THE ANIMALS (AMENDMENT) ORDER OF 1887, No. 3.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 25th day of August, 1887.

By Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT:

Marquis of Lothian.
 Lord John Manners.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Acts, 1878 to 1886, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

Regulations of Local Authority as to Cleansing and Disinfection of Places used for Temporary Detention of Swine.

1.—(1.) Any Local Authority may, with the view of preventing the spreading of swine-fever, make, from time to time, such Regulations as they think fit for the following purposes, or any of them:

(a.) For requiring the owner, lessee, or occupier of any building, shed, outhouse, yard, sty, field, orchard, or other place (not being a lair or other place mentioned in Article 115 (Regulations of Local Authority as to Cleansing and Disinfection of Markets &c.) of The Animals Order of 1886) used for the temporary keeping or detention of swine prior to their being exposed for sale in or at a market, fair, sale-yard, place of exhibition, or other public or private place where swine are commonly exposed for sale, to cleanse such building, shed, outhouse, yard, sty, field, orchard, or other place from time to time at his own expense:

(b.) For requiring the owner, lessee, or occupier of such building, shed, outhouse, yard, sty, field, orchard, or other place to disinfect the same, or any specified part thereof, from time to time, at his own expense, where, in the judgment of the Local Authority, the circumstances are such as to allow of such disinfection being reasonably required:

(c.) For prescribing the mode in which such cleansing and such disinfection are to be effected.

(2.) If the owner, lessee, or occupier of any such building, shed, outhouse, yard, sty, field, orchard, or other place fails in any respect to observe any such Regulation he shall be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1878, and where the owner, lessee, or occupier of such building, shed, outhouse, yard, sty, field, orchard, or other place fails to cleanse and disinfect in accordance with any such Regulation, it shall be lawful for the Local Authority, without prejudice to the recovery of any penalty for the infringement of such Regulation, to cause the same to be cleansed and disinfected, and to recover the expenses of such cleansing and disinfection from such owner, lessee, or occupier in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Amendment of Article 180 (Ascertainment of Value for Compensation) of The Animals Order of 1886.

2. Article 180 of The Animals Order of 1886 shall be read and have effect as if fourteen days instead of six days were prescribed by the first paragraph of the said Article as the period after the slaughter within which the Local Authority shall give to the owner of the animal notice in writing of the valuation thereof made by them.

Interpretation.

3. In this Order—
 The Act of 1878 means The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878:
 Other terms have the same meaning as in the Act of 1878.

Short Title.

4. This Order may be cited as THE ANIMALS (AMENDMENT) ORDER OF 1887, No. 3.

Commencement.

5. This Order shall commence and take effect from and immediately after the thirty-first day of August, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven.

C. L. Peel.

(PLEURO-PNEUMONIA.)

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 25th day of August, 1887.

By Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Acts, 1878 to 1886, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

1. The following Place (namely),—a Place situate partly in the burgh of Stirling and partly in the county of Stirling comprising the premises at Raploch occupied by Robert
