereto.

And whereas the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by a certain Warrant, dated the 5th day of January, 1870, fixed certain rates of postage, and made certain regulations under and subject to which packets consisting of patterns or samples posted in the United Kingdom might be transmitted by the post within the United Kingdom, and by such Warrant the said Commissioners did order and direct that the postage of all such packets should in every case be paid at the time of the same being posted not in money, but by being duly stamped with the proper postage stamp or stamps affixed thereto.

And whereas it is expedient that the Postmaster General should be authorized to allow the prepayment of the postage upon the said respective packets to be made in certain cases in money, in lieu of stamps as required by the hereinbefore recited Warrants.

Now, we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers vested in us in and by the said hereinbefore recited Acts, or either of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant, under the hands of two of us, the said Commissioners, by the authority of the statute in that case made and provided, order, direct, and consent, as follows:—

1. That, notwithstanding anything in the said hereinbefore recited or referred to Warrants contained to the contrary, it shall be lawful for the Postmaster General to permit the postage chargeable upon any of the respective packets hereinbefore mentioned to be prepaid in money, at such Post Office within such hours, and under and subject to all such regulations, conditions, and restrictions as he in his discretion shall from time to time think fit and direct.

2. All such packets as are mentioned in this Warrant shall remain subject in every respect (save as in this Warrant mentioned) to the several orders, regulations, conditions, and restrictions now in force and applicable thereto, and the several Warrants hereinbefore recited or referred to shall (save in so far as they are or may be respectively altered or affected by this present Warrant) continue in full force and effect.

3. The terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said firstly hereinbefore recited Act.

4. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury, by Warrant under their hands, duly made at any time hereafter, to alter, repeal, or revoke the regulations hereby made, and to make and establish any new or other regulations in lieu thereof.

5. This Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

Whitehall, Treasury Chambers, the fourth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy.
