

AT the Court at Holyrood Palace, the 26th day of August, 1881.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The County Courts Act 1846" it is, among other things, enacted that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that the said Act be put in force in such county or counties as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, shall seem fit, and to divide the whole or part of any such county (including all counties of cities and counties of towns, cities, boroughs, towns, ports, and places, liberties, and franchises therein contained or thereunto adjoining), into districts, and to order that the County Court should be holden for the recovery of debts and demands under the said Act in each of such districts, and from time to time to alter such districts as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, shall seem fit, and from time to time to declare by what name, and in what towns and places, the County Court shall be holden in each district:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased by an Order in Council of the ninth day of March one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, to order that the said Act be put in force in the counties and places therein specified, and the same was put in force accordingly:

And whereas by certain other Acts made and passed in the thirteenth, in the fourteenth, in the sixteenth, in the twentieth, in the twenty-second, in the twenty-ninth, in the thirty-first, and in the thirty-ninth years of the reign of Her Majesty, the provisions of the said recited Act have been amended and extended:

And whereas it hath been represented that it would be of advantage to the public that the County Court now holden at Poulton-le-Fylde should be holden at Blackpool instead of at Poulton-le-Fylde:

Her Majesty, having taken the premises into consideration, is thereupon pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the thirtieth day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, the County Court now holden by the name of "The County Court of Lancashire holden at Poulton-le-Fylde," shall be holden by the name of "The County Court of Lancashire holden at Blackpool," and the said County Court now holden at Poulton-le-Fylde shall be holden from such time aforesaid at Blackpool instead of at Poulton-le-Fylde.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Holyrood Palace, the 26th day of August, 1881.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of Her present Majesty (chapter forty-five) entitled "An Act to amend the Law of Copyright," it is enacted that it shall not be lawful for any person not being the proprietor of the copyright, or some person authorized by him, to import into any part of the British Dominions, for sale or hire, any printed book first composed or written or printed or published in any part of the United Kingdom wherein there shall be copyright, and reprinted in any country or place whatsoever out of the British Dominions.

And whereas by an Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the tenth and eleventh years of the reign of Her present Majesty entitled "An Act to amend the Law relating to the "Protection in the Colonies of Works entitled to "Copyright in the United Kingdom," it is amongst other things enacted that in case the Legislature or proper Legislative authorities in any British possession shall be disposed to make due provision for securing or protecting the rights of British authors in such Possession and shall pass an Act or make an Ordinance for that purpose, and shall transmit the same in the proper manner to the Secretary of State, in order that it may be submitted to Her Majesty, and in case Her Majesty shall be of opinion that such Act or Ordinance is sufficient for the purpose of securing to British authors reasonable protection within such Possession, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, if She think fit so to do, to express Her Royal approval of such Act or Ordinance, and thereupon to issue an Order in Council declaring that so long as the provisions of such Act or Ordinance continue in force within such Colony the prohibitions contained in the aforesaid Acts, and hereinbefore recited, and any prohibitions contained in the said Acts or in any other Acts against the importing selling letting out to hire, exposing for sale or hire, or possessing foreign reprints of books first composed, written, printed, or published in the United Kingdom, and entitled to copyright therein, shall be suspended so far as regards such Colony, and thereupon such Act or Ordinance shall come into operation, except so far as may be otherwise provided therein, or as may be otherwise directed by such Order in Council, anything in the said last-recited Act or in any other Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

And whereas in pursuance of the powers vested in the Local Legislature of the Colony of St. Vincent an Ordinance No. 34 of the 21st day of November 1878 has been passed "To consolidate the Law regulating the importation of books "being foreign reprints of books first composed "or written or printed or reprinted or published "in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and "Ireland and in which there may be any copyright."

And whereas the said Ordinance has been approved by Her Majesty.

Now therefore it is hereby ordered by Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council that so long as the provisions of the said Ordinance continue in force within the said Colony the prohibitions contained in the hereinbefore first-recited Act or in any other Act or Acts of the Imperial Parliament against the importing, selling, letting out to hire, exposing for sale or hire, or possessing foreign reprints of books first composed, written, printed, or published in the United Kingdom and entitled to copyright therein shall be suspended so far as regards the said Colony of St. Vincent.

And the Right Honourable the Earl of Kimberley one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. L. Peel.
