London.

AT the General Quarter Session of the Peace of our Lady the Queen, holden in and for the county of London, at the Sessions House, Clerkenwell, for the said county, on Monday, the 4th day of January, in the 55th year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lady Victoria, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, and from thence continued by several adjournments to and holden at the said Sessions House, on Thursday, the 28th day of January, in the said 55th year of the Reign of our said Lady the Queen, and in the year of our Lord 1892, on the motion of Sir Peter Henry Edlin, Q.C., D.L., the Chairman of the Court, seconded by John Fish Pownall, Esq., it is unanimously resolved that the following Address of Condolence with Her Majesty on the lamented death of His Royal Highness Prince Albert Victor, Duke of Clarence and Avondale, K.G., be adopted:—

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, Your Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County of London, in Quarter Sessions assembled, beg most respectfully to tender to Your Majesty the expression of our heartfelt grief and sorrow upon the death of Your Grandson His Royal Highness the Duke of Clarence and Avondale.

Your Majesty is aware that this tragic event has deeply stirred the hearts of Your People throughout the Empire, and that the desire has been universal to make known to Your Majesty the profound sympathy which has been felt for You in Your great affliction and in the unspeakable bereavement which has fallen on Your Royal House.

Your Majesty's subjects have now the satisfaction of reading Your own tender and gracious assurance that this sympathy has been deeply gratifying to You. We rejoice most heartily that it has thus affected Your Majesty, and in our sincere and loyal desire to condole with Your Majesty, we pray earnestly that You may live to experience the truest consolation possible in this dire bereavement, and that Your Majesty may be spared for many years to reign in the hearts of Your faithful and devoted subjects.

Richard Nicholson,

Clerk of the Peace.

P. H. Edlin,

Chairman of the Court
on behalf of the Justices.

County of Durham.

AT a meeting of the County Council of Durham, held at the Shirehall, Durham, on Wednesday, the 27th day of January, 1892, John Lloyd Wharton, Esq., M.P. (Chairman), in the chair, it was moved by the Chairman, seconded by the Right Honourable the Earl of Ravensworth, and unanimously resolved:—

"That this Council, on behalf of the Inhabitants of the County Palatine of Durham, humbly beg to assure Her Majesty The Queen, Their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales, and Her Highness the Princess Victoria Mary of Teck, of their deep sympathy with them in the severe affliction which they and the other Members of the Royal Family have, in common with the whole Nation, sustained by the much-lamented death of His Royal Highness the Duke of Clarence and Avondale."

John L. Wharton, Chairman.

City of Liverpool.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, Your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Liverpool in Council assembled, approach Your Majesty in deep sorrow, and desire most humbly to offer to Your Majesty the expression of our profound sympathy with Your Majesty and the Members of The Royal Family on the lamented death of His Royal Highness Prince Albert Victor, Duke of Clarence and Avondale, the eldest son of Their Royal Highnesses The Prince and Princess of Wales and Your Majesty's Grandson.

In common with all Your Majesty's subjects, we entertained feelings of the most affectionate regard for His late Royal Highness, and we watched with bright hope the development of a career so full of promise to the vast Empire over which Your Majesty so beneficently rules.

During Your Majesty's Reign it has been our privilege, on many and very different occasions, to address Your Majesty. We have rejoiced in Your joy and sorrowed in Your grief; and we now pray that Your Majesty may receive from the Source of all consolation, comfort and strength in this hour of trial, and we assure Your Majesty of our loyal and devoted attachment to Your Majesty's Person and Throne.

Given under the Corporate Common Seal of the City of Liverpool, this 22nd day of January, in the year of Our Lord 1892.

L. S.

James De Bels Adam, Mayor.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, Your Majesty's dutiful subjects, Members of the Royal Academy of Arts, beg hereby to offer to Your Majesty our heartfelt and sincere condolence on the occasion of the sad death of His Royal Highness the Duke of Clarence and Avondale.

The loss of so amiable and high-minded a Prince, who had won by the simple charm of his character the affection and esteem of all classes of Your Majesty's subjects, is a source of profound and universal grief; but by none is that sorrow more deeply felt than by the Members of this Institution which, owing its foundation to the munificence of Your Majesty's august Grandfather, King George III, has never ceased to experience in a special manner the favour and protection of the Sovereigns and Princes of Your Majesty's Royal House.

We desire humbly to express our share in the feelings of deep sympathy which the early death of one who showed such fair promise has called forth, not only in these Realms but throughout the world, and to assure Your Majesty of the great and respectful interest which we, together with all Your Majesty's subjects, shall ever take in all that concerns the happiness of Your Majesty and the Royal Family.

Signed by the President and Council on behalf of the Members of the Royal Academy.

Sheriff's Office, Mullingar.

WE, Magistrates of West Meath, desire to express our deep regret at the irreparable loss of His Royal Highness the Duke of Clarence and Earl of Athlone, in this County, and to offer respectfully our sympathy from our hearts to Her Majesty the Queen, to his sorrowing parents the Prince and Princess of Wales, and also our heartfelt sympathy to Her Serene Highness the Princess Victoria Mary of Teck and all the Members of the Royal Family.

Chairman, F. Vansittart Chapman, High Sheriff.
Proposed by Honble. Albert Edward Handcock.
Seconded by Lord Greville.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

THE faithful States of the Island of Jersey humbly beg to offer to Your Majesty the expression of their deep regret and unfeigned sorrow at the grievous loss which Your Majesty has sustained by the death of Your Majesty's Grandson, Prince Albert Victor, Duke of Clarence and Avondale. The People of this Island, the last fragment of the ancient Duchy of Normandy, have ever felt it to be their pride and their privilege to participate in the joys and sorrows of the Royal Family of England, and they had viewed, with the deepest and most peculiar interest, the approaching marriage of a young Prince, upon whom all the hopes and aspirations of Your Majesty's subjects were centred, and who seemed called to fulfil the highest destinies. It has pleased the Almighty, in His inscrutable Providence, to take him suddenly away. In the midst of the general mourning and the profound affliction which at the present moment pervade every rank and class of society, may the faithful States be permitted to offer the humble expression of the sorrow in which they so largely participate, and their earnest and anxious hope and desire that the unbounded confidence and affection of all Your Majesty's subjects may temper and assuage the great sorrow which has so suddenly fallen on Your Majesty; and if the faithful States can indulge a hope for the future, it is that the Almighty may, in His divine wisdom, bring comfort and consolation to Your Majesty under this calamitous bereavement.

19th January, 1892.

L. S.

George Bertram,
Bailliff of Jersey, President of the States.

Forwarded by the Lieutenant-Governor of Jersey.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, Your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Lieutenant-Governor, the Bailliff, the Jurats of the Royal Court, the Clergy, the Law Officers of the Crown, and the Deputies of the several Parishes and Cantons of Your Majesty's Island of Guernsey, in the States assembled, beg leave, on our own behalf and that of the Community at large, to approach Your Majesty with the respectful expression of our heartfelt sympathy under the heavy affliction with which it has pleased Divine Providence to visit Your Majesty and Your Illustrious Family in removing from this life His late Royal Highness the Duke of Clarence and Avondale.

We beg to assure Your Majesty that in no part of Your Majesty's Dominions has the unexpected and almost sudden death of His Royal Highness been more deeply and universally felt than in this Island; and while we grieve over this melancholy event and sympathize most sincerely with Your Majesty, we would desire at the same time to express our deep sense of the irreparable loss which the whole Nation has sustained in the early decease of a Prince of such high promise.

In venturing thus to tender our sincere condolence and sympathy, we beg to assure Your Majesty that it is our earnest hope and prayer that it may please Almighty God to strengthen and support Your Majesty under this heavy affliction, and to preserve Your Majesty to reign, for many years to come, over a loyal and devoted people.

- (2.) Where the name and address of the sender can be ascertained from the Parcel or the declaration accompanying the same, notice shall be given by post to the sender through the Post Office of Cape Town, that the Parcel will, in default of any claim on the part of the addressee, be given up to the sender or his agent upon personal application at such place as aforesaid, or at the request of the sender will be forwarded to a corrected address or returned to him by post in either case upon the conditions hereinafter mentioned.

- (5.) The Postmaster-General may, in his discretion, specify in any such notice, or otherwise, the periods during which Parcels may be returned to the senders thereof, and in so doing may have regard to the nature and contents of Parcels.

- (6.) Where in the case of a Parcel which cannot be delivered for want of a true direction, the sender corrects the address of the Parcel, the Parcel shall be forwarded to the corrected address, subject to the following conditions:—

Where the corrected address of the Parcel is not within the same free delivery as the original address, or the Parcel at the time of such correction is lying at a Returned Letter Office, there shall be paid a new and distinct rate of postage equal in amount to the rate of postage which would have been chargeable on such Parcel as an Inland Parcel.

- (7.) A Parcel shall not be given up or returned by post to the sender except upon payment by him of any charge for re-direction or other charge to which the Parcel has become liable under the provisions of this Warrant, or of any such Regulations as are referred to in section 14 of "The Post Office (Parcels) Act, 1882."

- (8.) - (9.) The Postmaster-General may require proof to his satisfaction that an applicant for a Parcel is entitled to receive the same.

- (10.) Where no application is made for a Parcel within the period specified in any such notice as aforesaid, or an applicant fails to prove to the satisfaction of the Postmaster-General that he is entitled to receive the Parcel, or refuses or fails to pay the charges to which the Parcel has become liable under this Warrant, the Parcel may be dealt with or disposed of in such manner as the Postmaster-General may in his discretion direct or authorize.
