ARTICLE VI.

De la part du Gouvernement Français, l'extradition aura lieu ainsi qu'il suit, en France :—

L'Ambassadeur ou autre Agent Diplomatique de Sa Majesté Britannique en France enverra au Ministre des Affaires Étrangères, à l'appui de chaque demande d'extradition, l'expédition authentique et dûment légalisée, soit d'un certificat de condamnation, soit d'un mandat d'arrêt contre une personne inculpée ou accusée, faisant clairement connaître la nature du crime ou du délit à raison proceeded against. The judicial document thus produced shall be accompanied by a description of the person claimed, and by any other information which may serve to identify him.

These documents shall be communicated by the Minister for Foreign Affairs to the Keeper of the Seals, Minister of Justice, who, after examining the claim for surrender, and the documents in support thereof, shall report thereon immediately to the President of the Republic; and, if there is reason for it, a Decree of the President will grant the extradition of the person claimed, and will order him to be arrested and delivered to the British authorities.

In consequence of this Decree, the Minister of the Interior shall give orders that search be made for the fugitive criminal, and in case of his arrest, that he be conducted to the French frontier, to be delivered to the person authorized by Her Britannic Majesty's Government to receive him.

Should it so happen that the documents furnished by the British Government, with the view of establishing the identity of the fugitive criminal, and that the particulars collected by the agents of the French Police with the same view, be considered insufficient, notice shall be immediately given to the Ambassador or other Diplomatic Agent of Her Britannic Majesty in France, and the fugitive person, if he has been arrested, shall remain in custody until the British Government has been able to furnish further evidence in order to establish his identity or to throw light on other difficulties in the examination.

ARTICLE VII.

In the dominions of Her Britannic Majesty, other than the Colonies or Foreign Possessions of Her Majesty, the manner of proceeding shall be as follows:—

(A) In the case of a person accused—The requisition for the surrender shall be made to Her Britannic Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs by the Ambassador or other Diplomatic Agent of the President of the French Republic, accompanied by a warrant of arrest or other equivalent judicial document, issued by a Judge or Magistrate duly authorized to take cognizance of the acts charged against the accused in France, together with duly authenticated depositions or statements taken on oath before such Judge or Magistrate, clearly setting forth the said acts, and containing a description of the person claimed, and any particulars which may serve to identify him. The said Secretary of State shall transmit such documents to Her Britannic Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, who shall then, by order under his hand and seal, signify to some Police Magistrate in London that such requisition has been made, and require him, if there be due cause, to issue his warrant for the apprehension of the fugitive.

On the receipt of such order from the Secretary of State, and on the production of such evidence as would, in the opinion of the Magistrate, justify the issue of the warrant if the crime had been committed in the United Kingdom, he shall issue his warrant accordingly.

When the fugitive shall have been apprehended, he shall be brought before the Police Magistrate who issued the warrant, or some other Police Magistrate in London. If the evidence to be then produced shall be such as to justify, according to the law of England, the committal for trial of the prisoner, if the crime of which he is accused duquel le fugitif est poursuivi. Le document judiciaire ainsi produit sera accompagné du signalement et des autres renseignements pouvant servir à constater l'identité de l'individu réclamé.

Ces documents seront communiqués par le Ministre des Affaires Etrangères ou Garde des Sceaux, Ministre de la Justice, qui, après examen de la demande et des pièces à l'appui, en fera un rapport au Président de la République; et s'il y a lieu, un Décret Présidentiel accordera l'extradition de l'individu réclamé et ordonnera qu'il soit arrêté et livré aux Autorités Britanniques.

En conséquence de ce Décret, le Ministre de l'Intérieur donnera des ordres pour que l'individu poursuivi soit recherché et, en cas d'arrestation, conduit jusqu'à la frontière de France pour être livré à la personne chargée de le recevoir de la part du Gouvernement de Sa Majesté Britannique.

S'il arrivait que les documents produits par le Gouvernement Britannique pour constater l'identité, et les renseignements recueillis par les Agents de la Police Française pour le même objet, fussent reconnus insuffisants, avis en serait donné immédiatement à l'Ambassadeur ou autre Agent Diplomatique de Sa Majesté Britannique en France, et l'individu poursuivi, s'il a été arrêté, continuerait à être détenu en attendant que le Gouvernement Britannique ait pu produire de nouveaux éléments de preuve pour constater l'identité ou éclaircir d'autres difficultés d'examen.

ARTICLE VII.

Dans les Etats de Sa Majesté Britannique autres que les Colonies ou possessions étrangères il sera procédé ainsi qu'il suit:—

(A) S'il s'agit d'une personne accusée:—La demande sera adressée au Premier Secrétaire d'Etat de Sa Majesté Britannique pour les Affaires Etrangères, par l'Ambassadeur ou autre Agent Diplomatique du Président de la République Française. A cette demande seront joints un mandat d'arrêt ou autre document judiciaire équivalent, délivré par un Juge ou Magistrat dûment autorisé à prendre connaissance des actes imputés à l'inculpé en France, ainsi que les dépositions authentiques ou les déclarations faites sous serment devant ce Juge ou Magistrat, énonçant clairement les dits actes et contenant, outre le signalement de la personne réclamée, toutes les particularités qui pourraient servir à établir son identité. Le dit Secrétaire d'Etat transmettra ces documents au Premier Secrétaire d'Etat de Sa Majesté Britannique pour le Département des Affaires Intérieures, qui, par un ordre de sa main et muni de son sceau, signifiera à un Magistrat de Police de Londres que la demande d'extradition a été faite, et le requerra, s'il y a lieu, de délivrer un mandat pour l'arrestation du fugitif.

A la réception de cet ordre et sur la production de telle preuve qui, dans son opinion, justifierait l'émission du mandat, si le fait avait été commis dans le Royaume Uni, le Magistrat délivrera le mandat requis.

Lorsque le fugitif aura été arrêté, on l'amènera devant le Magistrat de Police de qui sera émané le mandat, ou devant un autre Magistrat de Police de Londres. Si la preuve produite est de nature à justifier, selon la loi Anglaise, la mise en jugement du prisonnier dans le cas ou le fait dont il est accusé aurait été commis en Angleterre, le had been committed in England, the Police Magistrate shall commit him to prison to await the warrant of the Secretary of State for his surrender; sending immediately to the Secretary of State a certificate of the committal and a report upon the case.

After the expiration of a period from the committal of the prisoner which shall never be less than fifteen days, the Secretary of State shall, by order under his hand and seal, order the fugitive criminal to be surrendered to such person as may be duly authorized to receive him on the part of President of the French Republic.

(B) In the case of a person convicted.—The course of proceeding shall be the same as in the case of a person accused, except that the warrant to be transmitted by the Ambassador or other Diplomatic Agent in support of his requisition shall clearly set forth the crime of which the person claimed has been convicted, and state the fact, place, and date of his conviction. The evidence to be produced before the Police Magistrate shall be such as would, according to the law of England, prove that the prisoner was convicted of the crime charged.

(C) Persons convicted by judgment in default or arrêt de contumace, shall be in the matter of extradition considered as persons accused, and, as such, be surrendered.

(D) After the Police Magistrate shall have committed the accused or convicted person to prison to await the order of a Secretary of State for his surrender, such person shall have the right to apply for a writ of habeas corpus; if he should so apply, his surrender must be deferred until after the decision of the Court upon the return to the writ, and even then can only take place if the decision is adverse to the applicant. In the latter case the Court may at once order his delivery to the person authorized to receive him, without the order of a Secretary of State for his surrender, or commit him to prison to await such order.

ARTICLE VII.

Warrants, depositions, or statements on oath, issued or taken in the dominions of either of the two High Contracting Parties, and copies thereof, and certificates of or judicial documents stating the facts of conviction, shall be received in evidence in proceedings in the dominions of the other if purporting to be signed or certified by a Judge, Magistrate, or officer of the country where they were issued or taken provided such warrants, depositions, statements, copies, certificates, and judicial documents are authenticated by the oath of some witness, or by being sealed with the official seal of the Minister of Justice or some other Minister of State.

ARTICLE IX.

A fugitive criminal may be apprehended under a warrant issued by any Police Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, or other competent authority in either country, on such information or complaint, and such evidence, or after such proceedings as would, in the opinion of the person issuing the warrant justify the issue of a warrant, if the crime had been committed or the prisoner convicted in that part of the dominions of the two Contracting Parties in which the Magistrate exercises jurisdiction: provided, however, that, in the United Kingdom, the accused shall, in such case, be sent as speedily as possible before a Police

Magistrat de Police l'enverra en prison pour attendre le mandat du Secrétaire d'Etat nécessaire à l'extradition, et il adressera immédiatement à l'extradition, et il adressera immédiatement à ce dernier une attestation de l'emprisonnement avec un rapport sur l'affaire.

Après l'expiration d'un certain temps qui ne pourra jamais être moindre de quinze jours depuis l'emprisonnement de l'accusé, le Secrétaire d'Etat, par un ordre de sa main et muni de son sceau, ordonnera que le fugitif soit livré à telle personne qui sera dûment autorisée, à le recevoir au nom du Président de la République Française.

(B) S'il s'agit d'une personne condamnée :— La marche de la procédure sera la même que dans le cas d'une personne accusée, sauf que le mandat à transmettre par l'Ambassadeur ou autre Agent Diplomatique Français, à l'appui de la demande d'extradition, énoncera clairement le fait pour lequel la personne réclamée aura été condamnée et mentionnera le lieu et la date du jugement. La preuve à produire devant le Magistrat de police sera telle que, d'après la loi Anglaise, elle établirait que le prisonnier a été condamné pour l'infraction dont on l'accuse.

(C) Les condamnés par jugement par défaut ou arrêt de contumace sont, au point de vue de la demande d'extradition, réputés accusés, et livrés comme tels.

(D) Après que le Magistrat de police aura envoyé en prison la personne accusée ou condamnée pour attendre l'ordre d'extradition du Secrétaire d'Etat, cette personne aura le droit de réclamer une ordonnance d'habeas corpus; l'extradition devra alors être différée jusqu'après la décision de la Cour sur le renvoi de l'ordonnance, et elle ne pourra avoir lieu que si la décision est contraire au demandeur. Dans ce dernier cas, la Cour pourra immédiatement ordonner la remise de celui-ci à la personne autorisée à le recevoir, sans qu'il soit besoin d'attendre l'ordre d'extradition du Secrétaire d'Etat ou bien l'envoyer en prison pour attendre cet ordre.

ARTICLE VIII.

Les mandats, les dépositions, les déclarations sous serment, délivrés ou recueillis dans les Etats de l'une des Hautes Parties Contractantes, les copies de ces pièces, ainsi que les certificats ou les documents judiciaires établissant le fait de la condamnation, seront reçus comme preuves dans la procédure des Etats de l'autre partie, s'ils sont revêtus de la signature ou accompagnés de l'attestation d'un juge, d'un magistrat ou d'un fonctionnaire du pays où ils ont été délivrés ou recueillis, pourvu que ces mandats, dépositions, déclarations, copies, certificats et documents judiciaires soient rendus authentiques par le serment d'un témoin ou par le sceau officiel du Ministre de la Justice ou d'un autre Ministre d'Etat.

ARTICLE IX.

Le fugitif pourra être arrêté sur mandat délivré par tout Magistrat de police, juge de paix ou autre autorité compétente dans chaque pays, à la suite d'un avis, d'une plainte, d'une preuve ou de tout autre acte de procédure qui, dans l'opinion de celui qui aura délivré le mandat, justifierait ce mandat, si le crime avait été commis ou la personne condamnée dans la partie des Etats des deux Contractants, où ce Magistrat exerce sa juridiction; pourvu cependant, s'il s'agit du Royaume Uni, que l'accusé soit, dans un pareil cas, envoyé aussi promptement que possible devant un Magistrat de police de Londres. Il sera relâché, tant dans le Magistrate in London. He shall be discharged, as well in the United Kingdom as in France, if within fourteen days a requisition shall not have been made for his surrender by the Diplomatic Agent of his country in the manner directed by Articles II and IV of this Treaty.

The same rule shall apply to the cases of persons accused or convicted of any of the crimes specified in this Treaty committed on the high seas on board any vessel of either country which may come into a port of the other.

ARTICLE X.

If the fugitive criminal who has been committed to prison, be not surrendered and conveyed away within two months after such committal, or within two months after the decision of the Court upon the return to a writ of habeas corpus in the United Kingdom, he shall be discharged from custody, unless sufficient cause be shown to the contrary.

ARTICLE XI.

The claim for extradition shall not be complied with if the individual claimed has been already tried for the same offence in the country whence the extradition is demanded, or if, since the commission of the acts charged, the accusation or the conviction, exemption from prosecution, or punishment has been acquired by lapse of time, according to the laws of that country.

ARTICLE XII.

If the individual claimed by one of the two High Contracting Parties in pursuance of the present Treaty should be also claimed by one or several other Powers, on account of other crimes committed upon their respective territories, his surrender shall be granted to that State whose demand is earliest in date; unless any other arrangement should be made between the Governments which have claimed him, either on account of the gravity of the crimes committed, or for any other reasons.

ARTICLE XIII.

ARTICLE XIV.

Every article found in the possession of the individual claimed at the time of his arrest, shall, if the competent authority so decide, be seized, in order to be delivered up with his person at the time when the surrender shall be made. Such delivery shall not be limited to the property or articles obtained by stealing or by fraudulent bankruptcy, but shall extend to every thing that may serve as proof of the crime, and shall take place even when the surrender, after having been ordered, shall be prevented from taking place by reason of the escape or death of the individual claimed.

The rights of third parties with regard to the said property or articles are nevertheless reserved.

Royaume Uni qu'en France, si, dans les quatorze jours, une demande d'extradition n'a pas été faite par l'Agent Diplomatique de son pays, suivant le mode indiqué par les Articles II et IV de ce Traité.

ARTICLE XI.

Il ne sera pas donné suite à la demande d'extradition, si l'individu réclamé a été jugé pour le même fait dans le pays requis, ou si, depuis les faits imputés, les poursuites ou la condamnation, la prescription de l'action ou de la peine est acquise d'après les lois de ce même pays.

ARTICLE XII.

Si l'individu réclamé par l'une des Hautes Parties Contractantes, en exécution du présent Traité, est aussi réclamé par une ou plusieurs autres Puissances, du chef d'autres infractions commises sur leurs territoires respectifs, son extradition sera accordée à l'Etat dont la demande est la plus ancienne en date; à moins qu'il n'existe entre les Gouvernements qui l'ont réclamé, un arrangement qui déciderait de la préférence, soit à raison de la gravité des crimes commis, soit pour tout autre motif.

ARTICLE XIII.

Si l'individu réclamé est poursuivi ou condamné pour un crime ou un délit commis dans le pays où il s'est réfugié, son extradition pourra être différée jusqu'à ce qu'il ait été mis en liberté conformément à la loi.

ARTICLE XIV.

Tout objet trouvé en la possession de l'individu réclamé au moment de son arrestation sera, si l'autorité compétente en a ainsi ordonné, saisi pour être livré avec sa personne lorsque l'extradition aura lieu. Cette remise ne sera pas limitée aux objets acquis par vol ou banqueroute frauduleuse; elle s'étendra à toute chose qui pourrait servir de pièce de conviction et s'effectuera même si l'extradition, après avoir été accordée, ne peut s'accomplir par suite de l'évasion ou de la mort de l'individu réclamé.

Sont toutefois réservés les droits des tiers sur les objets sus-mentionnés.

ARTICLE XV.

Each of the High Contracting Parties shall defray the expenses occasioned by the arrest within its territories, the detention, and the conveyance to its frontier, of the persons whom it may have consented to surrender in pursuance of the present Treaty.

ARTICLE XVI.

The requisition for the surrender of a fugitive criminal who has taken refuge in a Colony or foreign Possession of either Party, shall be made to the Governor or chief authority of such Colony or Possession by the chief Consular Officer of the other in such Colony or Possession; or, if the fugitive has escaped from a Colony or foreign Possession of the Party on whose behalf the requisition is made, by the Governor or chief authority of such colony or Possession.

Such requisitions may be disposed of, subject always, as nearly as may be, to the provisions of this Treaty, by the respective Governors or chief authorities, who, however, shall be at liberty either to grant the surrender or to refer the matter to their Government.

The foregoing stipulations shall not in any way affect the arrangements established in the East Indian Possessions of the two countries by the IXth Article of the Treaty of the 7th March, 1815.

ARTICLE XVII.

The present Treaty shall be ratified and the ratifications shall be exchanged at Paris as soon as possible.

It shall come into operation ten days after its publication, in conformity with the laws of the respective countries.

ARTICLE XV.

ARTICLE XVI.

Dans les Colonies et autres Possessions étrangères des deux Hautes Parties Contractantes, il sera procédé de la manière suivante:—

La demande d'extradition du malfaiteur qui s'est réfugié dans une Colonie ou Possession étrangère de l'une des Parties, sera faite au Gouverneur ou fonctionnaire principal de cette Colonie ou Possession par le principal Agent Consulaire de l'autre dans cette Colonie ou Possession; ou si le fugitif s'est échappé d'une Colonie ou Possession étrangère de la Partie au nom de laquelle l'extradition est demandée, par le Gouverneur ou le fonctionnaire principal de cette Colonie ou Possession.

Ces demandes seront faites ou accueillies, en suivant toujours aussi exactement que possible les stipulations de ce Traité par les Gouverneurs ou premiers fonctionnaires, qui, cependant, auront la faculté ou d'accorder l'extradition ou d'en référer à leur Gouvernement.

Les stipulations qui précèdent ne modifient en rien les arrangements établis dans les possessions des Indes Orientales des deux États par l'Article IX du Traité du 7 Mars, 1815.

“And whereas within the same area twelve rural deaneries are wholly included being the rural deaneries of Saint Austell, Bodmin, Carnmarth, East, Kerrier, Penwith, Powder, Pyder, Stratton, Trigg Major, Trigg Minor, and West, as appears by the statutory schedule of rural deaneries which in pursuance of the lastly hereinbefore mentioned Act was in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four prepared for the diocese of Exeter of which diocese the said diocese of Truro then formed part as appears also by an Order of your Majesty in Council dated the fifth day of August in the one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five and published in the London Gazette on the tenth day of the same month whereby certain new arrangements with respect (amongst other things) to the said present Archdeaconry of Cornwall and its rural deaneries or some them were effected.

“And whereas the Right Reverend Edward White, Bishop of the said diocese of Truro has represented to us that it is in his opinion desirable that the said Archdeaconry of Cornwall should be divided and that such division should be made by creating the new archdeaconry hereinafter recommended and proposed to be created and by assigning thereto the district hereinafter recommended and proposed to be assigned thereto.

“And whereas we have considered the matter so represented to us by the said Bishop and it appears to us to be expedient that the said Archdeaconry of Cornwall should be divided and that the division to be made thereof should be that which as aforesaid is recommended by the said Bishop and which is also hereinafter recommended and proposed.

“And whereas we have obtained from the Venerable William John Phillpotts Clerk in Holy Orders the present Archdeacon of the said Archdeaconry of Cornwall a return whereby it appears that during or in respect of the seven years ended the thirty-first day of December in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven the average income which the said present Archdeacon of Cornwall derived from fees and emoluments arising within or in respect of the area hereinafter proposed to be assigned as a district to the new archdeaconry the creation of which is recommended as aforesaid and is hereinafter recommended and proposed was twenty-eight pounds per annum or thereabouts.

“And whereas by virtue of the Acts hereinbefore mentioned or some or one of them it is competent to us to endow any archdeaconry by augmentation out of the common fund created by the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act provided that the said augmentation shall not be such as to raise the average annual income of any archdeaconry to an amount exceeding two hundred pounds.

“Now therefore with the consent of the said Edward White Bishop of the said diocese of Truro (in testimony of which consent he has set his hand and his episcopal seal to this scheme) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day on which any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall be published in the London Gazette the said present Archdeaconry of Cornwall shall be divided into and shall become two separate archdeaconries and that as from the day aforesaid one of the said two separate archdeaconries shall comprise and consist of and by virtue of the same Order shall have assigned to it as a district all that part of the area of the said present Archdeaconry of Cornwall which contains and is co-extensive with the aggregate areas of all the rural deaneries named in the first schedule to this scheme annexed, and that as from the day aforesaid the other of the said two separate archdeaconries shall comprise and consist of and by virtue as well of the said Order as of existing law or custom shall have and be deemed to have assigned to it as a district all the residue of the area of the said present Archdeaconry of Cornwall that is to say all that part of the same area which is not included within the rural deaneries or any of them named in the said first schedule to this scheme annexed and which residue contains and is co-extensive with the aggregate areas of all the rural deaneries named in the second schedule to this scheme annexed.

“And we further recommend and propose that the new archdeaconry to be created as hereinbefore recommended and proposed (and of which the district or area is set out as aforesaid in the said first schedule to this scheme annexed) shall be called the Archdeaconry of Bodmin and the archdeacon thereof the Archdeacon of Bodmin and that the other of the said two archdeaconries being in respect of the district or area the residue and remainder of the said present Archdeaconry of Cornwall as aforesaid shall continue as heretofore to be called the Archdeaconry of Cornwall and the archdeacon thereof the Archdeacon of Cornwall.

“And we further recommend and propose that the rural deans and all other the clergy and inhabitants of either of the said two archdeaconries shall be exempted and released from the jurisdiction authority and control of the archdeacon for the time being of the other of the said two archdeaconries and shall be under and subject to the jurisdiction authority and control of the archdeacon for the time being of their own archdeaconry only.

“And we further recommend and propose that there shall be paid yearly and every year on the first day of January out of the said common fund to the archdeacon for the time being of the said Archdeaconry of Bodmin a sum of one hundred and seventy-two pounds in respect of the twelve calendar months ended on that day Provided always that the first payment to be made by us as aforesaid to the Archdeacon of the said Archdeaconry of Bodmin shall be proportional in amount to the period which shall have elapsed between the date of the institution of the archdeacon receiving the same payment and the first day of January next following the date of such institution and Provided also that every such yearly payment as aforesaid shall be apportionable between an archdeacon (or as the case may be the representatives of an archdeacon) who has resigned or otherwise avoided his archdeaconry on any day of the year other than the first day of January and the archdeacon who shall next thereafter be instituted to the same archdeaconry and Provided further that every such yearly payment as aforesaid shall be made by us only after we shall have been satisfied that the archdeacon who is (or whose representatives are), to receive it has during the previous twelve months complied with the conditions as to residence which for the time being are required by law.

"And we further recommend and proposed that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing hereafter to your Majesty in Council any other matter on thing relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

"FIRST SCHEDULE:

"The Rural Deaneries comprised within the Archdeaconry of Bodmin—

1. The Rural Deanery of Bodmin.
2. The Rural Deanery of West.
3. The Rural Deanery of East.
4. The Rural Deanery of Trigg Major.
5. The Rural Deanery of Trigg Minor.
6. The Rural Deanery of Stratton.

"SECOND SCHEDULE.

"The Rural Deaneries comprised within the Archdeaconry of Cornwall—

1. The Rural Deanery of Penwith.
2. The Rural Deanery of Kerrier.
3. The Rural Deanery of Carnmarth.
4. The Rural Deanery of Powder.
5. The Rural Deanery of Pyder.
6. The Rural Deanery of Saint Austell."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Truro.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 16th day of May, 1878.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eleventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of your Majesty chapter thirty-nine and of the Acts therein mentioned have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (which said church and cure are hereinafter called the said benefice) of Rhyl, in the county of Flint, and in the diocese of Saint Asaph, which said benefice of Rhyl was sometime part of the parish of Rhuddlan, in the same county and diocese.

"Whereas the said advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Rhyl is now vested in the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of the said parish of Rhuddlan.

"And whereas a sum of one hundred pounds sterling has been contributed and paid to the credit of our account at the Bank of England in augmentation of the endowment of the said benefice of Rhyl, and we have in respect of the said capital sum, agreed and undertaken to pay to the vicar or incumbent of the said benefice of Rhyl (being duly licensed thereto) the yearly sum of three pounds six shillings and eight pence, so long as the said capital sum shall remain in our hands.

"And whereas the said capital sum of one hundred pounds sterling has been so contributed and paid as aforesaid upon the understanding and condition that a transfer of the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Rhyl, from the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of the parish of Rhuddlan (in whom the same is now vested as aforesaid), to the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Saint Asaph shall be effected by the agency of us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England.

"And whereas the Reverend Thomas Rowland, Clerk in Holy Orders, now vicar or incumbent of the said vicarage of the parish of Rhuddlan aforesaid is willing that the said advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Rhyl should be transferred to the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Saint Asaph as aforesaid and in token of his consent to the same proposed transfer the said Thomas Rowland has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Joshua now Bishop of the said diocese of Saint Asaph is the patron in right of his See of the said vicarage of the parish of Rhuddlan, and as such Bishop and as such patron as aforesaid is consenting to the said proposed transfer and in token of such his consent (which consent by the Acts recited in the hereinbefore mentioned Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of your Majesty chapter thirty-nine or by some or one of them is made necessary) he the said Joshua, Bishop of the said diocese of Saint Asaph, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas it appears to us that the transfer of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Rhyl, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the new parish of Rhyl, being the parish or district in or in respect of which the said advowson or right of patronage and presentation arises or exists.

“Now therefore with the consent of the said Thomas Rowland the vicar or incumbent of the said vicarage of the parish of Rhuddlan (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Joshua Bishop of the said diocese of Saint Asaph (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Rhyll and the church thereof now vested in the said Thomas Rowland as such vicar or incumbent of the said vicarage of the parish of Rhuddlan as aforesaid shall be transferred from the said Thomas Rowland and from his successors, vicars or incumbents of the said vicarage of the parish of Rhuddlan to the said Joshua Bishop of the said diocese of Saint Asaph, as such Bishop and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Joshua Bishop of the said diocese of Saint Asaph, and his successors Bishops of the same diocese for ever.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Saint Asaph.
