in Council.

"The undersigned William Lord Archbishop of York Primate of England and Metropolitan doth hereby report to Your Majesty in Council that he has received from the Right Reverend Ernest Roland Lord Bishop of Newcastle a representation in writing under the hand of the said Lord Bishop, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of March one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine and hereto annexed stating that a portion of the township of Togston in the parish of Warkworth in the county of Northumberland and diocese of Newcastle may under the provisions of the Acts of Parliament of the first and second years of Your Majesty's reign chapter one hundred and six and of the second and third years of Your Majesty's reign chapter forty-nine be advantageously separated from the said parish of Warkworth and be annexed to the parish and vicarage of Amble in the same county and diocese and that the said portion of the said township of Togston to be so severed from the said parish of Warkworth to the intent that the same may be annexed for all ecclesiastical purposes to the said parish of Amble is further described and delineated in a plan attached to the said representation, and coloured round with a dotted red line.

"That in the same representation it is proposed that another portion of the said township of Togston in the parish of Warkworth which is more particularly delineated and described on the said plan, and coloured round with a dotted blue line shall be separated from the said parish of Warkworth and be annexed to the parish of Chevington in the said county of Northumberland and diocese of Newcastle for all ecclesiastical purposes and that to the same representation is subjoined a scheme in writing describing the mode in which it appears to the said Lord Bishop that the aforesaid alterations may best be effected and how the changes consequent on such alterations in respect of ecclesiastical jurisdiction, and ecclesiastical dues rates and payments and also in respect to patronage may be made with justice to all parties interested. And the said Archbishop being satisfied with the said scheme doth hereby pursuant to the said Acts, certify the same, and that the patrons of the benefices to be affected by the alteration proposed by the said scheme have given their consent to the same as appears by an instrument in writing annexed to the said representation, and scheme. And the said Archbishop so certifies to the intent that Your Majesty in Council may in case Your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do, make an Order for carrying the said scheme into effect.

"As witness the hand of the said Archbishop, this ninth day of May one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine. W. Ebor."

Now therefore Her Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the said scheme be carried into effect. C. L. Peel.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty chapter eighty-four duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the ninth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Your Majesty chapter eighty-four have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for apportioning the income of the benefice (being a rectory) of Methley in the county of York and in the diocese of Ripon between that benefice and five other benefices, namely the benefice (being a vicarage) of Nidd otherwise Nydd in the said county of York and in the said diocese of Ripon; the benefice (being a vicarage) of Saint Andrew, Whitwick, in the county of Leicester, and in the diocese of Peterborough; the benefice (being a vicarage) of Dedham in the county of Essex and in the diocese of Saint Albans the benefice (being a rectory) of South Reston in the county of Lincoln and in the diocese of Lincoln and the benefice (being a rectory) of Mundesley in the county of Norfolk and in the diocese of Norwich.

"Whereas the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of the said benefice of Methley and of the church thereof and also the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage, of each of the said five other hereinbefore mentioned benefices and of the churches thereof respectively, is vested in Your Majesty in right of Your Duchy of Lancaster.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us that each of the said benefices, other than the said benefice of Methley, is at present insufficiently endowed, and that the said benefice of Methley has endowments of such an amount as that after the apportionment hereinafter recommended and proposed to be made shall have been made, the said benefice of Methley will still be sufficiently endowed.

"And whereas the Most Noble John James Robert, Duke of Rutland now Chancellor of Your Majesty's Duchy of Lancaster aforesaid and acting as such on behalf of Your Majesty as patron of each of the said benefices as aforesaid has represented to us, and we are of opinion that it is desirable that additional provision should be made for the cure of souls within the parishes or other cures to which the said benefices (other than the said benefice of Methley) respectively attach, that is to say, within the parish of Nidd otherwise Nydd, and within the consolidated chapelry or new parish of Saint Andrew Whitwick, and within the parish of Dedham, and within the parish of South Reston, and within the parish of Mundesley, by means of that apportionment of the endowments and income of the said benefice of Methley which is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas the said benefice of Methley is now full; the Honourable and Reverend Philip Yorke Savile, Clerk in Holy Orders, being the incumbent rector thereof.

"And whereas a sum of eleven thousand six hundred and sixty-six pounds thirteen shillings and four pence local loans three pounds per centum per annum stock is (together with a further amount of the same stock) now standing in our name in the books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, to the credit of the said benefice of Methley.

"And whereas the said sum of stock produces an income of three hundred and fifty pounds per annum.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said John James Robert, Duke of Rutland, acting on behalf of Your Majesty as such Chancellor of Your Duchy of Lancaster as aforesaid (in testimony of which consent he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the Bishops of the several dioceses within which the said benefice of Methley and the said other five benefices are respectively situate as aforesaid that is to say, with the consent of the Right Reverend William Boyd, Bishop of Ripon, and of the Right Reverend William Connor, Bishop of Peterborough, and of the Right Reverend Thomas Legh, Bishop of Saint Albans, and of the Right Reverend Edward, Bishop of Lincoln, and of the Honourable and Right Reverend John Thomas, Bishop of Norwich (in testimony whereof the said five Bishops have respectively signed this scheme and sealed the same with their respective episcopal seals).

"We the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and as from the day of the date at which the said benefice of Methley shall from whatsoever cause be next voided, the said sum of eleven thousand six hundred and sixty-six pounds thirteen shillings and fourpence local loans three pounds per centum per annum stock shall cease to be held by us to the credit of the said benefice of Methley and shall be held by us upon the trusts following, that is to say:—

"Upon trust as to the sum of one thousand six hundred and sixty-six pounds thirteen shillings and fourpence, part thereof, for the incumbent of the said benefice of Nidd otherwise Nydd, and his successors; and as to the sum of three thousand three hundred and thirty-three pounds six shillings and eightpence other part thereof, for the incumbent of the said benefice of Saint Andrew, Whitwick, and his successors; and as to the sum of three thousand three hundred and thirty-three pounds six shillings and eightpence, other part thereof, for the incumbent of the said benefice of Dedham, and his successors; and as to the sum of one thousand six hundred and sixty-six pounds thirteen shillings and fourpence, other part thereof for the incumbent of the said benefice of South Reston and his successors and as to the sum of one thousand six hundred and sixty-six pounds thirteen shillings and fourpence, other and remaining part thereof for the incumbent of the said benefice of Mundesley and his successors, and that the dividends from time to time accruing on such stock or portions of stock shall be paid by us to the respective incumbents of the said five lastly-mentioned benefices and to their successors.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any or either of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the respective Registrars of the said several dioceses of Ripon, Peterborough, Saint Albans, Lincoln, and Norwich. *C. “ We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes to be taken out of the parish of All

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 5th day of July, 1889.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of

Her Majesty chapter thirty-nine and of the Acts therein mentioned that is to say the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen and the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twentieth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, in the words following, that is to say:—

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-nine and of the Acts therein mentioned that is to say the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen and the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called ‘the said benefice’) of Covenham Saint Bartholomew, in the county of Lincoln and in the diocese of Lincoln.

“Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Covenham Saint Bartholomew is vested for an estate of inheritance in fee simple free from incumbrances in the Reverend James Grenville Smyth, Clerk in Holy Orders, Prebendary of Lincoln Cathedral and Vicar of North and South Elkington in the said county of Lincoln and his heirs and assigns.

“And whereas the said James Grenville Smyth is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Covenham Saint Bartholomew now absolutely vested in him as aforesaid should be transferred to and vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Lincoln.

“And whereas the Right Reverend Edward now Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln is willing to accept such transfer and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he the said Edward Bishop of Lincoln has executed this scheme as hereinafter-mentioned.

“And whereas if the said benefice of Covenham Saint Bartholomew were to be united to the benefice (which is contiguous to it) of Covenham Saint Mary, such an union would in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls within each of the same two benefices.

“And whereas it is intended that the union of the said two benefices shall shortly be proposed to Your Majesty in Council under the powers of the Act of the first and second years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and six.

“And whereas a certain augmentation of the said benefice of Covenham St. Bartholomew to wit a donation of one hundred pounds sterling has through us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England and to our satisfaction been made by the said James Grenville Smyth, but upon condition nevertheless that the transfer of the advowson of the same benefice which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter proposed shall be effected and upon this further condition that if an union as aforesaid of the said benefice of Covenham Saint Bartholomew with the said benefice of Covenham Saint Mary shall have been completed within a period of two years from the day on which any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this present scheme shall have been published in the London Gazette, then, but not otherwise the said sum of one hundred pounds shall be repaid by us to the said James Grenville Smyth his executors or administrators.

“And whereas under the circumstances aforesaid it appears to us that the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Covenham Saint Bartholomew which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists that is to say in the parish of Covenham Saint Bartholomew.

“Now therefore with the consent of the said James Grenville Smyth (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Edward Bishop of Lincoln (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal).

“We the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Covenham Saint Bartholomew now vested in him the said James Grenville Smyth and his heirs and assigns as aforesaid shall be transferred from him the said James Grenville Smyth and from his heirs and assigns to the said Edward Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln and his successors, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Edward Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln and by his successors for ever.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lincoln.

At the Court at Windsor, the 5th day of July, 1889.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Henry Matthews, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the parish hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intitled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, burials should be discontinued in the Manor Park Cemetery, Forest Gate, in the parish of East Ham, except in accordance with the following regulations:—

- I. The burial ground shall be effectually fenced, and, if necessary, underdrained to such a depth as will prevent water remaining in any grave or vault.
- II. The area to be used for graves shall be divided in grave spaces, to be designated by convenient marks, so that the position of each may be readily determined, and a corresponding plan kept, on which each grave space shall be shown.
- III. No earthen grave shall be dug within one foot of any other grave.
- IV. A register of graves shall be kept in which the name, age, and date of burial in each shall be duly registered.
- V. No body shall be buried in any vault or walled grave unless the coffin be separately entombed in an air-tight manner, that is, by properly cemented stone or brickwork which shall never be disturbed.
- VI. One body only shall be buried in any common earthen grave on the same day unless the bodies be those of members of the same family, and that every coffin be forthwith covered with earth at least a foot thick, which shall be closely rammed down, never to be again disturbed.
- VII. No unwall'd family grave shall be re-opened within fourteen years after the burial of a person above twelve years of age or within eight years after the burial of a child under twelve years of age, unless to bury another member of the same family; in every case a layer of earth not less than one foot thick shall be left undisturbed above the previously buried coffin; but if, on re-opening any grave, the soil be found to be offensive, such soil shall not be disturbed, and in no case shall human remains be removed from the grave.
- VIII. No coffin shall be buried in any unwall'd grave within four feet of the ordinary level of the ground, unless it contains the body of a child under twelve years, when it shall not be less than three feet below that level.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the sixteenth day of August next.

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parish affected by such representation one month before the said sixteenth day of August.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 5th day of July, 1889.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intitled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," it is enacted, that in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town or within such limits, without such previous approval or (as the case may require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered; provided also that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and vestry clerk or churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas by another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intitled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas the Right Honourable Henry Matthews, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that he is of opinion that the Orders of Her Majesty in Council of the thirteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, in so far as it affects burials in the parish

PATAGONIA—MESSIER CHANNEL.

Particulars of Sunken Rock in South Reach.

WITH reference to Notice to Mariners, No. 214, of 21st June, 1889, on the existence of a sunken rock in South Reach, Messier Channel, on which the Pacific Steam Navigation Company's steamship "Cotopaxi" struck on 15th April, 1889:—

Further information has been received through the Pacific Steam Navigation Company at Liverpool of the following particulars concerning the rock:—

The rock (now placed on the charts as Cotopaxi Rock) was found by the Master of the Kosmos Company's steamship "Memphis," to have 19 feet on it at high water, to be 10 yards long and 50 yards broad, kelp above water perceptible only when smooth: it lies with the following bearings:—

Northern Direction Island, N.  $\frac{1}{2}$  W.

South point of Williams Island, E.  $\frac{7}{8}$  N.

Position, lat.  $48^{\circ} 43\frac{1}{2}'$  S., long.  $74^{\circ} 26'$  W., or slightly north-westward of the position originally given by the Master of the "Cotopaxi."

NOTE.—In Chart, No. 561, Direction Islands are not shown. The Northern and longer one, lies in lat.  $48^{\circ} 38\frac{1}{2}'$  S., long.  $74^{\circ} 23\frac{1}{2}'$  W.

Beaver Island and Egg Island Lights—Similarity under certain conditions of Weather.

INFORMATION has been received that under certain conditions of weather, the light on Beaver Island, revolving white every two minutes, and that on Egg Island—25 miles south-westward of it—revolving red and white alternately every two minutes, have been mistaken for each other:—

This is reported to have occurred in consequence of the rays of the red light on Egg Island not having the same penetration or range as the rays of the white light, and being consequently not seen over a certain distance although well within the supposed range of the light. The white light will under these conditions be alone visible, every two minutes.

Mariners are cautioned accordingly, and are recommended under such circumstances, and when proceeding to the westward, to keep special lookout for the lights on Sambro Island, on Chebucto Head, and on Devil Island, at the entrance to Halifax Harbour.

SOUTH PACIFIC OCEAN.

Harans Reef Replaced on Charts.

FROM circumstances which have recently come to light, there appear to be grounds for entertaining the existence of a reef in the position reported by Mr. Harans of the ship "Thomas Dickenson," in 1842:—

The reef was passed at night, and the sea broke furiously over it, apparently for about two ships' lengths.

Position as given, lat.  $21^{\circ} 32' S.$ , long.  $168^{\circ} 54\frac{1}{2}' W.$

Another report, though vague, gives the position of the reef as lat.  $21^{\circ} 40' S.$ , long.  $167^{\circ} 45' W.$
