WHEREAS by "The Consular Salaries and Fees Act, 1891," Her Majesty the Queen is authorized by Order in Council to fix the fees to be taken in respect of any matter or thing done by a Consular officer in the execution of his office, and to vary such fees by way of increase or decrease, and to abolish fees, and to create new fees:

And whereas by an Order in Council dated the twenty-fourth November, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one (hereinafter referred to as "The Foreign Marriages Order in Council, 1891"), and made under the said Act and the Foreign Marriage Acts, certain fees are prescribed to be taken by Consular officers and others in respect of marriages:

And whereas "The Consular Fees Order in Council, 1887," continues in force under the provisions of the first-recited Act as if it had been issued in pursuance thereof, but the marriage fees comprised therein have in certain particulars been altered by "The Foreign Marriages Order in Council, 1891."

And whereas under "The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890," Her Majesty in Council has power to make Orders in Council, and also to revoke and vary Orders in Council made, or deemed to have been made, in pursuance of that Act:

And whereas it is expedient that "The Consular Fees Order in Council, 1887," should be repealed, and that the fees established thereby, including the marriage fees fixed by "The Foreign Marriages Order in Council, 1891," should be fixed by an Order in Council made under the provisions of "The Consular Salaries and Fees Act, 1891":

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the before-mentioned Acts, it is hereby ordered by Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as "The Consular Fees Order in Council, 1892."

2. The several fees set forth in the Tables annexed to this Order are hereby established, and the said Tables and notes thereto shall be construed as part of this Order.

3. Such provisions of any Order in Council made or continued in force under the provisions of "The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890," as are inconsistent with anything in this Order are hereby revoked and the provisions of this Order and of the said Tables shall be and are hereby substituted for such first-mentioned provisions, and the fees herein prescribed may or shall be taken accordingly.

4. This Order shall not extend to any place in China, Japan, or Corea.

5. "The Consular Fees Order in Council, 1887," is hereby repealed as to all places to which this Order applies, but this repeal shall not revive any Table, provision, or Order in Council abolished or repealed by the said Order, or affect any right or liability existing at the commencement of this Order in any place.

6. This Order shall come into operation in respect of each Consular jurisdiction on the first July, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, or at such later date as in the case of any particular Consular jurisdiction or part thereof, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State by any general or particular instructions may from time to time direct.

7. In this Order—

The expression "Consular jurisdiction" means and includes the district, place, or places for which a Consular officer acts.

The expression "Foreign Marriage Acts" means "The Consular Marriage Act, 1849," "The Consular Marriage Act, 1868," "The Marriage Act, 1890," and "The Foreign Marriage Act, 1891."

And the Most Honourable the Marquis of Salisbury, K.G., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Herbert M. Suft.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.

Lord Steward.

Earl of Yarborough.

Sir Walter Barttelot, Bart.

Mr. Forwood.

WHEREAS by "The Consular Salaries and Fees Act, 1891," Her Majesty the Queen is authorized by Order in Council to fix the fees to be taken in respect of any matter or thing done by a Consular officer in the execution of his office, and to vary such fees by way of increase or decrease, and to abolish fees and to create new fees :

And whereas by an Order in Council, dated the twenty-fourth November, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one (hereinafter referred to as "The Foreign Marriages Order in Council, 1891"), and made under the said Act, and the Foreign Marriage Acts, certain fees are prescribed to be taken by Consular officers and others in respect of marriages :

And whereas "The China, Japan, and Corea (Consular Fees) Order in Council, 1887," continues in force under the provisions of the first recited Act as if it had been issued in pursuance thereof, but the marriage fees comprised therein have in certain particulars been altered by "The Foreign Marriages Order in Council, 1891 :"

And whereas under "The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890," Her Majesty in Council has power to make Orders in Council, and also to revoke or vary Orders in Council made, or deemed to have been made, in pursuance of that Act :

And whereas it is expedient that "The China, Japan, and Corea (Consular Fees) Order in Council, 1887," should be repealed, and that the fees established thereby, including the marriage fees fixed by "The Foreign Marriages Order in Council, 1891," should be fixed by an Order in Council made under the provisions of "The Consular Salaries and Fees Act, 1891 :"

Now therefore, in pursuance of the before-mentioned Acts, it is hereby ordered by Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, as follows :—

1. This Order may be cited as "The China, Japan, and Corea (Consular Fees) Order in Council, 1892."

2. The several fees set forth in the Tables annexed to this Order are hereby established, and the said Tables and notes thereto shall be construed as part of this Order.

3. Such provisions of any Order in Council made or continued in force under the provisions of "The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890," and relating or applicable to China, Japan, or Corea, as are inconsistent with anything in this Order, are hereby revoked, and the provisions of this Order and of the said Tables, shall be and are hereby substituted for such first-mentioned provisions, and the fees herein prescribed may or shall be taken accordingly.

4. This Order shall apply to all places in China, Japan, and Corea.

5. "The China, Japan, and Corea (Consular Fees) Order in Council, 1887," is hereby repealed as to all places to which this Order applies, but this repeal shall not revive any Table, provision, or Order in Council abolished or repealed by the said Order, or affect any right or liability existing at the commencement of this Order in any place.

6. This Order shall come into operation in respect of each Consular jurisdiction on the first of August, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, or at such later date as, in the case of any particular Consular jurisdiction or part thereof, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State by any general or particular instructions may from time to time direct.

7. In this Order—

The expression "Consular jurisdiction" means and includes the district, place, or places for which a Consular officer acts.

The expression "Foreign Marriage Acts" means "The Consular Marriage Act, 1849," "The Consular Marriage Act, 1868," "The Marriage Act, 1890," and "The Foreign Marriage Act, 1891."

And the Most Honourable the Marquis of Salisbury, K.G., one of Her Majesty's Principal

Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Herbert M. Suft.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven; and of the Act of the fifth year of Her Majesty (Session two) chapter twenty-six duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the twenty-eighth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, and of the Act of the fifth year of Your Majesty (Session two) chapter twenty-six have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing certain alterations and improvements at the episcopal residence belonging to the See of Llandaff which is situate at Llandaff in the county of Glamorgan.

"Whereas the Right Reverend Richard, now Bishop of the Diocese of Llandaff is desirous that certain permanent improvements should be made at the said episcopal residence at Llandaff, and has submitted to us the particulars of such proposed improvements.

"And whereas the said Bishop is also desirous and it appears to us to be expedient that towards the cost of effecting the said proposed improvements a sum of three hundred pounds being a sum which does not exceed two years' income of the See should be provided by borrowing the same by way of mortgage upon the security of all and every part of the lands tenements and hereditaments endowments or emoluments which now belong or may hereafter belong to the Bishoprick of Llandaff.

Now therefore with the consent of the said Richard, Bishop of the said diocese of Llandaff (testified by his having affixed his signature and episcopal seal to this scheme) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that the said Bishop be authorized to borrow from the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and that the said Governors be empowered to lend under the provisions of the above-mentioned Acts, any sum not exceeding three hundred pounds, and that as a security for the same, the said Bishop do mortgage all and every part of the lands tenements and hereditaments and endowments or emoluments which now belong or may hereafter belong to his said See to the said Governors by deed for the term of twenty years or until the said sum of three hundred pounds with the interest for the same as hereinafter mentioned and all costs and charges which may attend the recovery thereof, shall be fully paid and satisfied and that such principal sum shall be repaid with interest in manner following, that is to say:—during and in respect of the first period of twelve months of the said term of twenty years computed from the day of the date of the mortgage, no part of the said principal sum shall be repayable, but the said Bishop or his successors shall yearly at the end of the second period of twelve months so computed and at the end of every such like period of twelve months thereafter pay to the said Governors their successors or assigns one-fifteenth part of the said principal sum of three hundred pounds until the whole thereof shall be repaid, and shall also at the end of the first and each succeeding period of twelve months computed as aforesaid, pay interest at the rate of four pounds per cent. per annum on the said principal sum or on so much thereof as shall from time to time remain unpaid, and that if and when it shall happen that either the principal or the interest directed to be paid as hereinafter-mentioned shall be in arrear and unpaid for the space of forty days after the same shall have become due, it shall and may be lawful for the said Governors their successors and assigns to recover the same and the costs and charges attending the recovery thereof by distress and sale, in the like manner as rents may be recovered by landlords or lessors from their tenants by the laws in force at the time of such distress and sale. And that such mortgage deed shall be in the form and to the effect to be approved by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and shall bind as well the said Richard now Bishop of the said diocese of Llandaff as every succeeding Bishop of the same diocese until the principal money and interest costs and charges shall have been paid off and discharged.

"And we further recommend and propose that the said sum of three hundred pounds shall be paid to us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners and that the receipt of our joint treasurers for the time being endorsed on the said mortgage deed shall be a good and sufficient discharge to the said Governors and their successors for the same, who shall not be bound or required to see to the application thereof, and that upon the receipt of the said sum of three hundred pounds the whole or any part or parts thereof shall be applied by us at such times and in such manner as shall appear to us to be expedient towards effecting the said proposed improvements at the episcopal residence aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose that the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Llandaff shall at his personal charge insure against loss or damage by fire, and keep insured the said episcopal residence, the said insurance to be for a sum of seven thousand and two hundred pounds, and to be effected in one or more of the public offices of insurance in London or Westminster and that in case of loss or damage by fire to the same house of residence the moneys receivable in respect of the said insurance shall be paid over to us by the said Bishop and shall with any interest or accumulations thereon be applied by us in rebuilding or repairing the same house of residence with the concurrence of the said Bishop.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in conformity with the provisions of the herein named Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts, and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Llandaff.

I, THE Right Honourable Sir James Ferguson, Baronet, G.C.S.I., M.P., Her Majesty's Postmaster-General, with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, given under the hands of two of the said Commissioners, whose names are hereunder signed and written, by virtue of the power vested in me by the Telegraph Act (1885), and of every other power enabling me in this behalf, do hereby make the following Regulations for fixing the sums to be from time to time paid for the transmission of Foreign Telegrams, and for services rendered in connexion therewith, and for the general conduct of Telegraphic business in relation to Foreign Telegrams.

Short Title.

I. These Regulations may be cited as the Foreign Telegram Regulations, 1892.

Interpretation.

II. In these Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires:—

The expression "Foreign Telegram" means a Telegram originating in or destined for a place out of the United Kingdom.

The expression "United Kingdom" includes the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man.

The expression "European Telegram" means a Foreign Telegram originating in a place and destined for a place both of which places under the provisions of the International Telegraph Convention belong to the European system of telegraphy.

The expression "Extra European Telegram" means a Foreign Telegram originating in or destined for a place which does not belong to the European system of telegraphy.

The expression "Inland Telegram" means a Telegram originating in a place and destined for a place each within the United Kingdom.

The expression "Ordinary Telegram" means a Foreign Telegram written in plain language, that is to say, in words, figures, or letters, combined into sentences or phrases, conveying an intelligible meaning in any language admitted in International Telegraph correspondence in any State a party to the International Telegraph Convention (hereinafter referred to as an admitted telegraph language), and such expression shall include part of a Telegram.

The expression "Code Telegram" means a Foreign Telegram written in preconcerted language, that is to say, in words intelligible in themselves, but not combined into sentences or phrases conveying an intelligible meaning in an admitted telegraph language; and such expression includes part of a Telegram.

The expression "Cypher Telegram" means a Foreign Telegram, which, though composed of groups of figures (or of letters in the cases hereinafter mentioned) does not comply with the definition of an Ordinary Telegram or a Code Telegram, and such expression includes part of a Telegram.

The expression "Service Telegram" means a Telegram forwarded from a place within the United Kingdom to a Foreign Telegraph Office, or from a Foreign Telegraph Office to a place within the United Kingdom at the request and cost of the sender or receiver of an original Foreign Telegram for the purpose of obtaining information or giving instructions respecting such original Foreign Telegram.

The expression "Authorized List of Offices" means the list of Foreign Telegraph Offices for the time being published by the International Telegraph Office at Berne.

Classes of Telegrams.

III. (1.) Foreign Telegrams are of three classes—

- (a.) Ordinary Telegrams.
- (b.) Code Telegrams, and
- (c.) Cypher Telegrams.

(2.) A Telegram may be partly an Ordinary Telegram, partly a Code Telegram, and partly a Cypher Telegram.

(3.) Code Telegrams and Cypher Telegrams shall be accepted for transmission to such countries only as are willing to receive and deliver them.

Code Telegrams.

IV. (1.) Code Telegrams (whether European Telegrams or Extra-European Telegrams) may contain words taken from any or all of the following languages, viz., English, French, German, Italian, Spanish, Portuguese, Dutch, and Latin, but if any word used in a Code Telegram shall exceed ten letters in length, such word shall be charged for extra as hereinafter mentioned.

(2.) Proper names shall not be used in the text of Code Telegrams except in their natural sense.

(3.) The following words forming part of a Code Telegram shall be chargeable as Cypher, viz. :—

(a.) Any proper name used otherwise than in its natural sense.

(b.) Any word of more than ten letters used otherwise than according to its ordinary meaning in plain language.

(c.) Any other word not admissible in a Code Telegram.

(4.) If there is any doubt as to whether a proper name is used in its natural sense or not the sender may be required to produce and explain his code.

(5.) If there is a doubt whether any expression is a genuine word the sender may be required to show it in a standard dictionary to be selected by the Postmaster-General.

(6.) Any word in plain language occurring in a Code Telegram shall be charged for as if it formed part of an Ordinary Extra-European Telegram.

Cypher Telegrams.

V. (1.) A Cypher Telegram sent or received by a private person must be wholly in figures except that it may comprise trade marks composed of secret letters, and also that the signals of the Universal Commercial Code may be included in Telegrams to and from Semaphore Stations.

(2.) Government Cypher Telegrams may consist either of figures or of letters, but may not contain both figures and letters.

(3.) Any word in plain language or in Code occurring in a Cypher Telegram shall be charged for as part of an Ordinary or Code Telegram, as the case may be.

(4.) Words incorrectly spelled, so as to reduce the number of letters below the maximum number of letters allowed as one word or words incorrectly joined together, contrary to the usage of the language, shall be charged for as Cypher in any Telegram in which they occur.

(5.) When a Telegram is expressed in the language of the country of the office of delivery the decision of that office in any question arising under the last sub-section shall be final.

Charges for Transmission.

VI. (1.) The charges for the transmission of a Foreign Telegram shall be at such rates per word, and all other charges in connexion with Foreign Telegrams shall be such as respectively are or may be from time to time fixed by the various Telegraph Administrations in accordance with the provisions of the International Telegraph Regulations for the time being in force, and so far as they are concerned by the private Telegraph Companies.

Provided always, that the minimum charge for a Telegram transmitted from the United Kingdom to any other place in Europe or for a prepaid reply to such a Telegram shall be the sum of 10d.

(2.) The name and address of the addressee of a Foreign Telegram, and likewise the name and address of the sender thereof, when forming part of the matter telegraphed, shall be counted as part of the words for which payment is required.

(3.) The Postmaster-General shall from time to time publish in the London Gazette the several rates per word for the time being fixed as provided in these Regulations, and in any proceeding by or against the Postmaster-General relating to the sum payable in respect of a Foreign Telegram the production of a copy of the Gazette containing the rate in question, shall be conclusive evidence that such rate is the rate for the time being fixed as aforesaid.

Mode of Payment of Charges.

VII. (1.) All charges in respect of the transmission of Foreign Telegrams, and of all other services rendered in connexion with Foreign Telegrams, shall (except as hereinafter provided) be paid by means of stamps.

(2.) Except as otherwise provided all such charges as aforesaid shall be paid in advance by the sender of the Telegram.

(3.) Where it is found by the Office of delivery that an insufficient sum has been paid for the transmission of a Telegram, or for any services rendered in connexion therewith, any additional charges payable in respect of the Telegram shall be payable in the first instance by the addressee either by means of stamps or in money; and the Telegram may be withheld until such charges have been paid. If, nevertheless, such charges are not paid by the addressee, they shall be payable by the sender.

Mode of Counting Ordinary and Cypher Telegrams.

VIII. (1.) For the purpose of calculating the charge for a Foreign Telegram the maximum length of a word is fixed in the case of Ordinary European Telegrams at 15 letters, and in the case of Ordinary Extra-European Telegrams at 10 letters.

(2.) Any additional letters shall be charged for as extra words at the rate of 15 or 10 letters respectively to the word, any number of letters over and above an exact multiple of 15 or 10 (as the case may be) being treated as one word.

Examples.

	European.	Extra-European.
Responsibility (14 letters)	1 word.	2 words.
Irresponsibility (16 letters)	2 words.	2 words.

(3.) Cypher Telegrams shall be counted according to the rules applicable to figures and to letters and groups of letters not conveying an intelligible meaning in an admitted telegraph language.

(4.) In Ordinary Telegrams and in Code Telegrams "Ch" counts as one letter, but in Government Cypher Telegrams, in Trade Marks occurring in Private Cypher Telegrams, and in the signals of the Universal Commercial Code occurring in Telegrams to or from Semaphore Stations, as two letters.

Examples.

	European.	Extra-European.
Archduchess = 9 characters	1 word.	1 word.
Emvtch (cypher) = 6 characters	2 words.	2 words.

Compound Words.

IX. (1.) Subject to the provisions of these Regulations as to the maximum length of words, the following rules shall apply to words occurring in the body of a Foreign Telegram:—

(a.) Ordinary compound words and names shall, when written without break, be counted as single words, but when written with a hyphen, apostrophe, or other sign, shall be counted as separate words.

(b.) A word denoting a part of a town, such as street, square, road, shall be always counted as a separate word, whether added to a name or not.

(2.) The following Rules shall apply to the name of the office and to the name of the place of destination when occurring in the address of a Foreign Telegram.

(a.) Each of the names aforesaid shall be charged for as one word whatever number of letters or words such name may contain.

(b.) In order to secure the benefit of the last-mentioned rule, such names must be written in accordance with the accepted method of spelling, or as they are given in the authorized list of offices.

Examples of the application of the foregoing Rules as to counting words in ordinary Foreign Telegrams.

WITH reference to Notice to Mariners, No. 369 of 1891:—

The French Government has given further notice, that on 15th May, 1892, a light will be exhibited from a lighthouse recently erected on Senetose Point, south-west coast of Corsica:—

Senetose Point Light will be a flashing white light of the fourth order, showing a flash every five seconds, preceded and followed by total eclipses. A sector of flashing red light will be shown over Monachi Rocks (Les Moines) through an arc of about 22°, or approximately between the bearings of N. 20° W. and N. 42° W. Within this sector, the light will be obscured by the land, as Latonicchia Point is approached. Through a sector of about 2°, or between the bearings of N. 20° W. and N. 18° W., the light will show red and white flashes alternately, so that Mariners will be thus warned of approaching the dangerous sector. The light is elevated 164 feet above the sea, and should be visible in clear weather, the white light from a distance of about 19 miles, and the red light from a distance of 14 miles.

The lighthouse consists of two towers, 49 feet apart, and joined by the main building.
