10. (1.) Upon every transfer of the ownership of any vessel registered under these Bye-laws, the person becoming the owner thereof shall forthwith give to the Conservators notice in writing of such transfer, and the Conservators shall thereupon, without charge, grant to him a fresh certificate or license, as the case may be, for the period for which the existing certificate or license shall be unexpired, and shall cause his name to be inserted in the Register in the place of that of the former owner, and until such notice shall have been given, the former owner shall for all the purposes of the "Thames Acts, 1857 to 1883," and the "Thames Preservation Act, 1885," and of these Bye-laws, and of all other bye-laws, rules, orders, and regulations of the Conservators for the time being in force, be deemed to be the owner of such vessel.

(2.) Upon every such transfer of ownership the person previously registered as the owner of such vessel shall return to the Conservators at their office, 41, Trinity-square, Tower Hill, London, the certificate or license, as the case may be, for the time being in force in respect of such vessel.

(4.) From and after the granting of such fresh certificate or license, the person to whom the same is granted shall have the vessel, in respect of which the same is granted, marked as if such fresh certificate or license were the first certificate or license in respect of such vessel.

11. (1.) Notwithstanding anything in the foregoing Bye-laws contained, it shall be lawful for the Conservators if, in the case of any particular vessel, they shall think fit by writing under the hand of their Secretary to require or sanction the marking of any vessel in some manner different from that required under the foregoing Bye-laws, and in such case such vessel shall be marked according to such writing.

Provided always, that nothing in this sub-section contained shall prevent any person from placing upon any vessel the name either of the owner or of the vessel.

(5.) Every license or certificate of registration when issued shall be subject to the condition that the owner or other person in charge of the vessel to which the same relates shall, on demand, produce and show the license plate, or owner's or vessel's number, as the case may be, to any officer of the Conservators, to any Proctor of the University of Oxford, any Marshall, or officer acting under any such Proctor, any officer or constable of the Metropolitan Police, and to any police officer or constable acting for any of the counties of Surrey, Berkshire, Wiltshire, Gloucester, Oxford, Buckingham, or Middlesex, or the city of Oxford, or any other borough, the police jurisdiction of which extends to any place upon the River Thames within the limits aforesaid.

(6.) The owner or other person in charge of every vessel on the Thames, shall obey and conform to the directions of every officer of the Conservators, and of every person for the time being in the employ of the Conservators, who shall have been sworn in as a police constable under section 25 of the "Thames Preservation Act, 1885."

(7.) No house-boat or steam launch shall lie or loiter in any part of the River Thames from time to time marked off by the Conservators, or defined by notice boards set up by them as being a part of the river in which no house-boat or steam launch shall lie or loiter: Provided always, that nothing in this sub-section shall prevent any vessel from remaining during any regatta, boat-race, procession, or other special occasion, at such place, and for such a length of time as may be sanctioned by the Conservators, or any of their officers.

12. (1.) No person shall, while using, or while in, upon, or about the River Thames, or the banks or towpaths thereof, or any land acquired by the Conservators, by virtue of the "Thames Preservation Act, 1885," do, or cause, or incite any other person to do, any of the acts specified in the following sub-sections of this Bye-law.

(2.) Commit any offence against decency, or be otherwise disorderly.

(3.) Use obscene, scandalous, abusive, indecent, or improper language, to the annoyance of any person who shall lawfully be using, or who shall lawfully be in, upon, or about the River Thames, or the banks or towpaths thereof, or any land belonging to or acquired by the Conservators.

(4.) Bathe without proper bathing dress or drawers.

(5.) Bathe or prepare to bathe at any place where or between any hours when bathing is for the time being prohibited by the Conservators.

(7.) Commit any trespass upon any dwelling-house bordering upon or near to the river, or in anywise coming within the description of a riparian dwelling-house, or upon any curtilage or garden belonging to such dwelling-house.

(8.) Navigate or be concerned in navigating, or be in, upon, or about any of the places specified in sub-section 1 of this Bye-law, whilst in a state of intoxication.

(9.) Cast or throw into, or upon, or place, or cause or suffer to fall or flow into or upon any of the places specified in sub-section 1 of this Bye-law, any rubbish or any offensive matter or thing.

(10.) Destroy or injure any flowering or other plant, or any shrub, vegetation, tree, wood, or underwood.

(11.) Light, maintain, throw down, place or leave any fire, or any flaming, smouldering or burning substance, matter or thing, in any place where the same may cause any danger or damage to property of any kind or reasonable annoyance to any person.

(12.) Kill, injure, take, catch or trap, or attempt to kill, injure, take, catch or trap any bird, or the young of any bird or animal: Provided always, that this sub-section shall not extend to prevent any person employed by the Conservators, or acting under the consent of the Conservators, from killing vermin, or shall affect any right of fowling, shooting, hunting, or sporting, existing on the fourteenth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five.

(13.) Take, destroy, search for, or disturb the nest of any bird.

(14.) Destroy, injure, disturb, or take out of, or remove from the nest, whether permanently or temporarily, the egg of any bird.

(15.) Move, injure, or deface any notice, notice board, work, or thing whatsoever, the property or in charge of the Conservators, or set up by them or with their consent.

(16.) Do any act injuriously affecting the safety or amenity of the river.

13. Any person guilty of any act or default in contravention of any of these bye-laws shall be liable to a penalty of, and shall forfeit a sum not exceeding, forty shillings, and any person who shall after due notice repeat or continue any such act or default, shall be liable to a penalty of, and shall forfeit a sum not exceeding five pounds.

14. Provided always, that nothing in these Bye-laws shall be construed to in anywise prejudice or prejudicially affect any remedy of the Conservators now existing, or shall interfere with or diminish any powers of the Conservators, or shall be construed to deprive any riparian owner of any legal rights in the soil or bed of the river which he may at the time of the passing of the "Thames Preservation Act, 1885," have possessed, or of any legal remedies which he may then have had for preventing the anchoring, mooring, loitering or delay of any vessel, or to give any riparian owner any right as against the public which he did not possess before the passing of the said Act, to exclude any person from entering upon or navigating any back-water, creek, channel, bay, inlet, or other water, whether deemed to be part of the River Thames, as in the said Act defined or not, or shall be construed to render dispensable or punishable, in any less manner or degree, any act or default now by law punishable.
