AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 21st day of October, 1880.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

THE Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do hereby define the following part of the Port of Barrow-in-Furness, in the county of Lancaster, as a foreign animals wharf:

All that space in the borough of Barrow-in-Furness situate on the south side of the Lock and Basin of the Ramsden Dock, commencing at a point at the water edge of the Fifth Jetty about six hundred and seventy-five feet from the west wing wall of the said Basin, thence in a southerly direction for one hundred and ten feet or thereabouts bounded by a wooden fence, thence in an easterly direction for ninety feet or thereabouts bounded by a close wooden fence, thence in a northerly direction for one hundred and ten feet or thereabouts bounded by a wooden fence, thence for fifteen feet or thereabouts along the water edge of the Sixth Jetty, thence in a southerly direction for one hundred and ten feet or thereabouts bounded by a wooden fence, thence in an easterly direction for three hundred and eighty feet or thereabouts bounded by the wall of the Cattle Lairs, Slaughter-house, and a close wooden fence, thence in a southerly direction for two hundred and thirty-five feet or thereabouts bounded by a close wooden fence, thence in a westerly direction for one hundred and sixty feet or thereabouts bounded by a close wooden fence, thence in a northerly direction for twenty-five feet or thereabouts bounded by the wall of the Chill Room, thence in a westerly direction for one hundred and ninety feet or thereabouts bounded by the wall of the Chill Room Engine and Boiler-house, thence in a southerly direction for twenty-five feet or thereabouts bounded by the wall of the said Boiler-house, thence in a westerly direction for one hundred and thirty feet or thereabouts bounded by a close wooden fence, thence in a northerly direction for two hundred feet or thereabouts bounded by the Iron Grain Shed, thence in an easterly direction for twenty feet or thereabouts bounded by a close wooden fence, thence in a northerly direction for one hundred and ten feet or thereabouts bounded by a close wooden fence to the water edge of the said Fifth Jetty, thence for fifteen feet or thereabouts along the water edge of the said Fifth Jetty to the point first mentioned, all which space is coloured pink on the plan of part of the Barrow Docks deposited for the purposes of this Order at the Privy Council Office, a copy of which is deposited at the office of the Town Clerk of the borough of Barrow-in-Furness.

THE following General Order by the Government of India has been received at the India Office:—

GENERAL ORDER.

MILITARY DEPARTMENT.

Simla, the 27th August, 1880.

FIELD OPERATIONS.

No. 493.—THE Governor-General in Council has much satisfaction in directing the publication, for general information, of the following Correspondence and Despatches, relating to the defeat of a body of Zermuttis at Paikáo Shana on the 1st July, 1880, by the Cavalry Brigade of the 3rd Division Northern Afghanistan Field Force, under the immediate command of Brigadier-General C. H. Palliser, C.B. :—

From Colonel Allen Johnson, Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department, to the Adjutant-General in India.—(No. 7894-K., Kabul Field Operations, dated Simla, 20th August, 1880).

I AM directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 4341-A, dated the 13th August, 1880, forwarding Despatches relating to the action fought at Patkáo Shana by the Cavalry Brigade of the 3rd Division Northern Afghanistan Field Force, under the command of Brigadier-General Palliser, against the Zermúttis.

2. In reply, I am to state, for the Commander-in-Chief's information, that the Governor-General in Council has perused with much satisfaction the correspondence regarding these operations, and entirely concurs with the Commander-in-Chief in considering that great credit is due to the Cavalry Brigade of Major-General Hills' Division, under the immediate command of Brigadier-General Palliser, C.B., and to the officers and men whose services have been so prominently brought to notice in this Despatch.

3. The Despatches will, I am to add, be published in the Gazette at an early date.

From Major-General G. R. Greaves, C.B., Adjutant-General in India, to the Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department,—(No. 4341-A.,—Kabul,—dated Simla, 13th August, 1880).

I HAVE the honour, by direction of the Commander-in-Chief, to forward, for submission to Government, the accompanying Despatches relating to the action fought at Patkáo Shana on the 1st July, 1880, by the Cavalry Brigade of the 3rd Division Northern Afghanistan Field Force, under the immediate command of Brigadier-General C. H. Palliser, C.B., against 1500 Zermúttis.

2. His Excellency considers that great credit is due to Brigadier-General Palliser and the troops engaged, and desires me to bring to special notice the names of Major J. R. B. Atkinson, 1st Punjab Cavalry, and Captain L. T. Bishop, 2nd Punjab Cavalry, whose conduct was admirable, affording a brilliant example of squadron leading.

3. The conduct of Captain S. D. Barrow, 10th Bengal Lancers, is also specially worthy of notice, and Sir Frederick Haines considers that all the officers and men mentioned,—indeed, the whole force,—deserve the favourable notice of Government.

From Lieutenant-General Sir Donald M. Stewart, K.C.B., Commanding in Northern Afghanistan, to the Adjutant-General in India,—(No. 3143,—“Field Operations,”—dated Kabul, 20th July, 1880).

I HAVE the honour to forward, for the information of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief in India, the accompanying report, as per margin,* of a very successful action fought on the 1st instant at Patkáo Shana, in the Logar Valley, by the Cavalry Brigade of Major-General Hills' Division under the immediate command of Brigadier-General Palliser, C.B.

The operation reflects much credit on the cavalry of the 3rd Division, and I have great pleasure in supporting the recommendations made by Major-General Hills, C.B., V.C., in favour of Brigadier-General Palliser and the officers and men whose services have been favourably brought to notice in his Despatch.

From Major-General J. Hills, C.B., V.C., Commanding the 3rd Division Northern Afghanistan Field Force, to the Chief of the Staff, Northern Afghanistan Field Force,—(No. 6652-L.,—“Field Operations,”—dated Camp Zargunshahr, 12th July, 1880).

I HAVE the honour to report, for the information of the Lieutenant-General Commanding the Field Force Northern Afghanistan, that on the evening of the 30th June, I received information from the Political Officer, Major Euan Smith, that some 1,000 or 1,500 Zermúttis were said to be at Patkáo Shana, detained by Sirdar Hassan Khan, in expectation of reinforcements reaching them under Mahomed Jan.

2. I therefore directed Brigadier-General Palliser, C.B., to proceed with his Cavalry Brigade early next morning towards Patkáo Shana and Hisarak, and to ascertain whether any hostile gathering was present in either place or in the neighbourhood, and I gave him instructions to flash to me for assistance or press home an attack as circumstances required.

3. Brigadier-General Palliser started at 3.30 a.m., with a force as per margin,* and, on approaching Patkáo Shana, learnt that the enemy had had timely notice of his approach, and were in full retreat. A few horsemen on his left front gave him a clue to the line of retirement, and Captain G. M. Abbott, 19th Bengal Lancers, in command of his advanced guard, following them up, was soon able to report that he saw the main body of footmen about two miles ahead, making away towards Altimor.

4. Brigadier-General Palliser, leaving a squadron of the 2nd Punjab Cavalry under Captain J. H. Broome to watch the village of Patkáo Shana and the Logar Valley, pressed on with the rest of his brigade, and overtook these footmen, some 1,500 strong, three miles from the village. He at once attacked, and with such vigour that, although the enemy made several attempts to stand up against him wherever the nature of the ground specially favoured resistance, still they were unable to withstand his assaults, and by 9.30 a.m. were utterly routed, and had disappeared in the higher hills opposite Altimor, some eight miles having been covered in the pursuit.

5. Many acts of gallantry were performed, the most prominently brought to notice being those of Major J. R. B. Atkinson, 1st Punjab Cavalry, Captain L. T. Bishop, 2nd Punjab Cavalry, and Sowar Sirbúland Khan, 1st Punjab Cavalry.

6. Over 200 killed and wounded were left on the field, and though the number may appear small considering the distance to which the pursuit was pushed, the extreme roughness and difficulty of the ground, enabling many to slink away unseen, fully accounts for the same.

7. The leaders of the gathering, found to be almost entirely Zermúttis, were Súltan Mahomed, Mahmúdzái, Ahmed Shah, Kúlangári, Sáiad Khan, Mandozái, Abdúlla Khan, Mandozái, and these, being mounted, galloped off at the first alarm of our approach.

* 1st Punjab Cavalry, British Officers 5, Sabres 236 - 231. 2nd Punjab Cavalry, British Officers 3, Sabres 155 - 158. 19th Bengal Lancers, British Officers 5, Sabres 183 - 188. Total 577.

8. The following men of note are reported to be killed, wounded, or missing :—

Súltan Mahomed, Mahmúdzái, killed.

His nephew (name unknown), wounded.

A nephew of Sáiad Khan (name unknown), killed.

Mahomed Akbar, second son of Ahmed Shah, Kúlangári, mortally wounded.

9. Sirdar Mahomed Hassan Khan, with a small party of some 100 sowars, watched Captain Broome's squadron from the low hills between Patkáo Shana and Kila Jabbar, and retired towards Charkh on the return of the cavalry from the pursuit.

10. Some of our late deserters were among the enemy,—

A havildar, Bengal Sappers and Miners, killed.

A syce, 2nd Punjab Cavalry, taken prisoner.

A sowar, 1st Punjab Cavalry } who escaped.

A sowar, 2nd " " }

11. As soon as I received information, by heliogram, that the enemy were in full flight, I sent messengers to the different villages in Logar, telling the people to remain in their homes, and that no harm would befall them; and I invited them to search for and send in the wounded. The people were thus re-assured of our good intentions to all who were peaceably inclined towards us, and have already begun to send in supplies. They have been put under great pressure to join in a gházá against us, but have hitherto resisted, and appear to be relieved by our presence.

12. The day's work was a long and trying one, the cavalry covering nearly forty miles ere they returned to camp, and I trust that it will meet due approval.

13. I would beg to bring the names of Brigadier-General Palliser, C.B., to whom I am much indebted for the very thorough way in which he carried out my instructions, and those of the following officers, specially commended by him, to the notice of the Lieutenant-General Commanding, for favourable recommendation to His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, for any reward he may consider they deserve :—

1. Colonel P. S. Yorke, commanding the 19th Bengal Lancers.

2. Colonel T. G. Kennedy, commanding the 2nd Punjab Cavalry.

3. Lieutenant-Colonel C. S. Maclean, commanding the 1st Punjab Cavalry.

4. Major G. C. Bird, Brigade-Major, Cavalry Brigade.

5. Lieutenant W. E. [G. Forbes, 2-6th Foot, Orderly Officer.

6. Captain Seymour D. Barrow, A.D.C., severely wounded in both arms in a personal encounter with a nephew of Súltan Mahomed, and who up to the time of his being wounded rendered Brigadier-General Palliser much assistance as an Orderly Officer.

Surgeons W. R. Murphy and P. F. O'Connor, mentioned as meriting special thanks for their attention to the wounded, often at much risk to themselves from stragglers of the enemy.

14. The following are brought to notice by officers commanding regiments :—

Captain G. M. Abbott, Lieutenant S. D. Gordon, Jemadar Manáwar Khan, Jemadar Khan Mahomed Khan, Duffadar Mahomed Ishák, Duffadar Sáiad Khan, 19th Bengal Lancers.

Major J. R. B. Atkinson, who specially distinguished himself, Captain D. S. Cuninghame, Lieutenant E. D. J. O'Brien, 40th Foot, attached, Rissaldar-Major Mahomed Ali Khan, Rissaldar Mir Alam Khan, Rissaldar (Woordi Major) Salim Khan, Jemadar Hak Newáz Khan, Kot-Duffadar

Karam Khan, Duffadar Cheyt Sing, Sowar Jagat Sing, and Sowar Sirbúland Khan, 1st Punjab Cavalry.

Captain L. T. Bishop, specially, for spirited leading of his squadron, and Rissaldar Jowahir Sing, 2nd Punjab Cavalry.

From Brigadier-General C. H. Palliser, C.B., Commanding the Cavalry Brigade Northern Afghanistan Field Force, to Major-General Hills, C.B., V.C., Commanding the 2nd Division Northern Afghanistan Field Force,—(No. 509-R.,—"Field Operations,"—dated Camp Zargunshahr, 2nd July, 1880).

I HAVE the honour to report, for the information of the Major-General Commanding, that, in accordance with orders received, I marched yesterday morning at 3.30 A.M. with the Cavalry Brigade, strength as per margin,* towards Patkáo Shana and Hisárák, up the Logar Valley, for the purpose of ascertaining the truth of a report received of an adverse gathering of tribesmen in that direction, and, if opportunity offered, of dispersing them.

2. I proceeded with the intention of first turning the village of Patkáo Shana on its river side, and thus intercepting the retreat of any enemy that village might contain towards the walled villages, cultivation, and water-cuts existing on that side, which might render the action of cavalry difficult—considering, from its outlying position, with a line of retreat towards the Altimor and other passes to the south, that an enemy would be more likely to be there than in any of the other villages indicated. I was confirmed in this opinion by the information successively received from wayfarers brought in by the advanced files and flanking parties of the 19th Bengal Lancers, and from a Hazara spy returning towards camp, that there was a collection of tribesmen, variously estimated from 400 to 2,000 strong, in and around the village of Patkáo Shana, and that others had departed to the hills on the south the day before.

3. I flashed this information back to camp and continued my march, when, within about two miles and a half of the opening in the low range of smooth, undulating hills stretching across the valley from above Kushi, round the point of which lay the village of Patkáo Shana, a horseman or two were observed on our left front, evidently observing our advance. After a little time these were joined by a cluster of footmen, carrying one red flag. I therefore changed the direction of the head of the column, and advanced with a line of scouts thrown out towards this point, with small detached parties of twenty sabres each for reconnaissance on each flank,—believing that from the crest of the hill I should be able to look down on Patkáo Shana and the lower levels adjacent; but on reaching the top of the rise in view, I found a succession of waves of ascent and descent, over which for about a mile the scouts advanced, the main body of the brigade having been halted at the foot of the first ascent. From the furthest off crest the village of Patkáo Shana was seen to our right front, and to the left front the enemy was observed in compact but full retreat towards Altimor Pass and about two miles off; there appeared to be at least 1500 footmen, with a few scattered horsemen. Not wishing to hurry the enemy's retreat, I checked the advance of the scouts, ordered up the main body of the brigade (less one squadron of 52 sabres of the 2nd Punjab Cavalry, which I had detached under Captain Broome to watch Patkáo Shana, and to summon the maliks thereof), and, keeping them concealed in the ravines, took ground to the left under shelter of the ridge, to get as near the enemy as possible before making a direct pursuit, and finally following them direct with one squadron and a half of the Bengal Lancers and two squadrons of the 1st Punjab Cavalry in the front line (Captain G. M. Abbott, Officiating 2nd-in-Command, 19th Bengal Lancers, who had commanded the advanced guard and scouting party, being still detached some distance to the right; he joined the front line of his regiment in the course of the pursuit), supported, under the command of Colonel T. G. Kennedy, C.B., by one squadron of the 1st Punjab Cavalry and one squadron of the 2nd Punjab Cavalry,—in all 503 sabres.

4. It was some time, owing to the difficulty of the ground, ere we came in contact with the retreating enemy, who by this time were much scattered (necessitating the breaking up of our close formation) in knots and singly, taking advantage of the broken, stony, raviny, and sometimes precipitous ground, and fighting generally with desperation when brought to bay. The ground, in fact, was such that on it no cavalry could have touched well-disciplined infantry.

5. Among the first of the enemy overtaken was a stalwart, well-dressed and well-equipped Afghan, evidently a man of some note, armed with rifle, shield, sword, and knife, to encounter whom rode out Captain Seymour D. Barrow, Aide-de-Camp to the Major-General, whose services had been placed at my disposal as a galloper. In the fight between them, I regret to say, Captain Barrow received two severe sword-cuts, first on his bridle hand, rendering it useless, and another on the right fore-arm, his charger being also wounded in the neck. The Afghan, already badly wounded by Captain Barrow, was finally despatched by Sowar Gúlam Khan, 1st Punjab Cavalry, and a sowar, Jewand Sing, of the 19th Bengal Lancers (the latter Colonel Yorke's orderly, afterwards killed).

6. The pursuit was continued for a space of two hours, and extended over seven or eight miles from Patkáo Shana to within a few miles of the Altimor Pass, near the valley of Oucha-khan. The enemy were so much disorganised (though they made one or two attempts to form) and scattered right and left of our line, that the supporting squadrons were equally engaged with those in front.

7. At 9 A.M., seeing that the country became more rugged as the mountains were approached, our horses being much fatigued and evidently footsore, and few of the enemy being left in our front, and they much dispersed, I sounded the rally, and when our squadrons were collected commenced our return to Patkáo Shana, our killed being carried on horses, and the most severe of our wounded men on litters made by tying lúngís on to lances.

8. Patkáo Shana was reached at about noon, horses watered and fed, and after a couple of hours' rest the march back to camp was commenced, the 1st Punjab Cavalry bringing up the rear—arriving at 6.30 P.M.—the brigade having covered probably not less than forty miles during the day.

9. Our losses were found to be three men and eight horses killed, one British officer (Captain Seymour D. Barrow), twenty-eight men (one of whom died the same evening of his wound) and twenty-five horses wounded. The loss of the enemy I compute, from my own observation and that of others, to have been not less than two hundred.

10. At the close of the pursuit I sent a message to be flashed by the signallers who had been left with Captain Broome at Patkáo Shana, for twelve dólís, which were duly sent.

11. It was reported that the gathering consisted chiefly of men from the Zermút tribe, and that the following men of note were, or had been, with the gathering up to the time of their being pursued, when probably they took advantage of their horses' speed to keep out of danger, namely:—Súltan Mahomed, Mahmúdzái, Mahomed Shah Khan, Sáiad Khan, Mandozái, Abdúlla Khan, Mandozái.

A nephew of Súltan Mahomed's, who was known to have been in the fight, is said to have been killed; probably he was the man Captain Barrow engaged. A horseman escorted by about 150 mounted followers was observed by Captain Broome, 2nd Punjab Cavalry, from Patkáo Shana (and who he was informed, was Sirdar Mahomed Hassan Khan) retiring slowly towards Jabbar Kila, apparently watching our movements. They went on towards Charkh shortly before the return of the brigade.

12. The keen eagerness displayed by officers and men was all that could be desired, and had the surface of the country gone over been less rugged, the enemy's loss would have been far greater.

13. I beg to bring to the special notice of the Major-General commanding, for good service performed:—

Colonel P. S. Yorke, Commandant, 19th Bengal Lancers, who had two narrow escapes, a bullet passing through his helmet and another grazing his cheek bone.

Colonel T. G. Kennedy, C.B., Commandant, 2nd Punjab Cavalry.

Lieutenant-Colonel C. S. Maclean, Commandant, 1st Punjab Cavalry.

Major G. C. Bird, Madras Staff Corps, my Brigade-Major.

Lieutenant W. E. G. Forbes, 2-6th Foot, my Orderly Officer.

Captain S. D. Barrow, Bengal Staff Corps, who up to the time of his being wounded rendered me, as did the two officers named immediately above, throughout the day, valuable service in conveying orders and carrying out the instructions it was necessary for me to give.

Surgeons W. R. Murphy, 19th Bengal Lancers, and P. F. O'Connor, 1st Punjab Cavalry, deserve special thanks for their care of, and attention to, the wounded on the field, often at much risk to themselves from straggling and skulking Afghans.

(The medical officer of the 2nd Punjab Cavalry was unavoidably absent from the brigade).

14. Colonel P. S. Yorke, Commandant, 19th Bengal Lancers, mentions—

Captain G. M. Abbott, Officiating 2nd in Command, who commanded the advanced guard and eventually the scouting party (I would beg to add the above duties were performed to my entire satisfaction).

Lieutenant S. D. Gordon, the Officiating Adjutant, as particularly forward in the pursuit, killing several men to his own sword.

Surgeon W. R. Murphy, in medical charge of the regiment.

Jemadars Manáwar Khan and Khan Mahomed Khan.

Duffadars Mahomed Ishák and Sáiad Khan.

15. Lieutenant-Colonel C. S. Maclean, Commandant, 1st Punjab Cavalry, brings prominently to notice the conduct of—

Major J. R. B. Atkinson, Officiating 2nd in Command, who distinguished himself greatly.

Captain D. S. Cuningham and Lieutenant E. D. J. O'Brien, 40th Foot (attached as probationer),—the latter a very young officer, who had only joined a few days before.

Surgeon P. F. O'Connor.

Rassaldar-Major Mahomed Ali Khan.

Rassaldar Mir Alam Khan.

Ressaibar (Woordi Major) Salim Khan.

Jemadar Hak Newáz Khan.

Kot-Duffadar Karam Khan.

Duffadar Cheyt Sing.

Sowars Jagat Sing and Sirbúland Khan.

16. Colonel T. G. Kennedy, C.B. commanding the 2nd Punjab Cavalry, particularly mentions the spirited leading of his squadron throughout the day, of Captain L. T. Bishop, and the conduct of the senior native officer present, — Ressaibar Jowahir Sing, which was all that could be desired.

THE Queen has been pleased to issue a Commission under Her Majesty's Royal Sign Manual to the effect following, viz. :—

VICTORIA, R.

VICTORIA, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland Queen, Defender of the Faith, to Our right trusty and well-beloved Cousin and Councillor Charles Stanley, Viscount Monck, Knight Grand Cross of Our Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George; Our right trusty and well-beloved Thomas Spring, Baron Monteagle of Brandon; Our trusty and well-beloved Craven Hildesley Dickens, Esq., Companion of Our Most Exalted Order of the Star of India, Lieutenant-General on the Retired List of Our Royal Regiment of Artillery; Our trusty and well-beloved John Philip Nolan, Esq., Major in Our Royal Regiment of Artillery; Our trusty and well-beloved Arthur Loftus Tottenham, Esq., late Captain in Our Army; Our trusty and well-beloved Thomas Alexander Dickson, Esq.; Our trusty and well-beloved Ball Greene, Esq.; and our trusty and well-beloved John Mulholland, Esq., Greeting!

Whereas We have deemed it expedient that a Commission should forthwith issue to inquire respecting the system of Navigation which connects Coleraine, Belfast, and Limerick, and to report to Us,—

1. Whether for the purpose of the navigations generally, the water has been shut up and the drainage power of the country interfered with, and decreased either by the non-removal of natural, or the creation of artificial, obstructions; and, if so, to what extent.

2. If such is the case, whether with reference to the original design of a through system of navigation in connection with the drainage of the country; it is really practicable to combine the two objects; and, if that is impossible, whether the present use, and the possible future success, of the navigations, should be weighed against the immediate and continuous loss to agriculture; or whether the navigations should be in some cases abandoned.

3. If such is not the case, what probability there is of the navigations being utilised within such a reasonable time as would justify an immediate further outlay of public money to put them in order, and a continuous outlay so as to maintain them until the period of use may arrive.

4. If the whole or part of the navigations are to be maintained, what average depth of water is sufficient for practical purposes and under whose direction they should eventually be placed.

Now know ye that We, reposing great trust and confidence in your ability and discretion, have nominated, constituted, and appointed, and do by these presents nominate, constitute, and appoint, you, the said Charles Stanley, Viscount Monck, Thomas Spring, Baron Monteagle of Brandon, Craven Hildesley Dickens, John Philip Nolan, Arthur Loftus Tottenham, Thomas Alexander Dickson, Ball Greene, and John Mulholland, to be Our Commissioners for the purposes of the said Inquiry.

And for the better enabling you, Our said Commissioners, to make the said inquiries, We do by these presents authorize and empower you, or any three or more of you, to call before you, or any three or more of you, such persons as you may judge necessary, by whom you may be the better informed of the matters herein submitted for your consideration, and every matter connected therewith, and to inquire of and concerning the premises by all lawful ways and means whatsoever; and also to call for and examine all such books, documents, papers, or records as you shall judge likely to afford you the fullest information on the subject of this Our Commission, and to inquire of and concerning the premises by all lawful ways and means whatsoever.

And We do further by these presents authorize and empower you, or any three or more of you, to visit and personally inspect such places as you may deem expedient for the more effectual carrying out of the purposes aforesaid.

And Our further will and pleasure is that you, or any three or more of you, do, with as little delay as possible, report to Us under your hands and seals upon the matters referred to you as aforesaid, and that you may have power to certify to Us, from time to time, your several proceedings in respect of the matters aforesaid, if it may seem expedient for you so to do.

And We do further will and command, and by these presents ordain, that this Our Commission shall continue in full force and virtue, and that you, Our said Commissioners, or any three or more of you, shall and may, from time to time, proceed in the execution thereof and of every matter and thing therein contained, although the same be not continued from time to time by adjournment.

And for the purpose of aiding you in such matters, We hereby appoint our trusty and well-beloved Denis Godley, Esq., to be Secretary to this Our Commission.

Given at Our Court at Saint James's, the eighteenth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and eighty, in the forty-fourth year of Our Reign.

POST OFFICE (MONEY ORDERS) ACTS, 1848 AND 1880.

REGULATIONS MADE UNDER THE POST OFFICE (MONEY ORDERS) ACTS, 1848 AND 1880.

WHEREAS the Post Office (Money Orders) Act, 1880, provides that, subject to the Post Office regulations, the Postmaster-General, with the consent of the Treasury, may, for the purpose of the transmission of small sums through the Post Office, authorise his officers, or any of them, to issue orders in the form set forth in the Schedule to that Act, subject, nevertheless, to the provisions contained in the said Act:

And whereas by the Post Office (Money Orders) Acts, 1848 and 1880, the Postmaster-General is authorised, with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, to make Post Office regulations relating to money orders, and to the persons by or to whom money orders shall be paid, and to the times at which and the mode in which the same shall be paid:

Now, therefore, I, the Right Honourable Henry Fawcett, Her Majesty's Postmaster-General, in pursuance of the said Acts, and of all other powers enabling me in this behalf, with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, do hereby order as follows:

1. These regulations shall come into operation on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.

2. Such officer or officers for the time being of the Post Office, as the Postmaster-General from time to time directs, shall superintend the execution of these regulations, and subject to the Post Office regulations, and to such directions as may be from time to time issued by the Postmaster-General, may exercise any authority given by these regulations to the Postmaster-General, and exercise such powers and give such directions as may seem necessary or proper for carrying into effect these regulations.

3. An officer in charge of a money order office in the United Kingdom, and any such officer as may from time to time be authorised in this behalf by the Postmaster-General (which officers are in these regulations referred to as postmasters), may issue and pay money orders in the form set forth in the schedule to the Post Office (Money Orders) Act, 1880, which orders are in these regulations referred to as postal orders.

A postmaster may, subject to any restrictions or directions from time to time given by the Postmaster-General, do by deputy anything under these regulations.

4. Every such postal order shall be for one of the following amounts, and in respect thereof the following poundage shall be paid:—

Amount.	Poundage.
1s.	1d.
1s. 6d.	1d.
2s. 6d.	1d.
5s.	1d.
7s. 6d.	1d.
10s.	2d.
12s. 6d.	2d.
15s.	2d.
17s. 6d.	2d.
20s.	2d.

5. Before a postmaster issues a postal order, the amount of the order and the poundage thereon shall be paid to him; and he shall sign the order and stamp it with the proper stamp, specifying the day of the month in which the order is issued.

6. The postal order shall be printed on such paper and in such characters, and with such distinctive marks, whether on the face of it or in the paper or otherwise, and the amount of the poundage shall be denominated by means of such stamp or mark as the Postmaster-General, with the concurrence of the Commissioners of the Treasury, from time to time directs.

7. (a.) The blanks in a postal order for the name of the person entitled to the money (in these regulations referred to as the payee) and for the name of the money order office at which it is to be paid, may be filled in before or after issue.

(b.) If the blanks are not filled in before issue the person to whom the order is issued must, before parting with it, fill in the name of the payee and may fill in the name of the money order office at which the amount is to be paid.

(c.) The payee must sign the receipt at the foot of the order, and must also fill in the name of the money order office if that has not been already done.

(d.) No alteration can be made in the name of the payee, or of the money order office when once filled in, except by the direction of the Postmaster-General.

8. A postal order presented by or through a banker for payment will not (in the absence of an express arrangement between such banker and the Postmaster-General to the contrary) be paid until after such order has been examined at the chief office.

9. (a.) When a postal order is presented for payment, otherwise than through a banker, the postmaster shall require the receipt for the amount of the order to be first signed, and may refuse payment until he is satisfied that it is signed by or under the authority of the person appearing to be the payee.

(b.) He may also, if the receipt is not signed in his presence, take reasonable means to satisfy himself that the person presenting the order is either the payee or his agent.

(c.) He shall also require the person presenting the order to sign his name on the order before its payment, although the receipt has been already signed.

(d.) Nevertheless, the signature to the receipt shall in all cases be a sufficient authority to the postmaster for the payment of the amount of the order if that signature purports to be the signature of the payee; and it shall not be necessary to prove that the receipt was signed by or under the authority of the payee.

10. (a.) A postal order may be crossed; it may be crossed generally by the addition on its face of the words "and Company," or any abbreviation thereof, between two parallel transverse lines, or of two parallel transverse lines simply; it may be crossed specially by the addition on its face of the name of a banker, in which case the order shall be deemed to be crossed to that banker.

(b.) A postal order which is crossed generally may be crossed specially.

(c.) A banker to whom a postal order is crossed may again cross it specially to another banker as his agent for collection.

(d.) Where a postal order is crossed generally, a postmaster shall refuse to pay it except to a banker.

(e.) Where a postal order is crossed specially, a postmaster shall refuse to pay it except to the banker to whom it is crossed or to his agent for collection.

(f.) Where a postal order is crossed specially to more than one banker, except when crossed to an agent for the purpose of collection, a postmaster shall refuse payment thereof.

11. If a postal order which is crossed, whether generally or specially, is presented for payment by or through a banker, with the name of such banker written or stamped upon the face thereof, that name may be accepted as a sufficient receipt for the amount of the order, and the order may be paid without any other receipt:

Provided that where the order is crossed specially to a second banker as agent for collection the name of such second banker, written or stamped upon the face of the order, may be accepted as a receipt under this regulation.

An order which is crossed generally or specially, if presented for payment by or through a banker, may be paid at any money order office in the United Kingdom, notwithstanding that the blank has been filled in with the name of some particular money order office.

12. After the expiration of three months from the last day of the month in which any such order is issued, the order shall be payable only on payment in the manner for the time being directed by the Postmaster-General of a commission equal to the amount of the original poundage, with the addition, if more than three months have elapsed since the said expiration, of the amount of the original poundage for every further period of three months which has so elapsed, and for every portion of any such period of three months over and above every complete period.

13. A postal order will be payable during the hours for the time being appointed for money order business at the money order office at which it is presented for payment.

14. If a postal order presented for payment has any erasure or alteration, or is cut, defaced, or mutilated, the postmaster may refuse payment and refer the person presenting it to the Postmaster-General.

15. A postmaster may refuse or delay the payment of a postal order, but shall immediately report such delay or refusal, with his reasons for it, to the Postmaster-General.

16. A postmaster upon paying a postal order shall immediately stamp it with the proper stamp specifying the date, and thereby cancel the order.

17. The payment of the amount of a postal order to whomsoever made shall discharge the Postmaster-General and his officers from all liability whatsoever in respect of that order, notwithstanding any forgery, fraud, mistake, or loss which may have been committed or have occurred in reference to such order or to the procuring thereof, or to obtaining the payment thereof, and notwithstanding any disregard of these regulations, and notwithstanding anything whatsoever.

18. These regulations shall apply to the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man, and the expression "United Kingdom" shall be deemed to include the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man.

19. In these regulations—

The expression "Postmaster-General" means the Postmaster-General for the time being:

The masculine includes the feminine, and the plural includes the singular and the singular includes the plural:

The expression "post office regulations" means regulations from time to time made in pursuance of the Post Office (Money Orders) Acts, 1848 and 1880.

In witness whereof, I, the said Henry Fawcett, Her Majesty's Postmaster-General, have hereunto set my hand this eleventh day of October, one thousand eight hundred and eighty.

Henry Fawcett.

We, the undersigned, being two of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, do hereby signify the consent of the same Commissioners to the above regulations.

SOLDIERS' BALANCES UNCLAIMED.

IN pursuance of the "Regimental Debts Act, 1863," notice is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department has available, for distribution amongst the Next of Kin or others entitled, the sum of money set opposite to the name of each of the deceased soldiers named in the list which is published with this notice in the London Gazette, and the "Army List," and is also to be seen at the Brigade Depôts and at the Quarters of the several Staff Officers for the Pension Service throughout the United Kingdom.

Applications from persons supposing themselves entitled as Next of Kin should be addressed by letter to "The Under Secretary of State, War Office, London, S.W.," and marked outside "Soldier's Effects."

No application can be attended to which does not state the date and place of the soldier's birth, enlistment, and death, and the name of his regiment; his regimental number should also be stated if known.

Should these particulars furnished by the applicant not agree with the facts recorded on the War Office documents relating to the deceased soldier, the applicant will be so informed; but should they agree therewith, then within three calendar months the Secretary of State will furnish the applicant with the usual requirements needed for the proof of the alleged relationship.

The application must be authenticated by the signature of the applicant, and his name should be affixed in the presence of the clergyman, or one of the churchwardens of the parish, or a Justice of the Peace; the applicant's address, with the name of the post town, must also be clearly stated. No personal application can receive attention.

Further lists will from time to time be published, and therefore it will facilitate the applicant's inquiries to give the number and date of the notice in which the deceased soldier's name appeared.—EFFECTS, 1879-80.

By order of the said Principal Secretary,

RALPH THOMPSON.

NOTE.—A copy of this Notice is to be seen at the Brigade Depôts and at the Quarters of the several Staff Officers for the Pension Service throughout the United Kingdom.
