Board of Trade (Harbour Department), London, October 31, 1892.

THE Board of Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Representative at Panama, containing the following Notice respecting quarantine :—

Decree No. 87 of 1892 (of October 5).

Additional and Reformatory of the Decrees Nos. 78, 81, and 84 of 1892.

The Governor of the Department taking into consideration that according to official information from the Colombian Consul in New York, the sanitary condition of that port is excellent, and that prior to the sailing of the Colombia, there had been no cases of cholera there ;

That the Consular employes of the Republic in England advise by cable that that country continues entirely free from the same epidemic ;

That by official advice from Bordeaux it is known that if the sanitary condition there is good, as also at St. Nazaire and Marseilles, the cholera has not entirely disappeared in Paris nor in the north of France ;

That the Departmental Board of Hygiene, consulted on the point, consider that the mails, passengers, and cargo coming from Europe, and which are at present detained in Jamaica and Martinique, where they have undergone quarantine and proper disinfection on shore, can be received in Colon ;

That the Government of the Republic has authorized that until further orders, necessary police and sanitary measures for the ports of the department shall be dictated here.

Decrees.

ART. 1. The steamer Colombia, detained in Colon during the last eight days, will be admitted free from pratique after the visit of the Health Officer and the general disinfection of the mails and baggage which he may order, providing that since her departure from New York nothing has occurred.

ART. 2. From this date steamers proceeding from ports of the United States of America will be admitted under the following conditions :—

(a.) That the mails from European countries come properly fumigated, which must be proven by a certificate from the New York Post Office.

(b.) That the passengers coming from Europe prove, by a certificate from the Colombian Consul in New York, that they have resided in the United States for at least eight days before continuing their voyage.

(c.) That they do not bring cargo from ports notoriously infected.

(d.) That they submit in Colon to the observation which the Sanitary Officer sees fit to impose, and afterwards to go through at their expense the disinfection necessary, if the said officer orders it.

ART. 3. The mails, passengers, and cargo from England, detained in Jamaica, will be received in Colon under the following conditions :—

(a.) That they come in steamers sailing from the West Indies.

(b.) That they bring a certificate from the Colombian Consul to verify the quarantine, disinfection, or admission into the Port of Kingston.

(c.) That on the arrival of the steamers at Colon, before coming alongside of the wharf, they undergo, at their expense and under the vigilance of the Sanitary Officer, the general disinfection advised by the Departmental Board of Hygiene.

ART. 4. Steamers sailing from England will be admitted in Colon from this date under the following conditions :—

(a.) That the mails from European countries come properly fumigated, which must be proven by a certificate from the English Post Office.

(b.) That the passengers coming from the Continent prove by certificate from Colombian Consular Agents their admission and residence in the British Isles.

(c.) That they do not bring cargo from places notoriously infected.

(d.) That they submit in Colon to the observation which the Sanitary Officer sees fit to impose upon them, and afterwards to go through at their expense the disinfection necessary, if the said officer orders it.

ART. 5. The mails, passengers, and cargo from France, and detained in Martinique, will be received in Colon under the following conditions :—

(a.) That they come in steamers sailing from the West Indies.

(b.) That they bring certificates from the Colombian Consul, and in his absence from that of some friendly nation, to prove the quarantine disinfection or admission in Fort de France.

(c.) That on the arrival of the steamer in Colon, before coming alongside of the wharf, they undergo at their expense and under the vigilance of the Sanitary Officer, the general disinfection advised by the Departmental Board of Hygiene.

ART. 6. The steamers coming from French ports will not be received in Colon, except after having been received at the other Colombian ports indicated in their itinerary and in case they are to be admitted, they will be strictly subjected to all the conditions a, c, and d, specified in Article 4 of the present Decree.

ART. 7. The Spanish steamers which come from New York and Havana will be admitted under the same conditions of Art. 2, it being well understood that if they accept transshipments in Havana they will be subjected to the general prescriptions of the Decree, except such transshipments are exclusively goods from Spanish ports.

ART. 8. If in any of the steamers which can be admitted in conformity with the preceding Articles 2 to 7 any case of cholera occurs, either during the voyage or during the period of observation which is indicated, the steamer will have to return, refused, to the port of sailing.

ART. 9. The closure decreed against Germany and Belgium and any other cholera infected country remains in force until further orders.

ART. 10. Under the above terms are amended Decrees Nos. 78, 81, and 84 of 1892.

Publish, communicate, and report to the Supreme Government.

Given in Panama, October 5, 1892.

PORT NATAL APPROACH.

Lights Marking Aliwal Shoal.

WITH reference to Notice to Mariners, No. 172 of 1892:—

Telegraphic information has been received from the Government of Natal that on 1st October, 1892, two lights, as undermentioned, were exhibited from lighthouses recently erected, and now mark Aliwal Shoal, approach to Port Natal from the south-west:—

The northern light shown from the headland northward of Amahlongwana River entrance, is a fixed light, showing white from the bearing of N. 50° W. to N. 30° W.; red from N. 30° W. to N. 19° E., over Aliwal Shoal; and again white from N. 19° E. to N. 39° E.; in other directions it is obscured. The light is elevated about 170 feet above high water, and should be visible in clear weather from a distance of about 10 miles.

The lighthouse, 34 feet high, constructed of iron, and conical in shape, is painted red and white in horizontal bands.

Approximate position, lat. 30° 13' 30" S., long. 30° 47' 45" E.

The southern light, shown from the headland southward of Umpambiuyoni River entrance, is a fixed light, showing white from S. 55° W. to S. 82° W.; red from S. 82° W. to N. 62° W., over Aliwal Shoal; and again white from N. 62° W. to N. 35° W.; in other directions it is obscured. The light is elevated about 159 feet above high water, and should be visible in clear weather from a distance of about 10 miles.

The lighthouse, 34 feet high, constructed of iron, and conical in shape, is painted red and white in horizontal bands.

Approximate position, lat. 30° 17' 25" S., long. 30° 45' 30" E.

The illuminating apparatus of each light is dioptric of the fourth order.

NOTE.—Vessels passing seaward of Aliwal Shoal with one red light in sight will be about 6 miles from the shoal, and both red lights can only be seen at once when within that distance; vessels proceeding inside the shoal will pass in nearly mid channel with one red light only in sight.

[Variation 27° Westerly in 1892.]

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—Indian Ocean, No. 748a; Hondeklip Bay to Port Natal, No. 2095; Untamvuna River to Tugela River, with plan of Aliwal Shoal, No. 2088. Revolving Light on Rich Point.

WITH reference to Notice to Mariners, No. 454 of 1890:—

The Government of the Dominion of Canada has given notice, that on 20th October, 1892, a light would be exhibited from a lighthouse recently erected on Rich Point, northern side of Ingornachoiix Bay, in place of that destroyed by fire in 1890:—

Rich Point Light is a revolving white light, showing two bright rays with an interval of fifteen seconds between their points of greatest brilliancy, followed by an interval of thirty seconds (during the greater part of which the light is eclipsed), the complete revolution thus occupying forty-five seconds. It is elevated 93 feet above high water, and should be visible in clear weather from a distance of 15 miles.

The illuminating apparatus is catoptric, or by reflectors.

The lighthouse, situated on the site of the old building, is an octagonal wooden structure, painted white, with red lantern, and is 58 feet in height.

Board of Trade.—Session 1893.

Pocklington Water Company Limited.

(Application to the Board of Trade under the Gas and Waterworks Facilities Act, 1870, for Power to Construct Additional Waterworks; Acquire by Agreement Easements over Land, and a Spring, Breaking out in Two Branches; and to raise Additional Capital.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Pocklington Water Company Limited intend to apply to the Board of Trade in the ensuing session for a Provisional Order under "The Gas and Waterworks Facilities Act, 1870," for the following purposes, that is to say:—

To empower the Company to make and maintain additional waterworks or works connected therewith, including the following:—

(a.) To collect the water from a spring breaking out in two places (within 50 feet of each other), situated in the Givendale Valley (about 300 yards south of Little Givendale Farm), into a collecting chamber, about five feet square. All extra water beyond that carried away by the three-inch pipe or main hereinafter-mentioned being allowed to flow down its present course into the "Ridings Beck."

(b.) To conduct the water from the said collecting chamber in three-inch socketed cast-iron water mains laid through private lands belonging to the Dean and Chapter of York, alongside the "Ridings Beck," until reaching the highway leading to Pocklington, at a point near Swineridge Bridge, thence along the said highway (past Ousthorpe Farm) through "The Mill," until they join the present three-inch water main near Teresa Cottage.

(c.) Together with all needful pipes, mains, conduits, culverts, cuts, drains, sluices, meters, and other works for increasing the supply of water to the inhabitants of Pocklington, in the East Riding of the county of York, so far as the capacity of the aforesaid three-inch main will allow.

The proposed new works will be made in the parishes or townships of Millington, Ousthorpe, and Pocklington, in the East Riding of the county of York, or some or one of them.

To empower the Company to purchase by agreement, and hold for the purposes aforesaid, certain easements over certain lands and the spring before-mentioned, as breaking out in two places, situate in the Givendale Valley, in the township of Millington, in the parish of Millington, in the said East Riding. And such easements, rights, and privileges in, over, and affecting the adjoining lands in the said township and parish as may be necessary for the purposes of the Undertaking. And to obtain the incorporation in the proposed Order of the provisions of the Lands Clauses Acts (except with respect to the taking of lands otherwise than by agreement and with respect to the entry on land of the Promoters of the Undertaking). And of the Waterworks Clauses Acts, 1847 to 1863, and to empower the Company, for the purposes aforesaid, and for the general purposes of its Undertaking, to raise additional capital by the creation and issue of new shares or stock, with or without a preference or priority of dividend, or other special advantages or privileges, and upon such terms and conditions as may be prescribed by the Provisional Order, and by borrowing, upon mortgage, bond, or otherwise, and by the creation and issue of debenture stock only, or by all or any of such means.

And notice is hereby given, that, on or before the 30th day of November, 1892, a copy of this notice as published in the London Gazette, and a map of the district, showing the present limits of supply and the situation of the proposed new works, and also a proper plan and sections of the proposed new works, will be deposited at the Board of Trade, Whitehall-gardens, London; and that copies of the said notice, map, plan, and sections will also, on or before the said 30th day of November, 1892, be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the East Riding of the county of York, at his office, in Beverley.

And notice is hereby given, that printed copies of the draft Provisional Order can, after the 23rd day of December, 1892, be obtained at the offices of Messrs. Barlow and James, of 49, Lime-street, London, E.C., on payment of one shilling for each copy. Copies may also be obtained, after the date aforesaid, at the offices of the undermentioned Solicitor, in Beverley, on a like payment.

And notice is hereby given, that every Company, Corporation, or person desirous of making any representation to the Board of Trade, or of bringing before them any objection respecting the application may do so, by letter addressed to the Assistant Secretary, Railway Department, of the Board of Trade, on or before the 15th day of January next ensuing; and that copies of their objections must, at the same time, be sent to the Company, and that in forwarding to the Board of Trade such objections, the objectors or their Agents should state that a copy of the same has been forwarded to the said Company or their Agents.

And notice is hereby lastly given, that after the Provisional Order has been made by the Board of Trade printed copies thereof can be obtained at the abovementioned offices, at the charge of one shilling per copy, or such sum as the Board of Trade may direct.

Dated at Beverley this 28th day of October, 1892.

H. B. BROOMHEAD, Solicitor to the said Company.

The Metropolis Water Act, 1871.

The Local Government Act, 1888.

To the West Middlesex Waterworks Company.

THE London County Council, as the Metropolitan Authority within the meaning of section 8 of the Metropolis Water Act, 1871, being of opinion that there should be a constant supply of water in the districts hereinafter described, that is to say:—

(a.) A district wholly in the parish of St. Marylebone bounded on the north by a line commencing at the rear of the houses on the eastern side of Edgware-road, and passing along the northern side of the Marylebone-road to the corner of Stafford-street, and thence along the southern side of Marylebone-road to its junction with Gloucester-place; on the east by a line passing along the western side of Gloucester-place and Portman-square; on the south by a line passing along the southern side of Seymour-street to its junction with Great Cumberland-place; on the west by a line passing along the eastern side of Great Cumberland-place, the southern side of Upper George-street, the eastern side of Seymour-place, the southern side of Crawford-street and John-street, and thence at the rear of the houses on the eastern side of Edgware-road to the commencement of the boundary aforesaid.

(b.) A district bounded on the north by a line commencing on the north-east of St. John's Wood-road Station, and passing along the north side of the Regent's Canal to the collateral cut bridge at the end of avenue approaching Gloucester Gate of the Regent's Park; thence on the east by a line passing along the west side of the collateral cut to the north boundary of the Cavalry Barracks, thence to the west, as far as Albany-street, and at the rear of the houses on the west side of Albany-street, as far as Redhill-street; thence to the east along Redhill-street, as far as Little Edward-street, and by a line passing along the west side of that street, of Little Albany-street, and of the Frederick-mews to the north side of Osnaburgh-terrace, thence to the eastward as far as Osnaburgh-street, and by a line passing through the centre of that street to the Euston-road; on the south by a line passing westward along the rear of the houses on the south side of Marylebone-road, to a point at the rear of the houses on the east side of York-place; on the west by a line passing northward at the rear of the houses on the east side of Upper Baker-street to Allsop-place, and thence by the west side of Park-road to a point at the north end of Hill-street, thence to the west, and again by a line passing northward at the rear of the houses on the west side of Park-road, to the point on the north-east of St. John's Wood-road Station aforesaid, hereby makes application to you, the West Middlesex Waterworks Company, being the Company within the water limits in which such districts are situate, and requires you to give a constant supply of water in such districts upon and from the 1st day of March, 1893.

Dated this 25th day of October, 1892.

Sealed by order,
H. DE LA HOOKE,
Clerk of the Council.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named Saint Mary and Saint Philip's Chapel, situate at Fordingbridge, in the parish of Fordingbridge, in the county of Southampton, in the district of Fordingbridge, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 27th day of October, 1892, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of 6th and 7th Wm. 4, cap. 85.—Witness my hand this 27th day of October, 1892.

WM. J. CLAYTON, Deputy Superintendent Registrar.

In the Matter of Letters Patent, granted to David Joy, late of Barrow-in-Furness, in the county of Lancaster, but now of 17, Victoria-street, in the city of Westminster, Engineer, for the invention of "Improvements in steam engines," bearing date the 8th day of March, 1879. No. 929.

NOTICE is hereby given, that it is the intention of the said David Joy to present a petition to Her Majesty in Council, praying that the said Letters Patent may be extended for a further term. And notice is hereby further given, that on the 10th day of December, or on such subsequent day as the Judicial Committee of Her Majesty's Privy Council shall appoint for that purpose, application will be made to the said Committee that a time may be fixed for hearing the matter of the said petition, and any person desirous of being heard in opposition to the said petition must enter a caveat to that effect in the Privy Council Office, on or before the said 10th day of December next.—Dated this 21st day of October, 1892.
