"And whereas the Reverend Henry Dudley Ryder, one of the Canons of the said Cathedral Church, was appointed previously to the date of the said Order, and is entitled to receive the whole share of divisible and capitular revenue arising in respect of his Canonry and no more than such share.

"And whereas the annual payment hereinafter proposed to be made by us to the said Dean and Chapter and the income to arise from the real estates intended to be hereafter transferred to them in lieu of such annual payment as hereinafter mentioned will after the appropriation of a certain part of such annual payment or income as the case may be in the manner hereinafter recommended to the maintenance of the fabric and the establishment and services of the said Church provided for the present and future Dean and Canons the incomes to which they are and will be respectively entitled under the provisions of the hereinbefore recited Order of your Majesty in Council and of the Acts hereinbefore mentioned and we are of opinion that the arrangement hereinafter set forth will be the most convenient mode of effecting for the future the purposes of the said Order and Acts.

"And we further recommend and propose that, upon such publication as aforesaid of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and as a further consideration for such transfer to us as aforesaid, a capital sum of fifteen thousand pounds shall be set apart by us to be expended by the said Dean and Chapter to our satisfaction in substantial repairs restoration and improvements of the said Cathedral Church and of the buildings belonging thereto, and that interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum shall be allowed by us to the said Dean and Chapter as from the said twenty-fifth day of March one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six upon the said capital sum of fifteen thousand pounds, and upon all balances in our hands applicable to such repairs restoration and improvements, such interest to be also expended to our satisfaction in substantial repairs restoration and improvements of the said Cathedral Church and buildings.

"And we further recommend and propose that so long as the annual sum of five thousand two hundred and fifty pounds shall be paid by us in accordance with the recommendations hereinbefore contained to the said Dean and Chapter the annual sum of two thousand seven hundred and fifty pounds, part thereof shall be appropriated by the said Dean and Chapter to the payment of the income of the Dean and Canons, that is to say, one thousand pounds to the Dean and five hundred pounds to each of the three Canons who have been appointed as aforesaid since the date of the said Order of your Majesty in Council, and two hundred and fifty pounds to the said Henry Dudley Ryder and that so long as the annual sum of five thousand five hundred pounds shall be paid by us in accordance with the recommendation hereinbefore contained to the said Dean and Chapter, the annual sum of three thousand pounds part thereof shall be similarly appropriated to the payment of the incomes of the Dean and Canons, that is to say, one thousand pounds to the Dean and five hundred pounds to each of the Canons, and that the annual sum of two thousand five hundred pounds remaining out of the sum of five thousand two hundred and fifty pounds or five thousand five hundred pounds as the case may be together with the net income which may accrue to the said Dean and Chapter from the property comprised in the two Schedules hereunto annexed or from any source not hereinbefore referred to, shall be appropriated for the maintenance of the services of the said Church, the repairs of the fabric thereof and of the buildings belonging thereto, and the payment of all the expenses and liabilities chargeable upon the revenues of the said Dean and Chapter, and that if in any year the whole of such sum of two thousand five hundred pounds and of the net income accruing to the said Dean and Chapter from the property comprised in the said two Schedules, and from any other source as aforesaid, be not expended in the manner hereinbefore proposed, the surplus thereof shall be accumulated and be applicable to making good deficiencies, if any, in subsequent years.

And we further recommend and propose that when and as soon as the said Dean and Chapter shall have been placed in possession as aforesaid of real estates calculated to produce the net annual sum of five thousand five hundred pounds, the net annual income which they shall derive from such estates shall be annually divided by them into eleven parts, which eleven parts together with the net income which may accrue to the said Dean and Chapter from the property comprised in the two schedules hereunto annexed, and from any other source not hereinbefore referred to, shall be appropriated in perpetuity as follows, that is to say, two of such parts for the income of the Dean, four of such parts for the income of the four canons, subject, in the event of the canonry now held by the said Henry Dudley Ryder not having been previously vacated, to the proviso that there shall be paid to us until the avoidance of the same canonry out of the part to be appropriated for the income thereof the sum of two hundred and fifty pounds annually, and the remaining five of such parts, together with the net income accruing to the said Dean and Chapter from the property comprised in the said two schedules hereunto annexed, and from any other source not hereinbefore referred to, for the maintenance of the services of the said Church, the repairs of the fabric thereof and of the buildings belonging thereto, and the payment of all the expenses and liabilities chargeable upon the revenues of the said Dean and Chapter, and if in any year the whole of such five parts and net income accruing to the said Dean and Chapter from the property comprised in the said two Schedules and from any other source as aforesaid shall not be so expended in the manner hereinbefore proposed, the surplus thereof shall be accumulated and be applicable to making good deficiencies, if any, in subsequent years.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, in conformity with the provisions of the Acts hereinbefore mentioned, or of any other Act of Parliament.

C. L. Peel.

At the Court at Windsor, the 27th day of June, 1876.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her Majesty chapter thirty-nine duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the first day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, in the words following, that is to say:

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act, of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of your Majesty chapter thirty-nine have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and to the church and cure (which said church and cure are hereinafter called the said benefice) of Acaster Selby in the county of York and in the diocese of York.

"Whereas the said advowson or perpetual right of patronage of the said benefice of Acaster Selby is vested for an estate in fee simple in possession in Dame Anne Georgina Milner, commonly called the lady Anne Georgina Milner, Widow, and relict of Sir William Mordaunt Milner of Nun Appleton in the said county of York, Baronet.

"And whereas the said Anne Georgina Milner is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and to the said benefice of Acaster Selby now vested in her as aforesaid should after and as from the date of her decease be transferred to and be vested in the Archbishop of York for the time being upon consideration that a certain augmentation of the endowments of the said benefice, to wit, an alienation in favour thereof of certain tithe commutation rent charges amounting in gross to three hundred pounds per annum or thereabouts now belonging to the rectory of the parish of Bolton Percy in the said diocese of York, should be immediately effected which alienation the Venerable Stephen Creyke, now rector of the said parish of Bolton Percy and the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William Archbishop of York who in right of his see is patron of the rectory of Bolton Percy aforesaid, have agreed to effect accordingly.

"And whereas the said Right Honourable and Most Reverend William, now Archbishop of York is willing to accept for himself and his successors the said proposed transfer and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he the said William Archbishop of York has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas it appears to us that under the circumstances hereinbefore set forth the transfer of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and to the said benefice of Acaster Selby which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the new parish of Acaster Selby being the parish or district in or in respect of which the said right of patronage and advowson arises and exists.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Anne Georgina Milner (in testimony whereof she has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said William Archbishop of York (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) we humbly recommend and propose that upon and as from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and to the said benefice of Acaster Selby now vested in the said Anne Georgina Milner and her heirs and assigns as aforesaid shall be transferred from the said Anne Georgina Milner and from her heirs and assigns to the said William Archbishop of York and his successors and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said William Archbishop of York and his successors Archbishops of York for ever: except nevertheless and reserved unto the said Anne Georgina Milner the right to nominate and present, as of her said present estate a clerk to the said benefice of Acaster Selby, upon every vacancy of the said benefice which shall happen during the life of her the said Anne Georgina Milner.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act's; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of York.
