THE Board of Trade have received through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs a Despatch from Her Majesty's Consul-General at Constantinople, transmitting a copy of a circular issued by the Ottoman Board of Health, of which the following is a translation:—

Circular Telegram, addressed to Health Offices on the 4th November, 1885.

By decision of the Council, the quarantine on arrivals from the Mediterranean coasts of France and Italy, those of Sicily excepted, is reduced from 10 to 5 full days, to be undergone in one of the lazarets at Smyrna, Beyrout, Tripoli (Africa), or Vallona. Arrivals from Spain, Algeria, Tunis, and Sicily remain as hitherto, subject to 10 full days. A visit from a medical officer is substituted for the quarantine of observation on arrival of passengers from Varna, Bourgas, Odessa, the ports of Roumania, Trieste, and Egypt. Arrivals from Gibraltar are also admitted to free pratique after a visit from the medical officer. These regulations commence from this date, except for ships now in quarantine which remain subject to the former regulations.
