Instructions for Vaccinators under Contract.

(1.) Except so far as any immediate danger of small-pox may require, vaccinate only subjects who are in good health. As regards infants, ascertain that there is not any febrile state, nor any irritation of the bowels, nor any unhealthy state of skin; especially no chafing or eczema behind the ears, or in the groin, or elsewhere in folds of skin. Do not, except of necessity, vaccinate in cases where there has been recent exposure to the infection of measles or scarlatina, nor where erysipelas is prevailing in or about the place of residence.

(2.) In all ordinary cases of primary vaccination make such insertions of lymph as will produce at least four separate good-sized vesicles or groups of vesicles, not less than half an inch from one another. The total area of vesiculation on the same day in the week following the vaccination should not be less than half a square inch.

(3.) Direct that care be taken for keeping the vesicles uninjured during their progress, and for avoiding afterwards the premature removal of the crusts. Do not use any needless means of "protection" or of "dressing" to a vaccinated arm; but if in a particular case you find reason for means of "protection" or of "dressing," define the material and the manner of use of the appliance best adapted to the case, avoiding all such as cannot readily be destroyed and replaced whenever they become soiled.

(4.) Enter all cases in your Register on the day when you vaccinate them, and with all particulars required in the Register up to and including the column headed "Initials of Person performing the Operation." Enter the results on the day of inspection. Each of those entries must be attested by the initials of the person who inspects the case. In cases of primary vaccination, register as "successful" only those cases in which the normal vaccine vesicle has been produced; in cases of re-vaccination, register as "successful" only those cases in which either vesicles, normal or modified, or papules surrounded by areolæ, have resulted. When any operation (whether vaccination or re-vaccination) has to be repeated owing to want of success in the first instance, it should be entered as a fresh case in the Register.

(5.) Endeavour to maintain in your district such a succession of cases as will enable you to vaccinate with liquid lymph directly from arm to arm at each of your Contract attendances; and do not, under ordinary circumstances, adopt any other method of vaccinating. To provide against emergencies, always have in reserve some stored lymph; either dry on ivory points, thickly charged and constantly well protected from damp; or liquid, in fine, short, uniformly capillary (not bulbous) tubes, hermetically sealed at both extremities. Lymph, successfully preserved by either of these methods, may be used without definite restrictions as to time. With all stored lymph caution is necessary, lest in time it have become inert, or otherwise unfit for use.

(6.) Consider yourself strictly responsible for the quality of whatever lymph you use or furnish for vaccination. Never either use or furnish lymph which has in it any, even the slightest, admixture of blood. In storing lymph, be careful to keep separate the charges obtained from different subjects, and to affix to each set of charges the name, or the number in your Register, of the subject from whom the lymph was derived. Keep such note of all supplies of lymph which you use or furnish as will always enable you to identify the origin of the lymph. Do not employ lymph supplied by any person who does not keep exact record of its source.

(7.) Never take lymph from cases of re-vaccination. Take lymph only from subjects who are in good health, and, as far as you can ascertain, of healthy parentage; preferring children whose families are known to you, and who have elder brothers or sisters of undoubted healthiness. Always carefully examine the subject as to any existing skin disease, and especially as to any signs of hereditary syphilis. Do not take lymph from children who have any sort of sore at or about the anus. Take lymph only from well-characterised, uninjured vesicles. Take it at the stage when the vesicles are fully formed and plump. Do not take it from a vesicle around which there is any conspicuous commencement of areola. Open the vesicles with scrupulous care to avoid drawing blood. Take no lymph which, as it issues from the vesicle, is not perfectly clear and transparent, or which is thin and watery. From a well-formed vesicle of ordinary size, do not, except under circumstances of necessity, take more lymph than will suffice for the immediate vaccination of five subjects, or for the charging of seven ivory points, or for the filling of three capillary tubes; and from larger or smaller vesicles, take only in like proportion to their size. Never squeeze or scrape or drain any vesicle, and do not use lymph that has run down the skin. Be careful never to transfer blood from the subject you vaccinate to the subject from whom you take lymph.

(8.) Scrupulously observe in your inspections every sign which tests the efficiency and purity of your lymph. Note any case wherein the vaccine vesicle is unduly hastened or otherwise irregular in its development, or wherein any undue local irritation arises; and if similar results ensue in other cases vaccinated with the same lymph, desist at once from employing it. Consider that your lymph ought to be changed, if your cases, at the usual time of inspection on the day week after vaccination, show any conspicuous areolæ round their vesicles.

(9.) Keep in good condition the lancets or other instruments which you use for vaccinating, and do not use them for any other purpose whatever. When you vaccinate, have water and a napkin at your side, with which invariably to cleanse your instrument after one operation before proceeding to another. Never use an ivory point or capillary tube a second time either for the conveyance or for the storage of lymph, but when points or tubes have once been charged with lymph and put to their proper use, do not fail to break or otherwise destroy them.

INSTRUMENT substituting the New Church of Saint Elizabeth, within the Parish of Dolwyddelan, for the Old Church of Saint Gwyddelan, in the county of Carnarvon, and Diocese of Bangor.

To all to whom these presents shall come, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England send greeting:

WHEREAS a new church has lately been built within the parish of Dolwyddelan, in the county of Carnarvon, and in the diocese of Bangor, and has been consecrated and dedicated to Saint Elizabeth.

And whereas the Right Reverend James Colquhoun, Bishop of the said diocese of Bangor, and the Right Honourable Clementina Elizabeth, Baroness Willoughby de Eresby, the patron of the vicarage of the said parish of Dolwyddelan, and the Reverend Pierce Jones, Clerk in Holy Orders, the Vicar or Incumbent of the same vicarage, have, by an instrument under their hands, bearing date on or about the seventeenth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, certified to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, that it would be for the convenience of the said parish of Dolwyddelan, that the said new church of Saint Elizabeth, situate within such parish, should be substituted for the old parish church (dedicated to Saint Gwyddelan) of the same parish.

Now, therefore, we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in exercise and execution of the power or authority in that behalf contained in the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her present Majesty, chapter seventy, and in the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said Majesty, chapter fifty-five, and of all other powers or authorities in anywise enabling us in the same behalf, do, by this instrument under our common seal, with the consents (testified as hereinafter mentioned) of the said James Colquhoun, Bishop of the said diocese of Bangor, and of the said Clementina Elizabeth Baroness Willoughby de Eresby, and of the said Pierce Jones, hereby declare that the said new church of Saint Elizabeth, situate within the said parish of Dolwyddelan, and duly consecrated as aforesaid, shall be, and the same is hereby, substituted for the said old parish church (dedicated to Saint Gwyddelan as aforesaid) of the same parish, and that such new church shall henceforth be the parish church of the said parish of Dolwyddelan, in lieu of the said old parish church of Saint Gwyddelan as fully in all respects as if the said new church of Saint Elizabeth, so hereby substituted, had been originally the parish church of the same parish.

In the Matter of the Companies Acts, 1862 and 1867, and in the Matter of the Bank of Egypt.

THE Directors of the above-named Bank (hereinafter referred to as the "Old Bank") beg to announce, that by special leave of his Lordship Mr. Justice Stirling, the pending scheme for the reconstruction of the Old Bank, rendered necessary by the lapse of the Charter, will be submitted for the consideration and approval of the Court, on Thursday, the 10th day of March, 1887, and that on that day the Court will be moved before his Lordship Mr. Justice Stirling, by Counsel, on the part of the Right Honourable David Plunket, the Honourable Sidney Carr Glyn, Arthur Riversdale Grenfell, Henry Cassels Kay, and Greville Horsley Palmer, the petitioners in this matter:—1. That the Provisional Official Liquidators of the Old Bank may be at liberty forthwith to pay to the shareholders of the Old Bank a dividend of £1 12s. 6d. per share on the shares in the Bank held by them respectively, being the dividend which, in the Report of the Directors of the Old Bank, dated the 27th January, 1887, it was proposed to pay out of the sum of £21,724 18s. 2d. net profits made in the year 1886. 2. That upon the Order to wind up the Old Bank, Greville Horsley Palmer, the Honourable Sidney Carr Glyn, and Henry Cassels Kay, the Provisional Official Liquidators aforesaid, may forthwith be appointed Official Liquidators of the Old Bank, with all proper directions as to accounts and security. 3. That upon the Order to wind up the Old Bank an Order may forthwith be made, directing that all such property, real and personal, including all interest, claims, and rights, into and out of property as may belong to or be vested in the Old Bank, or to or in any person or persons in trust for or on behalf of the Old Bank, may vest in the Official Liquidators by their official names. 4. That the provisional agreement for the reconstruction of the Old Bank, dated the 24th day of February, 1887, and made between the said Greville Horsley Palmer, the Honourable Sidney Carr Glyn, and Henry Cassels Kay of the one part, and the Bank of Egypt Limited (hereinafter referred to as "the New Bank") of the other part, may be sanctioned and confirmed, and that an Order be made directing the same to be carried in effect. Under the reconstruction agreement above referred to:—(1.) The undertaking of the Old

Bank is to be transferred as a going concern to the New Bank, which has been incorporated with a capital of £500,000, divided into 20,000 shares of £25 each; (2.) The New Bank is to undertake all the debts and liabilities of the Old Bank, and is to allot to each shareholder in the Old Bank two £25 shares, with £12 10s. per share credited as paid up in respect of each £25 share in the Old Bank, thus preserving as a reserve the liability, in the event of winding up, which is imposed on the shareholders in the Old Bank by the Charter. Each shareholder is to have the right to claim payment of the value of his interest in the assets of the Old Bank in lieu of taking up his shares in the New Bank, on giving notice within seven days from the date of the Order sanctioning this agreement; (3.) the New Bank is to execute a deed of covenant in favour of the creditors of the Old Bank, and the Liquidators are to have a lien by way of floating charge upon the undertaking of the New Bank as a security for the performance of the New Bank's obligations under this agreement. The said agreement may be inspected, and all other information obtained, at the office of Messrs. Bircham and Co., No. 50, Old Broad-street, London, E.C., Solicitors. The New Bank will take possession immediately after this agreement is sanctioned, and in the meantime the business is to be carried on by the three Directors who have been appointed for this purpose by the Court.—Dated this 28th day of February, 1887.
