Board of Trade, Whitehall Gardens, November 9, 1885.

THE Board of Trade have received from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs a Despatch from Her Majesty's Consul at Panama, reporting that, in virtue of a recent decree of the Government of the United States of Colombia, custom-houses will be established at the ports of Panama and Colon on and from the 1st December next. The same duties are to be levied at these custom-houses as are charged by the other custom-houses of the Republic as "Importation Duties," with a reduction of forty per cent. The regulations in force at other custom-houses will apply equally to Panama and Colon, and it will, consequently, be necessary for vessels trading to those ports to bring a manifest, or "Sobordo," and invoices of their cargoes, certified by the Colombian Consular Agent at the port of despatch.

The Despatch may be seen on application at the Commercial Department of the Board of Trade, 7, Whitehall-gardens, S.W.
