AT the Court at Windsor, the 27th day of February, 1882.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty chapter thirty-seven duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the second day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty chapter thirty-seven have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for assigning the right of patronage of each of the following two new parishes, namely, the new parish of Saint Andrew, situate at Wakefield in the county of York and in the diocese of Ripon and the new parish of Saint Mary also situate at Wakefield aforesaid.

"Whereas by an Order of your Majesty in Council bearing date the third day of September in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, and published in the London Gazette on the fourth day of October in the same year, each of the said two new parishes was under the Act hereinbefore mentioned constituted out of the parish of Wakefield in the said county of York and in the said diocese of Ripon, as a district by the name of 'The District of Saint Andrew, Wakefield,' and 'The District of Saint Mary Wakefield' respectively, and each of the same two districts has since become and now as aforesaid is a new parish, under the provisions of the same Act.

"And whereas no specific assignment of the whole or any part of the right of patronage and nomination of the respective ministers of the said two districts or either of them or (as the case might be) of the respective incumbents of the said two new parishes or either of them was made by the said Order, and such right of patronage and nomination has in each of the said two cases hitherto continued to be exercised in accordance with the directions in that behalf contained in the said Act.

"And whereas Frances Rebecca Disney Robinson, Widow, of Frogmore, Torquay, in the county of Devon has paid to the credit of our account at the Bank of England two capital sums, namely a sum of one thousand pounds sterling and a sum of twelve hundred pounds sterling upon the understanding and to the intent that we should hold the same two capital sums in trust as to one of them (namely the said sum of one thousand pounds sterling) for or towards the augmentation of the endowment of the said new parish of Saint Andrew Wakefield, and as to the other of them (namely the said sum of twelve hundred pounds sterling) for or towards the augmentation of the endowment of the said new parish of Saint Mary, Wakefield, and we have in respect of the said two capital sums respectively agreed with the said Frances Rebecca Disney Robinson that we will pay by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year to the vicars or incumbents respectively of the said new parishes of Saint Andrew, Wakefield, and Saint Mary Wakefield (being duly licensed thereto respectively) the following yearly sums that is to say: in the case of the new parish of Saint Andrew, Wakefield, the yearly sum of thirty-three pounds six shillings and eightpence; and in the case of the new parish of Saint Mary Wakefield, the yearly sum of forty pounds; so long as the said capital sum in respect of which such yearly payment as aforesaid is to be, respectively made shall remain in our hands.

"And whereas the said two capital sums of one thousand pounds sterling and twelve hundred pounds sterling respectively were so paid to us by the said Frances Rebecca Disney Robinson as aforesaid upon the further understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said new parish of Saint Andrew Wakefield, and of the nomination of the vicar or incumbent thereto and the whole right of patronage of the said new parish of Saint Mary Wakefield, and of the nomination of the vicar or incumbent thereto should be assigned to the said Frances Rebecca Disney Robinson and her heirs and assigns as is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"Now therefore we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said new parish of Saint Andrew Wakefield, and of the nomination of the vicar or incumbent thereto, and also the whole right of patronage of the said new parish of Saint Mary Wakefield, and of the nomination of the vicar or incumbent thereto, shall without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Frances Rebecca Disney Robinson and her heirs and assigns for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Ripon.
