War Office, November 3, 1896.

A DESPATCH and its Enclosure, of which the following are copies, have been received by the Secretary of State for War from the General Officer Commanding the Force in Egypt :—

DONGOLA EXPEDITIONARY FORCE.

From Major-General C. B. Knowles, C.B., Commanding in Egypt, to the Under Secretary of State for War, War Office, London, S.W.

Sir, Cairo, October 14, 1896.

(1.) I HAVE the honour to forward, for
No. 26791. D

the information of the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for War, the enclosed despatch from Major-General Sir Herbert Kitchener, K.C.M.G., C.B., Commanding the Dongola Expeditionary Force.

(2.) The Sirdar has very briefly alluded to the physical difficulties he had to encounter, but the admirable way in which they were overcome, speaks volumes for the skill and readiness of resource developed by those who served with him, and conducted so much to bringing the campaign to a satisfactory conclusion.

(3.) Sir Herbert Kitchener speaks very highly of the officers and men of the Army of Occupation who took part in the Expedition; and I can bear testimony with pleasure to the keenness shown by all ranks to get to the front on the commencement of the Expedition.

I have, &c.

(Signed) C. B. KNOWLES, Major-General, Commanding in Egypt.

Despatch from Major-General Sir H.H. Kitchener, K.C.M.G., C.B., dated Dongola, 30th September, 1896.

Sir, Dongola, September 30, 1896.

EARLY in March, it having been decided to reconquer the Dongola Province, I have the honour to submit a report on the operations consequent thereon, which have now been successfully completed, and I also beg to bring to your notice the names of those British officers and men who have specially distinguished themselves during the campaign.

I am also submitting to His Highness the Khedive the names of a number of officers and men of the Egyptian Army who have done similar good service.

Orders for the advance having been received, a column moved across the frontier on 18th March, and traversing the Batn el Haggar, occupied Akasha. The lines of communication were protected by various posts, and a screen of cavalry, camel corps, and local Arabs guarded
