Given at Our Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, this fourteenth day of January, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, and in the thirty-fourth year of Our reign.

GOD save the QUEEN.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 14th day of January, 1871.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the County Courts Act, 1846, it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that the said Act be put in force in such county or counties as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, from time to time, should seem fit, and to divide the whole or part of any such county (including all counties of cities and counties of towns, cities, boroughs, towns, ports, and places, liberties, and franchises therein contained or thereunto adjoining), into districts, and to order that the County Court should be holden for the recovery of debts and demands under the said Act, in each of such districts, and from time to time to alter such districts as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, should seem fit, and to order, from time to time, that the number of districts in and for which the Court should be holden should be increased, until the whole of such county should be within the provisions of the said Act, and, with the advice aforesaid, to alter the place of holding of any such Court, or to order that the holding of any such Court should be discontinued, or to consolidate any two or more of such districts, and, from time to time, with the advice aforesaid, to declare by what name and in what towns and places the County Court should be holden in each district:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by an Order in Council of the ninth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, to order that the said Act should be put in force in the counties and places therein specified, and the same was put in force accordingly:

And whereas by certain other Acts the provisions of the said recited Act have been amended and extended:

And whereas it hath been represented that it is expedient to consolidate the district of the County Court of Surrey holden at Godalming with the district of the County Court of Surrey holden at Guildford:

Her Majesty, having taken the premises into consideration, is thereupon pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the seventeenth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, the district of the County Court of Surrey holden at Godalming shall be consolidated with the district of the County Court of Surrey holden at Guildford, and the said districts shall form the district of a County Court of Surrey to be holden at Guildford and Godalming, and a County Court for the purposes of the above re-
