ARTIKEL X.

ARTIKEL XIV.

De Hooge Contracterende Partijen doen afstand van alle terugvordering van de kosten, door haar gemaakt voor de aanhouding en gevangenhouding van den uitleveren persoon en voor zijn vervoer tot aan boord van een schip, gelijk mede van de terugvordering van de kosten veroorzaakt door het hooren van getuigen naar aanleiding van Artikel XII, en door het over en weder zenden van in beslag genomen voorwerpen. Zij stemmen er wederkeerig in toe die kosten zelve te dragen.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the thirtieth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, viz. :—

“Whereas by the fifth section of an Act passed in the twenty-ninth year of your Majesty's reign, chapter eighty-nine, entitled ‘An Act to provide for the better government of Greenwich Hospital,’ it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for your Majesty in Council, from time to time, by Order in Council, to appoint such pensions as seem fit to men of the Royal Navy and Marines, to be enjoyed by them so long only as they are not on the establishment or inmates of Greenwich Hospital, but in addition to any half-pay, pension, or other allowances coming to them otherwise than under any such Order in Council; and whereas, by your Majesty's regulations for the government of your Majesty's Naval Service, the highest amount of naval pension which we can award for wounds and injuries received on duty is, in the case of seamen, two shillings and three pence a-day; and in the case of marines, two shillings a-day; and whereas William Hood, when serving as a seaman on board your Majesty's ship 'London,' in one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, was severely injured on duty by the explosion of one of the ship's guns, whereby, in addition to becoming completely deaf, he has lost his right arm and the sight of both eyes; and whereas we are of opinion that the sum of two shillings and three pence a-day is insufficient compensation for such serious injuries; we do, therefore, beg leave to recommend that your Majesty will be graciously pleased, by your Order in Council, to sanction the award of a special pension of one shilling and three pence a-day, from the funds of Greenwich Hospital, to the said William Hood, the same to be paid to him from the first instant."

Her Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

"Whereas, by the thirtieth section of an Act passed in the twenty-ninth year of your Majesty's reign, cap. 89, entitled "An Act to provide for the better government of Greenwich Hospital," it is enacted that the Admiralty, with the approval of your Majesty in Council, may, from time to time, make free grants of land, part of the lands vested in them by virtue of the said Act, and grants of money for the erection of buildings and providing conveniences for places of worship, residence of ministers, education of children, or other public purposes (so that any such grant of land do not include any right to the minerals under the land granted, or comprise more than two acres in any one parish): and whereas we have considered it expedient, under the provisions before quoted, that we should make a free grant of a certain piece of land, situate in the chapelry of Garrigill, in the parish of Alston, in the county of Cumberland, to the trustees therein named, upon trust for the erection of a school for the education of children and adults, or children only, of the labouring, manufacturing, and other poorer classes in the district of Tynehead and Ashgill, and for no other purpose.
