Railway (No. 2). A railway 3 furlongs 9.55 chains in length wholly situate in the parish of St. Pancras, commencing by a junction with the Midland Railway, and terminating by a junction with Railway No. 1.

Railway (No. 3). A railway 1 furlong 6.25 chains in length, wholly situate in the parish of St. Pancras, commencing by a junction with the London and North Western Railway in the Euston Station, and terminating by a junction with Railway No. 2.

And the streets thereinbefore referred to and authorised by the said Act, comprised the following streets, with all necessary and proper roadways, footways, approaches, drains, culverts, and other works and conveniences connected therewith (that is to say):—

Street (No. 1). A street wholly situate in the parishes of St. Anne, Soho, and St. Giles-in-the-Fields, commencing on the southern side of Oxford-street, and terminating on the northern side of Leicester-square.

Street (No. 2). A street wholly situate in the parish of St. Martin-in-the-Fields, commencing in the south-east corner of Leicester-square, and terminating on the western side of Castle-street.

All which railways, streets, and works would be wholly situate in the county of Middlesex.

And whereas, pursuant to the standing orders of both Houses of Parliament, and to an Act of the 9th and 10th years of Her present Majesty, chapter 20, the sum of £87,500 New £3 per Centum Bank Annuities, being equal to a sum of £80,700 which is the aggregate of £69,512 (being £5 per centum upon £1,390,239, the amount of the estimate of the expense of the railways by the said Act authorized) and £11,188 (being £4 per centum upon £279,700, the amount of the estimate of the expense of the streets by the said Act authorized) was transferred into the name and with the privity of the Accountant-General of the Court of Chancery in England in respect of the application to Parliament for the said Act.

And whereas by the said Act of 1871 (sec. 85) it was enacted as follows

"The said railway deposit money so transferred as aforesaid shall be applicable, and, after due notice in the London Gazette, shall be applied towards compensating any landowners or other persons whose property may have been interfered with or otherwise rendered less valuable by the commencement, construction, or abandonment of the railway, or any portion thereof, or who may have been subjected to injury or loss in consequence of the compulsory powers of taking property conferred upon the Company by this Act, and for which injury or loss no compensation or inadequate compensation shall have been paid, and shall be distributed in satisfaction of such compensation as aforesaid in such manner and in such proportions as to the Court of Chancery in England may seem fit; and if no such compensation shall be payable, or if a portion of the said railway deposit money shall have been found sufficient to satisfy all just claims in respect of such compensation, then the said railway deposit money, or such portion thereof as may not be required as aforesaid, shall be paid to or on the application of the person or persons, or the majority of the persons, named in such warrant or order as aforesaid, or the survivor or survivors of them: Provided that, until the said railway deposit money shall have been repaid to the depositors, or shall have become otherwise applicable as hereinbefore mentioned, any interest or dividends accruing thereon shall from time to time, and as often as the same shall become payable, be paid to or on the application of the person or persons, or the majority of the persons, named in such warrant or order as aforesaid, or the survivors or survivor of them."

And whereas by "The London Central Railway (Abandonment) Act, 1875," the Company is authorised and required to abandon the making of the said railways, streets, and works (which said railways, streets, and works are sometimes referred to in the same Act as the railway and street) and it is by that Act (sections 3, 4, and 5) enacted as follows:—

"3. The abandonment by the Company under the authority of this Act of the railway and street shall not prejudice or affect the right of the owner or occupier of any land to receive compensation for any damage occasioned by the entry of the Company on such land for the purpose of surveying and taking levels, or probing or boring, to ascertain the nature of the soil, or setting out the line of railway, and shall not prejudice or affect the right of the owner or occupier of any land which may have been temporarily occupied by the Company, to receive compensation for such temporary occupation, or for any loss, damage, or injury which may have been sustained by such owner or occupier by reason thereof, or of the exercise, as regards such land, of any of the powers contained in "The Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," or the Act of 1871.

"4. Where before the passing of this Act any contract may have been entered into, or notice given by the Company for the purchasing of any land for the purposes of, or in relation to the railway or street, or any portion thereof, the Company shall be released from all liability to purchase or to complete the purchase of any such lands, but notwithstanding full compensation shall be made by the Company to the owners and occupiers, or other persons interested in such lands, for all injury or damage sustained by them respectively by reason of the purchase not being completed pursuant to the contract or notice, and the amount and application of the compensation shall be determined in manner provided by "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," as amended by any subsequent Act, for determining the amount and application of compensation paid for lands taken under the provisions thereof.

"5. Subject to the provisions of section 85 of the Act of 1871, the Court of Chancery may and shall at any time after the passing of this Act, on application by the persons, or the majority of the persons, named in the warrant or order mentioned in the 84th section of the Act of 1871, or the survivors or survivor of them, by petition in a summary way, order that the railway deposit money and the interest or dividends thereon may be paid or transferred to the person or persons so applying, or to any other person or persons whom they or he may appoint in that behalf; and upon such order being made, the said railway deposit money, and the interest or dividends thereon shall be paid or transferred to such person or persons accordingly."

And whereas it is by the said Act of 1871, (sec. 86) enacted as follows:—

"On the application of the persons named in the warrant or order issued in pursuance of the said Act of the 9th and 10th years of Her present Majesty, chapter 20, or of the survivors or survivor of them, or of the majority of such persons or survivors, or of the executor or administrators of the last survivor, by petition in a summary way, at any time after the passing of this Act, the High Court of Chancery may and shall order that so much of the said sum of £87,500 New £3 per cent. Bank Annuities as was at the time of the transfer equal to the said sum of £11,188, and the interest and dividends thereof, shall be transferred and paid to the persons or person so applying, or to any other person or persons whom they or he may appoint, in that behalf.

And whereas, in pursuance of an order of the said Court of Chancery, the sum of £12,130 14s. 7d. new £3 per cent. Bank Annuities, part of the said £87,500 like annuities, and being so much thereof as was equal to the sum of £11,188, or £4 per cent. on the amount of the estimate of the streets by the said Act of 1871 authorised, was transferred to the persons or the majority of the persons named in the warrant or order mentioned in the 84th section of the said Act of 1871, leaving the sum of £75,369 5s. 5d. new £3 per cent. Bank Annuities, balance of the said £87,500, in Court.

Notice is hereby given that a petition will be presented to the Court of Chancery, to be heard before the Vice-Chancellor Hall, on the 23rd day of July, 1875, praying that the said sum of £75,369 5s. 5d. new £3 per cent. Bank Annuities, being the balance of the said £87,500 like annuities, may be transferred out of Court to the persons named in the warrant or order mentioned in the 84th section of the said Act of 1871, or their assigns, and all persons having any claims or demands upon the said £75,369 5s. 5d. new £3 per cent. Bank Annuities, under the provisions of the said recited Acts, or either of them, must send particulars thereof to Mr. Frederick Baruch Toogood, of No. 16, Parliament-street, Westminster, Solicitor, on or before the 21st day of July instant.—Dated this 5th day of July, 1875.

Frederick Baruch Toogood, 16, Parliament-street, Westminster.

In the Matter of the Companies Acts, 1862 and 1867, and in the Matter of Morgans and Guard Limited.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a petition for the winding up of the above-named Company by the Court of Chancery was, on the 8th day of June, 1875, presented to the Right Honourable the Master of the Rolls by the West of England and South Wales District Bank, a creditor of the said Company; and that the said petition is directed to be heard before the Master of the Rolls on Saturday, the 17th day of July, 1875; and any creditor or contributory of the said Company desirous to oppose the making of an Order for the winding up of the said Company under the above Acts, should appear at the time of hearing by himself or his counsel for that purpose; and a copy of the petition will be furnished to any creditor or contributory of the said Company requiring the same by the undersigned, on payment of the regulated charge for the same.— Dated 2nd day of July, 1875.

Clarke, Woodcock, and Ryland, 14, Lincoln's-inn-fields; Agents for Fussell, Prichard, and Swann, of Bristol, Solicitors for the Petitioners.

In the Matter of the Companies Acts, 1862 and 1867, and in the Matter of the Rangeworthy Coal and Iron Company Limited.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a petition for the winding up of the above Company by the Court of Chancery was, on the 30th day of June, 1875, presented to the Lord Chancellor by Henry James Godden, of 168, Fenchurch-street, in the city of London, Gentleman; and that the said petition is directed to be heard before the Vice-Chancellor Sir R. Malins on the 16th day of July, 1875; and any creditor or contributory of the said Company desirous to oppose the making of an Order for the winding up of the said Company under the above Acts, should appear at the time of hearing by himself or his counsel for that purpose; and a copy of the petition will be furnished to any creditor or contributory of the said Company requiring the same by the undersigned, on payment of the regulated charge for the same.

Langham G. W. Godden, of 168, Fenchurch-street, London, E.C., Solicitor for the Petitioner.

ARTHUR H. FOSTER, 13, Bennett's-hill, Birmingham, Solicitor to the said Executors.

Vice-Chancellor Hall.—1873, W., 250.—Thursday, the 24th day of June, 1875.—Between George Wendover the younger and Albert Wendover, on behalf of themselves and all other the creditors of Sarah Jane Bailey, Plaintiffs; Charles Woolven and Henry William George Bailey (otherwise Hazel), Defendants.

UPON motion this day made unto this Court by Counsel for the Plaintiffs, who alleged that the plaintiffs filed their Bill in this Court against the defendants, having an endorsement thereon in the form prescribed by the Act of Parliament in that behalf, requiring the said defendants, and each of them, to appear thereto, and it appears by the affidavit of Henry Reed and Henry Alfred Sims, filed the 19th day of June, 1875, that the defendant, Henry William George Bailey, otherwise Hazel, has been within the jurisdiction of this Court within two years next before the filing of the said Bill, and that due diligence has been used to serve the said last-named defendant with a printed copy of the said Bill, but without effect, and the said defendant cannot be found so as to be served with process, and from enquiries at the last known place of abode of the said defendant, and at other places where it was probable the said defendant might be found, there is just ground to believe that the said defendant has gone out of the realm, or otherwise absconded, to avoid being served with process, and upon reading the said affidavit and the exhibit therein referred to, this Court doth order that the said defendant, Henry William George Bailey, otherwise Hazel, do appear to the plaintiff's Bill, on or before the 31st day of July, 1875, and the plaintiff is to cause a copy of this Order, together with a notice thereof to the effect set forth at the foot of the 10th of the Consolidated Orders, rule 6, to be inserted within fourteen days from the date hereof in the London Gazette, and the Times London Newspaper, and in three newspapers circulating respectively in Portsmouth and elsewhere, in the county of Hants, in Carlisle, and elsewhere, in the county of Cumberland, and in the town of Liverpool.

Henry William George Bailey, otherwise Hazel. Take notice, that if you do not appear, pursuant to the above Order, the plaintiffs may enter an appearance for you, and the Court may afterwards grant to the plaintiffs such relief as they may be entitled to on their own showing.

SOLE, TURNER, and KNIGHT, of 68, Aldermanbury, London, Plaintiffs' Solicitor.

In Chancery.

In the Matter of the Settled Estates Acts, and in the Matter of a Freehold Estate, situate at West Cramlington, in the Parochial Chapelry of Cramlington, in the county of Northumberland, comprising 618 acres, or thereabouts, and consisting of the following particulars, namely, a Messuage and Farm known as the Whitehall Farm, now in the occupation of the West Cramlington Colliery Company; a Messuage and Farm known as the Hall Farm, now in the occupation of William Bell; Messuages, Cottages, and Lands now in the respective occupations of the said West Cramlington Colliery Company, William Bell, John Hardy, and John Forster; and a Messuage or Mansion House, called the Hall, now unoccupied, and Land used and
