Whitehall, August 19, 1897.

THE following Address of congratulation from the Archbishops and Bishops assembled at the Lambeth Conference has been laid before the Queen by the Right Honourable Sir Matthew White Ridley, Bart., Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department:—

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the Archbishops and Bishops gathered together at Lambeth from every part of Your Majesty's Dominions, from the United States of America and from mission fields in all quarters of the world, desire to approach Your Majesty with every expression of heartfelt rejoicing, that it has pleased Almighty God to vouchsafe to Your Majesty the wonderful blessings of the last Sixty Years. We further desire respectfully to express to Your Majesty our gratitude for the continued manifestation of Your Majesty's interest and sympathy in the great work of this Conference, namely the furtherance of true religion and the closer knitting together of the hearts of all men in deeper love for our Heavenly Father and for each other.

Nine years ago Your Majesty was graciously pleased to express an anxious desire to promote all measures that might tend to maintain the spirit of true religion, and to pray that our labours for the increase of Christian Faith might receive the Divine Blessing. This year Your Majesty has not only manifested the same gracious interest in the work of the Conference, but has been pleased to invite the members of the Conference to Windsor, and to give to them that encouragement which Your Majesty's presence never fails to impart.

That God may vouchsafe in fullest measure His Heavenly Blessing to Your Majesty and Your Royal House, and that a reign, alike beneficent and glorious, may by His Mercy be prolonged, is the earnest prayer of those who now subjoin their names to this Address:—

Whitehall, August 19, 1897.

THE following Addresses of Congratulation to the Queen on the occasion of Her Majesty having attained the Sixtieth Year of Her Reign, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir Matthew White Ridley, Bart., Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been laid before Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously:—

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the Justices of the Peace for the Liberty of Ripon, in the County of York, in Quarter Sessions assembled, present our humble and loyal duty to Your Majesty on the completion of the Sixtieth Year of Your Majesty's Reign.

We appreciate the many blessings and privileges which all classes of Your Majesty's subjects have derived during Your Majesty's long and beneficent Reign, and the increased advantages and prosperity which they enjoy.

We pray that Your Majesty may long be spared to rule over Your vast Dominions and Your loving and attached subjects.

Cornwall County Council.

At a Meeting of the County Council of the Administrative County of Cornwall, held at the Municipal-buildings of the City of Truro, on Tuesday, the 3rd day of August, 1897.

In the Chair: The Right Honourable the Earl of Mount-Edgumbe.

It is Resolved—THAT this Council, with the expression of its deepest devotion to Her Majesty's Person and Throne, desires to convey to the Queen its heartfelt Congratulations on this Sixtieth Year of Her Majesty's Reign, and to record its thankfulness for the happiness and prosperity which it has pleased God to grant to the Inhabitants of these Kingdoms and of the whole Empire during Her Majesty's Reign.

To Her Most Excellent Majesty VICTORIA
QUEEN of Great Britain and Ireland, Empress of India.

WE, Your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects and servants the President and Fellows of the Royal Historical Society of Great Britain, present our humble congratulations upon the completion of the Sixtieth Year of Your Majesty's Reign, an occasion unparalleled in the annals of this country.

Your Majesty's predecessors of famous memory were ever wont to show favour and encouragement to the study of history, and Your Majesty has been 'graciously pleased' to permit us to adopt the name and style of the Royal Historical Society, to become our Patron, and to grant to us Your Royal Charter of Incorporation.

The investigation of the ancient records of the Realm has, since Your Majesty came to the Throne, been pursued with a diligence and success unprecedented in any other period, and we humbly conceive that careful inquiry into the making of a nation, its conquests in peace and war, its treaties, colonization, enterprise, commerce, industry, political, social, and literary progress is calculated to enlighten the understanding as well as to raise the spirit of the people, and to make them thankful for greatness which their country has attained under the long and illustrious line of its Princes.

The records of Your Majesty's own most eventful Reign, the proudest no less than the most beneficent in all their story, are already written in the hearts of Your loving subjects of many nationalities in many climes, in the unique reputation which Your Majesty enjoys amongst Foreign Powers, and in the constantly growing prosperity of every portion of Your vast Empire.

We earnestly pray that Your Majesty may long be spared to watch over and direct that peaceful progress to which You have given so great a stimulus.

Mountstuart E. Grant Duff, President.

Ye Sette of Odd Volumes.
