AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 30th day of December, 1879.

By a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT:

Marquess of Salisbury.
Lord George Hamilton.
Lord Hampton.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a letter to the Clerk of the Council from the Secretary and Registrar of the Pharmaceutical Society of Great Britain, dated the 3rd day of December, 1879, in the words following:—

"I have to acquaint you that at a meeting of the Council of this Society held this day the Pharmaceutical Chemists whose names appear on the other side were appointed Examiners for the ensuing year, and I am requested to submit their names to the Privy Council for approval, in accordance with the Bye-laws of the Society.
Neither of the persons appointed has held office as a Member of the Council of the Society during the year preceding the date hereof.

And whereas, by the sixth section of "The Pharmacy Act, 1868" (31 and 32 Victoria, cap.

exxi), it is provided that no person shall conduct any examination for the purposes of that Act until his appointment has been approved by the Privy Council:

And whereas it appears that the persons appointed are, as required by the Bye-laws of the Society, under the age of 65 years, that none of them have held office as Members of the Council during the preceeding twelve months, and that no objection exists to the approval of the Lords of the Council being given to such appointments:

Now, therefore, their Lordships are pleased to approve the appointments of the said persons as Examiners for the year 1880, for the purposes of the Pharmacy Act, 1868.
