PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 12th of January, 1878, in the words following, viz. :—

"Whereas we have had under our consideration the representations made by the Officers of the Royal Marines (and particularly by the Captains and Subalterns) of the continued stagnation of promotion in the Corps: and whereas it appears to us, after full inquiry, that the only way of meeting the difficulty, with due regard to the interests of the Officers generally and the efficiency of the Service, will be by adopting, as far as possible, in the Royal Marines, the principle of Retirement and Promotion now established in the Army by your Majesty's recent Royal Warrant, and by extending the system of compulsory retirement established in the Royal Marine Corps by your Majesty's Order in Council of the 22nd February, 1870, we humbly submit for your Majesty's approval the following Scheme, which we have submitted in the form of Regulations, which have been framed with the object of providing a fair and even flow of promotion throughout the whole Corps of Royal Marines.

“After 15 years service, a gratuity of £1,600.

“After 12 years service, a gratuity of £1,200.

“Officers incapacitated by illness, &c., after only short service, to be granted instead of temporary half-pay as allowed by Order in Council of 4th August, 1873, Retired Allowances, by way of Annuity, upon the following conditions, which are the same conditions as those imposed upon Army Officers by the 151st and 152nd Articles of the recent Royal Warrant, viz. :—

“An Officer who may become unfit for service in consequence of wounds received in action, or of ill-health contracted in and by the performance of military duty, as certified by a Medical Board, may be granted temporary half-pay until he shall recover, and until an opportunity shall occur for his re-employment. Except in the case of wounds received in action, the Officer must, however, have served with a commission in our Marine Forces for three years, unless he shall have been promoted from the ranks, when one year's service only as a Commissioned Officer shall be required. In special cases in which the circumstances may appear to us to call for exceptional consideration, it shall be sufficient that the disability shall have been contracted in the service.

“In the case of an Officer placed upon temporary half-pay in consequence of injuries caused in and by the service, we may, provided a Medical Board report that the Officer is unfit for further service, place such officer upon permanent half-pay, after not less than one year upon temporary half-pay. In special cases in which the circumstances may appear to us to call for exceptional consideration, it shall be sufficient that the disability shall have been contracted in the service.

“But such Retired Allowances, by way of annuity, are only to be granted in special cases, with the consent of the Treasury, and the rates are to be made so as to coincide, as far as may be, with the principle of a pension of £225 a year at 42 years of age.

“13.—All service for the purposes of gratuity, pension, and retirements to count from the age of 20, except in the case of Officers who entered the service prior to the 1st April, 1870, who, under the Order in Council of the 5th February, 1872, retain the right of counting time from the age of 18 if appointed before that age, and from the date of their Commission if appointed after 18.

“14.—These Regulations are to take effect from the 1st October, 1877.

“The Lords Commissioners of your Majesty's Treasury have signified to us their concurrence in these proposals.”

Her Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.
