

AT the Court at Windsor, the 29th day of June, 1871.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the tenth year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act for the more easy recovery of small debts and demands in England," it is, among other things, enacted that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that the said Act be put in force in such county or counties as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, should seem fit, and to divide the whole or part of any such county (including all counties of cities and counties of towns, cities, boroughs, towns, ports, and places, liberties, and franchises therein contained or thereunto adjoining) into districts; and to order that the County Court should be holden for the recovery of debts and demands, under the said Act, in each of such districts; and, from time to time, to alter such districts, as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, should seem fit; and, from time to time, with the advice aforesaid, to declare by what name, and in what towns and places the County Court should be holden in each district:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by an Order in Council, of the ninth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, to order that the said Act be put in force in the counties and places therein specified, and the same was put in force accordingly:

And whereas by certain other Acts made and passed in the thirteenth and fourteenth, in the sixteenth, in the twentieth, in the twenty-second, in the twenty-ninth, and in the thirty-first years of the reign of Her Majesty, the provisions of the said recited Act, have been amended and extended:

And whereas it has been represented that it would be of advantage to the public, if the County Court of Derbyshire, holden at Chapel-en-le-Frith, were ordered to be holden at Buxton, as well as at Chapel-en-le-Frith:

Her Majesty, having taken the premises into consideration, is thereupon pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the thirtieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, the County Court of Derbyshire, holden at Chapel-en-le-Frith, shall be holden at Buxton as well as at Chapel-en-le-Frith.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 29th day of June, 1871.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the County Courts Admiralty Jurisdiction Act, 1868, it is, among other things, enacted, that if at any time after the passing of that Act it appears to Her Majesty in Council, on the representation of the Lord Chancellor, expedient that any County Court should have Admiralty jurisdiction, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by Order in Council, to appoint that Court to have Admiralty jurisdiction accordingly, and to assign to that Court, as its district for Admiralty purposes, any part or parts of any one or more district or districts of County Courts: And, further, that any such Orders may be from time to time varied as seems expedient:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by an Order in Council of the fourteenth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, to order that certain County Courts should have Admiralty jurisdiction; and by a further Order of the sixteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, to order that the said Order of the fourteenth day of January should be varied:

And whereas a representation has been made by the Lord Chancellor that it is expedient that the Order of the sixteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, should be rescinded:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said representation into consideration, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order and appoint, and it is hereby ordered and appointed, that the Order of the sixteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, shall be and the same is hereby rescinded.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 29th day of June, 1871.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the 333rd section of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for every Pilotage Authority, by bye-law made with the consent of Her Majesty in Council from time to time, to do within its district all or any of the things specified in that behalf in the said section:

And whereas the Sunderland Pilotage Commissioners being the Pilotage Authority for the Port of Sunderland within the meaning of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," have, in exercise of the powers in them vested by that Act, and by "The Sunderland Pilotage Order, 1865," made and submitted for the consent of Her Majesty, certain Bye-laws and Regulations which have been approved by Order in Council dated the 3rd August, 1867.

And whereas the said Pilotage Commissioners have made and submitted for the consent of Her Majesty, certain alterations of and additions to the existing Bye-laws and Regulations of the Pilotage Commissioners with respect to pilots, pilotage, and pilotage dues within their district and under their jurisdiction (a copy whereof as altered is set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed):

And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that the said Bye-laws and Regulations, so set forth as aforesaid, are reasonable and proper:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in Her by the said "Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to approve of and signify Her consent to the said Bye-laws and Regulations of the said Sunderland Pilotage
