Metropolitan Board of Works.

Bye-Laws made by the Metropolitan Board of Works under the provisions of the Tramways Act, 1870, the London Street Tramways Act, 1870, the Metropolitan Street Tramways Act, 1870, the Pimlico, Peckham, and Greenwich Street Tramways (Extensions) Act, 1870, and the North Metropolitan Tramways Act, 1870.

THE Metropolitan Board of Works being, by the above Acts, constituted the Local Authority for the Metropolis (except the city of London and the Liberties thereof), doth hereby make the following Bye-laws and Regulations to be observed by all Tramway Companies and persons running carriages on the roads in which tramways are laid within the Metropolis:—

1. The rate of speed to be observed for tramway traffic shall in no case exceed nine miles an hour; nor shall it be less than six miles an hour, excepting on inclines and curves of a radius of sixty feet and under.

2. No carriage using a tramway shall follow another carriage using the same tramway at a less distance from such other carriage than one hundred yards, except at junction points and on single lines of tramway.

3. No carriage using a tramway shall stop, except at junctions or terminal stations, or when necessary to preserve the distance required by Bye-law No. 2, or when changing horses, or when required to take up or set down a passenger, and then no longer than is absolutely necessary. No carriage using a tramway shall stop within ten yards of another carriage on a parallel line of tramway.

4. No person shall in any way wilfully impede or interfere with the traffic on a tramway.

5. No driver of an omnibus or other stage carriage, other than a carriage using a tramway, shall stop to take up or set down passengers except as close to the kerb as possible.

6. Any person infringing any of the foregoing Bye-laws shall be subject to a penalty not exceeding forty shillings for each offence.

Sealed by Order,

J. E. Wakefield,

Clerk of the Board.

Spring Gardens,
4th December, 1874.

Patent Law Amendment Act, 1852.

Office of the Commissioners of Patents for Inventions.

NOTICE is hereby given, that—

2580. Auguste Fortuné Lefèvre, of Paris, France, has given notice at the Office of the Commissioners of his intention to proceed with his application for letters patent for the invention of "an improved portable heating apparatus."

2586. And James Reilly, of the Pomona Palace, Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, has given the like notice in respect of the invention of "improvements in four wheeled carriages."

As set forth in their respective petitions, both recorded in the said office on the 23rd day of July, 1874.

2598. And John Maynes, of Albert Works, West Gorton, in the county of Lancaster, Machinist, has given the like notice in respect of the invention of "improvements in machinery for turning and cutting wood, metal, and other materials."

As set forth in his petition, recorded in the said office on the 24th day of July, 1874.

2621.
