CHAPTER L.

Interpretation of Statutes.

If any doubt shall arise with respect to the true intent and meaning of any part of the Statutes it shall be lawful for the Visitor on the application of the Master or of any of the Fellows to declare in writing the intent and meaning on the matter submitted to him, and the intent and meaning so declared shall be deemed the true intent and meaning thereof.

CHAPTER L1.

Preservation of Interests.

1. The interests and conditions of tenure of emolument of such of the Fellows as were elected or appointed before the date of the approval of these amended Statutes by the Queen in Council shall be regulated by the Statutes approved by the Queen on the third day of May 1882 as if these Statutes had remained unamended.

2. Provided that any such person may signify to the Master and Fellows within one year after the approval of these amended Statutes by the Queen in Council by writing under his hand that he wishes to be placed under the operation of these Statutes; and his interests and the conditions of tenure of his emolument shall be thenceforth governed by these Statutes and shall accordingly be the same as if these Statutes had been in operation at the date of his election or appointment to such emolument.

3. Provided also that if any Fellow placing himself under these Statutes has before placing himself under these Statutes served in any College or University office which under these Statutes confers any privilege as to tenure pension or otherwise the time of such past service shall count as time served in any such office under these Statutes.

4. Provided also that the past services of any Fellow placing himself under these Statutes who has bona fide performed duties equivalent to those of any such office as aforesaid although not at the time holding such office shall count as if they have been services in such office under these Statutes.

5. Provided also that any Fellow who at the time of placing himself under these Statutes holds any office which under these Statutes entitles the holder to retain his Fellowship notwithstanding lapse of time shall not so long as he continues to hold any such office vacate his Fellowship on the ground that he would at some former time have vacated his Fellowship by lapse of time if these Statutes had been then in force.

CHAPTER LII.

Repeal of former Statutes.

From and after the approval of these amended Statutes by the Queen in Council, all the Statutes of the College in force before that time shall be repealed, excepting the four Statutes for the conversion of Scholarships into Exhibitions, which were confirmed by the Queen in Council on the first day of August, 1860, and excepting so far as regards the interests and conditions of tenure of emoluments of any person who, before the date of the approval of these amended Statutes, was elected or appointed to a University or College emolument within the meaning of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877; but the repeal of the said Statutes shall not be taken to revive the provisions of any former Statutes of the College which were repealed by the said Statutes.
