CAPTURED AND ABANDONED PROPERTY
CIRCULAR.

Treasury Department, July 6, 1872.

THE attention of all parties interested is particularly directed to the following provisions of "An Act making appropriations to supply deficiencies in the appropriations for the service of the Government for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1872, and for former years, and for other purposes," approved May 18, 1872, and the regulations for carrying the same into effect :—

"SEC. 5. That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to pay to the lawful owners, or their legal representatives, of all cotton seized after the 30th day of June, 1865, by the Agents of the Government unlawfully and in violation of their instructions, the net proceeds, without interest, of the sales of said cotton actually paid into the Treasury of the United States : Provided, That the receipt thereof shall be taken and received in full satisfaction of all claims against the United States for or on account of the seizure of said cotton ; and a sufficient sum for such payment is hereby appropriated out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated : And provided further, That the foregoing provisions shall not apply to any claim now pending before the Court of Claims, nor to any claim not filed in the Treasury Department within six months after the passage of this Act ; and the sum of 20,000 dollars is hereby appropriated for the payment of the necessary expenses of defending the United States in respect to claims for said proceeds, to be expended under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury."

The following rules and regulations concerning claims for the proceeds of certain cotton under the foregoing provisions of law are hereby established:—

I. Every claim shall be stated in a petition addressed to the Secretary of the Treasury, and signed and duly verified by the oath or affirmation of the claimant or claimants.

II. The petition must state—

1st. The full names of all the claimants, their present residence, and their residence when their cotton was seized.

2nd. Who were the original and subsequent owners of the cotton; who now are lawfully entitled to the proceeds thereof or interested therein; and when and upon what consideration the title successively passed.

3rd. The quantity of cotton alleged to have been seized or taken, in bales and pounds, the kind and quality, and the names, marks, signs, or devices upon the bales at the time of such seizure; the name or names of the person or persons by whom the seizure was made, and whether they were Agents or officers of the Government; the date and place of seizure, and to what places conveyed or transported; and all other material circumstances connected with the seizure and disposition of the cotton, with as much particularity and exactness as can be done; and if any voucher, receipt, or other writing was given therefore by the persons taking the same, it should be attached to the petition.

4th. Whether the claim has been heretofore presented to any officer, agent, or department of the Government, or to Congress, or to any Committee thereof, and what decision or action, if any, has been had in regard to the same.

III. In setting forth facts in the petition, the claimant must always distinguish between those which he states of his own knowledge and those upon information and belief. He must say as to the first, that he avers them of his own knowledge; and as to the last, that he states them upon information and belief.

IV. There must be appended to the petition the post-office address of the claimants: and when represented by attorneys, proper letters of attorney or other sufficient evidence of authority must be filed therewith.

V. When the claim is brought by a guardian, executor, or other legal representative, the appointment of the representative, or a copy of the letters testamentary, or of administration granted to such representative, duly authenticated, must be filed with the petition.

VI. Each material averment of the petition should be corroborated by at least two credible and disinterested witnesses, and their sworn statements should be filed with the petition, or as soon thereafter as possible.

VII. The claimant, upon completing the proofs relied on to sustain his claim, should so notify the Secretary of the Treasury in writing, and after the expiration of the six months allowed by the Act of Congress for filing claims, the cases will be taken up and disposed of in the order in which such notifications have been received, unless further delay is asked for by the claimant or demanded by the public interests.

Secretary of the Treasury.
