PARCEL POST. 21st October, 1889.

INDIA AND UNITED KINGDOM.

COMPENSATION FOR LOSS OR DAMAGE OF PARCELS.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WE, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of all powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant made on the representation of Her Majesty's Postmaster-General (testified by his signing the same), and under the hands of two of us the said Commissioners, order, direct, and declare as follows:—

1. In this Warrant—

(1.) The expression "Parcel" means a postal packet which is posted as a Parcel in the United Kingdom for transmission to India, or in India for transmission to the United Kingdom in accordance with the provisions of any Warrant regulating the transmission of Parcels by post between the United Kingdom and India.

(2.) The expression "United Kingdom" includes the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man.

(3.) The expression "India" includes the whole Continent of India, Burmah, Aden, and the Indian Post Offices at places on or near the Persian Gulf and at Zanzibar.

2. Subject to the provisions of this Warrant, if any article of pecuniary value enclosed in or forming part of a Parcel be lost or damaged whilst in the custody of the Postmaster-General, the Postmaster-General may pay to any person or persons, who may in the opinion of the Postmaster-General establish a reasonable claim to compensation (having regard to the nature of the article, the care with which it was packed, and other circumstances), such sum in respect of such Parcel as he may think just.

Provided as follows:—

(a.) If in addition to the postage payable in respect of such Parcel the sum of six pence has been paid by the sender in respect of such Parcel the sum paid by way of compensation shall not exceed the sum of five pounds.

(b.) If in addition to the postage as aforesaid the sum of one shilling has been paid by the sender in respect of such Parcel, the sum paid by way of compensation shall not exceed the sum of ten pounds.

(c.) And in respect of every additional sum of six pence up to five shillings paid by the sender on a Parcel over and above the postage as aforesaid, the sum paid by way of compensation shall not exceed the sum of five pounds, and the amount of compensation payable in respect of any one Parcel shall in no case exceed the sum of fifty pounds.

3. The Postmaster-General may give effect to the provisions of this Warrant as to the loss or damage of articles enclosed in or forming part of Parcels out of such aids or supplies as may be from time to time provided by Parliament for that purpose, but nothing contained in or done under or in pursuance of this Warrant shall render him liable either personally or in his official capacity to any action or other legal proceeding in respect of or in consequence of any such loss or damage. And the decision of the Postmaster-General on all questions arising between him and any person claiming payment in respect of the loss or damage of any article enclosed in or forming part of a Parcel shall be final.

4. This Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine.

Dated this twenty-first day of October, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine.

W. H. Walrond,

Sidney Herbert,

Two of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

Henry Cecil Raikes,

Her Majesty's Postmaster-General.

The Bradford and Shelf Tramway Company Limited.

BYE-LAWS and Regulations made by the Bradford and Shelf Tramway Company Limited (hereinafter called "the Company"), under the powers conferred by the Tramways Act, 1870.

WHEREAS the Bradford and Shelf Tramway Company Limited, acting by its Board of Directors at a meeting held on Monday, the 14th day of October instant, did in pursuance of the powers conferred on the Company by the Tramways Act, 1870, make the undermentioned bye-laws and regulations for preventing the commission of any nuisance in or upon any carriage used upon the tramways leased by the Company, and for regulating the travelling in or upon any carriage used upon the tramways leased by the Company, that is to say:—

1. The bye-laws and regulations hereinafter set forth shall extend and apply to all carriages of the Company used upon the tramways, and to all places with respect to which the Company have power to make bye-laws or regulations.

2. Every passenger shall enter or depart from a carriage by the hindmost or conductor's platform, and not otherwise.

3. No passenger shall smoke in the saloon or lower compartment of any carriage.

4. A person in a state of intoxication shall not be allowed to enter or mount upon any carriage, and if found in or upon any carriage shall be immediately removed by or under the direction of the conductor.

5. No person shall swear or use obscene or offensive language whilst in or upon any carriage, or commit any nuisance in or upon or against any carriage, or wilfully interfere with the comfort of any passenger.

6. No person shall wilfully cut, tear, soil, or damage the cushions or the linings, or remove or deface any number plate, printed or other notice in or on the carriage, or break or scratch any window of or otherwise wilfully damage any carriage. Any person acting in contravention of this regulation shall be liable to the penalty prescribed by these bye-laws and regulations, in addition to the liability to pay the amount of any damage done.

7. A person whose dress or clothing might, in the opinion of a conductor of a carriage, soil or injure the linings or cushions of a carriage or the dress or clothing of any passenger, or a person who, in the opinion of the conductor, might for any other reason be offensive to passengers, shall not be entitled to enter or remain in or upon any carriage, and may be prevented from mounting any carriage, and shall not mount any carriage after having been requested not to do so by the conductor, and if found upon any carriage shall, on the request of the conductor, leave the carriage upon the fare (if previously paid) being returned.

8. Each passenger shall, upon demand, pay to the conductor or other duly-authorized officer of the Company the fare legally demandable for the journey.

9. Each passenger shall show his ticket (if any) when required so to do to the conductor or any duly-authorized servant of the Company, and shall also, when required so to do, either deliver up his ticket or pay the fare legally demandable for the distance travelled over by such passenger.

10. A passenger, not being an artisan, mechanic, or daily labourer, within the true intent and meaning of the Acts of Parliament relating to the Company, shall not use, or attempt to use, any ticket intended only for such artisans, mechanics, or daily labourers.

11. Personal or other luggage (including the tools of artisans, mechanics, and daily labourers) shall, unless otherwise permitted by the conductor, be placed on the front platform of the car, and not in the interior or on the roof of any carriage.

12. No passenger or other person, not being a servant of the Company, shall be permitted to travel on the steps or platforms of any carriage, or stand either on the roof or in the upper compartment or saloon, or sit on the outside rail on the roof of any carriage, and shall cease to do so immediately on request by the conductor.

13. No person, except a passenger or intending passenger, not being an official of the Company, shall enter or mount any carriage, and no person shall hold, or hang on by or to, any part of any carriage, or travel therein, otherwise than on a seat provided for passengers.

14. When any carriage contains the full number of passengers which it is licensed to contain, no additional person, not being an official of the Company, shall enter, mount, or remain in or on any such carriage when warned by the conductor not to do so.

15. The conductor shall not permit any passenger beyond the licensed number to enter, or mount, or remain in or upon any part of a carriage.

16. No person shall enter, mount, or leave, or attempt to enter, mount, or leave, any carriage whilst in motion.

17. No dog or other animal shall be allowed in or on any carriage. Any dog or other animal found in or on any carriage in breach of this Regulation shall be removed by the person in charge of such dog or other animal from the carriage immediately upon request by the conductor, and, in default of compliance with such request, may be removed by or under the direction of the conductor.

18. No person shall travel in or on any carriage of the Company with loaded firearms.

19. No passenger shall wilfully obstruct or impede any officer or servant of the Company in the execution of his duty upon or in connection with any carriage or tramway of the Company.

20. The conductor of each carriage shall enforce or prevent the breach of these bye-laws and regulations to the best of his ability.

21. Any person offending against or committing a breach of any of these bye-laws and regulations shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding forty shillings.

22. The expression "Conductor" shall include any officer or servant of the Company.

23. There shall be placed and kept placed in a conspicuous position inside of each carriage in use a printed copy of these bye-laws and regulations.

24. These bye-laws and regulations shall come into force on the 31st day of December, 1889.

And whereas it is provided by the said Act that no such bye-laws shall take effect unless and until they have been submitted to and confirmed by the Board of Trade, who are thereby empowered within two calendar months, after a true copy of such bye-laws shall have been laid before the Board, to allow or disallow the same as they may think proper, nor unless a true copy of such bye-laws has been delivered to the local authority of the borough of Bradford, being the promoters of part of such tramways, and to such other local authorities through whose district such tramways run, nor unless, within one month after the making of such bye-laws, a notice of the making of such bye-laws and a copy of the same shall have been published once at least in each of two successive weeks in some one and the same newspaper circulating within the district to which such bye-laws relate, and once at least in the London Gazette.

Notice is therefore hereby given, that it is intended so to submit the said bye-laws and regulations to the Board of Trade and to the said local authorities, and to apply to the Board of Trade for confirmation of same on the 31st day of December next.

Dated this 19th day of October, 1889.
