WHEREAS, by an Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the fifty-seventh year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend the training and to regulate the quotas of the Militia," it is, amongst other things, enacted "that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the Militia of the United Kingdom, or any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewartry, city, town, or place, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the Militia of the United Kingdom, or of any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires,

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 5th day of August, 1875.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the 106th Section of "The Explosives Act, 1875," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty from time to time, by Order in Council, to define for the purposes of the said Act, the composition, quality, and character of any explosive, and to classify explosives.

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the above-mentioned provision of the said Act, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order as follows:—

For the purposes of the said Act explosives shall be divided into seven classes as follows—

Class 1	...	...	Gunpowder.
Class 2	...	...	Nitrate Mixture.
Class 3	...	...	Nitro Compound.
Class 4	...	...	Chlorate Mixture.
Class 5	...	...	Fulminate.
Class 6	...	...	Ammunition.
Class 7	...	...	Firework.

And when an explosive falls within the description of more than one class it shall be deemed to belong exclusively to the latest of the classes within the description of which it falls.

CLASS 1.—Gunpowder Class.

The term "gunpowder" means exclusively gunpowder ordinarily so called.

CLASS 2.—Nitrate-mixture Class.

The term "nitrate-mixture" means any preparation, other than gunpowder ordinarily so called, formed by the mechanical mixture of a nitrate with any form of carbon or with any carbonaceous substance not possessed of explosive properties, whether sulphur be or be not added to such preparation, and whether such preparation be or be not mechanically mixed with any other non-explosive substance.

The nitrate-mixture class comprises such explosives as—

Pyrolithe, Padrolithe,
Poudre Saxifragine,

and any preparation coming within the above definition.

CLASS 3.—Nitro-compound Class.

The term "nitro-compound" means any chemical compound possessed of explosive properties, or capable of combining with metals to form an explosive compound, which is produced by the chemical action of nitric acid (whether mixed or not with sulphuric acid) or of a nitrate mixed with sulphuric acid upon any carbonaceous substance, whether such compound is mechanically mixed with other substances or not.

The nitro-compound class has two divisions.

Division 1 comprises such explosives as—

Nitro-glycerine,
Dynamite,
Lithofracteur,
Dualine,
Glyoxiline,
Methylic nitrate,

and any chemical compound or mechanically mixed preparation which consists either wholly or partly of nitro-glycerine or of some other liquid nitro-compound.

Division 2 comprises such explosives as—

Gun-cotton, ordinarily so called,
Gun-paper,
Xyloidine,
Gun-sawdust,
Nitrated gun-cotton,
Cotton gun-powder,
Schultz's powder,
Nitro-mannite,
Picrates,
Picric powder,

and any nitro-compound as before defined, which is not comprised in the first division.

CLASS 4.—Chlorate-mixture Class.

The term "chlorate-mixture" means any explosive containing a chlorate.

The chlorate-mixture class has two divisions.

Division 1 comprises such explosives as—

Horsley's blasting powder,
Brain's blasting powder,

and any chlorate preparation which consists partly of nitro-glycerine or of some other liquid nitro-compound.

Division 2 comprises such explosives as—

Horsley's original blasting powder,
Erhardt's powder,
Reveley's powder,
Hochstadter's blasting charges,
Reichen's blasting charges,
Teutonite,
Chlorated gun-cotton, and any chlorate-mixture as before defined, which is not comprised in the first division.

CLASS 5.—Fulminate Class.

The term "fulminate" means any chemical compound or mechanical mixture, whether included in the foregoing classes or not, which, from its great susceptibility to detonation, is suitable for employment in percussion caps or any other appliances for developing detonation, or which, from its extreme sensibility to explosion, and from its great instability (that is to say, readiness to undergo decomposition from very slight exciting causes), is especially dangerous.

This class consists of two divisions.

Division 1 comprises such compounds as the fulminates of silver and of mercury, and preparations of these substances, such as are used in percussion caps; and any preparation consisting of a mixture of a chlorate with phosphorus, or certain descriptions of phosphorus compounds, with or without the addition of carbonaceous matter, and any preparation consisting of a mixture of a chlorate with sulphur, or with a sulphuret, with or without carbonaceous matter.

Division 2 comprises such substances as the chloride and the iodide of nitrogen, fulminating gold and silver, diazobenzol, and the nitrate of diazobenzol.

CLASS 6.—Ammunition Class.

The term "ammunition" means an explosive of any of the foregoing classes when enclosed in any case or contrivance, or otherwise adapted or prepared so as to form a cartridge or charge for small arms, cannon, or any other weapon, or for blasting, or to form any safety or other fuze for blasting or for shells, or to form any tube for firing explosives, or to form a percussion cap, a detonator, a fog signal, a shell, a torpedo, a war rocket, or other contrivance other than a firework.

The term "percussion cap" does not include a detonator.

The term "detonator" means a capsule or case which is of such strength and construction, and contains an explosive of the fulminate-explosive class in such quantity that the explosion of one capsule or case will communicate the explosion to other like capsules or cases.

The term "safety fuze" means a fuze for blasting which burns and does not explode, and which does not contain its own means of ignition, and which is of such strength and construction and contains an explosive in such quantity that the burning of such fuze will not communicate laterally with other like fuzes.

The ammunition class has three divisions.

Division 1 comprises exclusively—

- Safety cartridges,
- Safety fuzes for blasting,
- Railway fog signals,
- Percussion caps.

Division 2 comprises any ammunition as before defined which does not contain its own means of ignition, and is not included in Division 1, such as—

- Cartridges for small-arms, which are not safety cartridges,
- Cartridges and charges for cannon, shells, mines, blasting, or other like purposes,
- Shells and torpedoes containing any explosives,
- Fuzes for blasting which are not safety fuzes,
- Fuzes for shells,
- Tubes for firing explosives,
- War rockets,

which do not contain their own means of ignition.

Division 3 comprises any ammunition as before defined which contains its own means of ignition, and is not included in Division 1, such as—

- Detonators,
- Cartridges for small-arms, which are not safety cartridges,
- Fuzes for blasting, which are not safety fuzes,
- Fuzes for shells,
- Tubes for firing explosives,

which do contain their own means of ignition.

By ammunition containing its own means of ignition is meant ammunition having an arrangement, whether attached to it or forming part of it, which is adapted to explode or fire the same by friction or percussion.

CLASS 7.—Firework Class.

The term "firework" comprises firework composition and manufactured fireworks.

Division 1.—The term "firework composition" means any chemical compound or mechanically mixed preparation of an explosive or inflammable nature which is used for the purpose of making manufactured fireworks, and is not included in the former classes of explosives, and also any coloured fire composition.

Division 2.—The term "manufactured firework" means any explosive of the foregoing classes, and any firework composition, when such explosive or composition is enclosed in any case or contrivance, or is otherwise manufactured so as to form a squib, cracker, serpent, rocket (other than a war-rocket), maroon, star, lance, wheel, Chinese fire, Roman candle, or other article adapted for the production of pyrotechnic effects or pyrotechnic signals.

the 5th day of August, 1875.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the twenty-second year of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the law relating to "Municipal Elections," it is (amongst other things) enacted, that if two-thirds in number of the Council of any borough shall agree to petition, and the Council shall, thereupon, petition Her Majesty for the division of such borough into wards, or for the alteration of the number and boundaries of the wards into which any borough is, or from time to time shall be, divided, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, from time to time, if she shall think fit, by advice of Her Privy Council, to fix the number of wards into which such borough shall be divided; and every such borough shall be divided into the number of wards mentioned in the Order in Council made on such petition. Provided, nevertheless, that notice of every such petition, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same shall be taken into consideration by Her Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette one month at least before such petition shall be so considered:

And whereas, after the passing of the said Act, two-thirds in number of the said Council of the borough of Wrexham, in the county of Denbigh, agreed to petition, and the said Council did, thereupon, that is to say, on the twenty-seventh day of April, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, petition for the division of such borough into wards, and that Her Majesty, by the advice of Her Privy Council, would fix the number of wards into which the said borough shall be divided. And whereas Her Majesty was thereupon graciously pleased to order that such petition should be taken into consideration by Her Privy Council on the thirtieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five:

And whereas notice of the said petition, and of the time when it so pleased Her Majesty to order that the same should be taken into consideration, was published in the London Gazette on the fourteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, being one month at least before such petition was so taken into consideration.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in pursuance and exercise of the power in Her Majesty by the said Act of Parliament in that behalf vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to fix the number of wards into which the said borough shall be divided, and to order and direct that such borough shall be divided into four wards.

And whereas the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, pursuant to the provisions of the said Act, hath duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a certificate, in writing, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, in the words following; that is to say:

"To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

"We, the undersigned, Archibald Campbell, Lord Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury, Primate of all England and Metropolitan, do hereby certify to your Majesty in Council :

"That the Right Reverend James, Lord Bishop of Hereford, having represented unto us that the rectory of Bredenbury, in the county and diocese of Hereford, and the vicarage of Wacton, in the same county and diocese, being contiguous to each other, and of which the aggregate population does not exceed one thousand five hundred persons, might, with advantage to the interests of religion, be united into one benefice, we inquired into the circumstances of the case.

"That on such inquiry it appears to us that such union might be usefully made, and would not be of inconvenient extent, and that William Henry Barneby, of Bredenbury Court, in the county of Hereford, Esquire, the patron or person entitled to present to the said rectory of Bredenbury, if the same were now vacant, and the said Lord Bishop being in right of his see the patron or person entitled to present or collate to the said vicarage of Wacton, if the same were now vacant, have respectively signified their consent, in writing, to the union of the said benefices into one benefice with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes.

"That six weeks and upwards before certifying such inquiry and consents to your Majesty in Council, we caused copies, in writing, of the aforesaid representation of the said Lord Bishop to be affixed on the principal outer door of the church of each of the said benefices, with notice to any person or persons interested that he, she, or they might, within such six weeks, show cause, in writing, under his, her, or their hand or hands, to us, the said Archbishop, against such union, and no such cause has been shown.

"The representation of the said Lord Bishop of Hereford, our inquiry into the circumstances of the case, the statement of circumstances in reply thereto, the consents, in writing, of the patrons, and copies of the representation and notice before mentioned, are hereunto annexed.

"And we do hereby certify the inquiry and consents aforesaid to your Majesty in Council, to the intent that your Majesty in Council may, in case your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do, make and issue an Order for uniting the said benefices into one benefice, with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes, and for declaring that the course and succession in which the patrons shall present to such united benefice, from time to time as the same shall become vacant (that is to say) : from and after the avoidance of the united benefice by the death, resignation, or deprivation, or other determination of the incumbency of such one of them, the Reverends John Booth and Charles Bridges, as shall become the first incumbent of such united benefice, the patronage and right of presentation of and to the said united benefice, shall belong to, and be exercised by, the said William Henry Barneby, his heirs and assigns, and the said Lord Bishop and his successors in the turns and in manner following (that is to say) : the first two turns of presentation and every alternate turn shall belong to the said William Henry Barneby, and the third and every other alternate turn of presentation shall belong to the said Lord Bishop and his successors.

"As witness our hand this twenty-sixth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five.

"A. C. Cantuar."

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of her said Council, is pleased to order, and doth hereby order, that the said rectory of Bredenbury, in the county and diocese of Hereford, and the vicarage of Wacton, in the same county and diocese shall be united into one benefice for the cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes only. And Her Majesty in Council is pleased to give directions for and declare that the patronage of the said united benefice, whenever the same shall become vacant, shall be exercised as follows (that is to say : from and after the avoidance of the united benefice by the death, resignation, or deprivation, or other determination of the incumbency of such one of them, the Reverends John Booth and Charles Bridges, as shall become the first incumbent of such united benefice, the patronage and right of presentation of and to the said united benefice shall belong to, and be exercised by, the said William Henry Barneby, his heirs and assigns, and the said Lord Bishop and his successors in the turns and in manner following (that is to say) : the first two turns of presentation and every alternate turn shall belong to the said William Henry Barneby, his heirs and assigns, and the third and every other alternate turn of presentation shall belong to the said Lord Bishop and his successors.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 5th day of August, 1875.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the twenty-fifth section of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and forty-two, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

No. 24235.

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the twenty-fifth section of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and forty-two, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making certain corrections or alterations in relation to the provisions of a certain Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the seventeenth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, and published in the London Gazette on the day following, by virtue of which Order the benefice of Saint Mary Aldermary, with Saint Thomas Apostle, in the city and diocese of London, and the benefice of Saint Antholin with Saint John the Baptist upon Walbrook, in the same city and diocese, have been united and consolidated into, and have become and are one benefice, by the name and style of 'The United Rectory of Saint Mary Aldermary with Saint Thomas Apostle, Saint Antholin, and Saint John the Baptist upon Walbrook.'

"Whereas it is by the fourth part of the scheme ratified by the said Order (which scheme is hereinafter called 'the said Original Scheme'), provided that the church of the said benefice of Saint Antholin with Saint John the Baptist upon Walbrook (that is to say, the church of Saint Antholin) shall, except the spire and tower thereof, be taken down, and that the materials and site thereof (except the materials and site of the said spire and tower), shall be sold by public tender by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, as by the said original scheme is further provided; but that the spire and tower of the same church of Saint Antholin shall not be taken down, and the site thereof shall not be sold, and that the same spire and tower and the site thereof shall remain vested in the incumbent or rector of the united benefice therein and hereinbefore mentioned for the benefit of the parishioners of the two parishes of Saint Antholin and Saint John the Baptist upon Walbrook, and shall be preserved and maintained by means of a certain fund, which, under the said original scheme, is to be set apart by us out of the proceeds of the sale of the said church of Saint Antholin, the amount of which fund is, by the same scheme, fixed at six hundred pounds.

"And whereas in the said fourth part of the said original scheme, certain provisions were contained and directions given as to the removal into the said tower of the said church of Saint Antholin, of certain tablets or monuments, and as to the re-interment beneath the same tower of certain human remains.

"And whereas by the fifth part of the said original scheme, it is provided that out of the moneys to be realized by the sale as aforesaid of the said church of Saint Antholin, a sum, not exceeding three thousand pounds, shall be paid by us as therein mentioned, and shall be applied as therein mentioned in repairing and keeping in repair the church of the said united benefice, that is to say, the church of Saint Mary, Aldermary, and in putting the same church into fit and proper condition to become the parish church of the same united benefice, and in beautifying and reseating the same church as therein mentioned.

"And whereas the spire and tower of the said church of Saint Antholin are now standing, but the rest of the same church has lately been taken down, under the provisions of the said original scheme, so ratified as aforesaid, and the site of the said church is now ready to be sold under the same provisions; the human remains which were found beneath the said church and site having been dealt with as is in that behalf provided by the seventeenth section of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and forty-two, and by the said fourth part of the said original scheme.

"And whereas the tablets and monuments herebefore mentioned have or some of them have been placed within, or re-erected within, the said tower of the said church of Saint Antholin.

"And whereas, upon a survey of the said spire and tower of the said church of Saint Antholin, made under our direction by a competent architect, it has appeared that a sum of not less than two thousand pounds is required to defray the estimated cost of making good defects in the same spire and tower, and of putting the same spire and tower into thoroughly substantial repair, and of otherwise fulfilling the requirements of part four of the said original scheme; and further it has been made to appear to us that, by the preservation and maintenance of the said spire and tower, not only is the money which might be obtained upon a sale of the same spire and tower and the site thereof sacrificed, but also the market value of that part of the site of the said church of Saint Antholin, which is ready to be sold as aforesaid, is considerably reduced.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us to be desirable that upon any such sale as aforesaid of the site of the said late church of Saint Antholin, and upon any sale of the said spire and tower of the same church and the site thereof, power should be obtained by us to effect such sale or sales (if we should see fit) by public auction.

"And whereas it has also been represented to us, that the sum of three thousand pounds, which as aforesaid, we are, under the provisions of the said original scheme to pay over for the repairing and keeping in repair and beautifying and reseating of the said church of Saint Mary Aldermary, is insufficient for these purposes.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us that the recommendations and proposals hereinafter made, as to the tablets and monuments of Saint Antholin's church, and as to the human remains aforesaid, may be carried into effect without inconvenience or indecorum.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend John, Bishop of the said diocese of London, as such Bishop (testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme), and with the consent of the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Saint Paul, in London, the patrons of the said united rectory of Saint Mary Aldermary with Saint Thomas Apostle, Saint Antholin, and Saint John the Baptist upon Walbrook (testified by the said Dean and Chapter having affixed their common or corporate seal to this scheme), and with the consent of the Vestry of each of the said four parishes of Saint Mary Aldermary, Saint Thomas Apostle, Saint Antholin, and Saint John the Baptist upon Walbrook (testified, in the case of each vestry, by the signature attached to this scheme, in pursuance of a resolution to that effect of the chairman of a vestry meeting duly convened for the purpose of giving such consent), and of the Reverend Lewis Borrett White, Clerk in Holy Orders, Rector or Incumbent of the united rectory of Saint Mary Aldermary with Saint Thomas Apostle, Saint Antholin, and Saint John the Baptist upon Walbrook, in whom, as such rector or incumbent, the spire and tower of the said church of Saint Antholin, and the site thereof remain vested as aforesaid, we humbly recommend and propose that in lieu of, or (as the case may be) in correction or alteration of the provisions, or some of them, of the said original scheme, ratified by the said Order of your Majesty in Council, of the seventeenth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, we shall, as from the day of the date of any order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, be empowered to carry into effect all or any of the following provisions, and that the same provisions shall thereafter accordingly take effect, that is to say:—

"1. That any tablets or monuments which, under part four aforesaid of the said original scheme, ought to be, or may have been removed into, or re-erected in the tower of, the said church of Saint Antholin shall, at the cost of the fund provided by the twenty-second section of the said Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and forty-two, be removed into, and be re-erected in the said church of Saint Mary Aldermary.

"2. That any human remains which, under part four of the said original scheme ought to be or may have been re-interred beneath the said tower of the said church of Saint Antholin, shall be re-interred in the City of London Cemetery at Ilford, in the county of Essex, the cost of such re-interment to be defrayed out of the proceeds of the sale or sales contemplated by part four of the said original scheme, and by the next following section of this present scheme.

"3. That the said spire and tower of the said church of Saint Antholin shall be taken down, and that the materials thereof and the site thereof shall be sold by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, the sale of the same materials and the sale of the same site to be made at one time or at more than one time, as may be convenient, and the same site to be (at our discretion) sold either separately from or together with, and either at the same time as, or at a different time from, that part of the site of the said church of Saint Antholin which is now ready to be sold as aforesaid; and that all moneys arising from such sale or sales of the materials and site of the said spire and tower shall be paid over to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, for the purposes of this scheme; and that the sale of the materials and site of the said spire and tower, and also the sale of that part of the site of the said church of Saint Antholin, which is now ready to be sold as aforesaid, may, at our discretion be made either by public auction or by public tender.

"4. That the said sum of six hundred pounds which we, under the provisions of part five of the said original scheme, are directed to pay to the churchwardens of the two parishes of Saint Antholin and Saint John the Baptist upon Walbrook, as a fund for preserving, maintaining, and keeping in repair the fabric of the said spire and tower, shall not be so paid, but that in lieu thereof, a sum of one thousand pounds (being the same sum of six hundred pounds together with a further sum of four hundred pounds, part of the proceeds of the sale or sales contemplated as aforesaid by part four of the said original scheme and by this present scheme) shall be paid by us to the same churchwardens (whose receipt shall be a sufficient discharge to us for the same), and that the same sum of one thousand pounds shall, by the same churchwardens, be invested in Government securities, to be held by the churchwardens for the time being of the same two parishes upon trust to apply the interest or dividends thereof, and of any accumulation thereof caused by investment in similar securities of unapplied interest or dividends, in preserving, maintaining, and keeping in repair (with the consent of the other churchwardens of the said united benefice) the church of the said united benefice, that is to say, the church of Saint Mary Aldermary.

"5. That the sum of two thousand pounds, being as aforesaid the estimated cost of fulfilling the requirements of part four of the said original scheme (which requirements, if this scheme shall be ratified by your Majesty in Council cannot be fulfilled), and being a sum charged on the fund created by the twenty-second section of the said Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and forty-two, shall, out of the same fund, be paid by us in the manner, and subject to the conditions and for the purposes contemplated by part five, section one, of the said original scheme, such payment to be in addition to, and not in lieu of, the payment of any sum which, under the provisions of the same part and section, we are now empowered to pay as therein is mentioned.

"6. That out of the proceeds of the sale or sales contemplated as aforesaid by part four of the said original scheme, and by this present scheme, a sum not exceeding four hundred and fifty pounds shall be expended by us and at our discretion in providing a suitable railing of iron around, and a suitable monument or memorial stone above or over a certain vault which has been made at the eastern end of the site of the said Church of Saint Antholin, within which vault certain human remains have been interred under and in accordance with the provisions of part four of the said original scheme. Provided always, that the said railing and the said monument or memorial stone shall be erected after designs prepared according to our instructions, and shall be approved by us and by the Bishop of the diocese of London for the time being, and by the churchwardens for the time being of the said two parishes of Saint Antholin and Saint John the Baptist upon Walbrook.

"And lastly we recommend and propose that, except in so far as the same is affected by the provisions of this supplemental scheme, the said Order of your Majesty in Council of the seventeenth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, shall continue in full force and effect as if this scheme had not been made."

And whereas the said scheme has been laid before both Houses of Parliament for the space of two calendar months.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London, and by the Registrar of the diocese of Winchester.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 5th day of August, 1875.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King

George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the seventeenth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of his Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Mary, situate at Bransgore, in the parish of Christchurch, in the county of Southampton, and in the diocese of Winchester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Mary, situate at Bransgore as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Harold, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Christchurch, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Mary, situate at Bransgore as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Mary, Bransgore.'

"And with the like consent of the said Edward Harold, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester, (testified as aforesaid) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in, or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Mary, Bransgore, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Christchurch, in the county of Southampton, and in the diocese of Winchester, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is bounded on the south-east by the parish of Hinton Admiral, in the said county and diocese, on the east and on the north-east by the extra-parochial territory called or known as the New Forest, in the same county and diocese, on the north-west by the parish of Sopley, in the same county and diocese, and upon aliother sides, that is to say, on the south-west and on the south, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Sopley from the parish of Christchurch aforesaid, at a point in the middle of the road leading from Ripley to Winkton, such point being at or near to the north-eastern corner of Sopley Park; and extending thence, for a distance of thirty-eight chains, or thereabouts, first south-eastward and then southward along the middle of the said road to its junction with the road leading from Winkton aforesaid, past South Bockhampton to Godwin's Croft; and extending thence, for a distance of one mile and a quarter, or thereabouts, in a direction first southward and then generally eastward, along the middle of the last-described road to the centre of the ford by which the same road crosses the River Mude; and extending thence, generally southward, for a distance of ten chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the said river to its junction with the stream flowing from New Close Farm and Waterditch; and extending thence, eastward, for a distance of fifteen and a-half chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the said stream to the boundary at the centre of the ford at Waterditch, where the same stream crosses the road leading from Nea Croft to Burton Common, which boundary divides the said parish of Christchurch from the parish of Hinton Admiral, aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Winchester.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 5th day of August, 1875.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fifteenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for compensating a certain spiritual person, to wit the Reverend James Morrison Morgan, Clerk in Holy Orders, whose emoluments have been diminished by reason of proceedings under the said Acts, or one of them, to wit by the formation of the district (now the new parish) of Newbarns and Hawcoat, out of the parish of Dalton-in-Furness, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Carlisle, of which said parish the said James Morrison Morgan was, at the date of such formation, and is now, the vicar or incumbent.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that the fees, dues, or other emoluments of the said James Morrison Morgan, as such vicar or incumbent as aforesaid, have been diminished as aforesaid, and that the payment to him, the said James Morrison Morgan, of the annual sum of six pounds, would provide a just and reasonable compensation for such diminution.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that in respect of the new parish of Newbarns and Hawcoat aforesaid, there shall be paid by us to the said James Morrison Morgan, so long as he shall continue to be vicar or incumbent of the said parish of Dalton-in-Furness as aforesaid, and no longer, the annual sum of six pounds, payment of such annual sum being made by equal half-yearly payments, upon the first day of May and the first day of November in each year, but with the right also in the said James Morrison Morgan or (as the case may be), in his representatives, to a proportionate payment in respect of any period being less than half a year which may elapse between the first day of May or the first day of November (as the case may be) and the day on which he, the said James Morrison Morgan, shall, from whatever cause, cease to be vicar or incumbent of the said parish of Dalton-in-Furness.

"And we further recommend and propose that the right of the said James Morrison Morgan, as such vicar or incumbent as aforesaid, to receive the said annual sum of six pounds shall be held to have accrued, and that payment thereof shall accordingly be made as from the first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, being a date subsequent to the day upon which the vicar or incumbent of the said new parish of Newbarns and Hawcoat became empowered to perform in the church thereof those offices, and became entitled to retain for his own benefit those fees in consideration of the loss of which to the said James Morrison Morgan, as such vicar or incumbent of the said parish of Dalton-in-Furness as aforesaid, the amount of the compensation grant in this scheme recommended and proposed has been fixed by us.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Carlisle.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the first and second years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and six, of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her Majesty chapter ninety-eight, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and forty-two, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a scheme bearing date the thirteenth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, in the words and figures following, that is to say;

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the first and second years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and six, of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of your Majesty chapter ninety-eight, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and forty-two, have prepared and now humbly certify to your Majesty in Council the following scheme for uniting the benefice (being a rectory) of Saint James Garlickhithe in the city of London with the benefice (being a rectory) of Saint Michael Queenhithe with Holy Trinity the Less in the said city of London and for the other purposes hereinafter mentioned.

"Whereas under the provisions of the said lastly mentioned Act the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell late Bishop of the diocese of London issued a commission for the purpose of inquiring into the expediency of the proposed union of the said rectory of Saint James Garlickhithe and the said rectory of Saint Michael Queenhithe with Holy Trinity the Less and by the return made to the said commission the Commissioners therein named certified all such matters and things as appeared to them material together with their opinion that the proposed union was expedient, and in such return they specified the terms on which in their opinion the same union ought to be effected.

"And whereas the said Archibald Campbell late Bishop of the said diocese of London (who in right of his see was the patron of the said rectory of St. James Garlickhithe) caused proposals for a scheme based upon the terms recommended by the Commissioners named in the hereinbefore-mentioned Commission to be laid before us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England which proposals have been assented to by the dean of the Cathedral and Metropolitan Church of Christ Canterbury and the chapter of the same Church who at the date of the proposals were the patrons alternately with the dean of the Cathedral Church of St. Paul in London and the chapter of the same church of the said rectory of St. Michael Queenhithe with Holy Trinity the Less and also by the dean and chapter of the said last-named cathedral church who were the other alternate patrons and who have since become and now are the sole patrons of the said lastly-named rectory and also by the vestry of the parish of Saint James Garlickhithe and by the vestry of the parish of Saint Michael Queenhithe and by the vestry of the parish of Holy Trinity the Less.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such union of the said rectories of Saint James Garlickhithe and Saint Michael Queenhithe with Holy Trinity the Less should be effected and that such arrangements relating thereto and to the patronage of the said rectories should be made as are hereinafter-mentioned and proposed.

"1. Now therefore we humbly recommend and propose with the consents of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend John, now Bishop of the said diocese of London (testified by his signing and sealing this scheme) and of the said dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Saint Paul in London (testified by their having to this scheme affixed their corporate seal) and with the consents of the respective vestries of the said several parishes of Saint James Garlickhithe and Saint Michael Queenhithe and Holy Trinity the Less (testified by the respective chairmen of the said several vestries having respectively signed this scheme pursuant to resolutions passed at vestries respectively duly convened for the purpose of giving such consents) that the said rectory of Saint James Garlickhithe and the said rectory of Saint Michael Queenhithe with Holy Trinity the Less shall be united and consolidated into and shall become and be one benefice under the style of 'The United Rectory of Saint James Garlickhithe and Saint Michael Queenhithe with Holy Trinity the Less.'

"2 And we further recommend and propose that if when this scheme shall have been ratified by an order of your Majesty in Council and shall have taken effect as hereinafter provided both of the said rectories shall be vacant the union of the said rectories shall take effect forthwith and if one of the said rectories only shall be then vacant the said union shall also take effect forthwith, if the incumbent of the other of the said rectories shall consent to become the incumbent of the united rectory, but if he shall not so consent then that the union shall take effect upon the then next vacancy of his benefice and the then incumbent of the other of the said rectories shall be the first incumbent of the united rectory, and if when this scheme shall have been ratified by an Order of your Majesty in Council and shall have taken effect as hereinafter provided both of the said rectories shall be full then that the said union shall take effect upon the next vacancy of either of them if the incumbent for the time being of the other of the said rectories shall consent to become the incumbent of the united rectory, and he shall be the first incumbent of the united rectory but if he shall not so consent then the said union shall take effect immediately upon the next vacancy of his benefice and the then incumbent of the other of the said rectories shall be the first incumbent of the united rectory and that in either case it shall be lawful for the Bishop to admit to the united rectory the first incumbent thereof (if an incumbent for the time being of either of the existing rectories) without any form or fee of or for presentation and he shall thereupon become the incumbent of the united rectory and that until the time of the union taking effect the existing incumbencies shall remain separate and the rights and liabilities in respect thereof shall remain unaffected by anything herein contained.

"3. And we further recommend and propose that if after the ratification of this scheme by an Order of your Majesty in Council and before the union shall have taken effect the incumbent for the time being of either of the existing rectories shall with the consent of the Bishop retire from his incumbency in order that the union may take immediate effect the incumbent so retiring from his incumbency shall be entitled during the period hereinafter specified to receive out of the annual income of the united rectory and by way of compensation a yearly sum equal in amount to the net annual value of the tithe and tithe rents charge and endowments annexed to his rectory computed on the average receipts of the three years immediately preceding the year in which he shall so retire which annual sum shall commence as from the day on which the union shall take effect and shall be payable by equal half-yearly payments in every year the first half-yearly payment thereof to become due and be paid at the end of six calendar months next after the day on which the union shall take effect and that the said annual sum shall be payable to the retiring incumbent during the remainder of his life or until he shall accept any other church preferment of an annual value equal to or greater in amount than the said annual sum to be so made payable to such retiring incumbent as aforesaid and upon his accepting such preferment the said annual sum shall thenceforth absolutely cease to be payable but if he shall accept other church preferment of a less net annual amount (to be ascertained without reference to and exclusively of the value of the house of residence if any) then whilst he shall hold such other preferment the said annual sum shall in each year be reduced by a sum equal in amount to the net annual sum (to be so ascertained as aforesaid) payable to him for the same year in respect of such other preferment but if the same annual sum shall cease by his death or by his acceptance of such church preferment, as the case may be on any other than one of the half yearly days of payment, he or his executors or administrators shall be entitled to a proportionate part of the said annual sum for the period which at the time of such cesser shall have elapsed of the then current half year which proportionate part shall be payable at the end of the then current half year and that the said annual sum shall be charged upon the annual income of the united rectory and shall be payable out of the same by the incumbent for the time being thereof and as between such incumbent and the retiring incumbent and his assigns the said annual sum shall be a first charge at law and in equity upon the income of the united rectory and the incumbent of the said united rectory shall be deemed to have accepted the same subject to a trust to pay to the retiring incumbent or his assigns the said annual sum out of the income of such united rectory and for that purpose to use all due diligence to receive and collect the income of the said united rectory and if such annual sum or any part thereof shall be in arrear and unpaid for a period of more than twenty-one days after any of the said half yearly days of payment and the fact of the same being so in arrear shall be verified by the declaration of the incumbent who shall have so retired or his assigns or in such other manner as shall be required by the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of London it shall be lawful for the said Bishop to make an order upon the incumbent for the time being of the united rectory requiring him to pay the amount in arrear within a time to be specified in such order and if the same shall not be paid within such period as last aforesaid then it shall be lawful for the said Bishop to sequester the profits of the said united rectory until all such arrears and the costs of the sequestration shall have been paid and satisfied but the power to be so conferred upon the said Bishop shall not in anywise abridge or interfere with the rights of the incumbent who shall have so retired, or his assigns to recover the said annual sum and all arrears thereof by proceedings at law or in equity or with the legal and equitable rights of the incumbent for the time being of the united rectory to recover from the preceding incumbent of the united rectory his executors or administrators any arrears of the said annual sum which ought to have been paid by such preceding incumbent.

"4. And we further recommend and propose that if the said union shall have taken immediate effect by reason of the incumbent for the time being of either of the existing incumbencies having retired from his incumbency and such incumbent shall be living when the united rectory shall for the first time after such union become vacant the incumbent who shall have so retired shall if in the opinion of the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of London he be not disqualified by age or otherwise be entitled to fill such vacancy and may be admitted by the said Bishop to the said united rectory without any form or fee of or for presentation and he shall thereupon become the incumbent of the said united rectory and the annual sum hereinbefore made payable to him shall thereupon absolutely cease to be payable.

"5. And we further recommend and propose that upon the said union taking effect the church of Saint James Garlickhithe shall become and thereafter continue to be the parish church of the said united rectory and that after the said union the expense of maintaining the fabric of the parish church of the united rectory and the works and ornaments thereof, the salaries of organist, clerk, sexton, beadle, and other officers and servants and the expense of providing all things requisite for Divine Service therein shall be defrayed by the parish of Saint James Garlickhithe exclusively out of funds which are at the disposal of that parish and that in consideration thereof the vestry and churchwardens of the parish of Saint James Garlickhithe shall be exclusively entitled to regulate and manage all matters connected with the maintaining the fabric of the parish church of the said united rectory and the works and ornaments thereof and to provide all things requisite for Divine Service therein without any control or interference on the part of the vestries or churchwardens of the other two parishes of the said united rectory such other two parishes not being liable to pay or contribute to any such expenses.

"6. And we further recommend and propose that upon the said union taking effect the font communion table and plate used for the purposes of the Holy Communion in the church of the parishes of Saint Michael Queenhithe with Holy Trinity the Less shall if in the opinion of the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of London it be deemed desirable be transferred to the parish church of the said united rectory, but if the same shall in the opinion of such Bishop not be required for such church, then that the same or such of them or so much of the said plate as shall not be so required shall be transferred to such other church or chapel within the diocese of London as the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese shall select.

"7. And we further recommend and propose that upon the said union taking effect if the tables of fees used in the two churches be alike in all particulars, the table of fees used in the church which will become the church of the united rectory shall (until revised or altered by proper authority) be the table of fees for the three parishes of the said united rectory but if such table of fees be not alike in all particulars then that the same shall be of no authority and a new table of fees shall be made for the use of the said three parishes of the said united rectory under the authority of and with the consents and in the manner specified in the eleventh section of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third chapter one hundred and thirty-four.

"8. And we further recommend and propose that upon the said union taking effect the persons who at that time shall hold the offices of parish clerk of the parish of Saint James Garlickhithe, and parish clerk of the parishes of Saint Michael Queenhithe with Holy Trinity the Less shall without any further appointment become the joint parish clerks of the said three parishes of the said united rectory and the persons who at the time of the said union taking effect shall hold the offices of sexton of the parish of Saint James Garlickhithe and sexton of the parishes of Saint Michael Queenhithe with Holy Trinity the Less shall without any further appointment become the joint sextons of the said three parishes of the said united rectory and upon the death retirement or removal of either of the joint parish clerks the other of them shall become the sole parish clerk of the same three parishes and upon the death retirement or removal of either of the joint sextons the other of them shall become the sole sexton of the same three parishes and that in consideration of the parish of Saint James Garlickhithe exclusively providing the funds necessary for the repairs of the church of the said united rectory and the other before mentioned expenses the persons to fill the offices of clerk organist sexton and the other subordinate offices of the said church of the said united rectory shall afterwards upon any vacancy in those offices be respectively appointed by the vestry of such last named parish exclusively.

"9. And we further recommend and propose that upon the said union taking effect the persons who at that time shall respectively hold the offices of clerk and sexton of the parishes of Saint Michael Queenhithe with Holy Trinity the Less and who shall become one of such joint clerks and sextons of the said three parishes of the said united rectory shall respectively cease to hold the office of clerk and sexton respectively of the said parishes of Saint Michael Queenhithe with Holy Trinity the Less and the clerk so ceasing to hold such office shall by way of compensation so long as he shall be one of the joint clerks of the said three parishes of the united rectory receive from the vestry of the said parishes of Saint Michael Queenhithe with Holy Trinity the Less during the pleasure of such vestry a salary equal in amount to his then present salary and in like manner the sexton so ceasing to hold such office shall by way of compensation so long as he shall be one of the joint sextons of the said three parishes of the united rectory receive from the vestry of the parishes of Saint Michael Queenhithe with Holy Trinity the Less during the pleasure of such vestry a salary equal in amount to his then present salary subject to the performance by such clerk and sexton respectively of such duties appertaining to the offices of parish clerk and sexton respectively in the parish church of the united rectory or otherwise connected with such parish church and the performance of the services therein as the rector and churchwardens may from time to time require but that no parish clerk or sexton of the said three parishes of the united rectory shall have any larger estate or interest in his office than he shall have possessed in his original office before the said union.

"10. And we further recommend and propose that upon the said union taking effect all the properties constituting the emoluments and endowments of the respective rectories of Saint

James Garlickhithe and Saint Michael Queenhithe with Holy Trinity the Less shall become and be transferred and annexed to the said united rectory as the endowment thereof.

"11. And we further recommend and propose that upon the said union taking effect the church of the said parishes of Saint Michael Queenhithe with Holy Trinity the Less shall be taken down and that its materials and so much of its site as shall not under the provisions hereinafter for that purpose contained be appropriated as a site for a house of residence for the incumbent of the united rectory shall be sold by public tender or by private contract, the pulpit, bells, clocks, organ, and other furniture and fittings being reserved to be appropriated if in the opinion of the Bishop for the time being of the diocese of London so required for the use of the church of the three parishes of the united rectory and if not so required then for the use of any church to be designated by the said Bishop but if not so required and appropriated that the same shall also be sold by public tender or by private contract provided always that the passage leading from Little Trinity-lane to a door on the north side of Saint Michael's church and over which passage is built the house, No. 17, Little Trinity-lane, be not in any manner dealt with by this scheme.

"12. And we further recommend and propose that in the first place there shall be set apart and appropriated out of the net proceeds which shall be realized by the sales effected in pursuance of the recommendations and proposals hereinbefore contained such a sum as we shall determine (being not less than one-half part of the entire net proceeds of the said sales) for the erection of a new church which shall be built upon land to be duly conveyed to us situate in some part to be designated to us by the Bishop of London of the ancient parish of Saint Pancras in the said diocese of London and that the residue of the said net proceeds of the said sales shall be applied by us to the following purposes, that is to say,

"(A.) We shall out of such residue pay to the present organist of St. Michael's church on her ceasing to be such organist as compensation for loss of office a sum of money equal to two years of her present salary and to the present pew opener in Saint Michael's Church on her ceasing to be such pew opener as compensation for the loss of such office a sum of money equal to one year of her present salary and to the present organ blower in Saint Michael's Church on his ceasing to be such organ blower as compensation for the loss of such office a sum of money equal to one year of his present salary and to the present sexton of the said parish of Saint Michael on his ceasing to be such sexton as compensation for the loss of such office a sum of money equal to one year of his present salary.

"(B.) We shall in the next place pay out of such residue any reasonable costs of removing the memorial windows from the church of Saint Michael and of dealing with them as the churchwardens of the said church with the approval of the Bishop shall determine.

"(C.) We shall in the next place set apart out of such residue and pay the churchwardens of Saint Michael's parish a sum of two hundred pounds to be by them invested in the three per cent. consols and the interest of such investment shall be applied by such churchwardens in or towards keeping the churchyard of Saint Michael's parish in good order and condition.

"(D.) We shall in the next place set apart and pay out of such residue to the present mistress of the school which has been hitherto kept in the tower of Saint Michael's church as compensation for the loss which she will sustain a capital sum of two hundred and twenty-five pounds being a sum equal to five years of the salary received by her as such schoolmistress.

"(E.) We shall in the next place set apart out of such residue a sum of money not exceeding five hundred pounds for the construction in some portion of the churchyard of Saint Michael of a vault or tomb wherein subject to the consents required by the seventeenth section of the said Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and forty-two the remains of the dead deposited under the church of Saint Michael shall be re-interred but if such consents shall not be obtained the sum so to be set apart shall constitute part of the fund provided by the twenty-second section of the last-mentioned Act.

"(F) We shall in the next place set apart out of such residue a sum of five hundred pounds to be applied by us when and as in our discretion we shall think fit to meet any sum of a like or larger amount which may be given by the parish of Saint James Garlickhithe in addition to the sum of one thousand pounds to be provided by the parish of Saint James Garlickhithe as hereinafter mentioned for the erection of a house of residence for the united benefice but if no such additional sum be provided by the said parish within two years next after the completion of the sale of that part of the site of the church of Saint Michael Queenhithe which by this scheme is directed to be sold the said sum of five hundred pounds so to be set apart by us shall constitute part of the fund provided by the twenty-second section of the said Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and forty-two.

"(G) The remainder of the residue of the said proceeds shall also constitute part of the fund provided by the said twenty-second section of the said last-mentioned Act, except such part thereof as may be appropriated as next hereinafter mentioned.

"13. And we further recommend and propose that we with the consent of the said Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of London shall have a discretionary power of appropriating out of such last-mentioned residue any sum not exceeding one tenth part of the entire net proceeds of the said sales for the purpose of re-pewing repairing restoring or altering the said church of Saint James Garlickhithe and of putting the same into a fit and proper condition for becoming the church of the said three parishes of the said united rectory such sum to be laid out and expended under the joint direction of the vestries and churchwardens of the same three parishes and under the superintendence of a competent architect whose charges shall be defrayed out of the same sum, to be nominated by them and to be approved of by the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of London and that if any difference or dispute shall arise as to the proper mode of expending or applying the same sum or any part thereof every such question difference or dispute shall be settled and determined by the Bishop whose decision shall be final and whose episcopal jurisdiction shall not be in any way abridged or interfered with by the special power or control hereby proposed to be given to the said vestries and churchwardens.

"14. And we further recommend and propose that a portion of land to be selected and determined by us shall be reserved out of the land forming the site of the church of the said parishes of Saint Michael Queenhithe with Holy Trinity the Less and shall be appropriated and set apart as a site for a house of residence for the Incumbent for the time being of the united rectory and that the parishioners of the said parish of Saint James Garlickhithe shall (as they have already agreed to do) out of moneys under their control and management or from other sources and upon such appropriated portion of land erect a house for the residence of such incumbent which house shall be built according to plans and specifications to be approved by us the said Commissioners and the Bishop of London and at a cost of not less than one thousand pounds and the freehold of the said house of residence and of the site thereof shall as from the date of the certificate of our architect certifying the due completion of the same become and be vested in the incumbent of the united benefice and the same house shall thereupon become and continue to be the house of residence of such incumbent and his successors but so that he shall not demise or let the same to any person or persons for any period during his incumbency or otherwise part with the possession thereof for any period and that in order to conduce to the residence within the said united benefice of the incumbent thereof for the time being such incumbent so long in any year as he shall be absent (except on account of actual incapacity of mind or body, and under a license from the Bishop granted on one or both of these grounds) from the said house of residence for any greater period in the whole than three calendar months in such year shall pay a rent after the rate of one hundred and fifty pounds per annum for each and every month or portion of a month during his absence beyond such three calendar months which rent shall be payable to the churchwardens for the time being of the parish of Saint James Garlickhithe and be deemed to accrue due de die in diem and shall be payable on such days as such churchwardens shall from time to time direct and the churchwardens for the time being of the parish of Saint James Garlickhithe shall have the like remedies for the recovery thereof by distress and otherwise as landlords have for rent due under an indenture of demise and all sums received by such churchwardens in respect of such rent shall be added to and incorporated with the fund for the time being under the control of the rector and churchwardens of the parish of Saint James Garlickhithe applicable to the maintenance of the fabric of the church of the united benefice and shall be applied by them accordingly.

"15. That upon and as from the day when the union hereinbefore proposed of the said two benefices of Saint James Garlickhithe and Saint Michael Queenhithe with Holy Trinity the Less shall have taken full legal effect as hereinbefore mentioned the patronage of the said rectory of Saint James Garlickhithe which is now vested in the Bishop of London for the time being in right of his see shall without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than the duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme by virtue of which Order such union will so take effect be transferred from the said Bishop of London to and shall thereupon become and be vested in the dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Saint Paul's London and that in exchange for such patronage so transferred and vested the patronage of the rectory of High Easter in the county of Essex and diocese of Rochester which patronage is now vested in the said dean and chapter of Saint Paul's, London shall in like manner and by the same authority and upon and as from the day last aforesaid and not sooner be transferred from the said dean and chapter of Saint Paul's London and shall thereupon become and be absolutely vested in the Bishop of London for the time being so that by means of such exchange the patronage of the united benefice hereinbefore proposed to be created shall as from the date of the union be wholly and absolutely vested in the said dean and chapter of Saint Paul's, London; to which exchange of patronage so hereby proposed the said Bishop of London and the said dean and chapter of Saint Paul's have consented, and in token of such consent have to this scheme set their respective corporate seals.

"16. And we further recommend and propose that from and after the consecration of the church to be erected within some part of the ancient parish of Saint Pancras as hereinbefore provided the patronage of such new church shall be vested in the said dean and chapter of Saint Paul's London.

"17. And we further recommend and propose that this scheme shall not take effect until the consents which under the seventeenth section of the said Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and forty-two are requisite to the sale and appropriation of the site of the church of Saint Michael Queenhithe hereinbefore recommended shall have been duly obtained.

"18. And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in conformity with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 5th day of August, 1875.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of "The Ecclesiastical Commission Act 1868" sections three and thirteen duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the "Ecclesiastical Commission Act 1868" sections three and thirteen have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme relating to the minor canonries in the cathedral church of Saint Paul in London.

"Whereas by the sixth section of the 'Saint Paul's Cathedral London Minor Canonries Act 1875' it was enacted that subject to the privilege thereto enjoyed by a minor canon of being preferred at the option of the Dean and Chapter from one minor canonry to another minor canonry on its becoming vacant in lieu of that held by him and subject to the provision thereafter contained for the substitution in such case of separate estate all lands tenements and hereditaments and other property then belonging by way of separate estate to any minor canonry in the said cathedral church of Saint Paul (except any payment or payments accustomedly made by the Dean and Chapter of the said church to the holder of any such canonry and except the right (if any) to ecclesiastical preferment under the Order in Council thereafter mentioned) should as to any such separate estate belonging to any minor canonry in the said church which might be vacant at the date of the passing of the same Act, be immediately transferred to and absolutely vested in us and should as to any such separate estate belonging to any other minor canonry in the said cathedral church (except as thereinbefore was excepted) be in like manner transferred to and absolutely vested in us upon and from the next avoidance of any such other minor canonry and that the rents and profits of such separate estates as they should become so transferred and vested in the Ecclesiastical Commissioners as aforesaid should be applicable to the purposes of the common fund under the control of the said Commissioners but that notwithstanding any of the provisions in the same Act contained it should be lawful for the said Dean and Chapter to appoint to any minor canonry or minor canonries which should become vacant after the passing of the same Act any one or more of the persons who should hold minor canonries at the time of the passing of the same Act, and that in the event of any such appointment the separate estate belonging to the minor canonry which should have so become vacant should not vest in us, but in lieu thereof the separate estate of the minor canonry which should be vacated by the appointment of the minor canon thereof to such other minor canonry should vest in us in the same manner in all respects as was by the same Act provided with reference to the separate estates of minor canonries becoming vacant after the passing of the same Act.

"And whereas the separate estates of the said minor canonries consist partly of property vested in the corporation of minor canons in trust for the benefit of the holders of the minor canonries individually, partly of property vested in the Dean and Chapter of the said cathedral church in trust for the benefit of the holders of the minor canonries individually, and partly of certain payments made by the said Dean and Chapter to the several minor canons.

"And whereas at the date of the passing of the said Saint Paul's Cathedral London Minor Canonries Act three of the twelve minor canonries in the said cathedral namely the second fifth and eighth minor canonries were vacant and the separate estates belonging to such three minor canonries have accordingly become absolutely vested in us under the provisions of the same Act and the remaining nine minor canonries were at the date of the passing of the same Act and are still held by the nine persons next hereinafter mentioned namely the first minor canonry by William Charles Fynes Webber, the third minor canonry by Christopher Packe, the fourth minor canonry by William Calvert, the sixth minor canonry by James William Vivian, the seventh minor canonry by William Henry Milman, the ninth minor canonry by William Sparrow Simpson, the tenth minor canonry by William John Hall, the eleventh minor canonry by John Vidgen Povah, and the twelfth minor canonry by John Henry Coward.

"And whereas the said nine minor canons and the said Dean and Chapter at and by their request and direction, and also the said corporation of minor canons have severally and together agreed with us that a scheme shall be laid before your Majesty in Council for effecting a transfer to us of the separate estates belonging to the said nine minor canonries and of the whole of the interest therein present and contingent of the said nine minor canons excepting only the payments so made as aforesaid to the said minor canons by the said Dean and Chapter for the considerations and upon the terms hereinafter set forth which terms are in our opinion fair and reasonable, and the said nine minor canons and the said Dean and Chapter and the said corporation of minor canons have further agreed with us that such scheme should comprise the incidental provisions hereinafter set forth, such provisions being necessary for carrying into effect the said transfer.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said William Charles Fynes Webber, Christopher Packe, William Calvert, James William Vivian, William Henry Milman, William Sparrow Simpson, William John Hall, John Vidgen Povah, and John Henry Coward which consent is signified by their having severally signed and sealed this scheme, and with the consent of the said corporation of minor canons and of the said Dean and Chapter testified by their having hereunto affixed their several common or corporate seals, and with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend John Lord Bishop of London as visitor of the said minor canons testified by his having hereunto affixed his corporate seal, we humbly recommend and propose that all the property belonging by way of separate estate to the said nine minor canonries excepting the payments so made to the holders thereof as aforesaid by the said Dean and Chapter, and all the interest present and contingent of the said nine minor canons in the same property shall upon and from the day on which any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall be duly published in the London Gazette be transferred to us in the manner contemplated by "The Ecclesiastical Commission Act 1868" and that we shall be entitled to the rents profits and proceeds of the property so to be transferred to us as from the twenty-fifth day of March one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, and that in consideration of and for such transfer there shall be paid by us by equal half-yearly payments on the twenty-ninth day of September and the twenty-fifth day of March in every year to each of the said nine minor canons as long as he shall remain a minor canon of the said cathedral the annual sum of two hundred pounds and that the first of each of such half-yearly payments shall be made on the twenty-ninth day of September next.

And we further recommend and propose that for and in consideration of a lease demising property belonging to the ninth minor canonry and two other leases demising property belonging to the twelfth minor canonry which three leases came in course for renewal prior to the said twenty-fifth day of March one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five not having been renewed whereby the said William Sparrow Simpson and John Henry Coward the respective holders of the said ninth and twelfth minor canonries suffered loss from not receiving the fines which would respectively have been payable to them on the renewals of the said leases, there shall be paid by us immediately upon the publication as aforesaid of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme to the said William Sparrow Simpson a capital sum of five hundred pounds and to the said John Henry Coward a capital sum of nine hundred pounds.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid in conformity with the provisions of the said Acts or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of your Majesty, chapter eighty-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for apportioning the income of the rectory of the parish of Thoresway, in the county of Lincoln, and in the diocese of Lincoln, between that benefice and the vicarage of the parish of Market Rasen, in the same county and diocese.

"Whereas the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain for the time being, acting on behalf of your Majesty, is patron in right of the Crown, both of the said vicarage of the parish of Market Rasen and also of the said rectory of the parish of Thoresway.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us that the benefice (that is to say the vicarage) of Market Rasen aforesaid is at present ill endowed, and that the benefice (that is to say the rectory) of Thoresway aforesaid, is at present more than competently endowed.

"And whereas the Right Honourable Hugh McCalmont, Baron Cairns, now Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, acting herein with the consent (as hereinafter appears) of the Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln, has represented to us, and we are of opinion, that it is desirable that additional provision should be made for the cure of souls within the said parish of Market Rasen by means of that apportionment of the income of the said benefice of Thoresway, which is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas the said benefice of Market Rasen and the said benefice of Thoresway are now vacant.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Christopher, Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln, and with the consent of the said Hugh McCalmont, Baron Cairns, acting as such patron of each of the said two benefices as aforesaid (in testimony whereof they, the said consenting parties, have respectively signed and sealed this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and as from the day of the date at which the same Order shall be so published in the London Gazette, all the glebe lands, and all (if any) other the endowments now belonging to the said benefice of Thoresway, shall be charged, and for ever thereafter chargeable, with one clear annual sum or yearly charge of three hundred and fifty pounds in favour of the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Market Rasen and his successors, to whom the same annual sum or yearly charge of three hundred and fifty pounds shall, as from the same day, be due and payable, the same annual sum or yearly charge of three hundred and fifty pounds to be apportionable between any outgoing vicar or incumbent of the said benefice of Market Rasen, or his representatives, and his successor in the same vicarage or incumbency, and to be receivable by each such vicar or incumbent by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in every year, and to be recoverable as against the person or persons who for the time being shall be beneficially entitled to the endowments of the said benefice of Thoresway by action of debt.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lincoln.

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for effecting an exchange of the whole advowson of the benefice (being a rectory) of Greetham, in the county of Lincoln, and in the diocese of Lincoln, for a certain portion (that is to say one-third part) of the advowson of the benefice of Friesthorpe (being a rectory) with Snarford (being a rectory), in the same county and diocese.

"Whereas the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Lincoln is seized to him and his successors in fee of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and to the said benefice of Greetham and the church thereof.

"And whereas upon the vacancy which shall next happen in the incumbency of the said benefice of Friesthorpe with Snarford, the right of presentation to the same benefice will, under the said Order, belong to the Bishop of Lincoln.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Christopher, now Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln, and the Very Reverend Joseph Williams Blakesley, now Dean of the said Cathedral Church of Lincoln, on behalf of himself as Dean and of the Chapter of the same cathedral church, have respectively signified to us their desire that the patronage of the said two benefices, and of the churches thereof respectively, may be re-arranged, by way of exchange, in manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas we have made due enquiry and calculation as to the circumstances and relative values of the said benefices and patronage, and we do hereby certify to your Majesty that the circumstances and present values of the said benefices respectively are as set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Christopher, Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln, and with the consent of the said Joseph Williams Blakesley, the Dean, and of the Chapter of the said Cathedral Church of the Blessed Virgin Mary, in the said city and diocese of Lincoln (in testimony of which consent to this scheme the said Bishop hath set his hand and his episcopal seal, and the said Dean and Chapter have affixed their common or corporate seal), we humbly recommend and propose, that upon and from the day of the date comprises one-third part of the advowson of (that is to say, one turn in three of presentation to) the same benefice, shall, in like manner, upon and from the day aforesaid, be assigned and transferred from the said Dean and Chapter of the said Cathedral Church of the Blessed Virgin Mary, in the said city and diocese of Lincoln, and from their successors (in whom, as aforesaid, it is now vested), and shall become and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by, the said Christopher, Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln, and his successors for ever, by means of which last-mentioned assignment and transfer the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of the said benefice of Friesthorpe with Snarford will, upon and from the day aforesaid, be vested in the Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln and his successors.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventeenth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting under the provisions of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme or representation for altering the boundaries of the new parish of Birtley, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham, and of the new parish of Burnmoor, in the same county and diocese.

"Whereas, by the authority of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the eighth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty, and published in the London Gazette upon the eleventh day of the same month, a part of the parish of Chester-le-Street, in the county and diocese aforesaid, was assigned as a district to the consecrated church of Saint John the Evangelist, situate at Birtley, in the said parish of Chester-le-Street, and the same district was called 'The Chapelry District of Birtley.'

"And whereas the said chapelry district of Birtley, has, under the provisions of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, become a new parish of the character contemplated by that Act, and by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and by the said above-mentioned Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-four.

"And whereas, by the authority of another Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of December, in the year one thousand eight and sixty-five, and published in the London Gazette on the second day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, a part of the parish of Penshaw, in the county and diocese aforesaid, was constituted a separate district, and was called 'The District of Burnmoor.'

"And whereas, by the authority of another Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the seventeenth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, and published in the London Gazette on the twenty-first day of the same month, the boundaries of the said district of Burnmoor were altered by way of extension.

"And whereas the said district of Burnmoor has since become a new parish of the character contemplated by the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and by the said above-mentioned Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-four.

"And whereas it has been represented to us, and it appears to us to be expedient, that the boundaries of the said new parish of Birtley, should be altered, and also that the boundaries of the said new parish of Burnmoor should be further altered in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Durham (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme or representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, recommend, and propose that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme or representation, the boundaries of the said new parish of Birtley, and the boundaries of the said new parish of Burnmoor, shall be altered so that all that part of the said new parish of Birtley, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, and is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto appended, and is thereon coloured pink, shall be disannexed from such new parish, and shall be included within the limits of the said new parish of Burnmoor; and that from and after the day of the same date, and without any other assurance in law, the said part of the new parish of Birtley so to be included as aforesaid shall become and be and form part of the said new parish of Burnmoor.

"And we further represent, recommend, and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from representing, recommending, or proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme or Representation has reference.

"The territory proposed to be dissevered from the new parish of Birtley, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham, and to be annexed to the new parish of Burnmoor, in the same county and diocese, being :—

"All that part of the said new parish of Birtley, comprising that portion of Lambton Park which lies on the northern side of the River Wear, which said part is bounded on the south partly by the new parish of Burnmoor aforesaid, or, in other words, by the said River Wear, and partly by the parish or parochial chapelry of Chester-le-Street, in the county and diocese aforesaid, and upon all other sides, that is to say, on the west, on the north, and on the north-east, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish or parochial chapelry of Chester-le-Street from the new parish of Birtley aforesaid, at the point where Blind-lane joins the road leading from Chester-le-Street past Picketree to Vigo; and extending thence, northward, for a distance of forty-four and a half chains, or thereabouts, along the eastern side of the last-mentioned road (thereby following in part the wall or fence forming the western boundary of Lambton Park aforesaid, and passing under the road called or known as the North Drive) to the point on the southern side of the building and premises called or known as the Rickleton Bone Mill, where the said road leading from Chester-le-Street, past Picketree to Vigo as aforesaid, joins the wall or fence forming the northern boundary of Lambton Park aforesaid; and extending thence, for a distance of rather more than one mile and a-half, first eastward, then northward, then again eastward, and then south-eastward, along the last-described wall or fence to the point on the south-western side of the houses called or known as Chartershaugh, where the same wall or fence abuts upon the northern bank of the River Wear aforesaid; and continuing thence, still south-eastward, and in a direct line, to the boundary in the middle of the same river which divides the said new parish of Birtley from the new parish of Burnmoor aforesaid."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme or representation have been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbents of the two cures affected by the arrangements which are contemplated by such scheme or representation, and such patrons and incumbents have respectively signified their assent to the said scheme or representation.

And whereas the said scheme or representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme or representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-four; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Durham.

Admiralty, August 10, 1875.

HER Majesty, by Her Order in Council of the 5th instant, hereunto annexed, having been graciously pleased to sanction certain temporary proposals for the promotion, retirement, &c., of Flag Officers, Captains, Commanders, and Lieutenants of Her Majesty's Fleet, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty hereby give notice of such arrangements.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 5th day of August, 1875.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the third of August, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, in the words following, viz:—

Whereas we have had under our consideration the effects of your Majesty's Orders in Council of twenty-second February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, and fourth August, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three in so far as they relate to the retirement and promotion of Flag Officers, Captains, Commanders, and Lieutenants of your Majesty's Navy, and whereas large reductions of these lists have been thereby effected which, though highly satisfactory in one point of view, have resulted in a great stagnation of promotion, We are of opinion that it is expedient to provide temporarily for a more uniform flow of advancement to these ranks; to relax slightly the rules as regards the age at which Flag Officers and Captains may be optionally retired, and to modify still further the restrictions respecting the advancement to Flag Rank of Officers on the Retired List and promotions on that List.

We would therefore most humbly submit to your Majesty:—

1. That we be empowered for the present to promote annually seven Captains to Flag Rank effecting this by promoting to Flag Rank as heretofore in vacancies caused by death and retirement and by supplementing any vacancies short of seven at the end of each year so long as a maximum number of sixty-eight Flag Officers be not exceeded:—

adjusting the Flag Ranks thus:—

3 Admirals of the Fleet.

10 Admirals.

20 Vice-Admirals.

35 Rear-Admirals.

68

Promotions to the list of Admirals to be in the proportion of one to two in vacancies caused by retirement until the number is reduced to ten, and the addition, to the list of Vice-Admirals and Rear-Admirals to be in the proportion of one Vice-Admiral to every two Rear-Admirals added to the list; should there be more than seven vacancies in any year the excess not to be filled up in that year, provided the list of Flag Officers is kept up to fifty.

2. That, for the present, we be also empowered to promote annually twelve (and should vacancies occur as many as fifteen) Commanders to the rank of Captain, effecting this by filling every vacancy and supplementing any vacancies short of twelve at the end of each year, so long as a maximum number of one hundred and seventy-five Captains be not exceeded; should there be more than fifteen vacancies in any year the excess not to be filled up in that year.

3. That, for the present, we be also empowered to promote annually twenty (and should vacancies occur as many as twenty-five) Lieutenants to the rank of Commander, effecting this by filling every vacancy and supplementing any vacancies short of twenty at the end of each year, so long as a maximum number of two hundred and twenty-five Commanders be not exceeded; should there be more than twenty-five vacancies in any year the excess not to be filled up in that year provided that the list is kept up to two hundred.

4. That, for the present, we be authorised to sanction the optional retirement of Flag Officers and Captains at the following age, viz:—

Admirals and Vice-Admirals	55
Rear-Admirals	50
Captains	45

Such optional retirement to be subject in each case to our approval, and to be restricted to three Flag Officers and six Captains annually, power being reserved to us, with the sanction of the Lords Commissioners of your Majesty's Treasury, to extend this option to a larger number hereafter should such a course appear desirable.

5. That one step in rank, according to seniority, be granted to all Rear-Admirals and Captains who may have been, or who may hereafter be, placed on the Retired List, under the provisions of your Majesty's Order in Council of twenty-second February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, irrespective of any qualifying service; such advancement not to carry with it any increase of retired pay.

We beg further to state that the Lords Commissioners of your Majesty's Treasury have given their assent to the cost of these proposals.

Her Majesty, having taken the said memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed; and the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.
