War Office, October 6, 1886.

THE Queen has been pleased to issue a Commission under Her Majesty's Royal Sign Manual to the following effect:—

VICTORIA, R.

VICTORIA, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland Queen, Defender of the Faith—

To Our trusty and well-beloved Sir James Fitzjames Stephen, Knight Commander of the Most Exalted Order of the Star of India, a Judge of Our High Court of Justice;

To Our trusty and well-beloved Sir Archibald Alison, Baronet, Knight Commander of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Lieutenant-General in Our Army;

To Our trusty and well-beloved Sir Walter Barttelot Barttelot, Baronet, Companion of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath;

To Our trusty and well-beloved Nowell Salmon, Esquire, Companion of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, a Vice-Admiral in Our Navy; and

To Our trusty and well-beloved John Percy, Esquire, Doctor of Medicine, Fellow of the Royal Society;

Greeting!

Whereas we deem it expedient that a Commission should issue for the purpose of inquiring into the system under which patterns of warlike stores are adopted and the stores obtained and passed for Our Service:

Now know ye, that We, reposing great trust and confidence in your zeal, discretion, and ability, have authorized and appointed, and by these presents do authorize and appoint you the said Sir James Fitzjames Stephen, Sir Archibald Alison, Sir Walter Barttelot Barttelot, Nowell Salmon, and John Percy, or any three or more of you, to be Our Commissioners for the purpose aforesaid:

And We do give and grant to you, or to any three or more of you, full power and authority to call before you and to examine all persons whom you may consider competent, by reason of their knowledge, habits, or experience, to afford you information on the subject of your enquiry, and of every matter connected therewith; and We do hereby empower you to call for, have access to, and examine all such official books, papers, and records as may appear to you, or to any three or more of you, likely to be of use in affording you the fullest information:

And We do further by these presents give and grant unto you, or any three or more of you, full power and authority, when the same shall appear to be requisite, to administer an oath to any person whatsoever to be examined before you, or any three or more of you, touching or concerning the premises:

And We do hereby require and command you, or any three or more of you, to enquire into and report to Us under your hands and seals, with all convenient speed, upon the system under which the patterns of warlike stores are adopted and the stores obtained and passed for Our Service, and whether any improvement can be effected in that system:

Also to enquire into and report to Us upon the complaints which may have been made since the first day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, as to any warlike stores then or now in use in Our Service:

Also to report to Us as to the persons—if any—responsible for any defects which you may find to have existed during the same period in the warlike stores passed into Our Service:

And We Will and Command, and by these presents ordain, that this Our Commission shall continue in full force and virtue, and that you, Our said Commissioners, or any three or more of you, may from time to time proceed in the execution thereof, although the same be not continued from time to time by adjournment:

And, We hereby command all and singular Our Justices of the Peace, Sheriffs, Mayors, Bailiffs, Constables, Officers, Ministers, and all other Our loving subjects whatsoever, as well within liberties as without, that they be assistant to you and each of you in the execution of these presents:

And for your assistance in the due execution of this Our Commission, We have made choice of Our trusty and well-beloved James Alleyne, Esquire, Colonel in Our Army, to be Secretary to this Our Commission, and to attend you, whose services and assistance, as well as the services and assistance of such clerks and other persons as may appear to you to be necessary, We require you to use from time to time as occasion shall require.

Given at Our Court at Balmoral, this twenty-seventh day of September, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, in the fiftieth year of Our reign.

By Her Majesty's Command,

W. H. Smith.

Foreign Office, September 13, 1886.

THE Queen has been graciously pleased to appoint Sir Charles Bullen Hugh Mitchell, K.C.M.G., Governor of Fiji and High Commissioner for the Western Pacific, to be also Her Majesty's Consul-General for the Western Pacific Islands.
