NOTICES TO MARINERS.

(Nos. 772 to 784 of the year 1899.)

[The bearings are magnetic, and those concerning the visibility of lights are given from seaward.]

No. 772.—ENGLAND—DOVER.

Pier Works Light-Vessel—Position Altered.

WITH reference to Notice to Mariners No. 716 of 1899, and previous Notices referring to the establishment of the Pier Works Light-vessel:—

Further notice is hereby given, that the Pier Works Light-vessel has now been moved to a position $5\frac{1}{2}$ cables from the end of the Admiralty Pier, and in line with the extension works.

Pier Works Light-vessel exhibits a flashing white light every thirty seconds of an intensity of 20,000 candles. The light-vessel carries a black globe at the masthead, and is painted green, with the words "Pier Works" in white letters on her sides.

Fog signal in Light-vessel.—During thick or foggy weather a reed horn will be sounded on board the light-vessel at intervals of ten seconds.

From the position of this light-vessel the Admiralty Pier Lighthouse bears about N. 70° W., distant $5\frac{1}{2}$ cables, and St. Mary's Church in the Castle N. 6° W.

Approximate position, lat. 51° 6 $\frac{1}{2}$ ' N., long. 1° 20' E.

The moorings extend from the light-vessel in the following directions:—

One anchor is placed E.N.E. about 2 cables from the light-vessel.

One anchor is placed W.S.W. about $1\frac{1}{2}$ cables from the light-vessel.

One anchor is placed S.S.E. about $1\frac{1}{2}$ cables from the light-vessel.

CAUTION.—Vessels should on no account anchor on, or near, the above lines of cables.

Pier and Extension Works Fog Signal.—During thick or foggy weather an explosive signal will be fired once every two minutes from as near the extremity of the works in progress (for the extension of the Admiralty Pier) as is practicable.

This will be in addition to the fog-bell now maintained near the lighthouse, which bell will be moved forward as the works progress.

A fog signal will be established on the end of the East Pier, which will probably be a bell.

Claremont Point—Reef Eastward of.

INFORMATION, dated 5th October, 1899, has been received from Commander J. F. Parry, Her Majesty's surveying-vessel "Dart," that a group of coral heads, having depths over them of 4½ to 5 fathoms exist nearly midway between Aye (i) and Eff (f) reefs, eastward of Claremont Point, inner route.

The shoalest head of 4½ fathoms is situated nearly in the centre of the group, and from it Eff (f) reef beacon bears S. 35° E., distant 3 miles, and Claremont Point S. 89° W.

Approximate position, lat. 14° 1' 0" S., long. 143° 49' 20" E.

From this shoal head the foul ground extends about 7½ cables to the north-westward and south-eastward, and 4½ cables to the north-eastward and south-westward. The depth between the heads varies from 7 to 10 fathoms, soft mud bottom.

The beacon on Aye reef is situated 1 cable northward of the southern extremity of the reef, and not in the position shown at present on the Chart.

Strathmore Rock—Non-Existence of.

INFORMATION, dated 17th October, 1899, has been received from Commander J. W. Combe, Her Majesty's surveying-vessel "Penguin," that an unsuccessful search had been made for the Strathmore Rock, reported to be situated about 12 or 15 miles north-westward of Point Cloates.

Deep water was found on the charted position of the reef, and there being a good swell rolling at the time any danger within 5 miles of the spot would have been indicated by breakers. Several Masters of steam-vessels who have navigated in this locality for years state that there is no danger anywhere near the assigned position of this rock.

The original report of this rock was received from Port Adelaide where the Master of the ketch "Strathmore" reported having struck on a rock about 12 miles north-westward of Point Cloates, carrying away a portion of the centre-board; it is also stated that the ketch touched at night.

As two other surveying-vessels have also passed over the position of this rock without finding any indication of it, its existence anywhere near the charted position or far from the shore is considered disproved, and it has in consequence been erased from the Admiralty Charts.

Approximate position, lat. 22° 33' S., long. 113° 29' E.

Vadsø, Svenoer, Oxø—Information on Lights.

THE Norwegian Government has given notice, dated 10th November, 1899, that a light would be established on Vadsø Mole Head, and also the following information respecting Svenoer and Oxø Lights:—

Vadsø Mole Light is white fixed, elevated 26 feet above high water, and visible from a distance of 6 miles.

Approximate position, lat. 70° 4' 20" N., long. 29° 44' 40" E.

It is exhibited annually from 10th November to 1st April.

Svenoer Light will be temporarily discontinued from 15th May to 20th July, 1900, after which date a more powerful light will be exhibited.

Approximate position, lat. 58° 58' N., long. 10° 9' E.

Oxø Light.—A new lighthouse, from which a white group flashing light every ten seconds will be shown, is being constructed to replace the present white fixed light. The new light will probably be exhibited in the autumn of 1900.

The new tower will obscure the present light over an arc of 11° when bearing about E.S.E.

Approximate position, lat. 58° 4' N., long. 8° 4' E.

In the County Court of Oxfordshire, holden at Oxford.

His Honour Judge Snagge.

In the Matter of the Oxford Chronicle Company, Limited, and in the Matter of the Companies (Memorandum of Association) Act, 1890.

NOTICE is hereby given that a Petition was on the 28th day of November, 1899, presented to the County Court of Oxfordshire, holden at Oxford, by the above named Company, to confirm a Special Resolution of the Company, duly passed at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the said Company held on the 23rd day of October, 1899, and subsequently unanimously confirmed at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the said Company held on the 8th day of November, 1899, and which resolution runs as follows:—"That the Memorandum of Association of the Company be altered by the substitution for Clause 3 thereof of a new clause in the following terms:—"The objects for which the Company is established are the following:—(a.) To print and publish a newspaper called "The Oxford Chronicle and Berks and Bucks Gazette," or such other newspaper or newspapers, periodical or periodicals, magazine or magazines, or other publications as the Company may determine, and carry on the business of Newspaper Proprietors, Printers, Publishers, Typefounders, Booksellers, Stationers and Advertising Agents, and to carry on any other businesses whether manufacturing or otherwise, which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or calculated directly or indirectly to enhance the value of, or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights. (b.) To acquire, or undertake the whole, or any part of, or any interest in the business, property or liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company. (c.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in or about to carry on or engage in any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being so conducted as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company. (d.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company. (e.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem directly or indirectly calculated to benefit this Company. (f.) Generally to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real or personal property, and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business, and in particular any land, buildings, easements, machinery, plant, and stock-in-trade. (g.) To construct, maintain, and alter any buildings or works necessary or convenient for the purposes of this Company. (h.) To borrow, or raise, or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all, or any, of the Company's property both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to redeem or pay off any such securities. (i.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required, upon such securities, and in such manner as may be from time to time determined, and to lend money to such persons and upon such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers and others having dealings with the Company, and to guarantee the performance of contracts by any such persons. (j.) To make, draw, accept and endorse bills of exchange and promissory notes, and other commercial instruments. (k.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking, or property of the Company, or any part thereof, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other Company having objects altogether, or in part, similar to those of this Company. (l.) To adopt such means of furthering the interests of the Company, or increasing the sale of any paper, periodical, magazine or other publication printed and published by the Company as may seem expedient, and in particular by the purchase and exhibition of works of art or interest, and the publication of books and periodicals and by granting prizes, awards, and donations. (m.) To acquire, establish, and undertake agencies and commercial and financial business of every kind relating to all or any of the purposes herein mentioned. (n.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company. (o.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and as principals, agents, contractors, trustees, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others. (p.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects." And notice is further given that the said petition is directed to be heard before His Honour Judge Snagge at the Oxford County Court at the County-hall, Oxford, on Thursday, the 21st day of December, 1899, at twelve o'clock at noon; and any person interested in the said Company, whether as creditor, shareholder, or otherwise, desirous to oppose the making of an Order for the confirmation of the said resolution under the above Act should appear at the time of hearing by himself or his Solicitor or Counsel for the purpose; and a copy of the said petition will be furnished to any such person requiring the same by the Company's Solicitor, Mr. Henry Frank Galpin, of No. 4, George-street Oxford, on payment of the regulated charge for the same.—Dated the 6th day of December, 1899.
