FAIRS.

Alteration in Number of Days on which Fair is held.

RINGWOOD (HANTS).

WHEREAS a representation has been duly made to me as Secretary of State for the Home Department, by the Ringwood Rural District Council, that Fairs have been held twice a year in the town of Ringwood, viz., on the 10th July and 11th December in each year, but that it has become the custom to extend the Fairs to the 11th July and the 12th December respectively, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the duration of each of such Fairs should be limited to one day.

And whereas notice of the said representation, and of the time when I should take the same into consideration, has been duly published in pursuance of "The Fairs Act, 1873."

And whereas on such representation and consideration it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the duration of each of the said Fairs should be limited to one day.

Now therefore I, as the Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by "The Fairs Act 1873," do hereby order that the duration of the Fairs hitherto held in the town of Ringwood on the 10th and 11th July, and 11th and 12th December, respectively, shall be limited to one day in each case, namely, to the 10th July and the 11th December respectively.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 14th day of September, 1898.

M. W. Ridley.
