NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 193.)—MEDITERRANEAN. ADRIATIC—
TRIESTE BAY.

(1.) Withdrawal of Grado Light-Vessel.

WITH reference to Notices to Mariners, No 73 (2), of 19th May, 1879, on the intended alteration in the character of the light exhibited from Grado Light-vessel, north side of entrance to Trieste Bay:

The Austrian Government has given further notice, dated 22nd October, 1879, that Grado Light-vessel being defective, has been withdrawn from her station, and will not again be replaced. Also, that some other method will be adopted for temporarily marking Mula di Muggia Bank, of which due notice will be given.

The light-vessel being withdrawn, the fog signal is necessarily discontinued.

BLACK SEA—ODESSA.

(1.) Fixed Red Lights near Quarantine Mole Head.

With reference to Notice to Mariners, No. 158 (2) of 9th October, 1879, on the exhibition of two fixed red lights, placed vertically, from the Quarantine Mole at Odessa:—

The Russian Government has given further notice, that on 13th November, 1879, another fixed red light was exhibited; so that three fixed red lights, placed vertically, are now shown from near the mole head.

By command of their Lordships,

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 194.)—NORTH SEA—JADE RIVER.

(1.) Williamshaven—Fixed Light near Torpedo Harbour.

THE German Government has given notice, dated 22nd November, 1879, that a light is now exhibited on the east side of the entrance to the Torpedo Harbour, about 220 yards westward of the South Mole Head at Williamshaven:—

The light is a fixed white light, elevated 13 feet above high water, and should be visible between the bearings N. 84½° W. (through north) and N. 80½° E., from a distance of 3 miles.

NOTE.—This light is distinguished from the white lights at the harbour entrance and canals by being of less elevation.

GULF OF BOTHNIA—COAST OF FINLAND.

(2.) Rafsö Fiard—Fixed Light on Kallo Islet.

The Russian Government has given notice, that during the season of dark nights, a light will be exhibited from the Pilots' hut on Kallo Islet, approach to the Björneborg:—

The light will be a fixed white light; and will be shown every autumn until the navigation is closed.

Position, lat. 61° 35' 40" N., long. 21° 28' 15" E.
[The bearings are magnetic. Variation 14½° Westerly, in 1879.]

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 195.)—AUSTRALIA.—BASS STRAIT—KING ISLAND.

Flashing Light at Currie Harbour.

WITH reference to Notice to Mariners, No. 163, of 16th October, 1879, on the intended exhibition, on 1st March, 1880, of a light from a lighthouse erected on the south side of Currie Harbour, west coast of King Island.

The following further particulars have been received from the Government of Tasmania, the light will be exhibited on 1st March, 1880.

The light will be a flashing light, showing five flashes and eclipses alternately in a minute, elevated 150 feet above the sea, and should be visible in clear weather from a distance of 17 miles. The light will illuminate an arc of 180° from New Year Islands on the north, to Cataraque Point on the south.

The lighthouse, 70 feet high, constructed of iron, with central tube for staircase, and supported on 6 iron columns, is situated on an eminence about 80 feet high.

Position as given, latitude 39° 56' 45" S., longitude 143° 51' E.

CAUTION.—Mariners approaching King Island are specially warned to note the distinctive features between Currie Harbour flashing light and Cape Otway revolving light, on the Coast of Victoria, viz:—

Currie Harbour Light shows five flashes every minute.

Cape Otway Light attains its greatest brilliancy once every minute.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Saint Paul, Tongham, in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Winchester, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of ninety-two pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: And we do also hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the said vicarage of Saint Paul, Tongham, one capital sum of one hundred and twenty-three pounds six shillings and six pence, such capital sum to be applied by us in discharging the amount payable to the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the augmentation and maintenance of the poor clergy under a subsisting mortgage of the said vicarage, which was effected by a deed, bearing date the seventh day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, for the purpose of providing and making certain additions to the parsonage or house of residence of the said vicarage of Saint Paul, Tongham: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the aforesaid yearly sum or stipend of ninety-two pounds, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eighteenth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of All Saints, Tilford, in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Winchester, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of forty-two pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: And we do also hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the said vicarage of All Saints, Tilford, one capital sum of four hundred and ninety-two pounds six shillings and two pence, such capital sum to be applied by us in discharging the amount payable to the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the augmentation and maintenance of the poor clergy under a subsisting mortgage of the said vicarage, which was effected by a deed bearing date the nineteenth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, for the purpose of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage of All Saints, Tilford: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the yearly sum or stipend of forty-two pounds aforesaid, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eighteenth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of All Saints, New Shildon, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and twenty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, and to be receivable in four equal portions, on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November, in each and every year: Provided always, that the annual sum or stipend so granted by us to the Incumbent of the said vicarage, shall be paid only upon the production to us, on or after each of the said lastly-mentioned days in each and every year, of a certificate under the hand of the Bishop of the said diocese of Durham, that an Assistant-Curate, duly licensed by such Bishop, has been employed within the parish of All Saints, New Shildon aforesaid, during the quarter of the year then ended, and is in receipt of a salary after a rate of not less than one hundred and twenty pounds per annum; Provided also, that such yearly sum or stipend shall continue payable as aforesaid so long only as may to us appear to be expedient under the circumstances from time to time affecting the said parish and vicarage of All Saints, New Shildon.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eighteenth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby grant and convey to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Dunholme, in the county of Lincoln, and in the diocese of Lincoln; and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, all and singular the yearly tithe commutation rent-charges which are particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and are now vested in us: To have and to hold the said yearly tithe commutation rent-charges, to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever: Provided always, that the Incumbent for the time being of the same vicarage shall be entitled to receive from us, or on our account, the net amount of the profits and proceeds of the said yearly tithe commutation rent-charges for and in respect of the period intervening between the first day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, and the date of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eighteenth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Saint Thomas, Bourne, in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Winchester, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and forty-six pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: And we do also hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the said vicarage of Saint Thomas, Bourne, one capital sum of four hundred and ten pounds six shillings and four pence, such capital sum to be applied by us in discharging the amount payable to the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the augmentation and maintenance of the poor clergy, under a subsisting mortgage of the said vicarage which was effected by a deed, bearing date the eleventh day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, for the purpose of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage of Saint Thomas, Bourne: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and forty-six pounds aforesaid, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eighteenth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction, consisting of a piece or parcel of land comprising ninety-five square yards, or thereabouts, which has been permanently secured to the vicarage of Saint John-juxta-Swansea, in the county of Glamorgan, and in the diocese of Saint David's, and of a further benefaction, consisting of a sum of sixty-five pounds sterling, which has been paid to 24795.

to us in favour of the same vicarage, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the said vicarage of Saint John-juxta-Swansea, to meet the aforesaid benefactions, one capital sum of one hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Saint John-juxta-Swansea.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Minister or Incumbent of the district of Saint Michael and All Angels, Bedford Park, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, and to his successors, Ministers or Incumbents of the same district, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and fifty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the eleventh day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said district, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eighteenth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant and convey to the Incumbent of the vicarage of West Tarring with Durrington, in the county of Sussex, and in the diocese of Chichester, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, all and singular the yearly tithe commutation rent-charges, and also all those pieces or parcels of land and hereditaments with the appurtenances thereto belonging, which said tithe commutation rent-charges and pieces or parcels of land and hereditaments are particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and are now vested in us: To have and to hold the said yearly tithe commutation rent-charges subject as hereinafter mentioned and the said pieces or parcels of land and hereditaments with their appurtenances to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever: Provided always, that the said yearly tithe commutation rent-charges expressed to be hereby granted and conveyed, shall be, and be taken to be, in lieu of, and in substitution for (first) the yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and eighty pounds, heretofore payable by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of West Tarring, under the authority of an Order of Her Majesty in Council, dated the nineteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, and published in the London Gazette of the twenty-second day of the same month and year, and (secondly) for a portion, amounting to one hundred and seventy-three pounds per annum, of the further yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and ninety-three pounds, to which amount the yearly sum or stipend of two hundred pounds payable by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, to the Incumbent of the same vicarage of West Tarring, under the authority of another Order of Her Majesty in Council, bearing date the ninth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty, and published in the London Gazette of the twenty-second day of the same month and year, has been reduced by reason and in consequence of the purchase by us, the said Commissioners, for the benefit of the said vicarage of West Tarring, of a certain piece or parcel of land and hereditaments, comprising one rood and two perches or thereabouts, which were duly conveyed and enfranchised to us, the said Commissioners, by two deeds of conveyance, dated the twenty-third day of December, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, and the twenty-seventh day of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three respectively; to which substitution the Reverend Henry Bailey, Doctor of Divinity, the present Incumbent of the said vicarage of West Tarring, is consenting, and in token thereof has signed this instrument: And provided also, that the Incumbent for the time being of the same vicarage shall be entitled to receive from us, or on our account, the net amount of the profits and proceeds of the said yearly tithe commutation rent-charges, for and in respect of the period intervening between the first day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, and the date of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this fourth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine.

Henry Bailey, D.D., Vicar.

SCHEDULE.—THIRD PART.

All that piece or parcel of land situate in the parish of West Tarring, in the county of Sussex, containing in breadth from north to south thirty-six feet nine inches (little more or less) and in depth from east to west one hundred and thirty-six feet (little more or less), abutting and bounding to the vicarage house and garden on the north, to a garden formerly belonging to the Reverend John Nisbet Jordan on the east, to a piece of land formerly belonging to William Tribe, late of West Tarring, Gentleman (deceased), on the south, and to the high road leading from West Tarring towards the sea on the west, and which said piece or parcel of land intended to be hereby described is more particularly referred to in a certain deed of conveyance, dated the sixth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, and made between the Reverend John Wood Warner, of West Tarring, in the county of Sussex, Clerk, of the one part, and the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the other part, which said deed of conveyance is intended to be deposited in the Registry of the diocese of Chichester immediately after the publication of these presents in the London Gazette.

SCHEDULE.—FOURTH PART.

All that piece or parcel of land situate in the parish of West Tarring, in the county of Sussex, containing one rood and two perches or thereabouts, numbered 87 on the tithe commutation apportionment plan for the said parish, and more particularly referred to in a certain deed of conveyance, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, and made between John Urpeth Rastrick, of Sayes Court, in the county of Surrey, Esquire, of the one part, and the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the other part, which said Deed of conveyance is intended to be deposited in the Registry of the diocese of Chichester immediately after the publication of these presents in the London Gazette.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Christ Church, Catshill, in the county of Worcester, and in the diocese of Worcester, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and eighty-five pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the twenty-fourth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eighteenth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction, consisting of an acre or thereabouts of land, which has been permanently secured to the vicarage of Brampton Bierlow, in the county and diocese of York, and of a further benefaction, consisting of a sum of five hundred and sixty-seven pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the same vicarage, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the said vicarage of Brampton Bierlow, to meet the aforesaid benefactions, one capital sum of one thousand and two hundred and thirty-three pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Brampton Bierlow.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eighteenth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction, consisting of a piece of land comprising one thousand and seventy square yards, or thereabouts, which has been permanently secured to the vicarage of Saint Andrew, Burnley, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester, and of a further benefaction, consisting of a sum of six hundred pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the same vicarage, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the said vicarage of Saint Andrew, Burnley, to meet the aforesaid benefactions, one capital sum of one thousand and four hundred and three pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Saint Andrew, Burnley.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set common seal, this eighteenth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant and convey to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Saint James, Kennington, in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Rochester, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, all the piece or parcel of land, messuage, and hereditaments, together with the appurtenances thereunto belonging, particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and now vested in us, to have and to hold the said piece or parcel of land, messuage, and hereditaments, with their appurtenances, subject as hereinafter mentioned, to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever: Except and always reserved, at all times and for ever, unto us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, our successors, assigns, and lessees, the right to enter upon and take possession of the whole, or any portion, of that part of the said piece or parcel of land and hereditaments expressed to be hereby granted and conveyed, which is coloured dark blue on the plan hereunto annexed, for the purpose of widening the public road known as the Royal-road, immediately abutting on the said piece of land and hereditaments: And also except and reserved, at all times and for ever, unto us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, our successors and assigns, the right to place, build, and erect upon the land belonging to us, adjacent to and abutting on the said piece or parcel of land and hereditaments hereby granted and conveyed, such houses, tenements, or other buildings, and for such purposes as may appear to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, to be desirable and fit: And provided always that the said piece or parcel of land, messuage, and hereditaments expressed to be hereby granted and conveyed, shall be, and be taken to be, in lieu of and in substitution for a portion, amounting to four hundred and thirty pounds, of the capital sum of one thousand five hundred pounds sterling granted and appropriated by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, to the said vicarage of Saint James, Kennington, under the authority of an instrument sealed by us on the twenty-ninth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, and published in the London Gazette of the seventh day of May, in the same year: And provided, also, that the Incumbent for the time being of the same vicarage shall be entitled to receive from us, or on our account, the net amount of the rents, profits, and proceeds of the said piece or parcel of land, messuage, and hereditaments, for and in respect of the period intervening between the first day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, and the date of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette.

Schedule.

All that piece or parcel of land containing, by estimation, about thirty perches more or less, together with the messuage, tenement, or dwelling-house and premises known as "Oval Cottage" now standing thereon, situate on the south-east side of Kennington Park, in the new parish of Saint Agnes, Kennington Park, within the ancient limits of the parish of Newington, in the county of Surrey, abutting towards part of the north-west on a high road leading to Ebenezer-terrace, and towards the remaining part of the north-west on a private residence and premises known as Hawthorn Cottage, belonging to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, on the north-east partly on a public road known as Royal-road, and partly on a garden attached to a private residence and premises known as Octagon Cottage, also belonging to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and abutting on the south-east and south-west partly on garden ground belonging to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and partly on the aforesaid private residence and premises known as Hawthorn Cottage; and which said piece of land and hereditaments intended to be hereby described are more particularly delineated on the plan hereunto annexed, and are thereon coloured light and dark blue.

Valuable Potteries for Sale by Private Contract or Tender.

TO be sold, the valuable pottery called the Grim's Pottery, Whitehaven, Cumberland, known as the Old Works and the New Works, which have been long and successfully carried on by the late Mr. John Wilkinson, and those entitled under him, and whose estate is now being administered in an action of Wilkinson v. Wilkinson, 1878, W., 187, depending in the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice. The Old Works contain 3,253 square yards, or thereabouts, and consist of dwelling-house, cellar, five ovens, printing, painting, and turning shops, four sagger-houses, clay bank, and fiat kiln. The New Works comprise cottage, house, office, large warehouses, crate shops, three pressing shops, colour shop, two plate shops, dipping house, ovens, packing house, and a 25-horse power horizontal steam-engine, heated by two cylindrical boilers, all in good order, and occupy an area of 1,620 square yards, or thereabouts.

The steam-engine, machinery, apparatus, plant, fixtures, and stock-in-trade to be taken at a valuation.

The works are plentifully supplied with excellent water, and are remarkably well situated as regards competition, there being no works on the northern side nearer than Newcastle-on-Tyne, and on the southern side than Staffordshire. The property possesses the advantage of being for the most part freehold. Its proximity to the port of Whitehaven also affords exceptional facilities for the import of clay, flint, and other necessary materials, and export of the manufactured goods to Ireland, Scotland, and the Isle of Man, with which places a large business is transacted.

The works may be viewed on application. Further information, and printed particulars and conditions may be obtained of Messrs. Denton, Hall, and Fox, 15, Gray's-inn-square, London; of Messrs. Atkinson and Collins, Solicitors, Whitehaven; of Messrs. Bischoff and Co., 4, Great Winchester-street, London, E.C.; and G. L. Whately, Esq., of 17, Lincoln's-inn-fields.

Persons desirous of competing for the said estate are hereby informed that sealed tenders, addressed, under cover, to Robert William Peake, Esq., the Chief Clerk of Vice-Chancellor Sir Charles Hall (to whose Court the said action is attached), and marked private, at his chambers, No. 14, Chancery-lane, London, will be received up to and inclusive of the 4th day of February, 1880, in the form annexed to and subject to the particulars and conditions, and signed by the person or persons proposing to purchase.

Such tenders will be treated as confidential and their contents will not be made public. The 9th day of February, 1880, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the said chambers, is appointed by the said Chief Clerk for declaring the result of the consideration thereof.

TO be sold, pursuant to a Judgment of the High Court of Justice, Chancery Division, made in an action, re John Mousley's Estate, Cooper v. Jarratt, with the approbation of the Master of the Rolls, by Mr. Thomas Sheppard, the person appointed by the said Judge, at the Old Star Inn, Sharnford, in the county of Leicester, on Thursday, the 22nd day of January, 1880, at four o'clock in the afternoon precisely, in two lots:—

Certain freehold property, comprising a farm, buildings, and appurtenances adjoining, situate at Sharnford, in the county of Leicester, also four closes of land, fenced and watered, adjoining the village of Sharnford, occupied by John Forryan, and containing together about 21A. 3a. 29r., or thereabouts, and a close of land, called Jarratt's Orchard, situate at Sharnford aforesaid, occupied by the said John Forryan, and containing 1A. 0r. 13p., or thereabouts.

Particulars and conditions of sale may be had (gratis) of Mr. Charles John Mander, Solicitor, 9, New-square, Lincoln's-inn, London, W.C.; and at Leicester, of Messrs. Miles, Boukell, and Peace; and Mr. Thomas Watts; also of the Auctioneer.
