

tion of which may seem calculated to facilitate the realization of any securities held by the Company, or to prevent or diminish any apprehended loss or liability or which may seem capable of being profitably dealt with by way of re-sale or otherwise, and in particular any land, buildings, ground rents, reversions, policies of insurance, life interests, choses in action, book debts, and other assets.

- (17) To lend or advance money on such terms as may seem expedient.
- (18) With the sanction of an extraordinary general meeting or assembly of the Company to purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake, on such terms as may be arranged, all or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on or owning any business which this Company is authorised to carry on.
- (19) To enter into any arrangement with any Government or authorities, supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise, and to obtain from any such Government or authority all rights, concessions, and privileges which may seem conducive to the Company's objects, or any of them.
- (20) To enter into any arrangement for sharing profits, joint working, reciprocal concession, or co-operation with any person or company carrying on or about to carry on or undertake any business or transaction which this Company is authorised to carry on or undertake, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company, and to take or otherwise acquire and hold shares or stock in or securities of, and to subsidise or otherwise assist any such Company, and to sell, hold, re-issue with or without guarantees or otherwise deal with such shares or securities.
- (21) To establish and support or to aid in the establishment and support of associations, institutions, or conveniences calculated to benefit persons employed by the Company or having dealings with the Company, and to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects, or for any exhibition, or for any public, general, or useful object.
- (22) To sell the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company.
- (23) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined.
- (24) To obtain any Provisional Order or Act of Parliament for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution.
- (25) To pay, satisfy, or compromise any claims made against the Company which it may seem expedient to pay, satisfy, or compromise, notwithstanding that the same may not be valid in law.
- (26) To sell, improve, manage, develop, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account or otherwise deal with all or any of the property and rights of the Company.
- (27) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world and to do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, and so that the word "Company" shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and whether domiciled in the United Kingdom or elsewhere.

To provide for the continuance of the Company subject to the provisions of the intended Act, and for enlarged or extended objects, and under new laws and regulations or otherwise, as provided by the Bill.

To vary the denomination of the shares in the capital of the Company, to increase, decrease, or modify and fix the amount of that capital, and the amount thereof deemed to have been paid up, and to make other provisions as to the capital of the Company, the shares into which it is to be divided, and the substitution thereof for the existing shares of the Company.

To remove doubts as to the validity of the purchase of certain shares held in trust for the Company, and to provide for the cancellation of, or otherwise dealing with those shares.

To vary or extinguish all rights and privileges which would or might be inconsistent with, or interfere with, the objects of the intended Act.

To repeal, or if thought fit, to alter and amend or to re-enact all or some of the provisions of the Local and Personal Act, 5 Geo. IV., c. 154.

And notice is hereby further given that printed copies of the proposed Bill will on or before the 21st day of December next be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this 21st day of November, 1889.
