

Schools and Hospitals cannot fail to extend the benefits of education and improve the administration of charitable endowments in that country.

In bidding you farewell, I pray that the blessing of Almighty God may rest on your recent labours and accompany you in the discharge of all your duties.

Then a Commission for proroguing the Parliament was read; after which the Lord Chancellor said:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

By virtue of Her Majesty's Commission, under the Great Seal, to us and other Lords directed, and now read, we do, in Her Majesty's name, and in obedience to Her commands, prorogue this Parliament to Saturday, the second day of November next, to be then here holden; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Saturday, the second day of November next.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 14th day of August, 1878.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the County Courts Act 1846 it is, among other things, enacted that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that the said Act be put in force in such county or counties as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, should seem fit, and to divide the whole or part of any such county (including all counties of cities, and counties of towns, cities, boroughs, towns, ports, and places, liberties, and franchises therein contained or thereunto adjoining) into districts; and to order that the County Court should be holden for the recovery of debts and demands, under the said Act, in each of such districts; and from time to time, to alter such districts, as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, should seem fit; and, from time to time, with the advice aforesaid, to declare by what name, and in what towns and places the County Court should be holden in each district:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by an Order in Council of the ninth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, to order that the said Act be put in force in the counties and places therein specified, and the same was put in force accordingly:

And whereas by the County Courts Act, 1849, the County Courts Act, 1850, the County Courts Act, 1852, the County Courts Act, 1856, the County Courts Act, 1858, the County Courts Act, 1859, the County Courts Act, 1865, the County Courts Act, 1866, the County Courts Act, 1867, and the County Courts Act, 1875, the provisions of the said recited Act have been amended and extended.

And whereas it hath been represented that it would be of advantage to the public if the County

Court of Carnarvonshire holden at Conway were ordered to be holden at Llandudno, as well as at Conway.

Her Majesty, having taken the premises into consideration, is thereupon pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered that from and after the thirtieth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight the County Court of Carnarvonshire holden at Conway shall be holden at Llandudno, as well as at Conway.

THE REVOCATION ORDER OF 1878.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 16th day of August, 1878.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT:

Lord Chancellor.
Lord President.
Mr. Secretary Cross.
Mr. Chancellor of the Exchequer.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order and declare, and it is hereby ordered and declared, as follows:

1. This Order may be cited as The Revocation Order of 1878.

2. This Order shall take effect from and immediately after the thirtieth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight.

3. The Orders or parts of Orders of Council described in Part I of the Schedule to this Order are hereby revoked; but this revocation shall not—

- (a.) revive any Order or part of any Order revoked by or otherwise affect the past operation of any of those Orders or parts of Orders;
- (b.) affect the validity or invalidity of anything done or suffered, or any appointment made, or any licence or authority granted, or any right, title, obligation, or liability accrued thereunder, before this Order takes effect;
- (c.) interfere with the institution or prosecution of any proceeding in respect of any offence committed against or any penalty or forfeiture incurred under any Order or part of any Order hereby revoked.

4. The Orders and parts of Orders described in Part II of the Schedule to this Order are the only Orders and parts of Orders made before this Order that will remain in force after the commencement of this Order.

C. L. Peel.
