STATUTE to alter and amend the Statutes framed by the Commissioners appointed under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, 40 and 41, Vict. cap. 48, and approved by the Queen in Council on the third day of May one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two in relation to New College in the University of Oxford, in the matter of Residence of Probationer Fellows, such amending Statute being duly made at a General Meeting of the Governing Body of the said College specially summoned for this purpose, held on the twenty-first day of March one thousand nine hundred and passed by the unanimous votes of those present and voting.

For Statute III, clause 18, to substitute the following:—"18. Privy Council Office, May 15, 1900.

THE following Statute, made on the twelfth day of March, one thousand nine hundred, by the Governing Body of Pembroke College, Oxford, has been submitted for the approval of Her Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877":—

A STATUTE made by the Master and Fellows of Pembroke College, Oxford, in amendment of the Statutes made under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act of 1877.

Whereas by the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act of 1877, 40 and 41 Victoria, c. 48, sections 54 and 55, it is enacted that a Statute made by the Commissioners for a College shall be subject to alteration from time to time by Statute made by the College under this Act, the same being passed at a General Meeting of the Governing Body of the College, specially summoned for this purpose, by the votes of not less than two-thirds of the number of persons present and voting; and further that every such alteration of Statute shall be submitted to the Queen in Council, and be proceeded on and have effect as if it were a Statute made by the Commissioners.

Now therefore, we, the Master and Fellows of Pembroke College, in the University of Oxford, being the Governing Body of the said College, and being this day assembled in a General Meeting specially summoned for the purpose, after due notice given of the business to be transacted thereat, do, by the votes of all the persons present and voting, enact as follows, that is to say:—

In the Schedule, clause 2, after the words "two Exhibitions" we strike out the remaining words of the clause.

And in clause 3, after the word "Foundation" we strike out the remaining words of the clause.

And in clause 4 we strike out the word

"persons" and in lieu thereof we substitute the words "British subjects."

And at the end of clause 5 we add these words:—"Subject to the above provisions for a combined examination, it shall be lawful for the Master and Fellows, if the income from the endowment allow, to award further Exhibitions on King Charles the First's Foundation without such combined examination, and on such conditions as they shall from time to time determine."

And instead of clause 7, which we strike out, we substitute the three following clauses:—

7. The annual value of a King Charles the First's Scholarship shall be one hundred pounds, and of an Exhibition not less than fifty pounds.

But the Master and Fellows may increase the value of any Scholarship or Exhibition beyond the sum of one hundred pounds annually, in cases where the Scholarship or Exhibition has not been thrown open and where the recipient satisfies them that he requires and deserves further assistance at the University.

Such increase may be for one year or more and may in special cases be retrospective.

The annual value of Bishop Morley's Scholarship shall be not less than eighty pounds as the income of the Foundation shall allow and as the Master and Fellows shall from time to time determine.

8. When a King Charles the First's Scholarship, not being a Graduate Scholarship, or when an Exhibition or a Bishop Morley's Scholarship shall be vacant and no candidate shall offer himself qualified under clause 4 and deemed after examination by the Electors of sufficient merit for election, such Scholarship or Exhibition shall be thrown open for that turn.

9. Provided that a sum of two hundred and fifty pounds annually be reserved for the above-mentioned King Charles the First's Scholarships and Exhibitions, the Master and Fellows may award Graduate Scholarships on King Charles the First's Foundation to unmarried male British subjects born in Jersey or Guernsey, or in one of the Islands adjacent to them, or educated at Victoria College, Jersey, or at Elizabeth College, Guernsey, for two out of the three years last preceding their matriculation, who have either passed all examinations for the B.A. degree at Oxford or who have graduated in any University of the British Empire.

Such Scholars may be elected with or without examination, and upon such conditions as to work or research, or willingness to take work as a Lecturer or an officer of the College as the Master and Fellows may prescribe.

Such Graduate Scholarship shall not exceed one hundred and fifty pounds in annual value and shall be tenable in the first instance for two years.

But the Master and Fellows may re-elect such Scholar annually so that the whole of his tenure shall not last beyond five years.

Such Graduate Scholarship shall be vacated on marriage, or on acceptance of a similar Scholarship or a Fellowship at another College, or upon grave misconduct, or upon a resolution by the Master and Fellows that the conditions of tenure have not been complied with; and from their decision there shall be no appeal.

Given under our Common Seal this twelfth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand and nine hundred.

Privy Council Office, May 15, 1900.

THE following Statutes, made on the sixteenth day of March, one thousand nine hundred, by the Governing Body of Jesus College, Oxford, have been submitted for the approval of Her Majesty in Council, and notice of their having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877":—

Statutes to alter and amend the Statutes framed by the Commissioners appointed under "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877," 40 and 41 Victoria cap. 48, and approved by the Queen in Council on the third day of May one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two in relation to Jesus College in the University of Oxford, in particular the schedule relating to King Charles the First's Trust, such amending Statutes being duly made at a general meeting of the Governing Body of the said College specially summoned for this purpose held on the sixteenth day of March one thousand nine hundred, and passed by the unanimous vote of those present and voting, in accordance with section 54 of "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877."

Clause 2, line 5. For £80 read £100.

Add to clause 2. "In the case of any Scholar or Exhibitioner who after entering the College shall be proved to require and deserve further assistance at the University, the Principal and Fellows shall have power to increase the value of his Scholarship or Exhibition beyond the sums hereinbefore mentioned.

"If at the expiration of two years from the day of admission of a King Charles the First's Scholar or Exhibitioner, the Principal and Fellows are not sufficiently satisfied with the industry and good conduct of such Scholar or Exhibitioner to renew the tenure of his Scholarship or Exhibition for a further term of two years, they shall have power to make for him such provision as they shall see fit out of the amount receivable by the College on account of the Foundation of King Charles the First, and applied to the maintenance of King Charles the First's Scholarships and Exhibitions."

Clause 4, line 18. Omit "but they shall employ the emoluments of any vacant or suspended Scholarship, &c." to the end of clause 4.

Clause 5. Omit the existing clause, and read:—

"Whenever a King Charles the First's Scholarship or Exhibition shall be vacant, if no candidate shall offer himself duly qualified according to clause 3, or if such candidates shall offer themselves, and the electors shall not consider any one of them to be of sufficient merit for election as Scholar or Exhibitioner, the Scholarship or Exhibition shall be thrown open for that turn under the same regulations as apply to the Open Foundation Scholarships and Exhibitions, provided that the value of a Scholarship when so thrown open shall not exceed £80 per annum."

Clause 8. Add a new clause, and read:—

"The Principal and Fellows may out of the amount receivable by the College on account of the Foundation of King Charles the First, and applied to the maintenance of King Charles the First's Scholarships and Exhibitions, elect to a Graduate or Senior Scholarship, not exceeding in value £150 per annum, any person who was born in Jersey or Guernsey or in one of the islands adjacent to them or was educated either at Victoria College in Jersey or at Elizabeth College in Guernsey for at least two out of the three years next preceding his matriculation or who at the time of his leaving school was eligible for a King Charles the First's Scholarship, and who is also qualified for the degree of Bachelor of Arts in the University of Oxford, or is a student reading for the degree of Bachelor of Science or Bachelor of Letters in the University of Oxford. Such Scholarship shall be tenable in the first instance for two years, but the Principal and Fellows shall have power to renew the same for further periods, provided that the tenure of such Scholarship shall in no case exceed five years in all from the day of election. But no such Scholarship shall be awarded unless the amount devoted to Scholarships and Exhibitions tenable by Undergraduates as provided in clause 2 shall reach the sum of at least £250 per annum. The Principal and Fellows shall prescribe the conditions under which such Scholarship shall be held, and if a person holding such Scholarship shall be guilty of grave misconduct or shall fail to conform to the conditions under which his Scholarship is held, the Principal and Fellows shall have power to deprive him of such Scholarship without any right of appeal. In all cases such Scholarship shall be vacated on marriage."
