(2.) When by reason of the transfer of any sum from the account of a deceased depositor the sum standing to the credit of the trustees or treasurer of a charitable society exceeds £300, exclusive of interest, or the sum standing to the credit of any other depositor exceeds £200 in the whole, the depositor shall be required to withdraw any sum in excess of the respective limit aforesaid.

Division of Sums Nominated.

15. A nomination may be in favour of one person or of several persons, and in the latter case, may direct that specific sums shall be paid to one or more of the persons named in the nomination, or that the persons named in such nomination may take the deposits in specified shares, or may give directions to both effects.

(2.) If upon the decease of a depositor the sums due to him or to his estate exceed £100, any nomination made by such depositor shall take effect as regards any sum or sums to which the same relates, not exceeding £100, in like manner as if it were a will of the deceased depositor duly executed, but shall not take effect in any other manner, and a nomination shall not in such case be deemed void because the depositor was a minor at the time such nomination was made.

(3.) In any such case as last aforesaid, the trustees may, subject to the provisions of this Regulation, pay any sum or sums to which a nomination relates, not exceeding in the aggregate £100, according to the directions of such nomination, notwithstanding the production of probate of the will of a deceased depositor, or letters of administration to his estate,

Effect of Transfer on Nomination of Deposits in the Post Office Savings Bank.

19.—(1.) When deposits are transferred from the Post Office Savings Bank to a Trustee Savings Bank, any nomination made with respect to such deposits while in the Post Office Savings Bank, shall (if such nomination is brought to the notice of the trustees) be deemed to hold good with respect to deposits in the Trustee Savings Bank.

Succession and Legacy Duties.

22.—(1.) If the total personal property of any deceased depositor exceeds £100, any sum which may under these Regulations be paid otherwise than to the legal personal representative of the depositor, shall, notwithstanding such payment, be liable to probate duty, as part of the amount on which such duty is charged, and the trustees may, before making such payment, require a statutory declaration by the claimant, or by one of the claimants, that the total personal estate of the deceased, including the sum in question, does not, after deduction of debts and funeral expenses, exceed the sum of £100.

(2.) In every case where the whole amount due to a depositor at the time of his decease exceeds £80, the trustees shall, before making any payment to any person other than the legal personal representative of the deceased depositor, require the production of a duly stamped receipt for the succession or legacy duty payable in respect of such deposits, or a certificate from the Commissioners of Inland Revenue stating that no such duty is payable.

Illegitimate Depositors.

23. Where any depositor being illegitimate dies intestate leaving no widow, widower, or issue, if such depositor has made no nomination, and so far as any nomination does not extend, the trustees may, with the authority in writing of the Solicitor for the affairs of Her Majesty's Treasury, pay the money due to such deceased depositor to such person or persons as but for the illegitimacy of such deceased depositor would be entitled thereto, or to such other person or persons as may be approved by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, such approval to be signified to the trustees by the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt.

SUPPLEMENTAL.

Protection to the Trustees when acting in accordance with Regulations.

24. When any payment is made or act done by the trustees in accordance with the Savings Bank Act, and the regulations for the time being made thereunder, and the rules of the bank, they shall be indemnified against all claims on the part of any person in respect of such payment or act, but any person may nevertheless recover any sum lawfully due to him from the person to whom the trustees have paid the same.
