

thereof, so far as relates to such Foreign State, and so long as such law continues in force there and no longer :

Or direct that such law or ordinance or any part thereof shall have effect in such British Possession, with or without modifications and alterations, as if it were part of the Act :

And whereas by an Act enacted by the Legislature of the Cape of Good Hope, the short title of which is, "The Extradition Act Cape of Good Hope, 1877," it is provided that "all powers vested in and acts authorized or required to be done by a Police Magistrate or any Justice of the Peace in relation to the surrender of fugitive Criminals in the United Kingdom under 'The Extradition Acts, 1870 and 1873,' are thereby vested in and may in the Colony be exercised and done by any Resident Magistrate in relation to the Surrender of Fugitive Criminals under the said Acts" :

And whereas it is further provided by the said Act that the said Act shall not come into operation until Her Majesty shall by Order in Council direct that the said Act shall have effect within the Colony as if it were part of the "Extradition Act, 1870," but that the said Act shall thereafter come into operation as soon as such Order in Council shall have been publicly made known in the Colony.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in pursuance of "The Extradition Act, 1870," and in exercise of the power in that behalf in the said Act contained, doth by this present Order, by and with the advice of Her Majesty's Privy Council, direct that the said Act shall have effect in the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope without modification or alteration, as if it were part of "The Extradition Act, 1870."

And the Right Honourable the Earl of Carnarvon, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 15th day of January, 1878.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the tenth year of the reign of Her Majesty, intitled "An Act for the more easy recovery of "small debts and demands in England," it is, among other things, enacted that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that the said Act be put in force in such county or counties as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, should seem fit, and to divide the whole or part of any such county (including all counties of cities, and counties of towns, cities, boroughs, towns, ports, and places, liberties, and franchises therein contained or thereunto adjoining) into districts ; and to order that the County Court should be holden for the recovery of debts and demands, under the said Act, in each of such districts ; and from time to time to alter such districts, as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, should seem fit ; and from time to time, with the advice aforesaid, to declare by what name, and in what towns and places, the County Court should be holden in each district :

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased by an Order in Council of the ninth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, to order that the said Act be put in force in the counties and places therein specified, and the same was put in force accordingly :

And whereas by certain other Acts made and passed in the thirteenth and fourteenth, in the sixteenth, in the twentieth, in the twenty-second, in the twenty-ninth, in the thirty-first, and in the thirty-ninth years of the reign of Her Majesty, the provisions of the said recited Act have been amended and extended :

Whereas it hath been represented that it would be of advantage to the public if the County Court of Yorkshire, holden at Stokesley, were ordered to be holden at Guisborough, as well as at Stokesley ; if the County Court of Essex, holden at Rochford, were ordered to be holden at Southend, as well as at Rochford ; and if the County Court of Sussex, holden at Lewes, were ordered to be holden at Eastbourne, as well as at Lewes.

Her Majesty having taken the premises into consideration, is thereupon pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the twenty-eighth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight :

The County Court of Yorkshire, holden at Stokesley, shall be holden at Guisborough, as well as at Stokesley :

The County Court of Essex, holden at Rochford, shall be holden at Southend, as well as at Rochford ; and

The County Court of Sussex, holden at Lewes, shall be holden at Eastbourne, as well as at Lewes.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 15th day of January, 1878.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the first session of the Parliament holden in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty intitled "An Act to abridge the holding "of benefices in plurality, and to make better "provision for the residence of the clergy," after reciting that "Whereas, in some instances, tithings, "hamlets, chapelries, and other places or districts "may be separated from the parishes or mother "churches to which they belong with great "advantage, and places altogether extra-parochial "may in some instances with advantage be annexed "to parishes or districts to which they are con- "tiguous, or be constituted separate parishes for "ecclesiastical purposes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "That when, with respect to his "own diocese, it shall appear to the Archbishop "of the Province, or when the bishop of any "diocese shall represent to the said archbishop "that any such tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or "district within the diocese of such archbishop, "or the diocese of such bishop, as the case may "be, may be advantageously separated from any "parish or mother church, and either be consti- "tuted a separate benefice by itself or be united "to any other parish to which it may be more "conveniently annexed, or to any other adjoining "tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district, "parochial or extra-parochial, so as to form a "separate parish or benefice, or that any extra- "parochial place may with advantage be annexed "to any parish to which it is contiguous, or be "constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical
