Africa bounded on the west by the boundaries of the Congo Free State and of Barotziland-North-Western Rhodesia, as defined in "The Barotziland-North-Western Rhodesia Order in limits of this Order shall be known as North-Eastern Rhodesia.

5. A Secretary of State may from time to time, by notice published in the "Gazette" and in the "London Gazette," declare that any parts of Africa north of the River Zambezi, and under the protection of Her Majesty, shall be included in the limits of this Order, and from the date of the publications of the Notice in the "Gazette" this Order shall apply to the parts named therein. A Secretary of State may from time to time, by the like notice, declare that any part of Africa for the time being within the limits of this Order shall, until otherwise directed, be excepted from the application of this Order; and from the date of the publication of such notice the part named therein shall be excluded from the limits of this Order.

6. The powers and authorities conferred by Her Majesty's "Africa Order in Council, 1889," shall continue in force within the limits of this Order concurrently with the powers conferred upon the Company by this Order, so far as not inconsistent with this Order, and where there is any conflict, this Order shall prevail. The powers conferred upon the Company by this Order are in augmentation of the powers conferred upon it by the Charter.

PART II.—Administration and Legislation.

7. The Company shall have and may exercise the general administration of affairs within the limits of this Order, in accordance with the terms of the Charter and the provisions of this Order.

8. The Company may exercise such administration by an officer styled the Administrator, and under him by such other officers as may from time to time be necessary. The Company shall appoint and pay the Administrator and all such officers; but shall obtain the approval of a Secretary of State before appointing any person to the office of Administrator. The salary of the Administrator shall be fixed by the Company, with the approval of a Secretary of State, and shall not be increased or diminished without his approval. The Administrator may be removed or suspended from office by a Secretary of State or by the Company, with the approval of a Secretary of State.

9. The Administrator may hold office, unless sooner removed, for three years from the date at which he enters upon the duties of his office; and, with the approval of a Secretary of State, may from time to time be reappointed for the further term of three years. At the end of any such term the Administrator may continue in office until reappointed or until his successor is appointed.

10. If at the end of any such term, or if on a vacancy in the office the Company does not within six months thereafter, with the approval of a Secretary of State, reappoint the Administrator or appoint his successor, a Secretary of State may appoint some person to be Administrator.

11. The Company, with the approval of a Secretary of State, may appoint some person to act as Administrator in the event of the death, removal, resignation, absence, incapacity, or suspension of the Administrator. When there is no Administrator or Acting Administrator within the limits of the Order capable of discharging the duties of the office, the Senior Judge may act as Administrator.

12. As soon as the Company, by resolution of its Board of Directors, declares that it is expedient that a Council should be appointed, there shall be a Council to assist the Administrator, consisting of the Senior Judge, ex officio, and not less than three other members appointed by the Company, with the approval of a Secretary of State. A member of the said Council shall hold office for three years, unless sooner removed by the Company, with the like approval, but shall be eligible for reappointment.

In the event of the resignation, suspension, or absence from North-Eastern Rhodesia or other incapacity of a member of the Council other than the Senior Judge, the Company may, with the approval of a Secretary of State, appoint some other person to fill the temporary vacancy thus caused.

Provided that in default of such appointment by the Company within a period of six months after a vacancy has arisen, a Secretary of State may appoint a person to fill the vacancy.

Every member appointed to fill any such temporary vacancy shall cease to be a member on the return to North-Eastern Rhodesia or the removal of the suspension or incapacity of the member in whose place he was appointed.

Every member of the Council shall, before taking his seat, take and subscribe before the Administrator or some other person authorised by him the following oath of allegiance:—

"I, A. B., do swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Victoria, Her heirs and successors according to law. So help me God."

But any person authorised by law to affirm or declare instead of taking an oath may make such affirmation or declaration in lieu of such oath.

13. The Council shall meet whenever summoned by the Administration, and shall be competent to discharge its functions notwithstanding the existence of one vacancy among its members, whether caused by a vacancy in the office of Senior Judge or of one of the other members. The Administrator shall preside at all meetings of the Council, and any two members with the Administrator shall form a quorum. All questions shall be decided by a majority of the votes of those present, and if the votes are equal the Administrator shall have a casting vote.

14. The Administrator shall take the advice of the Council upon all matters of importance affecting the administration of affairs within the limits of this Order, except in cases which are too urgent to admit of their advice being taken. In all such urgent cases he shall as soon as possible summon the Council and acquaint them with the action taken, and the reasons therefor.

15. The Administrator may act contrary to the advice of the Council, but in every such case he shall report the matter forthwith to the Company, with the reasons for his action. In every such case any Member of the Council who dissents may require that the reasons for this dissent be recorded and transmitted to the Company. The Company may reverse any action of the Administrator, whether taken with or without or against the advice of the Council.

16. It shall be lawful for the Administrator, and, after the Council has been constituted as provided by this Order, for the Administrator with the concurrence of the Council, to make, alter, and repeal Regulations for the administration of justice, the raising of revenue, and generally for the peace, order, and good government of all persons within the limits of this Order, provided that Regulations under this Article shall not be made affecting the constitution, government, or control of the military police forces. Such Regulations, when promulgated as hereinafter mentioned, shall take effect within the limits of this Order as if they were contained in this Order.

A Regulation made after the constitution of the Council shall not be valid unless two members of the Council beside the Administrator have concurred in it.

No regulation shall be valid unless the Commissioner has approved it, and it has been promulgated by being published in the "Gazette" by authority of the Commissioner with a notification of his approval.

The production of a copy of the "Gazette" in which a Regulation purports to be published by authority of the Commissioner shall be evidence of promulgation, and of the approval of the Commissioner, and of its having received the requisite concurrence of the Council.

The Commissioner shall sign every Regulation assented to by him, and shall, at the first convenient opportunity, transmit an authenticated copy of every such Regulation to the Secretary of State, and every such Regulation may be disallowed within one year from the taking effect thereof by a Secretary of State, either of his own motion or at the request of the Company, and every Regulation so disallowed shall become null and void so soon as the disallowance thereof shall be published in the "Gazette," but without prejudice to anything theretofore lawfully done thereunder.

17. The Commissioner may, from time to time by Regulations (to be called Queen's Regulations), provide for the administration of justice, the raising of revenue, and generally for the peace, order, and good government of all persons within the limits of this Order. Provided that the Commissioner, before issuing any such Regulations, shall, whenever possible, have regard to any suggestions or requests made to him in respect thereof by the Company, and that no Queen's Regulations concerning the raising or appropriation of revenue shall be made unless the assent of the Company has been previously given thereto. Such assent may be signified by telegraph.

All Queen's Regulations shall be published in the "Gazette," and shall, from and after the commencement thereof respectively, and thereafter until disallowed by Her Majesty, or repealed or modified by any subsequent Regulation or Queen's Regulations, have effect as if contained in this Order.

Her Majesty may disallow any Queen's Regulations, wholly or in part, and may signify such disallowance through a Secretary of State, and upon such disallowance being publicly notified by the Commissioner in the "Gazette," the provisions so disallowed shall, from and after a date to be mentioned in such notification, cease to have effect, but without prejudice to anything theretofore lawfully done thereunder.

The Commissioner, in issuing Queen's Regulations and in approving Regulations made by the Administrator under this Order, shall respect any native laws or customs by which the civil relations of any native Chiefs, tribes, or populations under Her Majesty's protection are now regulated, except so far as the same may be incompatible with the due exercise of Her Majesty's power and jurisdiction.

18. No customs duties levied on any articles produced or manufactured in any part of Her Majesty's dominions or in any British Protectorate and imported into North-Eastern Rhodesia shall exceed in amount the duties levied on such articles, according to the Tariff in force in the South African Customs Union at the date of the coming into operation of "The Southern Rhodesia Order in Council, 1898," or the Tariff contained in the Customs Union Convention, concluded between the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, the Orange Free State, and the Colony of Natal, in May, 1898, whichever shall be the higher.

19. Subject to the provisions of this Order a Regulation made by the Administrator may amend or repeal any Queen's Regulations.

If any Regulation is in any respect repugnant to the provisions of any Order in Council, such Regulation shall to the extent of such repugnancy be absolutely void.

PART III.—Police.

20. The military police forces shall be and remain under the direct control and authority of the Commissioner, and all officers and members of the said forces shall conform to and obey such orders and instructions as they may from time to time receive from the Commissioner, or from any person appointed by him to act on his behalf.

The foregoing provisions of this Article shall not apply to any civil police force which may be raised and constituted under any Regulations to be made by the Administrator under this Order.

PART IV.—Judicial.

21.—(1.) There shall be a Court of Record, styled the High Court of North-Eastern Rhodesia, with full jurisdiction, civil and criminal, over all persons and over all matters within North-Eastern Rhodesia, subject to the provisions hereinafter contained with regard to native law and custom.

(2.) Such civil and criminal jurisdiction shall, so far as circumstances admit, be exercised upon the principles of and in conformity with the substance of the law for the time being in force in and for England, and with the powers vested in and according to the course of procedure and practice observed by and before Courts of Justice and Justices of the Peace in England according to their respective jurisdictions and authorities, except so far as such law may be modified by any Order in Council, Regulation, or Queen's Regulation.

(3.) The High Court shall have a seal, bearing the style of the Court, and such device as a Secretary of State from time to time approves; but until such a seal is provided the seal of the Company may be used.

22. There shall be as many Judges of the High Court, to be paid by the Company, as from time to time may be required. Every Judge shall be appointed by a Secretary of State on the nomination of the Company, and shall hold office during good behaviour, and shall only be removed by a Secretary of State. The salaries of the Judges shall be fixed by the Company, with the approval of a Secretary of State, and shall not be increased or diminished without his approval.

23. Whenever the appointment of a Judge is necessary the Company shall nominate to a Secretary of State a fit and proper person for the office. If the Secretary of State does not approve of such person he shall so inform the Company, and the Company shall thereupon nominate another person, and so on toties quoties, but if the Company has not within six months from the date of the occurrence of a vacancy nominated some person whom the Secretary of State approves, the Secretary of State may appoint a person who has not been so nominated.

24. The High Court shall sit at such places as may from time to time be prescribed by the Administrator. The jurisdiction of the High Court may, until other arrangements are made under this Order, be exercised by any Judge thereof sitting alone.

25. If any sentence of death is pronounced by the High Court, a copy of the evidence shall be transmitted to the Commissioner; and the sentence shall not be carried into effect until confirmed by him. The Commissioner may signify his confirmation by telegraph.

26. The Commissioner may remit or commute, in whole or in part, any sentence of the High Court, and may signify such remission or commutation by telegraph.

27. The High Court may make Rules for regulating its procedure and practice and the admission of practitioners, and generally for the purpose of making any provision proper or necessary for the proper or effectual exercise of jurisdiction under this Order by the High Court, and the Magistrates' Courts hereafter mentioned and Rules affecting the conduct of civil suits shall be so framed as to secure as far as may be that cases shall be decided on their merits according to substantial justice without excessive regard to technicalities of pleading or procedure and without unnecessary delay. Subject hereto, and so far as the same do not extend, the procedure, Rules and Regulations of the High Court shall be the same as the procedure, Rules and Regulations of the English Courts.

28. In civil matters when the amount or value in dispute exceeds 500*l.* sterling, an appeal shall lie from the High Court to Her Majesty in Council.

Every appeal shall be brought within such time, and in such manner as regards the form and transmission of the appeal, as may be prescribed by any Rules of Procedure made by Her Majesty in Council.

29. There shall be Magistrates' Courts, with jurisdiction over all persons within the districts assigned to them. A Magistrate's Court shall be a Court of Record, and shall have such jurisdiction in civil and criminal cases respectively as may be prescribed in pursuance of this Order.

30.—(1.) The Administrator may from time to time determine the number of Magistrates' Courts required within North-Eastern Rhodesia, and, by notice in the "Gazette," from time to time assign to each such Court the local limits of the district within which it is to have jurisdiction, and specify the place or places at which the Court is to be held.

(2.) The Administrator, with the approval of the Commissioner, may appoint a Magistrate to each such Court, and, if occasion requires, any Assistant Magistrates.

(3.) Every Assistant Magistrate may exercise all the jurisdiction of the Court, and the provisions of this Order with respect to Magistrates shall apply to Assistant Magistrates; provided that, in the conduct of business, every Assistant Magistrate shall be subject to the directions of the Magistrate.

(4.) A Magistrate appointed to one Court may exercise the jurisdiction of any other Court if present therein.

(5.) The salaries of Magistrates shall be fixed by the Administrator with the approval of the Commissioner, and shall not be increased or diminished without his approval.

(6.) In the case of illness, absence, or other emergency the Administrator may appoint a competent person to act as Magistrate or Assistant Magistrate. He shall forthwith report every such appointment and the circumstances thereof to the Commissioner for his approval, and when the Commissioner disapproves any such appointment the person so appointed shall cease to act after notice of the disapproval has been received by the Administrator.

31. A Magistrate upon appointment may forthwith enter upon the duties of his office, but the appointment is subject to confirmation by a Secretary of State; if such confirmation is refused, the Commissioner shall give public notice thereof in the "Gazette," and thereupon the powers of the Magistrate shall cease. A Magistrate may at any time be removed from office by a Secretary of State, or by the Administrator, with the approval of a Secretary of State, but not otherwise.

32. A Magistrate on appointment shall, before exercising any of the functions of his office, in open Court take the following oath:—

I, A.B., do promise and swear that I will faithfully, impartially, and diligently execute to the best of my abilities the duties of the office of Magistrate. So help me God.

33. Subject to any Regulations and Rules of Court, appeals shall lie to the High Court from the Magistrates' Courts.

34.—(1.) The Commissioner may suspend a Judge or Magistrate from his office for misconduct, but shall first cause him to be furnished with a written statement of the acts of misconduct alleged against him, and cause him to be called on to state in writing by a given day (which shall allow a reasonable interval) any grounds upon which he relies to exculpate himself.

(2.) If the suspension takes place, the Commissioner shall forthwith transmit a full report of the matter, and the proofs of the alleged misconduct, to a Secretary of State, who may confirm or disallow the suspension.

(3.) If the suspension is confirmed, the suspended officer is thereby removed from office; if it is disallowed, the suspended officer is thereby restored to office, and is entitled to any salary that has been withheld during his suspension.

(4.) If the Secretary of State is of opinion that the officer deserves punishment, but not the extreme penalty of removal from office, he may, instead of disallowing the suspension, direct that the officer be restored to office, but be required to serve at a reduced salary, either permanently or for a stated period; or that a specific sum be deducted from any salary due or to become due to the officer; or that he be transferred to a lower office.

35. In civil cases between natives the High Court and the Magistrates' Courts shall be guided by native law so far as that law is not repugnant to natural justice or morality, or to any Order made by Her Majesty in Council, or to any Regulation made under this Order. In any such case the Court may obtain the assistance of one or two native assessors, to advise the Court upon native law and customs, but the decision of the Court shall be given by the Judge or Magistrate alone. In all other respects the Court shall follow, as far as possible, the procedure observed in similar cases in England.

36. If in any civil case between natives a question arises as to the effect of a marriage contracted, according to native law or custom, by a native in the lifetime of one or more other wives married to him according to native law or custom, the Court may treat such marriage as valid for all civil purposes, in so far as polygamous marriages are recognised by the said native law or custom.

37. The Commissioner by Queen's Regulations, or the Administrator by Regulation, may make such other or further provisions as from time to time may appear desirable to secure the more efficient working of the several Courts constituted by this Order.

PART V.—Native Administration.

38.—(1.) The Administrator may from time to time, with the approval of the Commissioner, subject to confirmation by a Secretary of State, appoint an officer to be called the Secretary for Native Affairs, and officers to be called Native Commissioners, and if occasion requires, Assistant Native Commissioners, and may, by notice in the "Gazette," prescribe the powers, duties, salaries, and districts to be assigned to such officers.

(2.) The provisions of this Order with respect to the appointment, salaries, suspension, and removal of Magistrates shall apply to the appointment, salaries, suspension, and removal of the Secretary for Native Affairs, Native Commissioners, and Assistant Native Commissioners, and any other persons employed in the administration of native affairs, and the Commissioner and a Secretary of State shall have and exercise the like powers with respect to these officers as under this Order are exercisable by them in the case of Magistrates.

(3.) The Commissioner may by Queen's Regulations confer upon any Native Commissioner or Assistant Native Commissioner such jurisdiction, not exceeding that exercisable by Magistrates, as may from time to time appear to him to be expedient.

39. No conditions, disabilities, or restrictions shall, without the previous consent of a Secretary of State, be imposed upon natives by Regulation which do not equally apply to persons other than natives, save in respect of firearms, ammunition, liquor, or any matter in respect of which a Secretary of State, upon the recommendation of the Administrator, thinks fit to authorise any Regulations or Queen's Regulations.

40. The Company shall from time to time assign to the natives inhabiting North-Eastern Rhodesia land sufficient for their occupation, whether as tribes or portions of tribes, and suitable for their agricultural and pastoral requirements, including in all cases a fair and equitable proportion of springs or permanent water.

41. All questions relating to the settlement of natives on the lands within North-Eastern Rhodesia shall be dealt with and decided by the Administrator, but all such decisions shall be reported to and be subject to review by the Commissioner.

42. A native may acquire, hold, encumber, and dispose of land on the same conditions as a person who is not a native, but no contract for encumbering or alienating land the property of a native shall be valid unless the contract is made in the presence of a Magistrate, is attested by him, and bears a certificate signed by him stating that the consideration for the contract is fair and reasonable, and that he has satisfied himself that the native understands the transaction.

43. The Company shall retain the mineral rights in all land assigned to natives. If the Company should require any such land for the purpose of mineral development, or as sites of townships, or for railways or other public works, the Administrator, by direction of the Company, and upon good and sufficient cause shown, may, with the approval of the Commissioner, order the natives to remove from such land or any portion thereof, and shall assign to them just and liberal compensation in land elsewhere, situate in as convenient a position as possible, sufficient and suitable for their agricultural and pastoral requirements, containing a fair and equitable proportion of springs or permanent water, and, as far as possible, equally suitable for their requirements in all respects as the land from which they are ordered to remove.

44.—(1.) No native shall be removed from any kraal or from any land assigned to them for occupation, except after full inquiry by, and by order of the Administrator approved by the Commissioner.

(2.) If any person without such order removes or attempts to remove any native from any kraal or from any land unless in execution of the process of a competent Court, he shall, in addition to any other proceeding to which he is liable, be guilty of an offence against this Order, and on conviction before the High Court shall be liable to imprisonment with or without hard labour for any period not exceeding two years, or to a fine not exceeding £100, or to both.

45. The Commissioner may, if he thinks fit, refer any question relating to natives for report to any Judge of the High Court, and the Judge shall thereupon make such inquiry as he thinks fit, and shall report to the Commissioner the result of such inquiry. The Commissioner may act with reference to any such report as he thinks fit.

46.—(1.) The Administrator shall, when so required by the Commissioner, appoint in any magisterial district a subordinate tribunal, to consist of the Magistrate, or any Assistant Magistrate, and two Assessors, from time to time selected by a Judge of the High Court upon the request of the Commissioner.

(2.) Such Tribunal shall report or make recommendations to the Commissioner upon all questions relating to natives referred to it by or by the direction of the Commissioner, or by any Judge to whom any question relating to natives has been referred by the Commissioner. The Commissioner may deal with any such reports or recommendations as he thinks fit.

47. In case of a revolt against the Company, or other misconduct committed by a native Chief or tribe, the Administrator may impose a reasonable fine upon the offender. The Administrator shall forthwith report every such case to the Commissioner, who may remit the fine in whole or in part; the Administrator shall give effect to any such remission.

48.—(1.) The Commissioner shall transmit to a Secretary of State a report upon every case relating to natives dealt with by him under this Part of this Order, together with copies of all reports and recommendations and all documents relating to such case, and a Secretary of State may review any case and reverse or modify any decision given or order made thereon, and may give such directions in the matter as he thinks fit, and due effect shall be given to such directions by all persons.

(2.) Provided that such directions shall only be binding where a Secretary of State has within twelve months after receiving the report of the Commissioner given notice to the Commissioner that he intends to review any such case.

PART VI.—Miscellaneous.

49.—(1.) Where the approval of a Secretary of State is required under this Order for the appointment of any officer, such officer may, upon appointment, enter upon and perform the duties of his office before such approval has been signified, but until approved or disapproved by a Secretary of State such appointment shall be regarded as provisional only.

(2.) If any such appointment is disapproved by a Secretary of State, the person so appointed shall cease to hold the office as soon as the signification of such disapproval is received by the Administrator, but without prejudice to anything lawfully done by him during his provisional appointment.

(3.) The Administrator shall forthwith report to the Commissioner, who shall report to a Secretary of State every such provisional appointment.

(4.) Notice of the disapproval of a Secretary of State shall be published in the "Gazette."

50. Judicial notice shall be taken of this Order and of the commencement thereof, and of any Regulation made under this Order and published in the "Gazette."

51. This Order shall be published in the "Gazette" and also at such public place within the limits of this Order as the Commissioner shall appoint.

This Order shall commence and have effect as follows:—

(1.) As to the making of any warrant or appointment, and as to the framing of any Regulations or Rules and the approval thereof, immediately from and after the passing of this Order.

(2.) As to all other matters and provisions comprised and contained in this Order, immediately from and after the expiration of one month after this Order is published in the "Gazette."

A. W. FitzRoy.

[In substitution for the Order in Council that was published in the London Gazette of the 5th January, 1900.]

At the Court at Windsor, the 27th day of December, 1899.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the thirtieth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of the Holy Trinity situate in Beauchamp-square in the parish of All Saints Leamington Priors in the county of Warwick and in the diocese of Worcester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of the Holy Trinity situate as aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend John James Stewart Bishop of the said diocese of Worcester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of All Saints Leamington Priors which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of the Holy Trinity situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of the Holy Trinity Leamington Priors.'

"And with the like consent of the said John James Stewart Bishop of the said diocese of Worcester (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of the Holy Trinity situate as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

THE Board of Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, the following copy of a Quarantine Notice issued by the Spanish Government, viz. :—

(Translation.)

New Sanitary Regulation.

Yesterday the new Sanitary arrangements came into force in our port.

In future instead of the Health Officers visiting the ships arriving at our port in their boat, it will be the Captains on board who will proceed in their boat to the Maritime Health Office. The boat will fly a yellow flag.

In the event of the ship having any sick person who might be the cause of an epidemic, the Captain will not disembark, but will hoist a yellow flag and underneath a red one, when the Health Authorities will arrange for the vessel to be put into quarantine.

It will be well then for consignees and merchant Captains to inform themselves of and put in practice these Regulations in order not to incur the corresponding fines as happened with the first ships which entered yesterday and did not know of the enforcement of the new Regulation. The new Health Regulations indicate the penalty incurred by the owners of boats mooring alongside, communicating with or receiving anything from a quarantine ship.

The fines vary from 15 to 150 pesetas.
